Letter from our Ex-Reporter. PITTSBURGH Feb. 27, 1860.

Ma: Editor: -- Many moons have waxed and waned since I last wrote you over the non de plume of Ex-Reporter, and doubtless, many of your readers suppose that I have forgotten you entirely. But not so. When I started from home, I secretly resolved that I would write you a letter whilst in this city, and now I will endeavor, as far as my ability extends, to execute my purpose.

I arrived here at 2 o'clock, Saturday morning, and put up at the Mansion House, one of the best Hotels in the city, and under the auspices of George Aurentz, Esq., a clever, and obliging gentleman, who spares no pains to make his guests feel perfectly at home. and when combined with the attention of his gentlemanly clerks, no one can feel otherwise. His table is of the very best, and is furnished with almost every luxury the market affords. Should any of your friends have occasion to visit this place, I would recommend to their favorable consideration the Mansion House.

Since I first left Pittsburgh-almost eighteen months ago-many changes have taken place, passenger railways introduced and in been torn down and others erected in their us: stead. One of the finest buildings I ever saw, is one erected on Fifth street, between Wood and Market, where the Second Preshyterian Church used to stand. The building is five stories high, and the front is one mass ble business houses of almost every kind, from top to bottom.

Business is stagnant here at present. Several large establishments are only running about one-third of the time-just enough to keep the thing moving. However, the operatives appear to be in pretty good spirits, and inform me that they feel pretty sure settlement. that business will resume its former activity in the Spring. Such at least appears to be the general impression.

Party of this city, in regard to the Governorship and their nominee. The Commercial Journal, a rampant Opposition paper, refuses to support Andrew G. Curtin, the nominee of the late State Convention which met at Harrisburg on the 22nd, while the Gazette, another of the same stamp, goes in for him body and breeches. They are talking very cross to each other about it. The Opposition, in the city, as far as I can learn, have two favorites for the Presidency-Cameron nomince, while others assert he will not say they have no particular choice. SPITEFUL REVENCE.—The following singular occurrence is rumored as having taken place within the last few days: A young man residing in town, who has been a regular visitant at the residence of a young lady citizen, and whose attendance upon the same was understood as a prelude to an eventful proposal, was sitting by her side at the family tea-table on a late evening, when during the course of a rather jovial conversation, the mother of the lady turned upon him with the smiling question: "When are you and M- going to get married?" The gentlemen responded, with an appearance of great astonishment, that he had never entertained any such intention, and proceeded to joke upon the idea. The young lady immediately arose without a word, and went into a room adjoining, from whence she shortly returned, with a bottle of vitriol in her hand, and without a sylable or gesture of warning, dashed the terrible fluid into the unsuspecting face of him whom she had supposed her lover, shockingly disfiguring his features, instantly destroying the sight of one eye, and injuring its fellow hopelessly. This most barbarous result of a lover's disappointment is,

Secession of a Spiritualist.—The Spring-field Republican, in an article upon "Manifestations" and "Phenomena," says:

"Perhaps the most serious blow that Spiritualism has received, is the defection of Rev. T. L. Harris, lately the inspired poet of the new movement in this country, now a Swedenborgian minister, and at present lecturing against spiritualism in England. He does not deny the fact of possession, by spirits, but thinks they are spirits of a low order, both in intellect and virtue; that they are of the same class with the demons spo-ken of in the New Testament, and that they pass themselves for the spirits of the friends of those consulting them, or of distinguished men, in order the better to deceive and accomplish their destructive purposes. The effect of this possession Mr. Harris says he has felt in his own mind and person, and he describes it as most fearful. Only a few years ago it had such a hold of him that it gave a fixed rigidity to his muscles, and a terrible unearthly expression to his countenance. He had known many excellent and amiable persons under this influence to have their energies crushed, lose their appetites, be deprived of sleep, find their self control destroyed, and their bodies wasting away and their mind enfeebled, as if under some fell disease. Mr. Harris gave a shocking account of the moral influence of the doctrine he has just abandoned, and we have no doubt he greatly exaggerates it, with the zeal natural to a new convert."

Dr. Seth S. Hance, Baltimore, Md.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in relating a case of spasnus or fits, cured by your invaluable Pills. My brother, J. J. Ligon, has long been afflicted with this awful disease, He was first attacked while quite young. He would have one or two spasms at one attack at first; but as he grew older, they seemed to increase likewise. Up to the time he commenced taking your Pills, he had them very often and quite severe, prostrating him body and mind. His mind has suffered seriously; but now, I am happy to say, he is cured of those fits. He has enjoyed fine health for the last five months past. His mind has also returned to its original sprightliness. All this I take great pleasure in communicating, as it may be the means of directing others to the remedy that will cure them.
