Huntingdon, Wednesday, Aug. 8, 1860.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING .- The Democrats of Shade Gap had a fine meeting on the 27th. On Monday evening, a respectable number of the Democrats of the "ancient borough" held a meeting in the Court House and organized a Douglas, Johnson and Foster Club. John Simpson was elected President, T. P. Love and A. L. Diffenbaugh, Vice Presidents, and A. L. Grim, Secretary. John M. Cunningham and Alex. Port were agreed upon as the persons to be voted for by the National Democrats at the delegate election on Saturday evening next, to represent the party in the County Convention on Wednesday next.

The Deputy Marshals, now taking the census throughout the State, with a few honorable exceptions, are very busy in their efforts to disorganize the Democratic party. We warn Democrats of Huntingdon county to be on their guard when approached by these tools of the Disunionists. They must earn their wages by abusing Douglas, the regular nominee of the Democratic party. They have their instructions from Washington and must obey, or lose their head.

We should like to know what Bro. Myers, of the Bedford Gazette, means by saying we are hard to beat at "such like." Do you intend to be personal, Bro. Myers? if so we shall call up coffee, or "something else," for two, the first time we meet you.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOR .- Martin Walker, of West township, is named by many Democrats as a proper person for nomination by the Democratic County Convention, for the office of Director of the Poor. Mr. Walker awould make a very good officer.

A CHANCE TO SPECULATE.—Old rails are in great demand just now. They should have the appearance of being about twenty years old-they will then sell readily at a high price. Call on the "Rail Splitters."

The Opposition County Convention will be interesting. The candidates for office are so numerous, and the offices so few, that we cannot see how all can be accommodated. Perhaps the disappointed will fight for ven-

Bell and Everett Meeting.—The American wing of the Opposition party will hold a county mass meeting in this place, on Thursday evening of next week, to ratify the nomination of Bell and Everett.

Mr. John Law, of Spruce Creek, writes us that he has oats measuring 6 feet 51 inches in height, and 11 inches in circumference. A little ahead of Little Walker.

Associate Judge.-We are requested to announce John McClain, Esq., of Carbon township, as a candidate for Associate Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

Frank Pelan, of Harrisburg, a fireman, was accidentally killed by the collision of two freight trains on the Pa. road, near Lewistown, on Thursday morning last.

A CHANCE TO WIN A PILE.—A stranger in town offers to bet his pile that Douglas will be elected President. For further information inquire of Conductor Gum Morrison.

Democratic Meeting. A meeting of the National Democrats, was held at the hous of John Jamison, at Shade Gap, on Friday evening, July 27th ult. The meeting was called to order by A. F. Neely, on whose motion Mr. Joshua Price was chosen President; Jacob Kough, and John Carl, Vice Presidents, A. F. Neely, Secretary. The meeting was addressed by William Clymans, after which the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

resolutions were adopted:

*Resolved, That we heartily endorse the nomination of Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois, for the Presidency, and Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, for the Vice Presidency, recognizing in them the only regular Democratic nominees for those high offices now before the people, and pledging to them, one and all of us. a faithful, earnest and uncompromising support. We do so, believing that their election, and the triumph of the principles upon which they stand, will give peace to the country, and permanency to our institutions.

Resolved, also, That in the nomination of Henry D. Foster, for Governor, the Democracy have presented to the people of Pennsylvania, one of the most talented, fearless, incorruptible fellow-citizens; one in every way worthy the support of conservative national men; one whom it will be a privilege and a duty to sustain, and a pleasure The following resolution was passed on motion of Mr. Jacob Kough. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Huntingdon Globe, for publication. Mr. M. Trexter moved that the meeting adjourn to meet

The Patriot's Duty.

The following interesting letter from J. D. Porter, formerly a citizen of Henderson twp., this county, we clip from the Brownsville

NORTH HENDERSON, Warren Co., Ill.,

July 18th, 1860. DEAR TIMES: - The present political excitement, from the manner of its commencement, promises to be the most violent of any for many years, and as the campaign pro-Another new paper has been estab- gresses excitement will probably, to a great it were not for this, the conservative lover of his country would have less to fear in the apwho he, as a patriot, ought to support with a view of calming the present dangerous sectional feeling that exists throughout the country, and bringing back that brotherly national feeling which formerly existed between the people of all sections of our common fourths of all votes cast at the coming election for Stephen A. Douglas. The only canas the representative of a party that has derived its principle strength from its continual welfare on Slavery and slaveryholders, and increase the present ill feeling, instead of allaying it. It is idle to say that the party has lately become more conservative and national. The speeches of Lovejoy and Sumner show hut plainly the hitterness they feel against will be reciprocated by the Southerners, and surely no one will claim that this is bringing back the Government and people to the principles and feelings of the Fathers-of which be denied that many have acted with the Democratic party, of late years who have no democracy about them, and in many places they controlled the party, and in this respect the late Secession is fortunate for the party. vain attempted to defeat the people of choice in a candidate for the Presidency, have long disgraced the party and been the cause of driving out true democrats. But the fact that the party has proven too strong for them with all their aid from a corrupt Administration, and have obliged them to shamefully se-cede and set up on their own hook, will convince every candid man that the Democratic party with their great leader, S. A. Douglas, is truly Democratic—in favor of equality of children, so far as she could get them to the people, and their right and ability for self Government. No sane man of the North can believe that Douglas is in favor of giving her boys away. She got as far the seralio, of our Constitution, while it is equally impossible for the most extreme Southern rights man to point to one of his acts which in any way violates the spirit of the Constitution. Why then should not every conservative patriot rally to the support of Stephen A. Douglas and by his election, allay the excitement and our country. P. S.—The people of Illinois show no favor to the Seceder-Disunion movement under the lead of Buchanan, and his tool, J. C. Breckinridge, and many that refused to support Douglas, two years ago are now coming out in his favor rendering the State of Illinois certain for him. THE CROPS IN ILLINOIS.—The wheat will again this year, fall below an average. The yield in this section will average about twelve or fourteen bushels per acre. Some sections of the State is much worse and it is said other parts are better. The corn crop promises an abundant yield throughout the State though it has been very dry in many places.

A DEER RUN DOWN BY THE TRAIN.—About four miles from Lake City, a few days ago, as the train on the Florida Central Railroad was passing down, a deer was discovered at some distance to the right hand about on a parallel with the locomotive, under full speed, making for a bay-head on the opposite side and taking away what little they possessed, of the track a considerable distance ahead.— told them they might go where they liked.— The fleet animal put forth all its energies to gain the desired point, and we suspect, though without warrant, that the engineer may have poked up the fire a little, for it was about so good and so good, with the iron-horse and his latter they said might grow up to be men nimble-footed competitor. The race became and bear arms against the Druses; they exciting, and all on board looked on with therefore took the poor little creatures, and bemuch interest. Finally the point of crossing sought by the animal was about to be reached, and it made one desgerate leap to cross the track in advance of the locomotive, and might have succeeded had it not been encumbered by the ditch; but the locomotive struck it. breaking three legs, and thus rendering it an easy prize. At another time the locomotive actly similar cases of child-destruction by the run down a wild turkey attempting to cross | Druses, in nine of which I implicitly believe, the track, and rendered it a prize to the operatives. Since catching a deer and wild turkey, our folks along the line think their cattle stand a slim chance. -St. John's, Fla., Mirror.

The Massacres in Lebanon, Asia. Correspondence of the London News, July 1,7

Until last evening I had hoped that this mail would take home more cheering news, respecting this unhappy province. Unfortunately our prospects get darker every day, for each hour brings either news of fresh atrocities committed by the Druses, or more decided proof that the acts of the latter are connived at by the Turkish Government. It is now ascertained, and a nominal list of them has been made, that, up to last night, the Druses have burnt and pillaged no less than 151 christian villages since the 29th of May last, while no less than from 75,000 to 80,000 christian inhabitants of Lebanonmany of whom were a month ago wealthy men, others in quite easy circumstances, and all strangers to anything like poverty or want -are homeless beggars, depending on actual charity for their daily bread.

Over and above the number of christians shot in actual warfare, between seven and eight thousand have been butchered-hacked to death would be the fitter term—as no butcher ever used in his calling half the cruelty of these bloodthirsty miscreants-in cold blood by the Druses. And besides this more than 5000 widows who, until this Druse campaign, were happy wives and mothers, have lost their husbands, brothers, fathers, and all male relatives, even to the male infants at the breast: and sixteen hundred children are now orphans. All these figures have been very carefully compared with others, and weighed in the balance of English (local) opinion, before being given as facts. And after conversing, comparing and digesting all I hear, after bringing my own four years' experience in Syria to bear upon the subject, I am bound to say that I have considerably undestood the case. Moreover, fifty millions sterling would not pay for the towns, villages, hamlets and silk factories destroyed throughout the mountain-all the property of the Christians. There is, besides, a fearfully long list of convents, churches and nunneries belonging to the same people, all of which have been plundered and then detroyed by the Druses. In short, what commenced as a civil war between the two sects can no longer be called by that name.

For the last twenty days it has been nothng less than wholesale massacre of Christians by the Druses, and a wanton destruction of all property belonging to the former by the latter. To give you some idea what these Druses are, I will enumerate a few instances of their frightful barbarity, all of which I have heard from the unfortunate sufferers themselves, now refugees from Lebanon. One poor woman, I knew both her husband and herself well at Deir-el-Kamer, where they were wealthy people-told me that when the Druses attacked the town the second time, (I should mention that it had surrendered, and all the inhabitans had given up their arms some twenty-four days previously to the Druses, and promised protection by their sheiks,) her husband was hacked to pieces before her eyes by the large knives of the Druses, who then declared that they must kill all male children in the house. The mother tried to hide her two sons, one 15, the other 9 years old. The druses, however, found them out, and she begged and prayed for their lives, and endeavored to down apparently lifeless. The Druses then made off, and the woman, thinking her two sons dead, remained in a sort of stupor for two hours—so far as she can calculate. At last she was roused by hearing the eldest lad call her in a faint voice, trying to assure her that he was not yet dead. On this she felt the body of the youngest boy, and found his heart beating. She got drink it, started into the town to see whether she could procure assistance to get her and or government house, but there she found that some 500 Christians, who had taken refuge, were being cut to pieces by the Druses, who had been invited to enter the precincts of the building by the Turkish soldiers of the garrison, these latter helping in the butchery, and being so far worse than the Druses that remove the suspicion and ill feeling existing between the people of different sections of tained here, the poor woman turned to fly, when she came across an old Druse, who had formerly been a farm servant of her hus-hand's. After a great deal of entreaty on her part, the man consented to protect her and her children down to the sea coast, about four hours' journey, on condition of receiving an order on her brother, a wealthy man in Beyrout, for 10,000 piastres. To this she agreed and they returned together to her house .-She had not been absent more than an hour, but she found her two children cut into pieces, joint by joint, "limb and trunk severed," to use her words, "as butchers cut up sheep," heads, legs, arms, and bodies, being hacked up into a shapeless mass of bloody flesh and reeking bones. Some other poor women then joined her, and together they made their way to a mulberry plantation outside the town, where they passed the night. At daybreak they were discovered by a party of Druses, who, after stripping them to find whether they had any money on their persons, Four of the poor creatures had babies, all under a year old. Of these infants two were girls and two boys; the former they did not touch, but the fore their mothers' eyes tore them up the middle and limb by limb; "exactly," to use the poor woman's own expression, "as you tear up a fowl that is to be cooked with pillau." Remember all this was done, not in the heat of fighting, but deliberately, in cold blood. And I have heard of eleven other ex-having every reason to do so. Deir-el-Kamar contained a month ago, population of 8000 souls, of which about 4000 were men and lads, 3500 women and girls, and 500 children under ten years old. Of the men, not more 150 have escaped, of the women and girls about 2000 have reached "Mr. Buchanan may be a very good and a "A tremendous reaction has taken place Beyrout; and of the young children less very pure man, but his war upon Douglas in this section of country in favor of Judge than 200 are alive. Don't forget, too, that this fiendish massacre was perpetrated upon a population which, twenty-four days previously, had surrendered to the Druses, had been promised protection by them, and were disarmed previously to the murder.
