

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, May 9, 1860.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

ELECTION OF COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The School Directors of Huntingdon county met in Convention at the Court House on Monday afternoon last. There was a pretty general attendance. Dr. Brown, of Cassville, was selected as Chairman, John Porter, of Alexandria, George W. Spear, of Mt. Union, and Samuel T. Brown, of Huntingdon, appointed Secretaries. The names of Directors were received, when on motion, the Convention proceeded to fix the salary of the Superintendent.

For $800, 5 votes. For $500, 28 votes. " 700, 3 " " 400, 11 " " 600, 75 " " 300, 1 " 75 votes being a majority of the whole number, the Chair declared the salary fixed at $600.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for Superintendent:

Table with 4 columns: Name, 1st ballot, 2d ballot, 3d ballot. Includes names like Tussey, Glasgow, McDovitt, Sharp, Hughes, McIlroy, Baker, Woods, Noss, Miller, Brown.

R. McDovitt having received a majority of the whole number of votes, was declared elected. On motion, Mr. McDovitt appeared before the Convention, made a neat little speech, thanking the Directors for honors conferred, &c., when the Convention adjourned.

POETIC.—The gentlemen attending the "Huntingdon College" alias Jail, are becoming quite poetic. On Saturday we were handed an original copy of their effusions, which, as regards orthography, takes down anything we have seen lately. We make a few extracts verbatim et literatim. A well known "blood" gets off the following: The Huntingdon bloods think they cut a dash, but as Jail birds have got the cash, &c.

One writes an affectionate appeal to a legal gentleman, asking his assistance in getting him out of jail, telling him he has a large family to keep, that his time will be up on the 10th inst., that he can't spare the money to pay his costs, and that he would like to get another.

Another poor fellow attempted to escape, but failed, and gives vent to his feelings in this manner:

O when I was in Jail I couldnt get out a sol, I went into the Yard and I tried to climb the wall.

I went unto the gate and I gumped into the holl, and they hit me over the head, and I couldnt get out afeer.

O they put me up stairs and they give me no ale, and if you not go to bed, they would make you ride a rail.

Now I am in Jail and I try to get out if I can, and then I try to live a better man.

Still another, who was lodged in jail for getting drunk, &c., gets off the following:

I got drunk the other night When all was quiet and still, I tho't I saw the devil a coming Down the hill.

The last verse of this effusion winds up in this way:

Now my song is ended and I wont sing no more, and every time I think of it, it makes my hart grow sore.

ARRESTED.—Our readers will remember that we noticed some four or five weeks ago, that the store of A. H. Bauman & Co., of Mapleton, this county, was robbed to the amount, in money and goods, of about $250 by a young man named John L. Ripple, who was in their employ. After committing the robbery Ripple made his way to Kansas, and after arriving there, he wrote to some one living in Mapleton. His hand-writing was recognized, inquiry was made, and Mr. Bauman started for Kansas, in search of him, but the day he arrived there, Ripple started for St. Louis, Missouri, unawares, however, of his pursuit. Mr. B., learned this fact immediately on his arrival in Kansas, and started back to St. Louis, where he arrested Ripple, brought him back to this place on Saturday last and lodged him in jail, where he awaits his trial at the August term of court.

THE COUNTY JAIL.—We beg leave to call the attention of the proper authorities, to the deplorable state in which our Jail is in.—Within the last six or eight weeks, as many as eight prisoners have escaped from the dilapidated old fabrication. It is scarcely enough for a pig sty, to say nothing of the safe keeping of violators of the law, whose inventive genius is ever at work, to effect an escape, in order to flee from the meshes of the law. We hope, for the credit of our county, that the proper authorities will attend to this matter at once, before any more, who set the law at defiance, make their escape.—Prisoners might almost as well be set down in our Jail for safe keeping.

KILLED.—On Saturday morning last, while two men named David Moore and John Duffey, were drifting in the Dry Hollow Ore Bank, near Warriorsmark, the bank fell in, crushing them in a horrible manner and killing both instantly. They endeavored to make their escape when they saw the danger, but were too late, as the bank was already falling. Both men were sober and industrious, and our informant tells us that Duffey had accumulated considerable money from his earnings, he having been employed for about fifteen years at that place.

Materials for Flowers, handsomely assorted in boxes, just received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

LEG BROKEN.—Capt. Hiram Johnston, of this place, met with a very serious accident on Friday last, by which he had one of his legs fractured just above the ankle. He was passing along Hill street, driving a young horse in a sulky, and by some means, lost one rein from his hands, and while he was endeavoring to regain it, the horse leisurely walked on to the pavement between Long's new building and Strous' old stand, running against a post and upsetting the sulky, throwing Mr. Johnston out and injuring him as above stated.—Medical aid was immediately summoned, the fracture dressed, and we learn he is improving as rapidly as can be expected, under the circumstances.

FALSE PRETENCE.—A fellow by the name of Silknitter, and a native of this county, was brought to this place last week, and entered bail for his recognizance at the Indiana County Court, for doing a large business on a small scale. It appears he went to Indiana county and bought large quantities of hoop poles under false pretences, and shipped them off to the eastern market, where he sold them and pocketed the cash, leaving his creditors to get their pay from whom they could. It appears also, that he never purchased twice from one man, or ever showed his face in that part of the county afterwards.

PIC NIC PARTIES.—On Friday last, a party of our young folks visited Terras Mountain, to enjoy the sport of climbing the rugged hill side, and to admire the beautiful scenery which presents itself on every hand, from the lofty peaks of that majestic and noble old mountain.

On Saturday, we observed a party of juveniles, with baskets in hand, repairing to the woods, to enjoy a feast of fat things, in the shape of pound cakes, etc., as well as to inhale the pure air of a lone forest.

MIFLIN COUNTY BANK.—The Governor has appointed John Scott and John G. Miles, Esqs., of this place, and Andrew Parker, Esq., of Juniata county, Commissioners to appraise the real estate of the Miflin county Bank, in pursuance of the act incorporating the said Bank, passed at the last session of the Legislature.

NEW STORE AND NEW GOODS.—Wallace & Clement have opened a store on Hill street, where the public will find a general assortment of Goods, good and cheap. See their advertisement.

The Daily Union Prayer Meetings were discontinued for the summer season, on Saturday evening last.

Maryland Republican State Convention. An Abolition Excitement.—Interference of the Roving.—The Lynch Law Threatened.

BALTIMORE, April 26.—The Republican State Convention met this morning, in Reclabite Hall. About thirty members were present. Montgomery Blair was elected President.

After the Convention had been in session some time, and had appointed the committees, a large crowd entered, including a considerable sprinkling of "roughs," who were led on by Thomas Levy.

The intruders immediately commenced a disturbance. Levy and his followers made a rush, upset the President's table, knocked several of the Republicans down, and tore up their papers and documents.

The police interfered and made several arrests. The Convention adjourned till 2 o'clock.

The members were greeted on the outside by a large crowd who followed, hooting at them. William Gunnison, a prominent anti-slavery man, was pursued by an immense mob, crying "Lynch him!" "Hang him!" "There goes the man that stole a nigger!" "There goes the spirit of John Brown!" and other choice expressions.

Finally Mr. Gunnison took refuge in the Marine Bank, and the police escorted him to a place of safety, and the crowd then slowly dispersed.

A difficulty is anticipated when the Convention re-assembles at two o'clock. BALTIMORE, April 26.—At two o'clock the crowd had assembled in front of the hall where the Republican Convention was to meet.

The Police Commissioners, with a large force of police, were in readiness to preserve order. The Convention did not assemble, however, the owner of the hall having refused it to be longer used for the purpose.

In the meantime, the Republicans had held a private conference, and decided to hold the Convention elsewhere.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Dropsy of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach.

Every family should have a bottle of these Bitters in the house. ONE DOSE will instantly relieve a sick stomach. ONE DOSE will cure the most distressing heartburn. ONE DOSE will allay any agitation of the nerves. ONE DOSE taken an hour before meals, will give a good appetite. ONE DOSE will, in many cases, cure the most severe headache, when proceeding from a disordered stomach.

These Bitters can be obtained at any Druggist's or seller of Patent Medicines in the United States and Canada. Price 75 cents per bottle. Beware that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.

BEAUTIFUL, BUT TRUE. A few days since, Mr. Jas. H. Beadle, of Huntsville, Alabama, called on us and gave us permission to publish for the benefit of suffering humanity, the astonishing cure of Dr. Hancock's Vegetable Bitters. He informed us, that at the time his wife commenced using the medicine, her system was so entirely prostrated, by the number of spasms she underwent, as to reduce her weight to 100 lbs. Since she has been taking the pills, she has entirely got over the spasms and has gained in weight and bodily health. She now weighs at least 200 lbs., and declares she is in better enjoyment of health than ever before in her life.

Mr. Beadle also related the case of Mr. Harrison Lightfoot of the same town, who has been entirely cured of Dr. Hancock's Bitters. He says that he had a severe attack of the Bitters, and that he never passed a week without having an attack, often falling down in the street. He underwent an account of the Bitters, and he thinks that if the pills ever fail in curing a case, it is for the want of a proper perseverance on the part of the person in the use of them. He says that he had an operation in the case of his wife, that if they are taken for a sufficient length of time, they will cure any case. Sent to any part of the country, by the same pills. Mr. Lightfoot's address is S. H. BOX, 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. Price, one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $21.

"Why should we mourn? The loved one sleeps In sweet eternal rest; Where flowers of beauty silent weep Above his lowly breast; Where storms no more shall rage around, Or sin or sorrow come; Where peace, sweet peace, alone is found, The grave, his earthly home." We'll mourn no more, the loved one sleeps, From sin and sorrow free; Bright angels guard his tomb, why weep? For an angel pair is he. And when a few more suns shall rise, And when a few more days pass o'er, We'll meet him as we tread the skies, And parted be no more." M. E. G.
