

Our Chip Basket.

Why is the world like a piano? Because it is full of sharps and flats.

Most calamitous companions—girls in their giggles, and boys in their boohood.

The Chinese picture of ambition is a "Mandarin trying to catch a comet, by putting salt on his tail."

What is the difference between a bare head and a hair bed? One flees for shelter and the other is a shelter for flees.

The man who courted an investigation, says it isn't half as good as an affectionate girl. We expect not.

A new counterfeit bank note is described as having for its vignette, "a female with a rake in her lap."

"PAPA, have guns got legs?" "No." "How do they kick then?" "With their breeches, my dear."

"Who is that with Miss Flint," said a wag to his companion. "Oh, that is a spark which she has struck."

Soon after the battle at Leipsic, a wit observed: "Bonaparte must now be in funds, as he received a check on the banks of the Elbe."

A BUSINESS man of our acquaintance is so scrupulously exact in all his doings, that whenever he pays a visit, he always insists on taking a receipt.

A NEGRO being caught stealing from a hen-roost, excused himself by saying, "Dat he only came dar to see if de chickens sleep wid dar eyes open."

MILTON was asked by a friend if he would instruct his daughters in the different languages. "No," said he, "one tongue is enough for a woman."

SILENCE is more sociable than false speaking. A dog that we know is better company than a man whose language we do not understand.

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY.—There is a cockney youth, who, every time he wishes to get a glimpse of his sweet-heart, cries, "Fire!" directly under her window.

In the alarm of the moment, she plunges her head out of the window, and inquires "Where?" when he poetically slaps himself on the bosom and exclaims, "Ere, my Hangelina!"

A COUNTRY apothecary being out for a day's shooting, took his errand boy to carry his game bag. Entering a field of turnips, the dog pointed, and the boy overjoyed at the prospect of his master's success exclaimed:—

"Lor, master, there's a covey; if you get near 'em, won't you physic 'em?"

"Physic them, you young rascal, what do you mean?"

"Why, kill 'em, to be sure," replied the lad.

An editor of our acquaintance says he has an antipathy to disembodied spirits. We know he has, for he never comes across them without taking good care that they shall not remain long out of the body.

An Arabian, who brought a blush to a maiden's cheeks by the earnestness of his gaze, said to her: "My looks have planted roses in your cheeks; why forbid me to gather them? The law permits him who sows to reap the harvest."

At a trial before a Squire, the following queer colloquy occurred: Council—"Didn't you tell P—to go to the devil?"

Witness—"I rather think I did." Council—"Well, did he go?"

Witness—"I guess not; but if he did, he made a quick trip of it, for I met him the next day.

At a meeting of riflemen one of the speakers told a story of an officer of a city corps, who, when marching his men through the streets, forgot the word in command, and cried out, "Right shoulders forward," when he should have said "left." When he found his men turning a contrary way to that intended he shouted, "Right about face," but this only making matters worse he discarded military phraseology, and came down to plain "Why don't you turn down B—street?"

"Misses Howe."—At a tea-party in Iowa City, a while ago, those who have the "benefit of clergy" are privileged characters, the "Rev." Samuel Storrs Howe, a frisky bachelor of over fifty winters, happened to be present—as usual. One of the ladies at the tea-table, thought to enliven the conversation by addressing him upon the subject of his recently engaging in the business of housekeeping—that is, "setting up bachelor's hall," and asked him how he got along, whether he felt at home, &c. "Why, yes, ma'am," was the reply, "I begin to feel a good deal in the family way." The ladies bit their lips, and concluded the information was too good to keep—from their husbands.—St. Chas. Intell.

The Vermont Patriot tells a story of an old usurer who went, one day, to visit a former borrower who had since, fortunately, grown from poverty to independence. They went into the garden. Passing along a walk flanked on either side with flowers, of great beauty and variety, the visitor made no remark until he came to the potato patch, when he exclaimed, "My friend, you'll have a fine crop of potatoes there!" "That's just like you," said the proprietor, "when gentlemen and ladies pass through my garden, they look at the flowers—but when a d—d hog comes in, all he can see is potatoes!"
