THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE, A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, &C.

THE GLOBE. EUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday, July 18, 1860. DLANKS! BLANKS! BLANKS! OUNSTABLE'S SALES, ATTACHMENTS, BUMMONS, SUBPENAS, SCHOOL ORDERS, LEASES FOR HOUSES, COMMON BONDS, WARRANTS. ATTACHT EXECUTIONS, EXECUTIONS, DEEDS, MORTGAGES, JUDGMENT NOTES, NATURALIZATION B'KS, JUDGMENT BONDS, FEE BILLS, COMMON BONDS, [JUDGMENT BONDS, WARRANTS, [FEE BILLS, NOTES, with a waiver of the $300 Law. JUDGMENT NOTES, with a waiver of the $300 Law. ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, with Teachers. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES, for Justices of the Peace and Ministers of the Gamed and Ministers of the Gospel. COMPLAINT, WARRANT, and COMMITMENT, in case of Assault and Battery, and Affray. SCIERE FACIAS, to recover amount of Judgment. COLLECTORS' RECEIPTS, for State, County, School Borough and Township Taxes. Printed on superior paper, and for sale at the Office of the HUNTINGDON GLOBE. BLANKS, of every description, printed to order, neatly, at short notice, and on good Paper.

New Advertisements. Arr Fruit Cans, Jars, &c., by J. Brown. For Farmers' and Dealers' Head-Quarters!! ST Proclamations, by John C. Watson, Sheriff. Register's Notice, by Henry Glazier, Register. 15 See advertisements of Philadelphia, Reading and Harrisburg R. R. Company.

Why We Support Douglas. We are for Douglas and Johnson for the following good and all sufficient reasons : 1st. They are the regular nominees of the only regular Convention of the National Democracy, having been nominated in strict accordance with the usages of the party, not by a mere majority of the Convention, not by a bare two-thirds of all the votes given (either of which would have sufficed in the time of Jackson, Van Buren and Polk) but by a unanimous vote of more than two-thirds of the whole Convention.

2d. Because Douglas and Johnson stand upon the time-honored platform of the National Democratic party ;---the platform on which Jefferson and Jackson stood ; on which Polk, Pierce and Buchanan were elected ; the platform which embodies that sacred compromise ral ticket selected by the Reading State Convention was selected to vote in the Electoral College for the nominces of the National Democratic Convention. If any one of the gentleman on that ticket, or any number of them, refuse to give a pledge to vote in that College JOHNSON as the regularly nominated Democratic candidates, their names should and must be stricken off the ticket, and their places filled by men who will obey the instructions of the party in State and National Conventions.

A FACT TO BE REMEMBERED .- The Electo-

We desire that our vote shall be counted for Douglas and Jounson, and when we vote an Electoral ticket we want to know that that ticket will not sell our interest in the contest to promote the success of the candidates of the Disunionists. Every true friend of Douglas and Johnson-every Democrat who does not intend to bolt the regular nominations-will be satisfied with no other than a reliable

Douglas and Johnson Electoral ticket. A Two-Thirds Vote.

Some of the rebel presses are making a huge fuss over the fact that Douglas did not receive a two-thirds vote of a full Convention, as though it was a proceeding without precedent. If they will brush the cobwebs from their memories and look back as far as 1848, to the preceedings of the Baltimore Convention, they will find that Lewis Cass was nominated by a vote less than two-thirds of a full Convention ; and they will find that the President of the Convention, Hon. Andrew Stevenson, decided-and righteously, too-that it was not necessary to have more than twothirds of the votes given. Indeed it would be ridiculous to decide in any other way; for the secessionists of little Deleware, or Rhode Island, or any single State-or, in case of a State not instructed to vote as a unit, a single dissatisfied delegate, might prevent a nomination.

The rebels must resort to a better argument than this against the nomination to injure Douglas in the estimation of sound Democrats.

A BAD SIGN .- The Republicans are everywhere tapping the Breckinrige traitors on the back, calling them fine fellows, and urging them to go ahead. There is no necessity for this. The Rebel movement was initiated for the very purpose of electing Lincoln and precipitating disunion. Its object was this, and nothing else, and as far as they can go towards its accomplishment, the Breckinridge leaders will assuredly go. They nominated their candidate at Baltimore without any authority from the people-the small gathering of Buchananites and Disunionists who Douglas State Convention On the 26th July, 1860.

As the only official representative of the National Democratic organization in Pennsylvania, I find myself compelled by an imperious sense of duty, to protest in the name of the National Committee, and in behalf of for STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS and HERSCHEL V. | the National Democracy, against the resolutions of the State committee of Pennsylvania, on the 2d of this month, as undemocratic, unauthorized, and impolitic. I protest against it man, desires to know in the event of my elecas an assumption of power not conferred by the Reading Convention ; I protest against it as > Reading Convention, which imposed the obligation to recognize and support the regular nominees of the National Convention-STE-PHEN A. DOUGLAS and HERSCHEL V. JOHNSONand them only; and I protest against it as an act of disorganization disastrous to the National Democratic party everywhere.

The remedy for this unwise determination of the State Committee has been long and anxiously considered by others and myself, and we have found it surrrounded by difficulties arising from the absence of any State organization competent to summon a State Convention. Meanwhile we have been in daily receipt of numerous letters from the most prominent Democrats of Pennsylvania, and other States, demanding immediate action .--I have, therefore, in view of the exigencies of the case, and the revolutionery character of the political epoch, determined to request National Democrats from all portions of the National Democrats from all portions of the called compromise, in my judgment, involves Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to meet in each, and includes all. If it is competent for Harrisburg, on the 26th of this month, in Delegate and Mass Convention, when in conjunction with the National Democrats of the State Committee, the National Democrats might not be offered with any of the political of the Pennsylvania Delegation to Baltimore, and the National Democrats who were Delegates to Reading, they may take such action as in their wisdom should seem best for the Democracy and the Union.

R. J. HALDEMAN, Of the National Committee for Pennsylvania. HARRISBURG, July 16. 1860.

Volce of the Democratic Press of Penn'a.

We give below a list of Pennsylvania papers with their political preferences for Presdent.

FOR DOUGLAS.

Doylestown Democrat, Bucks County Express, Huntingdon Globe, Luzerne Union, Easton Argus, Northampton Correspondent. Easton Independent Democrat, Allentown Democrat, Harrisburg State Sentinel, Greensburg Democrat, Greensburg Argus, Pottsville Mining Record, Juniata Democrat, Mifflintown ; Lycoming Gazette, Carlisle American. Carlisle Volunteer, Wilkesbarre Democratic Watchman, Sunbury Democrat, Hanover (York county) Gazette, York County Demo-crat, Monroe Democrat, Democratic Herald, Butler : West Chester American Republican, Honesdale Wochen-Blat, the Mo Ebensburg; The Western Press, Mercer; Lewistown Democrat, Democratic Standard, Hollidaysburg; Blairsville Record, Valley Spirit, Chambersburg; Fulton Democrat, Pittsburg Post, Perry County Democrat, Bedford Gazette, Brownsville Times, Washington Review, Fayette county Genius of Liberty, Clinton Democrat," Lock Haven; Union I will recognise no other authority to receive Argus, Lewisburg; Brookville Jeffersonian, Upland Union, Delaware; Allentown Republiean.

NO FUSION WITH THE DISUNIONISTS.

Reply of Hon. Richard Vaux to the Proposition of the Secessionists. PHILADELPHIA, July 9th 1860.

My DEAR SIR :-- Your printed communication of July 5th, with its enclosure, is most respectfully acknowledged. By both con-joined you inform me, as one of the "Democratic Electors at large," that the "Democratic State Committee," of which you are chairtion, if I will give a pledge to conform to the arrangement made by that committee, at its meeting on the 2d July last. This proposed a failure to perform duties assigned it by the arrangement provides, as I understand it, that the Democratic electors for Pennsylvania. shall, if elected, vote for the regularly nominated Democratic Candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, if their vote will select these candidates: if it will not, then to vote for the candidates nominated by a meeting of gentlemen, at the Ma-ryland Institute, in Baltimore, on the 23d June, 1860, if such vote will elect them : and lastly, if neither of these propositions can be managed successfully, then, that the Democratic electors of Pennsylvania, if elected, may vote as they may deem best for the interests of the Democratic party. This is my interpretation of your note, and its enclosure. . To this most extraordinary and unexampled proposition from a committee, appointed only by the chairman of the Democratic Convention, and for certain specific duties, I am requested to reply. The proposed arrangement was made, in my opinion, without any authority. The Reading Convention gave no power to its committee to compromise the integrity of Democratic principles, the Democratic organization, or Democratic candidates. This sothe "Democratic State Committee" to propose an arrangement with those not in the regular organization of the Democratic party, then I can see no reason why a compromise organizations now existing, under their variible, that such a proposition should ever have been considered, much less approved by a Democratic body, or one assuming to represent the Democratic party of Pennsylvania. Placed on the Democratic Electoral Ticket by the only regular Democratic State authority, at Reading, on the 29th of February last. without any interference on my part, I accepted the position, its duties and responsibilities, because it was the voluntary offering of the Democracy of the State, through its ganized into a Convention. I owe fealty to the Democratic party only. That party expects me, as one of its representatives, frankly, honestly and faithfully to execute the trust thus imposed and accepted. It gave me no power to adopt a compromise, or an alternative of this trust. The masses of the Democracy do not yet understand how its representatives can hold a divided duty. Conscien-tiously entertaining these old-fashioned opinions, I beg to state, that in the event of my election as a Democratic Elector at large, I shall vote for the only regularly nominated vention at Baltimore-S. A. Douglas for President, and H. V. Johnson for Vice President.

The Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania met at the Merchants' Hotel. Philadelphia, on Monday the 2d inst., being called together by the Chairman. Deeming it their duty to consider the Presidential question, they gave that subject their attention, and in so doing traveled out of their path of duty to dictate to the Democrats of Pennsylvania how they shall vote for President .---Inasmuch as many of the country members were not present, the federal office-holders had the majority, and took such action as they considered most favorable to the seceding, disunion ticket. Knowing their own weakness in the State they wished to conceal it, and therefore fixed up a mongrel Electoral ticket, on the following basis :

That if said Electoral Ticket should be elected by the That if said Electoral Ticket should be clected by the people, and it should appear, on ascertaining the result in the other States of the Union, that by casting the entire vote of Pennsylvania for Stephen A. Douglas for President and H. V. Johnson for Vice President, it would elect them over Lincoln and Hamlin, then said Electors shall be under obligations to cast said vote for Messrs. Douglas and John-son. If, on the other hand, it should appear that said vote would not elect Messrs. Douglas and Johnson, but would elect Breckinridge and Lane for President and Vice Presi-dent, over Messrs. Lincoln and Hamlin, then said vote shall be cast for them, and in case the united vote of Penn-sylvania would not elect either of these tickets then the electors may divide it between them according to their own judgment of what would be best for the country and the Democratic party. Democratic party.

We have not yet found a single Democrat, whether a friend of Douglas or Breckinridge, who is pleased with this stupid arrangement; the universal sentiment being, that when they come to put their ballot into box they want to know what use is to be made of it. Can any man be green enough to sanction such a plan? We hardly think so. Of one thing the Committee may rest assured, that those Democrats who support the regular nominees, Douglas and Johnson, will never consent to vote for a two-sided ticket. They are determined to have Electors whom they can rely upon, and who will cast the vote of the State as they wish it to be cast. A man who supports Douglas wishes his vote to be counted for him, and we suppose that those who favor the Seceders' ticket, also desire their votes to be counted for their candidate. It would have approximated more nearly to fairness if the Electoral tickets were to be headed with ous political designations. It is almost incred- the names of Douglas and Breckinridge respectively, by which means it could be easily determined who received the highest number of votes, and therefore entitled to the Electors. We are opposed to any Union Electotoral ticket with the Seceders, and are unwilling that their disorganizing movement shall receive either strength or respectability by being recognized by the regular organization. If their course is Democratic and right, they can have no objection to showing their hands, and ask the people to sustain them; but if representatives then and there regularly or- they are sincere in the desire for a union in order that the Republicans may be defeated, we answer that they can accomplish this much better by giving up their bogus candidates and supporting the regular nominees. The State Central Committee had no authority to take the action they had in this behalf. That body has but a single duty to perform, which is to advocate the regular nominees of the party, and it is a piece of great impudence on their part to attempt to select any other candidates. What right have they to present a Presidential ticket to the people of Pensylvania, in opposition to candidates for President and Vice President, the choice of the National Democratic Connominated by the Democratic National Con- vention? None whatever. They are our servants and not our masters. The Democratic

Action of the State Central Committee. | they are now only rebels against Democracy, following the behests of an apostate President whose conscious guilt has fixed a sting in his soul which is goading him on to acts of vengeance and madness. It is sheer impudence on the part of these men, these Breckinridge rebels, to call themselves Democrats. There is but one test of Democracy, and that is adherence to the organization, the candidates, and the platform of the party, The organization points out the mode by which the candidates and the platform shall be determined, and when once determined in accordance with the rules laid down, the man who bolts places himself outside the pale of the party, and has no further claim upon its name or its good offices. He is thenceforth, until he repents and returns, an outsider, a traitor, a disorganizer. In this position stand the supporters of Breckinridge.

The only National Democratic Convention that was held this year for the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, assembled under a call of the National Democratic Committee at Charleston, on the 23d of April, and subsequently, by adjournment, at Baltimore, on the 18th of

That Convention, adhering strictly to the rules of the organization, after an arduous session, during which every impediment which ingenuity or malice could invent was thrown in their way, nominated STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS for President, and HER-SCHEL V. JOHNSON for Vice President, by a vote of two-thirds of all the delegates who remained-and these gentlemen are now the REGULAR NOMINEES OF THE REG-ULAR NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CON-ENTION.

If delegates tinctured with dangerous hereics, or having mischievous schemes in their neads, which they could not carry out, chose to secede, theirs was the fault that a two-thirds vote of a full Convention was not obtained. No blame can be attributed to the faithful and true delegates who remained and consummated the work which they were sent to ccomplish.

We expect to elect Douglas and Johnson. We look upon the Breckinridge army in the North as a mere puppet show, of no conseuence except to those engaged in it. The Northern Democracy will not readily fall into the Slave Trade and Disunion schemes of Yancey, Slidell & Co.; nor, leaving this out of the question, will they, to oblige Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Breckinridge, Mr. Bigler, or any of their mere statellites, break up the organization of the party and bring defeat and disgrace upon it in the State and Union.

There are but few Democrats, we fancy, outside of the Breckinride faction, who wish to see Curtin elected Governor, or Abe Lincoln President of the United States. We calculate, therefore, on a full Democratic voto in Pennsylvania for Douglas and Johnson, to which will be added thousands more from the ranks of the Opposition-the votes of moderate, National men, who have grown tired of the sectional bias and shifting policy of the Republican party.

We repeat, we have no fear of the Brechnridge party in this State. Let his friends run an Electoral ticket in opposition to the regular Douglas Electors-let them dare boldly to unfurl his rebel banner-and the hisses of the Democracy, coming like a tornado from the four quarters of the State, will prostrate in the dust their treason-stained flag and the mercenary battallions that follow it. Democracy never compromises with traitors. -Harrisburg State Sentinel.

between the North and the South, instituted by Webster, Clay and Calhoun, and ratified by the people of the whole Union, in two successive elections, the principle of " Non-interference by Congress with slavery in State or Territory."

3d. Because Douglas and Johnson are eminent statesmen, national and conservative in their views, opposed to sectionalism of every sort, and admirably fitted by great natural powers and long experience in public affairs, for the offices for which they have been nominated.

WHO ARE IN FAVOR OF A COMPROMISE ON A DISORGANIZING FLECTORAL TICKET ?-- 1st, Buchanan and his office-holders. 2d, a majority of the office-hunters in every county-men who want a nomination and an election to Congress, to the State Senate, to the House of Representatives, and to the county offices. Independent and consistent Democrats-men who can be relied upon when their party is in danger of being ruled to ruin by political desperados, have but one opinion, and that opinion for the public car. We want no cowards in our ranks-we want men to take their positions boldly for or against the regular National Democratic nominees, Douglas and Johnson-no others are worthy of a political trust-no others are derserving public confidence-no others should receive the support of Democratic voters. The great National Democratic party of the Union has enemies in its camp, and he who halts between two opinions as to his duty to his party and the country, cannot expect the friends of Douglas and Johnson to give him their support. If the present National Democratic organization should be destroyed, an example will be Assembly by the Democracy of Cambria set by the highest authority to justify disorganization in the ranks of the Democratic party in every State, county and township organization. The Democratic party may be defeated next fall by the action of the disunionists and those under their influence: but there will be a future-a future when the Democracy will triumph---then, the disunionists and disorganizers of the present day will be remembered but to be loathed and despised as having been enemies to their party the disorganizers on one electoral ticket. If and their country.

Bedford Gazette a statement of facts connec. | only regularly nominated National ticket, ted with the Democratic National Conven- Douglas and Johnson. If they refuse to vote tion, by Hon. John Cesna, a delegate to that | it they are out of the Democratic organiza-Convention from the Bedford district. We tion, and it would be more honorable in them shall publish it in our next week's issue, and to at once declare for Lincoln-their second, and that is to fight the enemy in front, as we hope it may be carefully read by all our | if not their first choice. zeaders.

AN IMPORTANT FACT TO BE REMEMBERED .---country. If not Disunionists themselves, trusted.

brought his name before the nation, was self constituted, disorganizing, in defiance of all the rules and customs of the party-and yet he will have supporters among the politicians and parasites. The Republicans may safely withraw their sympathy and encouragement. The movers in the plot to destroy the Democratic part are acting under orders from

Washington, which they dare not disobey. MASSACHUSETTS .- The statement going the rounds of the Republican and Breckinridge papers, that "there is but one paper in Massachusetts that sopports Douglas," is a mere fabrication. Every Democratic paper in the State, except those owned or controlled by office-holders supports Douglas and Johnson. Here is a list of the disunion papers that support Breckinridge in the old Bay Stateand these have but little influence with the masses :

Boston Post-editor Naval Officer at Boston-sallary $4,000.

Salem Advocate-editor Naval Officer; salary $1,500. Lowell Advertiser-editor Postmaster ; salary $2,000. New Bedford Times-editor Postmaster; salary $1,500. Lawrence Sentinel-editor Postmaster; salary $1,000. Essex Democrat-editor Postmaster ; salary $1,800. Greenfield Democrat-has a friend in the Custom House at $1,800. This is the strength of the disorganizers in Massachusetts.

G. Nelson Smith, editor of the Johnstown Echo, was last week nominated for the county. Mr. Smith was a delegate to the the whole party and call things by their right Democratic National Convention from this Congressional District, and he supported Douglas throughout the proceedings of the Convention. A few friends of the Disunion candidate Breckinridge, seceded from the Are we to remain silent and tacitly encour-Convention and will attempt to defeat the regular nominees.

No Fusion .- The Democratic press of the State, very generally oppose a fusion with the disorganizors are honest in their opposi-AN ABLE DOCUMENT .- We find in the last | tion to Lincoln they cannot refuse to vote the

105 The Administration is again at work

in Illinois to defeat the regular Democratic ise the Democratic party, goes it strong for That Breckinridge and Lane are the repre- State Ticket. The office-holders held a State the disorganizing candidate Breckinrige .sentative candidates of all the Disunionists, | Convention on the 11th, and put in nomina-Wm. B. Reed and Josiah Randall, both deserters from the Old Whig party, four years Nullifiers, and Radical Fire-Eaters of the tion a full State Ticket in opposition to the ago, are leaders of the Breckinridge disorganregular one nominated early in June. They izers in this State. They came into our they are in very bad company and cannot be will do the same in this State when they find ranks to destroy the party, and will succeed they cannot rule. Rule or ruin is their motto. I if not carefully watched.

FOR BRECKINRIDGE.

Philadelphia Evening Argus,* Norristown Register, † Reading Gazette, ‡ Carbon Demo-crat, West Chester Jeffersonian, Juniata Register, Pottsville Standard.†

ON THE FENCE.

Milford Herald, York Gazette, Easton Sentipel, Harrisburg Patriot and Union, Montrose Democrat, Philadelphia Pennsylvanian,* Huntingdon Union, Lancaster Intelligencer. * See Covode Investigating Committee proceedings for the amount appropriated to keep these "machines" in ex-

† The editor is Postmaster. salary $1000. ‡ See coal contract developments.

Who are to Blame?

The Valley Spirit, published at Chambersburg, opposed to Douglas until his nomination, is now doing good service for the regular nominees. The last number has several good articles, from one of which we make the following extract;

John Tyler, who attempted to Tyler

RICHARD VAUX. To the Hon. WM. H. WELSH, Chairman D. S. C. "Who are to blame for this disruption of the great Democratic party? Certainly not Mr. Douglas or his friends. He or they had Another Elector Answers.

Most Respectfully, Yours,

ry, either now or in the future.

I have the honor to be

authority only held by its commission.

nothing to gain by creating a split in the party. Their policy and their interest were J. R. Crawford, Esq., of Hollidoysburg, opposed to any other course than an amiable Elector for the 18th Congressional District, adjustment of all difficulties that stood in the has answered the interrogatory of Hon. Wm. way of a harmonious nomination. We must look somewhere else than to the Douglas wing H. Welsh, Chairman of the State Central of the party for the source of trouble and the Committee, in the same spirit that Mr. Yaux real offenders. We have a duty to perform did. We shall undoubtedly have more of the which we cannot discharge by "silent consame sort. Mr. C's reply which we subjoin, tempt" towards the distractionists in our ranks. We must speak out for the good of is short but decidedly to the point; names. We honestly believe that a great DEAR SIR :--- I have the honor to acknowloutrage has been perpetrated on the Demoedge the receipt of your circular containing the resolution of the State Central Commitcratic party by the vindictive course of the present administration towards Mr. Douglas tee, passed at their late meeting in Philadeland that out of that has grown all our troubles. phia, and to which is appended a pledge, to which my signature as an Elector is requested. age this cutrage, or to rebuke at once, and From a profound sense of my obligations to without stint, the high source that gives it the Democratic party, I am constrained to consequence and the suicidal and vindictive withhold my assent to any such pledges .-policy that dictates it? Must we enter the Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnpresent presidential contest with two candidates in the field, in our own party, and as a consequence defeat almost certain, and not raise a finger or utter a word against those whose perverseness have brought about this disastrous state of affairs, and would glory in the overthrow of the regularly nominated candidate of the party? The faithful soldier will as soon shoot down the traitor in his own secession. ranks as an open enemy. There is but one course left for every good Democrat to pursue, well as the enemy in the rear, and trust for victory in the righteousness of our cause." the Union

HOLLIDAYSBURG, July 9th, 1860.

> Very respectfully yours, J. R. CRAWFORD. To the Hon. W. H. WELSE,

Chairman State Central Committee. 100 The Breckinridge organ in Missouri

is the St. Louis Democrat, the well known Black Republican Abolition organ.

party of the State should attend to this matter and shall so vote until the Electoral College in time, and see that we have an Electoral finishes the task the Constitution imposes on it. ticket which will carry out the wishes of the If the Democracy of Pennsylvania do not apvoters. We should recommend the calling of prove of this publicly announced determinaa State Convention, at an early day, to take tion of mine, thus unequivocally asserted, I proper action in the premises, and obtain the will cheerfully surrender to the authority voice of the Democracy .- Doylestown Demowhich selected me, the position it gave; but crat.

The National Democracy.

If, as it is said, there are difficulties and There is but one National Democratic party doubts as to the course of a portion of the in Pennsylvania and elsewhere, and that is Democracy in the present crisis, that the only the party which supports the nominee of the mode to be adopted, is to convene a Demo-Baltimore Convention, and the Cincinnati cratic State Convention, and leave to its wisplatform. No other authorized National Condom, prudence and omnipotent will, a soluvention was held. The gathering of restless tion for these difficulties. Every true Demospirits-traitors from the North and Southcrat devoted to his party principles, and wilwhether at Baltimore or Richmond, does not ling to be governed by its time-honored usages deserve to be dignified by the name of Conand organization, will, or ought to be cheervention. In both cases they were self-constifully bound by this action of the party. He tuted caucuses of desperate men, determined who will not so agree, cannot be sincere in to disorganize the party as a preliminary to his devotion to the Democratic party, and the election of a Republican President and a his separation from it will result in no injudissolution of the Union. Whatever pretensions some of the Southern delegates may With great personal respect for yourself make to authority, there is not a Northern seand the members of the Democratic State ceder from the regular National Convention Committee, I have only to add, that my powho will dare assert that he derived any litical allegiance is due to a regular Convenauthority from the people who elected him to tion of the Democracy of Pennsylvania. I act in any other than that Convention, or that will obey its commands, or surrender to it the he did not tear himself asunder from the regular organization the moment he left that body and acted with separate and sectional assemblages. They can offer no available excuse for their conduct. There is none .--They deserted the only body to which they were accredited by their constituents, and struck hands with known Southern disunionists. in order first to defeat the choice of the National Democracy for the Presidency, and second, to carve out a new and independent Confederacy in the South. This is their position, and, labor as they may, with all the skill and sophistry they can command, they can not conceal it. They are disorganizers. traitors, disunionists. There is not "a single drop of Democratic blood in their veins." And of this traitorous faction JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE is the nomineee. We make no scruple to assert that he will not receive the vote of a single true Democrat in any Northern or Southern State. It is impossible that he should. What! a man nominated as he was, by seceders from the regular Convention, by disorganizers, by Congressional Interventionists, by advocates of the African Slave Trade, which our laws declare to be Piracy! What! a man thus placed before the Democracy in violation of all the hitherto cherished principles of the partythe candidate of the traitors, sectionalists, and banded plunderers-how can he receive the vote of a single honest, true-hearted Democrat in the Union? He can not; it is out of the question.

We do not forget that some, perhaps many, who have heretofore acted with the party, and who still call themselves Democrats, are rallying to the support of this bogus nomination. No, no, we do not forget this-we have them of that stripe here, in our midst; men who, when Buchanan apostatized, either through sycophancy, cowardice, or interest, apostatized with him, and to justify themselves. preached the brave and manly doctrines that HE was the master of the party, above all platforms, and that his word should be the law to guide us. These panderers to power, these slaves in the form and stature of freemen, have raised the rebellious flag of Breckinridge, and will form the column at the head Democrats. Whatever they may have been, ruption of the party.

Black Republican President.

The Rebels seem to be seriously alarmed lest Lincoln should be elected President of the United States. In the annals of villainous politics such base hypocrisy can find no parallel. They should have thought of this before Buchanan attempted to disorganize the Democracy of Illinois in order to elect this same bugaboo, Lincoln, to the United States Senate. They should have thought of it before they seceded from the National Democratic Convention at Charleston and Baltimore, They should have thought of it before they united with the Yancey disunionists and, in a bogus Convention, nominated that arch-traitor, Breckinridge, and that aspiring numbskull Lane.

Take all their actions together, since Buchanan's first move in that direction to the closing scene at Baltimore, and he is little less than a fool who cannot trace a deliberate design on their part to bring about precisely the result which they pretend to deprecate. Yancey and his "revolution" "precipitators" are laughing in their sleeves at the miserable northern dolts whom they have caught in their net. Those gentlemen who have fallen into the disorganizing movement are so many fish hooked in the gills by the Southern fire-caters, and they cannot loose themselves from the barbed steel that holds them. They must follow wherever the line draws, whether pulled by Buchanan or Yancey. They are helpless, impotent, and the true Democracy cannot forbear smiling at their vain efforts to obtain relief, or freedom. -Harrisburg State Sentinel.

[From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.]

The Bolting Breckinridge Ticket Dead. "Hung be the Heavens in black."

We thought when Mr. Breckinridge was serenaded and Jeff Davis, a notorious disunionist, made the speech of the occasion enondorsing Old Buck and going for Breck, that said ticket was dead from that moment. But as if to make it deader, Yancey, the confessed conspirator in a plot to " precipitate the cotton States into a revolution" must appear on the balcony and endorse the bolting movement. And now last of all comes the funeral pall. Old Buck himself has formally and publicly given his adhesion to the bolters' ticket. That buries it. It is deader than Julius Ceasar. The trump of the Arch Angel cannot resurrect it.

It is a remarkable fact noticed by all the delegates that at Charleston and Baltimore in the Convention and out, no man, officeholder or not, had the temerity to defend the corruptions and rascalities of this Administration, although anathemas long and loud were constantly uttered against it by Democrats from every part of the Union. If Old Buck goes for Breck that is damnation enough for any one man.

The Allentown Democrat closes an article upon the Democratic National Convention with the following paragraph :

As is known, we never expressed preference for any particular candidate, but all along stood ready to accept the nominees of the Convention, and therefore to-day hoist to our mast head the names of Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnson. Did we not of which their treacherous leader will march do so we would prove false to our regard for to eternal infamy. But these men are not party organization-lend our favor to a dis-son, have been nominated by the National Democratic Convention, in conformity to the recognized, and long established usages of the party. I therefore cannot consent to be made a party to any arrangement, even though it be of the State Central Committee, the operation of which would be to ignore those usages, and to recognize disorganization and I therefore in the event of my election as an Elector, will pledge myself to vote only for Stephen A. Douglas and Herschel V. Johnson, the candidates of the Democracy of

I have the honor to be