WILMINGTON, Dol., Sept. 17, 1859.—Messrs. Evans & Wat SON, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen: -The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your Gentlemen:—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris & Garrert, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burgh, relat Saturday night, and although they had a stedge handner, cold chisels, drill and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of "Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a lade in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the Goor, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced op en. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at we, k on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

Yours, truly,

BAYNARD & JONES.

GREAT FIRE!-ANOTHER TRIUMPH!! KNONVILLE, Tenne-see, March 18th, 1859.
Megers, EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia: Mesers, EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia:

Gintlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the calamander Safe which I purchased of you in February, 1958, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storahous, tog ther with several others, was burned to the ground in March last.—The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for ix or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents where found to be in a perfect state, the books and the papers not being injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Sates to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Sufe to be made.

Huntingdon, Aug. 10, 1859.

The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least there are but lew of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article; but why should resort it is sicians prescribe it. Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergy men, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.
