

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, April 18, 1860.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

LOCALS IN BRIEF.—It will be seen by advertisements in another column, that the old partnership of Fisher & McMurtrie has been dissolved, and a new one formed by Fisher & Son. "Rash" is a first class business man, there being but few, if any of his age, his equals in the country.

Our old friend and fellow-citizen, Maj. D. McMurtrie, has retired from active business. For many years he has been very successful in storing up this world's treasure, and can now afford to lie idly by and watch the exertions of the rest of mankind to make an honest and comfortable living, or scratch out a miserable existence.

D. P. Gwin's spring advertisements may be found in another column. He has been fortunate in making his selection of goods.—Give him a call and examine for yourselves.

Fisher & Son's new advertisements will be found in to-day's Globe. Rash has made a fine selection of goods for customers. Call and see for yourselves.

Rev. Reid, of the German Reformed church of this place, preached one of the best sermons on Sunday morning last, we have listened to for a long time. His text was—"For I am determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." It was truly, in our opinion, a masterly production, and one worthy the reverend gentleman.

The Union Daily Prayer Meetings still continue in successful operation in the Court House.

Rev. Guyer, P. E., delivered an eloquent discourse in the Methodist church of this place, on Sabbath evening last.

A quarterly meeting is going on in McConelestown, under the supervision of Rev. Conser, of this place, and others.

Our Hoosier correspondent says there is a glorious chance out in his part of Uncle Sam's dominion, for the Hill street girls, if they want partners. He says, "only emigrate, and they will find comfortable quarters for you." Don't go, girls.

The Pennsylvania Central and Broad Top Railroads changed schedules on Monday last. For the arrival and departure of trains at this place, consult our advertising columns.

The string band will consider our best bow made, for the serenade on Thursday night last. The music was sweet and melodious. Call soon again.

We are gratified to learn that there is a steady increase demand for Broad Top Coal. On Friday last but a few pounds short of eight hundred tons came down from the mines, and almost every day from five to seven hundred tons.

There is not a very strong attendance at Court this week.

The bill which passed the House, to take from this county parts of Dublin and Springfield townships, did not get through the Senate.

Last week we noticed farmers leaving town with hundreds of young fruit trees, purchased from strangers and our own nursery men. All right—they can't buy too many of a good fruit.

Poor people and printers can live—potatoes are plenty, and selling for 31 cents a bushel.

Our musical friend Geissinger, has retired from the hardware business. We wish him success in whatever business he may go into.

Col. R. F. Haslet offers for rent his large hotel, and his furniture for sale. See his advertisement.

Ezekiel White has been appointed Post Master at Coalmont, vice Samuel Brooks, resigned.

A new Boot and Shoe Store has been opened in the Diamond by Mr. George Schaefer. He has a good stock on hand waiting customers. See his advertisement.

Beautiful, the oil paintings in Prof. Roosen's room. The fruit is early, nevertheless, it is perfect. Several young ladies are now taking lessons.

A GOOD RULE.—The editor of the Independent Phoenix adheres to a good rule, and we adopt it. The editor says:—Our rule is, and will continue to be, to insert nothing simply to oblige any man. If anything we choose to print may so oblige any one, it must be our own act, done in our own way, at our own time. If an article is sent to us for publication, we give it respectful attention, and if we find that it obliges ourselves as well as the general reader—that is, productive of some general or particular good—it goes in when room can be found for it. On the other hand, if anybody desires to be personally obliged by the insertion of anything, he is referred at once to our broad advertising columns, where he can be "obliged" to his heart's content at the usual prices.

We beg to remind all that this is our rule, that none may forget it. And so beg further to say, that if editors would generally pursue the same course, they would be much more respected by the community, however much they might be complained of by selfish individuals and aspiring politicians.

THANKS.—Our (the local's) amiable friend, Major Garretson of the Bank, will consider our beaver slightly elevated and our best and most graceful bow made, and we tender him our unfeigned thanks for the delicious cakes he presented to us yesterday morning. The Major is a clever, whole-souled fellow, and we know how to appreciate a present from him. We thank you again, Major.

THE LOAFER.—The most miserable, hopeless scrap of humanity, is an idle man—a man whose chief aim of life is to "loaf"—to waste in listless lounging and mental and physical inaction, the best years of his life. There are a number of such beings here and in every other town—miserable loafers, whose sole occupation is to avoid employment of any kind—whose lives can scarcely be called lives—who die one after another, and leave behind them—what? A vacancy to be mourned? No, for they are in themselves vacancies, not men. To these atoms society owes nothing. The history of the world's progress ignores their names, their existence, and being dead, the grave contains no more inert, worthless earth than it did before. They become chronic nuisances; they have no local habitation or name in so far as regards their worth or value, and from day to day, in the haunts of busy men, they pass current as uncurrent funds—at so much of a discount that they can't even buy themselves. The only apparent exertion they exhibit is that which enables them to be eternally in somebody's way, to the great hindrance of that somebody's progress and business. They never do any special harm and never accomplish any good. They die only when they get too lazy and indolent to use their respiratory organs. They never get the consumption, because they haven't energy enough to cough. They give employment to nobody, for they have none for themselves. It costs more to get them to the polls to deposit their votes, than their votes, carcasses and the entire election are worth. From these, and such as these, may Fortune preserve all well-meaning mortals.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—A meeting of the Huntingdon County Agricultural Society was held in the Court House, in Huntingdon, on Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., the room having been otherwise occupied during the evening of its regular appointment, and in the absence of the President, was organized by the appointment of Gen. F. H. Lane as President pro tem.

The minutes of last session were read by the Secretary, corrected and adopted.

The Committee appointed at the last regular meeting, to "take into consideration the best means of promoting the future interest and advancement of the Society," provide for the reduction of expenses, secure by subscription an appropriation for the benefit of the Society, take into consideration the propriety of holding a Fair during the coming fall, prepare a premium list for the same, &c., reported progress, and were, on motion, continued.

A premium list, as amended by the Committee, was presented and adopted, subject to further amendment at the next meeting.

On motion, Society then adjourned to meet in the Court House, on Thursday evening of the first week of the August Court.

F. H. LANE, Pres't pro tem.

R. McDevitt, Secretary.

J. F. RAMEY, Secretary.

PAPERING ROOMS.—The Scientific American remarks that many lives have been lost from the laziness or ignorance of paper hangers, who have laid one paper above another, instead of tearing off the old before hanging the new. There was a very handsome house near one of our best provincial towns, which could never keep its tenants. A ready-witted observer promised the owner to find out the cause. He traced the mischief to one room, and presently conjectured what was the matter there. He let a slip of glass into the wall, and found it next day dimmed with fog, and found it next day dimmed with fog, and found it next day dimmed with fog.

The Opposition.—Pursuant to a call, previously posted about town, the Opposition party met in the Court House, on Tuesday evening of last week, and organized by appointing a Mr. Geo. W. Johnston, President, and electing several Vice Presidents and Secretaries. A Committee was appointed to draft resolutions, which they did, unanimously in favor of Gen. Simon Cameron as their candidate for the Presidency, endorsing the nomination of Andrew G. Curtin for Governor, promising him one thousand majority in the county this fall, and urging the necessity of forming People's Party Clubs in every election district. Col. Curtin and L. W. Hall of Blair county, addressed the meeting, which was quite a respectable crowd.

MATERIALS FOR FLOWERS, handsomely assorted in boxes, just received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

BEAUTIFUL, BUT TRUE.—A few days since, Mr. Jas. H. Beadle, of Huntsville, Alabama, called on us and gave us permission to publish for the benefit of suffering humanity, the astonishing cure effected in his case by the use of Dr. Hance's Vegetable Epsom Pills. He informed us, that at the time his wife commenced using the medicine, her system was so entirely prostrated, by the number of her children she had undergone, as to reduce her weight to 100 lbs. Since she has been taking the pills, she has entirely got over the spasms and has gained in weight and bodily strength. She now weighs at least 200 lbs., and declares she is in better enjoyment of health than ever before in her life. Mr. Beadle also related the case of Mr. Harrison, a French Cleric, who has been entirely cured of the worst form of Epilepsy by these same pills. Mr. Lightfoot's case was so bad that he never passed a week without having an attack, often falling down in the street. He has not had an attack for more than a year. Mr. Beadle thinks that if the pills ever fail in curing a case, it is because the patient is not taking them as he feels assured from observation in the case of his wife, that if they are taken for a sufficient length of time, they will cure any case. Sent to any part of the country by mail, on the receipt of a remittance. Address SENT S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. Price, one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $24.

TESTIMONIALS OF THE CLERGY. "I have given some attention to the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and feel bound to say that it seems to me to contain a vast amount of information on Biblical subjects, conveyed in a clear manner, illustrated by many valuable cuts, and printed on good paper. It constitutes a valuable addition to the apparatus of the Teacher, Parent, and private Christian." Right Rev. ALONZO POTTER, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Pennsylvania.
