The Magic Box.

A housekeeper's affairs had for a long time been becoming very much entangled, and the poor woman knew not what to do to get out of her difficulties.

After a time she bethought herself of a wise old hermit, who lived in the neighborhood, and to him she repaired for advice.-She related to him all her troubles, saying:

"Things go on badly enough; nothing prospers in doors or out; pray sir, can you not devise some remedy for my misfortune?" The hermit—a shrewd, rosy old man begged her to wait, and retiring to an inner chamber of his cell, after a short time he brought out a curious looking box, carefully

"Take this," said he, "and keep it for one year; but you must, three times a day and three times a night, carry it into the kitchen, the cellar and stable, and set it down in each corner. I answer for it, that shortly you will find things improve. But be sure, at the end of the year, to bring back the box. Now, farewell."

The good woman received the precious box with many thanks, and bore it carefully home. The next day, as she was carrying it into the cellar she met a servant who had been secretly drawing a pitcher of beer. As she went a little later into the kichen, she found a maid making a supper of omlets. In the stable, she discovered deep in mire, the best cow standing, and the horse uncurried, and hay instead of oats. So every day she discovered and corrected some new faults.

At the end of the year, she, faithful to her promise, carried the magic box back to the hermit, and besought him to allow her to keep it, as it had a most wonderful effect. "Only let me keep it one year longer, and

I am sure all will be remedied. The hermit smiled and replied, "I cannot allow you to keep the Lox, but the secret that is hidden within you shall have." He opened the box, and lo! it contained nothing but a slip of paper, on which was written this couplet:

"Would you thrive most prosperously, Yourself must every corner see."

Bor Doth the moon stay herself to lecture every dog that bayeth at her? Doth the lion turn aside to rend each cur that barketh at him? Do the stars cease to shine because the nightingales reprove them for their dimness? Doth the soul stop his course because of the officious cloud which veils it? Or doth the river stay because the willow dippeth its leaves on its waters? Ah, no; God's universe moves on, and if men will oppose it, it heeds them not. It is as God hath made it; it is working together for good, and it shall not be stayed by the censure nor moved on by the praise of man. Let your bows, my brethren, abide. Do not be in a hurry to set yourselves right. God will take care of you. Leave yourselves alone; only be valiant for the Lord God of Israel, be steadfast in the truth of Jesus and your bow shall abide .-

Prosperity is a blessing to the good, but a curse to the evil.

CALL AND EXAMINE SPECIMENS OF WORK, AT LEWIS' BOOK, STATIONERY & MUSIC STORE.

The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of our friends and customers, as well as the citizens of the town and country generally, to our new and extensive assortment of READY-MADE CLOTHING, consisting of every article of gentlemens' furnishing goods. We deem it unnecessary to make a newspaper flourish, being confident that a call and an examination of our goods, will satisfy all, that our goods are just what we recommend them to be, well made, of good material, and as cheap as the same quality of goods can be bought in the county of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as it is not the policy of honest men, to devive, but this much we will say, that we will guarantee to all who may favor us with their patronage, entire satisfaction as to quality, fit and price. Should gentlemen desire any particular kind or cut of clothing, not found in our stock, by leaving their measure, they can be accommodated at short notice. Call at the corner of the diamond, Long's new house.

RVANS & WAT-304 CHESTNUL STREET, PHILADELPHIA. ANOTHER TRIUMPH!

contents of a Salamander Safe, of Evans & Watson, after being exposed to a strong fire on the Fair Grounds for eight hours, respectfully represent—

That after seven cords of oak wood and three of pine had been consumed around the Safe, it was opened in the presence of the committee, and the contents taken out, a little warmed, but not even scorched.

Several Silver Medals heretofore received by the manufacturers, and a large quantity of documents were in the Safe, and came out entirely uninjured.

The experiment satisfied us of the capacity of Safes of this kind to protect contents from any fire to which they STILL ANOTHER.

Wimington, Del., Sept. 17, 1839.—Messes, Evans & Wat son, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:—The Salamander The-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris & Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars fast Saturday night, and although they had a sledge hammer, celd chisels, drill and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of "Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

Yours, Iruly.

GREAT FIRE!-ANOTHER TRIUMPH!!

GREAT FIRE!—ANOTHER TRIUMPH!!

KNOXVILE. Tennessee, March 13th, 1859.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia:

Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe which I purchased of you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storchouse, together with several others, was burned to the ground in March last.—The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents where found to be in a perfect state, the books and the papers not being injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.

TEDICAL SCIENCE.

The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DE-BILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimeny to support it as Hoodand's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it, Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of tulent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your reason, to men, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M, Jackson, No. 41S Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wramper of each hottle. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle. May 11, 1859-1y.
