LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Locals in Brief.—A Mexican dog belong. ing to E. C. Summers, was killed on Sunday morning last, by the Express train going

Rev. S. L. M. Conser, preached his first sermon in the Methodist Church of this place, on Sunday morning last. Judging from his discourse, we would take him to be a good logician and an able minister.

Two slight fires occurred in the back streets last week. Fortunately, they were discovered befere any serious damage had been done. Judge Taylor is having the dirt piles removed from the streets.

Court commences on the 9th of April.-Our friends will always find the latch-string of our door on the outside. Don't forget to call and see us.

Our merchants are returning from the city with their spring stock of new goods.

We are having a second edition of winter just now. The atmosphere is raw and cold. Colds and coughs appear to be the prevailing | the soul of wit." epidemic; however, there is consolation in the fact that mild April follows.

See Isaac Wolverton's advertisement. He strength, and in co-operation success. has the reputation of being able to make a good pump.

House-keeners in want of window shades should call at Lewis' Book Store. A fine assortment of oil cloth, muslin and paper just received. Also, fixtures, tassels, cords and a certain indication of their literary fidelity-

Robert King has just arrived from the city with a handsome assortment of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, which he will make up to order in the most fashionable style. Call and see his goods, if you want a handsome Spring or Summer "rig."

Dr. Locke will be in town during first week of April Court.

No very material change in the markets since our last issue.

MATRIMONIAL.-Last week we noticed the fact of there being sixty marriageable ladies on Hill street. A lady friend, who signs herself "One of the Sixty," sends us the following, which we fully concur in-with one exception. She says "some enterprising young man," &c.; but we would have the lady remember that we said "a friend of ours," &c. It might have been a lady friend, or it might not, who knows; however, we'll not quarrel about that. It would be well if some of our young men would take the remarks of the lady home to themselves, for she tells more truth than is generally contained in so many the design of our creation? why not cultilines. But hear her, she talks like a book:

Mr. Editor.—Some enterprising young man has taken the trouble to count the marriageable girls on Hill street, and declares their number to be sixty. With these we have nothing to do, we are perfectly satisfied to class ourselves among them. It is the sterner sex we have to deal with.

In our little town we muster some thirty young men. We do not say that all of this number are not MARRIAGEABLE, but how many would make desirable companions for life, is a question not so easily answered. We ask this simple question, How many of these sixty girls would have the courage, boldness, strength of mind and missionary or self-sacrificing spirit, to undertake the reformation of some of these so styled "Lords of Creation? Would it not require some nerve? In conclusion, will the young man who takes such a moving interest in the Hill street girls, please forward his name, so that we can exercise our leap year privileges, and wait on him in a body, (and if the height of his matrimonial desires does not culminate in a fortune rather than a lady,) see what capital he considers necessary to taking a partner-sure in his firm. With one voice, we sixty girls declare ourselves for the "Union." ONE OF THE SIXTY.

Mr. Lewis:-It has been stated that Rev. S. H. Reid will be a candidate for the office of County Superintendent the next term .-Again, it is reported that he is not and will not be; and that other parties are making use of his name for effect. Will you tell us how this is? We think we have some good material for the office in Morris, but if Mr. Reid will be a candidate, he will find no competitors in this corner. Mr. Reid has recently been a teacher of a Seminary in this township, and he was successful. Would not he be the man for the present situation of affairs, as there is much discord at work? Morris.

Note.—In answer to the above we will say, Mr. Reid has consented to let his name be used by his friends, and, if elected, he will give his time and attention to the school in-

Teacher's Examination.—An examination of teachers-applicants for schools in this borough, will be held at the public school house on Saturday next.

Broke Jail .- William Gates, (whom we notice in another place,) Doctor Thomas, - Black from Mill Creek, and a fellow from above McAlevy's Fort, made their escape from the jail, on Monday night, by boring through the ceiling of their room with an auger, by means of which they escaped to the garret, then through the trap door, to the roof and from the roof to the wall, where they jumped to the ground and made good their escape. Up to the time of going to press, no traces of the fugitives have been Borough Election.—On next Monday the annual borough election will be held. One burgess, three councilmen, two supervisors, and a high constable are to be chosen. If our citizens desire competent and efficient officers, let them see that such men are placed upon the ticket. It is too late to complain after the election is over.

The "Ladies's Social Circle," of Mechanicsville, gave, on Monday evening last, another public entertainment. The whole performance was creditable and highly interesting, at the close of which, Mr. Anderson, teacher of Mechanicsville school, favored us with an eloquent and timely lecture, (subject; Language,) for which he received the warmest thanks of the "Circle." We understand that the ladies are about to solicit a copy of said lecture for publication, and we hope that Mr. Anderson will not decline their re-

We feel under obligations to the "Circle" for the privilege granted us from time to time, of attending their select performances; and can truly say that we are proud to see them manifest such an enterprising spirit and such untiring zeal in the acquisition of social qualities and literary accomplishments. A neglect to cultivate such qualities has, certainly, hitherto, been a great detriment to society.-And since all nature combines to impress upon us the fact that we are designed to be intellectual, social and happy, why not meet vate a spirit of unaffected and social friendship, and acquire learning sanctified by the presence and spirit of piety? Remember that "he only lives in fame who dies in virtue's cause." Let this be accomplished, and the future will reveal a revolution in society and a complete triumph in literature.

EXCELSIOR.

What Will Our Delegates Do?

John B. Bratton, Esq., the able editor of the Carlisle Tolunteer, a paper that has consistently defended the course of the National Administration, in an article calling the attention of his readers to the speech of Judge

"Speaking of Judge Douglas, reminds us that the National Convention is rapidly approaching, when a candidate for the Presidency is to be selected. Judge Douglas will be warmly urged for the nomination by his thousands of enthusiastic friends. What the Pennsylvania delegation will do at Charleston, we know not. A number of the delegates we know to be Douglas men; some are for Mr. Breckenridge, Gen. Lane, and others. If, however, the delegates from this State find when they arrive at Charleston, that Judge Douglas is the choice of the Western, the New England and nearly all the Northern, as well as a number of the Southern States. it will be their duty to fall in with the prevailing sentiment, and give him the vote of the State. We sincerely hope the delegates from Pennsylvania (all of whom are honorable men and good Democrats) will, on taking their seats in the National Convention, forget all former disputes, and do the best they can for the party. Let them imitate the example of the Reading Convention, and all will be well. So mote it be."

AN ITEM OF POLITICAL HISTORY.-Hon, Orlando B. Ficklin, M. C., from Illinois, in a letter written to Mr. Colquitt, of Georgia, thus alludes to an item of political history: "At the Cincinnati Convention, in 1856, the Hon. Jacob Thompson, Secretary of the Interior, presented to the Committee on Resolutions a resolution announcing the doctrine MURDER .- William Gates, son of Peter that the Constitution carried slavery into the Territories, which, after discussion, was rejected. Some of the members of the committee from the South, though holding that doctrine themselves, took the ground that, as they had been beaten upon it at home, it was not proper or generous to attempt to force it upon the free States; and, instead, the committee embodied in the platform the doctrine ference by Congress with slavery in State and Territory or in the District of Columbia,

REASON AND COMMON SENSE.

Our readers may remember we have on several occasions spoken in very culogistic terms of a preparation more, Md., has discovered for the cure of Epileptic Fits. Now, in doing so, we have been actuated by the very best motives, viz: the alleviation of human suffering. From circumstances which have lately come to our knowledge, we fear there is a certain class of persons who are not disposed to try this remedy in a common sense manner. We allude to the fact of selecting a particular case in a town allude to the fact of selecting a particular case in a town where perhaps there are six or eight cases, and trying it on one case. Now, perhaps the case selected might be the only one of the whole number that it would not cure.—
This is neither doing themselves nor the medicine justice.
If a dozen persons were stricken down with cholera in one town or neighborhood, would they all send for a physiciau, or would only one employ him, and wait and see if he cured the first patient? That plan of procedure would be most absurd. So in the case of Dr. Hance's remedy, every one who has fits should try it for a reasonable be most absurd. So in the case of Dr. Hance's remedy, every one who has Fits should try it for a reasonable length of time. It will not cure in a day or a week, nothing worth doing can be accomplished at once. What is easily done, is as easily undone. The growth of time is enduring. From the most respectable testimony we have examined, we feel assured that by a proper perseverance in this remedy, nine cases of Epilepsy out of ten may be cured. The Pills are sent by mail free of postage to any part of the world. Price: one box $3; two $5; twelve $24. You will find the address above.

DR. JOHN LOCKE having opened an office in Huntingdon for the purpose of practicing in the line of his profession, where he may be found the first Monday of March. (5th day.) to spend the week.

Dr. LOCKE would say to those in need of the services of a dentist that he has spared no time or expense in acquiring a thorough knowledge of his profession in all its various branches; add to this the fact that he has had fifteen years experience in actual practice, and can safely fifteen years experience in actual practice, and can safely assert that he is prepared to give the best advice and render the most satisfactory service that can be expected of any dentist.

Proper advice, with a little attention to the natural teeth, will often save the patient much suffering and expense.

Dr. L. would say to those who have been unfortunate in their selection of a dentist, and consequently find their mouths in an unhealthy condition, or filled with artificial teeth badly adapted, that they should lose no time in calling on a dentist qualified to remedy the evil.

To those who have not their work done yet, he would say be careful in your selection of a Dentist, and save yourselves the pain and expense of the experiments of those not qualified to practice.

Dr. L. has the honor of referring to the following from the faculty, and would respectfully refer to all persons for whom he has operated:

This is to certify that John Locke is a regular graduate of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery; that after at-

This is to certify that John Locke is a regular graduate of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery; that after attending two full courses of lectures in said Institution, he was unanimously voted, after a trial examination, worthy of the highest honor of the College by the faculty.

In addition to this testimony of qualifications in his profession, it gives us pleasure to state his habits of study, attention and punctuality, and therefore cordially commend Dr. Locke as a safe, skillful and faithful practitioner to all those who may entrust him with the management to all those who may entrust him with the management
