Wm. Colon, Post Master, and "The Union."

Colon's paper, The Union, established for the purpose of trying to Lie down all opposition to the political scoundrels who control its columns, is winning golden opinions from persons of like character.

Two weeks ago we made the following assertion:-"And the money offered us by Colon could not buy us to advocate the election of a man we could not think worthy the support of Democrats."

Colon, in the last Union, replies as follows. "Look at the facts of the campaign of '58. Lewis hoisted the State ticket, but finding that no money was being sent him, he went to Colon and requested him to write to Wm. A. Porter, the candidate for Judge, telling him that he (Lewis) must have some money. Colon wrote to Porter, but received no answer."

The whole truth would not have answered Colon's purposes, or he would have given it. But we shall give him the truth in a few words, and we challenge him to denv one word we say: -- Some three or four weeks before the election, Colon called on us, and stated that he had received from Philadelphia, a letter enclosing an article published in the Pennsylvanian, which Porter's friends desired to have published in the Globe, and that he was authorized to pay for its publication, if we declined to insert it without pay. During the day we examined the article, and informed Colon that we would not publish it at any price. About the same time, Colon asked us if we intended to print the State tickets. We replied that as we were not holding office under the party-and were under no obligations to the Porters, we would not print the tickets unless paid for. He then stated that Porter, when in town but a few days previous, had offered to leave money with a gentleman to pay for the printing of tickets-that the gentleman told Porter that it was customary here for printers to print the tickets for nothing, and that it was not necessary to leave money to pay for thembut that he (Colon) would write to Porter for ten dollars, (the sum we named,) and we should go on and print the tickets. After we had printed the tickets, we called on Colon to know whether Porter had sent the money. He replied that he had not received an answer-and to this day, neither Porter nor Colon has paid the bill-leaving us swindled out of an X in true Yankee style.

If the demanding of pay for printing tickets will justify a charge that we can be bought, then, all we have to say to Colon is, pay us the X and we will agree that you bought us.

Congress.-No Speaker yet. Many of the Members left Washington on Friday to spend the New Year with their families. It is generally believed that Sherman will, sooner or later, be elected. A challenge for a duel passed from Branch, of N. C., to Grow, of Pa., for words spoken in debate. Grow declined to accept. The difficulty has not been settled.

WE SEND GREETING.—The Globe commences the new year under the most favorable auspices. Although we have lost twenty-seven subscribers during the last three years, our list of patrons to-day, is larger than it has ever been, and is steadily on the increase.-This much we say that our friends may know that we are not being crushed out by the false accusations and insinuations of the mercenary whelps who scribble for the editorial columns of the Post Office organ, a paper partly owned by a Republican. The Globe shall continue to be what it has been: an independent Democratic paper-as free to censure wrong in our own party, as in any other; and as such it must stand or fall.

Facts would be a curiosity in your editorial columns—as much so as the value of any responsibility that might be found in the ranks of your little clique of puke politicians .-"Facts"! "Responsible"! Would'nt it be well for you to have your pure, unadulterated political smut machine endorsed by the Democracy of the county?

BENEVOLENCE. We do not think a person can evince a more benevolent trait of character than being moved at the distress and suffering of others, and furthermore, anxious to do all in their power to alleviate by every possible means luman suffering. In this view of the case, we do not know how the humane and benevolent can do an action more in accordance with their philanthropic views, than by calling the attention of their afflicted friends and acquaintances to the fact, that Dr. Settings. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Mid. has discovered a preparation, which is put to the fact, that Dr. S.THI S. HANCE, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Mid., has discovered a preparation, which is put up in the form of a pill, that has a specific action for curing Epilepsy, or falling fits, spasms, cramps, and all forms of nervous diseases. We might go on enumerating a number of others, until we had entirely filled up this column of our paper: but we think we have said sufficient column of our paper; but we think we have said sufficient to satisfy every person that the subject under considera-tion is one of vital importance to every one. The Harpers Ferry excitement is over, Old Brown is dead, or soon will be, quiet is again restored, and the citizens of Huntingdon are out of danger. The undersigned would therefore respectfully inform the citizens of this place and vicinity that he will be happy to wait on them at his old stand in the Diamond, (just where it used to be.) with choice groceries, confects, fruit, flour, &c., &c., all of which he will be pleased to exchange for cash or country produce at cash prices.

His old friends are always welcome and new ones invited.

He is also agent for T. H. Willson & Co.'s Premium Telegraph Fodder Cutter and Male's Combined Cider Mill and Corn Sheller. As labor saving and economical machines, they are invaluable, and farmers and others interested would do well to call and examine for themselves,
