but since you made this promise, you have informed yourself in regard to the qualifications of the several candidates, and you are now fully of the opinion that another is, in fairness, entitled to the place. What will Verdict same. Sentenced to pay a fine of you do? If you are a true friend of the schools and are willing for their good to forego personal preferences-if you are high minded enough to recognize no obligations conflicting with the best interests of the children and the schools-if you are honest, capable and faithful, you may keep your promise with the fox, but only provided that you can do so without risk to your sheep. Rather than see your lambs strangled, what wrath and abuse can you not hear from the fox ?-

'A promise that is likely to result in wrong, is often better broken than kept." A lawyer, doctor, or minister, might make a good Superintendent, but a teacher of the right stamp would seem to be best suited to the position, and if such a one can be found, it is to be hoped that gentlemen of the other professions will not press their claims. Of course, a distinction should be made between those who were teachers several years ago, and those who are now actually engaged in the business.

It is the wish of the department at Harrisburg, as well as of every true friend of the Common Schools, to keep the County Superintendencies entirely free from politics. The County Superintendent should have the same cation and Bastardy. A true bill. Verdict right as any other freeman to cast his own vote, and to exert his own individual influence for the benefit of his party, but his offi-Same vs. James Sullivan. Indict.-As- cial influence is quite another thing, and this sault and Battery. True bill. Def't. pleads he has no right to use, and should not use in any way except in school matters, and for their especial benefit. Hence, it is not deemed safe to give the Superintendency to a man who has been much interested in politics, for, almost in spite of himself, he and his office would become the tool of his party.

If a sufficient salary be paid him, the Superintendent should devote his whole time to the business of his office, and no man should be elected who would not pledge himself to do this. But the fact that a man is now engaged in teaching, should not disqualify him for the office, but the contrary. For every man that is a man, will be found doing something, and nothing has a closer connection with the business of this office, than the business of teaching.

The Superintendent should be a man who will favor not only the Common Schools, but also the High Schools of the county-and not only one but all of them. It is for the advantage of the county that its schools of all grades should flourish, and the Superinten-Same vs. R. F. Haslett. Indict .- Selling dent should feel bound to encourage them and promote their interests. A man who in place of aiding and bettering our home institutions, advises our youths to attend schools in distant counties, misconceives his duty, and is not fit to be at the head of our schools. He that does not understand the interests of the county sufficiently to encourage home enterprise, and he that cannot do it with strict impartiality-both of these are disqualified for the office of Superintendent, and should not expect to accomplish any good in it. No such man should be elected.

Finally, in the man who is to be a successful County Superintendent, "literary and scientific acquirements" are necessary; a true conception of all the School interests of the county, is necessary; entire freedom from sault and Battery, &c. Not a true bill, and the entangling alliances of politics is necessary; "skill and experience in the art of teaching," are necessary; and a robust con-

TESTIMONIALS OF THE CLERGY.

"I have given some attention to the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and feel bound to say that it seems to use to con-tain a vast amount of information on Biblical subjects, conveyed in a clear manner, illustrated by many valuable cuts, and printed on good paper. It constitutes a valuable addition to the apparatus of the Teacher, Parent, and pri-vate Christian."

"I have examined the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and had it to be a repartory of facts on Biblical subjects, set forth in a plain and intelligible way. Indeed, I am surprised at the amount of matter that is compressed into this vol-ume. For use in families and schools, I consider it the best book of the kind I have seen." Itev. JOHN McCLINTOCK, D. D., LL. D., President of the Troy University, and Pastorof St. Faul's Church (Methodist Episcopal,) New York.

"The attention I have given your book satisfies mo that it cannot fail to give important aid to all students of the Bible, and especially that large class who have neither time nor means to be yow on larger or more critical works.

The plan of your work is excellent, and the matter well chosen. It should have a large circulation. It will cer-tainly be of great use in the study of the Holy Scriptures." Rev. JOSEPH II. KENNARD, Pastor of the Eighth street Baptist Church. Philadelphia.

DRUGGED LIQUROS .- Dr. Hiram Cox, liquor inspector for the State of Ohio, lectured in this place last week, and created no little excitement amongst the liquor dealers and drinkers. During his stay here he examined several qualities of brandy, wine, and whisky .--The best imported brandies and wines were but poor initations, containing sufficient poisons to kill the most moderate drinkers. The only whiskies examined which were pure, were Schneider's, Massey's and Isett's. The common article in general use, brought from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and other citics, was shown to be horrible stuff.

Prof. Walsh on the Superintendency---To the Directors.

The instructions from the department at Harrisburg, say that the Superintendent should be able "to teach the teacher of the highest branches taught in the county," and the plain duty of the directors requires that they should faithfully endeavor to comply with these instructions. But even among the most intelligent of us there are preferences and prejudices-not to say interests-that to a certain extent, influence our judgments, and make a regretable discord in many good causes. BEAUTIFUL, BUT TRUE.

A few days since, Mr. Jas. II. Beadle, of Huntsville, Al-abama, called on us and gave us permission to publish for the benefit of suffering humanity, the astonishing euro which had been effected in the cuse of his wife by the use of Dr. Hance's Vegetable Epileptic Pills. He informed us, that at the time his wife commenced using the medicine, her writem was so entirely meatrated. by the number of causes. Still, however, much preferences, prejudices, or interests, may blind us, yet persons meeting in conventions are often more crippled—nay, their freedom of action is al-most fettered—by promises hastily made, per-haps, but which they now feel bound to re-spect. We have much reason to fear that this will be the case at Huntingdon on the 7th of May. Certain candidates for the Superintenden-cy, but by no means qualified for the posi-tion, have approached the directors and have, by one way or another, obtained promises from them.
