It is vain to talk about the equality of the sexes-they are not equal. The smile or tear of a woman conquers man.

HE is of noble structure—cast in honor's mould, and acts his part right well on this vast stage of life-who speaks not to deceive, nor listens to betrav.

A LADY of uppertendom was some time back greatly shocked on reading that male and female strawberry plants are frequently found occupying the same bed.

LAMB once said to a brother whist player, Martin Burney, whose hands were none of the cleanest, "Martin, if dirt was trumps, what a hand you would have."

CONUNDRUM.-Why is a woman like a steamboat? We suppose it is because it costs a fortune to rig her, and because a man is liable to get blown up at any time.

"I DIDN'T say, yer honor, that the defendant was intoxicated—no, not by any means! But this I will say, when last I saw him he was washing his face in a mud-puddle and drying it on the door mat."

SAID Tom, "Since I have been abroad I have eaten so much pork, that I am ashamed to look a pig in the face!" "I s'pose, sir, then," said a wag who was present, "you shave without a glass."

LISTEN to what a Western editor says about this time: "Wood, chips, coke, coal, corncobs, feathers, rosin, sawdust, shavings, splinters, dry leaves, old rags, fence rails, barn doors, flints or anything that will burn or strike fire, taken on subscription at this of-

A LADY went to the circus the other day and was much embarrassed lest her classleader should hear of her being there. The leader was very much embarrassed in finding her there.

A word to the boy who expects to be President of the United States in A. D. 1900refuse all instruction concerning the points of the compass-since it is absoulutely necessary that you should know no North, no South, no East, no West!

A MOTHER was instructing her daughter in duty of prayer, and the sure answers given to believers, and proceeded to repeat the Lord's prayer. When she came to the clause, "Give us this day our daily bread," the little one broke out with, "Oh, mother, say cake,

"MA," said a little girl to her mother, "do the men want to get married as much as the women do?" "Pshaw! what are you talking about?" "Why ma, the women who come here are always talking about getting married, and the men don't do so."

A MARRIED woman was telling a staid single lady somewhat on the wrong side of fifty, of some domestic troubles, which she in great part attributed to the irregularities of her husband. "Well," said the old maid, "you have brought these troubles on yourself. I told you not to marry him. I was sure he would not make you a good husband."—
"He is not a good one, to be sure, madam," replied the woman, "but he is better than none."

An Irishman maintained, in company, that the sun did not make his revolution round the earth. "But how then," said one to him " is it possible that, having reached the west, where he sets, he can be seen to rise in the east, if he did not pass underneath the globe?" "How puzzled ye are," replied Pat; "he returns the same way; if it be not perceived, it is on account of his coming back by night."

DEAL gently with those who stray. Draw back by love and persuasion. A kiss is worth a thousand kicks. A kind word is more valuable to the lost than a mine of gold. Think of this and be on your guard, ye who would chase to the grave an erring brother.

MARRY, YOUNG MAN, MARRY.-Rev. M. Dow, once closed a discourse as singular for its quaintness as practical in its advice:

I want you, my young sinners, to kiss and get married, and devote your time to mortality and money making. Then let your homes be provided with such comforts and necessaries as piety, pickles, pots and ketties, brushes, brooms, benevolence, bread, virtues, wine and wisdom. Have these always on hand, and happiness will be with you. Do not drink anything intoxicating, eat moderately, go about business after breakfast, lounge a little after dinner, chat after tea, and kiss after quarreling. Then all the joy, the peace, and bliss the earth can afford shall be yours until the grave closes over you, and your spirits are borne to a brighter and happier world.

of the town and country generally, to our new and exten sive assortment of READY-MADE CLOTHING, the tree of liberty. How beautiful, and yet how difficult for poor mortals to grasp it.

"Mother," said a little chap, "what is this word, is it Valentines?"

"No, no," said the knowing mother, "it's Valentiners; here you have been going to school for six months, and you can't give the right pronuncification to words yet!"

In the town and country generally, to our new and exten sive assortment of READY-MADE CLOTHING, consisting of every article of gentlemens' furnishing goods. We deem it unnecessary to make a newspaper flourish, being confident that a call and an examination of our goods, will satisfy all, that our goods are just what we recommend them to be, well made, of good material, and as cheap as the same quality of goods can be bought in the country of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as it is not the policy of honest men, to deceive, but this much we will say, that we will guarantee to all who may favor us with their patronage, entire satisfaction as to quality, the and price. Should gentlemen desire any particular kind or cut of clothing, not found in our stock, by leaving their measure, they can be accommodated at short notice. Sept. 21, 1850. TYANS & WAT-SAFES, 304 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA. ANOTHER TRIUMPH!

Philadelphia, Sept. 20, 1850.

To the President of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society:—The subscribers, your committee to examine the contents of a Salamander Safe, of Evans & Watson, after being exposed to a strong fire on the Fair Grounds for eight hours, respectfully represent—

That after seven coulds of oak wood and three of pine had been consumed around the Sate, it was opened in the presence of the committee, and the contents taken out, a little warmed, but not even scorched.
Several Silver Medals heretofore received by the manufacturers, and a large quantity of documents were in the Safa, and came out entirely uninjured.

The experiment satisfied us of the capacity of Safes of this kind to protect contents from any fire to which they may be exposed.

The Committee awarded a Diploma and Silver Medal.

GREAT FIRE!—ANOTHER TRIUMPH!!

KNOXVILLE, Tennessee, March 13th, 1859.
Messrs, EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia:
Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe which I purchased of you in February, 1838, proved to be what you recommended it— a sure protection from fire. My storehouse, together with several others, was burned to the ground in March last.— The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents where found to be in a perfect state, the books and the papers not being injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Sales to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.

TEDICAL SCIENCE. The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BIT-the most remarkable medicine of the d /, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DE-BILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The discass to which these Ditters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the ving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimeny to support it as Hoofland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it. Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M, Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.
