ceded from a County Convention, thus carrying disorganization to the very basis of our principles. Their organ in the city of Philadelphia has defiantly proclaimed that the "Federal Administration will not do its daty unless it brings to the block every office-holder who is an outspoken supporter of Douglas. Nothing but a clean sweep will meet the demand of the times."

In view of such acts and expressions, is it not apparent that their proffered compromise is but the Grecian warrior in the uniform of Achilles, and if we are deceived into receiving him, he will spread ruin and destruction throughout our ranks? They are "aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel," and with them we can have no fellowship. The future of our glorious party demands that we shall preserve its organization and its principles pure and untarnished. Shall we countenance disorganization simply because it becomes formidable? No; now are the times to test men's Democracy. Any person can be a sai-lor on a well rigged vessel and a smooth sea, but it requires skill, manhood, and heroism to face the terrific storms that shake the shin from stem to stern, bend her proud masts, and threaten destruction. Rebels and mutineers must be watched, and the brave ranks of our true hearted men protected from demoralization. We must purify the fountain, or the stream with its dark impurities will blind us, while the foes who have corrupted it will lead us to unutterable ruin. The only terms we can consent to make with any of our political opponents (and we make no distinction,) are, that when we have formed a pure electoral ticket, pledged to support Douglas and Johnson, and them alone, they may all support it. We intend to comply with the letter and spirit of the Reading resolution pledging the Democracy of the State to the support of the Charleston nominees. Were we to unite with our Southern opponents on the basis proposed by our Executive Committee, and by virtue thereof elect our candidates, we would feel more ashamed of the honor than we will of the disgrace of defeat in defence of our party and its principles.

We have fought our battles in defence of the true principles of Democracy, strictly within the Democratic organization-and we have triumphed. We have refused to permit the Democratic party to be sectionalized, and standing to-day as a wall of fire between | Northern sectionalism and Southern sectionalism, we have but to maintain the victory already won. Whatever may be the present result, the firm reliance we entertain in the intelligence and patriotism of the American people inspires confidence that the national and conservative position we occupy will eventually command their support. Acting under a firm conviction of the rectitude of our position and our intentions, we will fearlessly maintain them, and spurn with contempt all propositions, from whatever quarter they may come, calculated to demoralize our organization, and contaminate our principles. "Oh! for the swords of former time; Oh! for the men who bore them; When armed for right, they stood sublime, And tyrants crouched before them."

General Davis, of Bucks county, was loudly called for, but being absent, on the solicitation of many delegates, R. A. Lamberton, Esq., of Dauphin, proceeded to addresss the Convention. Mr. Ward, of Bradford, stated that he had

Broad Top, claiming to be miners and "genuine Democrats." In the last Huntingdon Union we find the following card :

Union we find the following card: A CARD.—A meeting of the Broad Top genuine Demo-crats, was held, on the 21st inst., for the purpose of dis-claiming against the autocratical presumption of Mr. Wm. Lewis, editor of the Globe, in Huntingdon, for the insertion of an item in said Globe, on the 11th inst., to the intent of disparaging and vilifying the character of the industrious citizens of this vicinity, by the augmentation of the fabulous riot at Powelton, which only pertained to two or three drunken fellows, about the 4th of July; and the contents of this mentioned item being the only gath-ering up of an unfounded rumor on the streets of Hun-tingdon, as acknowledged by Mr. Lewis himself, in his explanation given for not inserting a contradictory deexplanation given for not inserting a contradictory de-spatch to said item. Under the above circum-tances, said meeting unanimously concurred in pronouncing the said Mr. W. Lewis as an associate and participator in the above pice of calumny. And, also, unworthy of being patron-ized by their party here, either in his words, deeds or ac-tions, until an ample satisfaction will be rendered them by giving the name of the author of the above rumor. FROM THE BROAD TOP MINERS. Broad Top, July 23, 1860.

The reader will find under head of "Local Correspondence," a communication which will explain the origin of what appears to have given offense to the "genuine Democrats" on Broad Top. We would not notice the card to defend ourselves against the cowardly and knavish conduct of its author, or authors, if by treating it with silent conand genuine Democrats on Broad Top great story originates with one of their own citi-injustice. We were in the neighborhood of zens. the mines on Saturday last, and met with many of the miners and Democrats who assured us that no such meeting as the card speaks of was ever held by Democrats or by miners on Broad Top. The author of the 'contradictory despatch" (which was refused publication in the Union as well as in the Globe) also assured us that no such meeting was ever held on Broad Tor.

The "genuine Democrats" on Broad Top do not wish to be held responsible for anything appearing in the Union of the character of the card, and it is for the "genuine Democrat" of the Union to explain-to give the place where the meeting was held, and the names of the officers of the meeting. If the card speaks the sentiments of any one of our patrons on Broad Top, we hope to receive his name that we may erase it from our books, for we despise a fool and a knave, and would not insult our honorable patrons by associating their names in the same book with that of a sneaking coward.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT STONERSTOWN .----On Saturday last we attended a Douglas, Johnson and Foster meeting at Stonerstown, and had the pleasure of assisting in the putting up of a large "Douglas, Johnson and dressed by II. L. Fisher, Esq., of York, John of Representatives of the United States, not Cessna, B. F. Myers, and O. H. Gaither, Esqs., of Bedford. There were some seventy sking for a vote, but in the face of his revoters from Bedford and Huntingdon county | peated declarations in favor of the principle in attendance, and we were assured by all present that every Democratic vote would be cast for Douglas, Johnson and Fostor, the Democratic nominees. PIC NIC .- On Friday last, a portion of the 240 marriageable girls," accompanied by some BOYS, repaired to the woods, about a mile and a half from town, to enjoy themselves in the way of preserving sponge-cakes, &c. After remaining there about two hours and a half, they started home, all highly delighted with the evening's enjoyment. For There are now seventy visitors at the City Hotel in Broad Top City. This is an increase over last year, and is substantial evidence that strangers are well pleased with the accommodations. We have been informed that some of the visitors are from North Carolina and other distant parts of the coun-story he had repeated the evening previous. and it appeared in your paper almost as he related it, as I furnished the item for your paper during your absence. I saw the date of the letter, which was dated at Powelton, July 5, 1860, and should it become absolutely necessary, in order to satisfy the "Broad Top Miners," or the "Broad Top genuine Democrats," that the name attached to the letter, should be produced-I will not say positively, but I think, I can repeat it. In conclusion, I would add, that I have written nothing but plain, simple facts, for the truth of which, I can name several gentlemen whose honors have never been impeached; and I trust, after the injured (?) parties have read this statement, it will teach them to not be quite so hasty in their denunciations of a man, before they are aware of tempt would not be doing the miners and the circumstances of the case, and when the TOR LOCKE

The Course of "The Press."

The New York Herald, the avowed organ of the Disunionists, is extremely anxious to prove that the editor of this paper is not a true friend of Judge Douglas-that in consideration of his election as Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, he is laboring to break up the Democratic party, and that he is secretly in favor of Abraham Lincoln. The same accusations appear in the Constitution, the Washington mouth-piece of the fire-eaters, and in all other papers that have taken the pay or followed the lead of the Administration. The Herald and its associates base their animadversions upon the fact that The Press refuses to sustain the scandalous attempt to rally the Douglas Democracy of Pennsylvania upon a fusion electoral ticket pledged to vote for Breckinridge, the Disunionist, if he shall receive more electoral votes than Douglas, or for any other candidate the electors may choose to support, not excluding either Bell, Houston, or Lincoln. A very few words will dispose of the indictment of the Herald and its echoes, and show precisely where we stand in this great struggle:

received a letter from one of the leading Southern delegates to the Democratic Convention, who was forced to secede, under the instructions of his State Convention .-He declares that they are determined to carry their State for Douglas and Johnson, but that if the Douglas men in Pennsylvania yield anything to the Breekinridge Disunionists it will ruin the Douglas movement in the South.

A subscription was raised to defray expenses, and ten thousand copies of the proceedings of the convention ordered to be printed in English, and two thousand in German.

Mr. Lamberton said that as the address and resolutions reported from the committee had been adopted with singular unanimity, and the business of the convention was finished, he moved that the thanks of the convention be tendered to its officers for the efficient manner in which they had discharged their duties.

The motion was unanimously agreed to, and the convention at near midnight adjourned sine die.

NOBLY SPOKEN .--- Col. G. Cannon, U. S. District Attorney for the District of New Jersey, wrote a letter to the Camden Douglas ratification meeting, from which we make the following extracts :

"I regard the nomination of Stephen A. Douglas as the nominee of our party, as not only regularly but righteously made. For the last three years he has been made the target of Executive and Senatorial persecution, and has thus far gloriously triumphed over both. The masses of the Democratic party have taken the matter into hand, and are determined no longer to submit to the dictation of their servants. I shall use all means in my power to promote his election in opposition to the two sectional candidates, Abraham Lincoln and John C. Breckinridge, regarding the principles and platforms of both as extremely inimical to the preservation of our glorious Union."

ARRIVAL OF THE PRINCE OF WALES .- ST. JOHNS, N. F., JULY 24 .- Her Majesty's ships Hero and Ariadne arrived at this port last evening, having on board his royal highness, the Prince of Wales and suit. The Prince of Wales will land this morning at Queen's wharf with due formality. A royal salute will be fired from the Battory to-night. Great crowds of people have play of bunting and every manifestation of rejoicing.

A DOG OVER THE FALLS OF NIAGABA .- An unfeeling fellow threw his dog into the Ningara River, near Goat Island bridge, the other day, to test the question whether it was possible for animals to be carried over the falls and escape alive, and immediately afterward went to the foot of the ferry stairs and found the dog little injured by the tremendous leap. The experiment was tried to convince some incredulous person.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

CASSVILLE, July 30. 1860. WM. LEWIS, Esq. :-- In the Union of last week, I notice A CARD, signed "From the Broad Top Miners," in regard to an item which appeared in the Globe, of the 11th inst., statgathered on the wharves ; there is a vast dis- | ing that a band of desperadoes had congregated in the woods adjoining Powelton, &c .--As the "Broad Top Miners" have taken the trouble to call a meeting of the "Broad Top genuine Democrats," (which, no doudt, consisted of the outlaws themselves, with the Union's correspondent as their Chairman,) to denounce you for publishing the current news of the day, I will simply state what I know about the matter, as I happened to be in Huntingdon at the time :

On the Friday evening after the Fourth of July, whilst standing on the corner of Hill and Montgomery streets, in company with several others. Sheriff Watson came along, and remarked that he wanted to get a posse of men to go with him to Powelton, for the purpose of arresting a band of outlaws, who were committing all sorts of depredations at that place, and requested several, myself Plain and fancy, received and for sale at along with the rest, to go with him the next morning. Whether he was jesting or not, I

Stephen A. Douglas himself. II. The Press has never for an instant changed its course on the slavery question and its editor was chosen Clerk of the House Circulars, stating terms, &c., can be obtained by ad-Circulars, stating terms, &c., can be obtained by ad-the participation of Trustees. Foster" flag. The meeting was ably ad- and its editor was chosen Clerk of the House only without a pledge to any member of Congress, or to any other person, and without of non-intervention and popular sovereignty as boldly maintained by Judge Douglas. III. The Press never, as asserted by the Herald, raised the Douglas flag, and is not the organ of any man for the Presidency, but has always occupied an independent position, preferring Judge Douglas because he was the representative of the principles of the oldfashioned Democracy.

IV. The Press is not laboring to elect Mr. Lincoln President, but differs from him and his friends on the Territorial question, believing that if Congress cannot protect slavery in the Territories, neither can it prohibit slavery in the Territories.

V. But when the Disunionists in their speeches and delarations have declared, and still declare, their preferences for Lincoln over Douglas, what Northern man would not prefer Lincoln to Breckinridge, the latter being the candidate of the active and open enemies of the Union of these States? VI. That a fusion electoral ticket in this State is opposed by this journal, because it is a corrupt and fraudulent scheme to elect Breckinridge, who, according to the Herald and the Constitution, is sure to receive more electoral votes than Douglas, and, therefore, men who first trampled the Democratic creed under foot, and then bolted the regular Democratic nomination, made according to the usages of the Democratic party, in National Convention assembled.

VIII. That the Breckinridge party, of which the Herald is the organ in New York, the Constitution at Washington, and the Constitution at Washington, and the Constitution at Washington, and the Constitution at Washington Charleston Mercury in South Carolina. is proved to be the Disunion party, not alone by the declarations of its leaders, but by the the interval in the southern fireeaters who support it, to break up the Union in the event of Lincoln's election; and that The Press and all good men are bound, by every consideration of duty and of patriotism. to resist a party whose policy is purely sectional, and whose ultimate design is so atrocious and treasonable. IX. That the course of The Press in opposing Breckinridge and the fusion electoral ticket in this State, which, according to the Disunion papers themselves, must, if elected, go for Breckinridge alone, is sustained by eight-tenths of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania .- John W. Forney.
