A BAD CHARACTER.-We always were aware of the importance of preserving a good reputation for truth and honesty, but we have met with nothing lately, so well calculated to impress the disadvantages of having a bad character on the mind, as the following anecdote:

A mortal fever prevailed on board a ship at sea, and a negro man was appointed to throw the bodies of those who died from time to time, overboard. One day when the Captain was on deck, he saw the negro dragging out of the forecastle a man who was struggling violently to extricate himself from the negro's grasp, and remonstrating very bit-terly against the cruelty of being buried

"What are you going to do with that man, you black rascal?" said the Captain. "Going to throw him overboard, Massa, cause he's dead!"

"Dead! you scoundrel," said the captain, "do you not see he moves and speaks?" "Yes, Massa, I know he says he no dead, but he always lie so, nobody never know when to believe him!"

Last winter an Irishman, recently landed on our shores, applied to a merchant on the wharf, for work. Willing to do him a kindness the latter handed him a shovel, and pointing to the back of his stere, told him to shovel off the sidewalk.

The merchant forgot all about the Irishman until the lapse of an hour or two, when Teddy thrust his head into the counting room, (which was up stairs) and inquired: "Mayhap yee'd be having a pick, sir?"

"A pick to get the snow off?" said the merchant smiling.
"The snow'd be off long since," replied Ted, "an' the bricks too, for that mather, but it's the sile (soil) that shticks!"

In some alarm the merchant ran to his back window, and shure enough, the fellow had thrown nearly all the pavement into the street and made quite a hole. "Good gracious, man! I only wanted you to shovel off the snow!" "Arrah, sir," said Teddy, didn't your honor tell me to shovel off the sidewalk!" Somebody says that a lady should always ask the four following questions before accepting the hand of any young man: "Is he honerable?"

"Is he kind of heart?"

"Can he support me comfortably?" "Does he take a paper and pay for it in Danger should be feared when distant, and braved when present.

Gentlemen:—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris &
Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturday night, and although they had a stedge hammer, cold chisels, drill and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of "Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it; and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them. Yours, truly,

EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia: Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe which I purchased of you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storehouse, together with several others, was burned to the ground in March hast.—The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents where found to be in a perfect state, the books and the papers not being injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made. as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made THOMAS J.
