ROPE WALKING FOR A GOOD PURPOSE.-Mr. John Stickell, a native of Antrim township, Washington county, Md., a carpenter by occupation, was engaged in building a mill for Mr. John Cushwa. The building, a brick structure, was up to the square; a number of neighbors-perhaps several hundred-had collected to assist in raising timbers; a rope was stretched across the building, near the middle, for some purpose or other; Mr. Stickell was on the wall near the one end of the rope, and a young man in his employ was on the wall at the opposite side of the building, at the other end of the rope; the young man fell, and, in falling, caught the rope, but was not able to raise himself, and if some person had not hastened to his relief, he would have fallen sixtv-two feet, into the cog-pit over which he was suspended. The crowd who witnessed the young man's peril seemed paralyzed. Mr. Stickell's attention was directed to the young man's dangerous situation by the murmur of awe from those below him, when, without a moment's hesitation, and without a balance pole, he fearlessly walked the entire length of the mill on the rope, over the sixty-two feet chasm, and rescued the young man from an awful fate, amid the rapturous shouts of all present. This was rope walking to some purpose, but we doubt whether it has its parallel on record.

A SLOW YANKEE FAMILY.—The Newburyport, Mass., Herald says a singular family resides in that city. The mother, far advanced in life, and a daughter nearly fifty years old, have shown very little disposition to mix with or see the world. They are seldom abroad, and have not both together been off their premises for thirty years at least, and we believe neither of them out of the street on which they reside for a score of years till last Saturday. They then accepted the invitation of a relative to spend the day at Oldtown. When he would take them in a carriage, the younger was greatly alarmed, for she had never been in any kind of carriage in her life. She turned pale, trembled, and grew faint in the prospect before her, but was finally prevailed on to trust herself to that conveyance instead of her feet. They stopped in full view of the Eastern railroad, and three trains passed near them; this was the first and all of their railroad experience. The old lady, who knows the Bible "like a book," said she believed the trains were an invention of the Devil, and had been sent out to seek whom they might devour.

have been unable to furnish the Dooks as rapidly as ordered.

We invite attention to the following notices:

"The authors have turned their intellectual wealth to the best purposes. Such books are better than hundreds of mere controversial sermons."—R. Shelton Mackenzie.

"'Say and Seal' is indeed a true, beautiful home book, that will be read with delight and profit by tens of thousands of our people."—Evening Bulletin.

"Decidedly the best book emanating from the authoress of 'Wide, Wide World."—Inquirer.

"A delightful book it is."—The Press.

"It is superior to 'Wide, Wide World."—North American.

THE BIBLICAL REASON WHY, A handsome book for Biblical Students and Sunday School Teachers, and a Guide to Family Scripture Reading, beautifully illustrated.—Large 12 mo., cloth, gilt side and back. Publishers' price $1.

This book makes the Bible a pleasant as well as profound subject of study. It leaves no difficult or obscure point unexplained. It renders every passage clear. It is exactly the volume that every family, which reads at all imperatively needs to place beside the Bible, as its best companies. THIS VOLUME ANSWERS 1,493 QUESTIONS IN A CLEAR MANNER.

TESTIMONIALS OF THE CLERGY. "I have given some attention to the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and feel bound to say that it seems to me to contain a vast amount of information on Biblical subjects, conveyed in a clear manner, illustrated by many valuable cuts, and printed on good paper. It constitutes a valuable addition to the apparatus of the Teacher, Parent, and private Christian."

Bishon of Pennsulvania.

Bishop of Pennsylvania. "I have examined the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and find it to be a repartory of facts on Biblical subjects, set forth in a plain and intelligible way. Indeed, I am surprised at the amount of matter that is compressed into this volume. For use in families and schools, I consider it the best book of the kind I have seen."

Rev. JOHN McCLINTOCK, D. D., LL. D.,

President of the Troy University, and Pastor of St. Paul's Church (Methodist Episcopal,) New York.

"The attention I have given your book satisfies me that it cannot fail to give important aid to all students of the Bible, and especially that large class who have neither time nor means to bestow on larger or more critical works. The plan of your work is excellent, and the matter well chosen. It should have a large circulation. It will certainly be of great use in the study of the Holy Scriptures."

Pastor of the Eighth street Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH!

Philadelphia, Sept. 29, 1859. To the President of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society:—The subscribers, your committee to examine the contents of a Salamander Safe, of Evans & Watson, after contents of a Salamander Safe, of Evans & Watson, after being exposed to a strong fire on the Fair Grounds for eight hours, respectfully represent—

That after seven cords of oak wood and three of pine had been consumed around the Safe, it was opened in the presence of the committee, and the contents taken out, a little warmed, but not even scorched.

Several Silver Medals heretofore received by the manufacturers, and a large quantity of documents were in the Safe, and came out entirely uninjured.

The experiment satisfied us of the capacity of Safes of this kind to protect contents from any fire to which they may be exposed.

STILL ANOTHER.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 17, 1859.—Messis. Evans & Wat son, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your Gentlemen:—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris & Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturday night, and although they had a stedge hammer, cold chisels, drill and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of "Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

BAYNARD & JONES.

GREAT FIRE!—ANOTHER TRIUMPH!!

KNOXVILLE, Tennessee, March 12th, 1859.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia:

Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe which I purchased of you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storehouse, together with several others, was burned to the ground in March last.—The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents where found to be in a perfect state, the books and the papers not being injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.
