tracted much attention from her air of melancholy. At Princeton, a sun-burnt but very handsome gentleman entered the car in which the lady in question was seated. No sooner had the parties glanced at each other than the lady swooned. On recovering herself, it appeared that the gentleman in question was her husband, whom she had not seen for ten years. He had started for California when the gold fever broke out. The parties at the time resided in Princeton, New Jersey. The husband was taken sick and did not recover for some time. Prior to his convalescence the lady had gone South, in the capacity of a governess, and wrote that fact to her husband, who unfortunately, did not receive her letter. No answer to his letter reaching him, he thought his wife was careless of his welfare. A feeling of home came over him, and he returned to the States a few days ago.—
Meantime the lady had fallen heir to a large Southern estate, left her by a member of the family in which she had been teaching .--These explanations being made, the once united couple started on a Southern trip together. There was a certainty of there being at least two happy persons on that train.

THE CAPITOLA.—This is the name of the jaunty saucy little hat and feather worn by the girls. It is decidedly the most becoming fashion lately hit upon. It is juvenile, and, however beautiful it looks on the young, the borgains. effect is quite the contrary when worn by la-dies who have the traces of forty summers on their brows. For young girls—not married women and middle-aged ladies—it is the prettiest and most tasteful thing we have ever seen on their pretty heads. For all girls with passably regular features and tolerable complexions, it is the very thing .-It ought not, however, to be worn too much on the face, which gives the wearer a bold look. The idea is to droop the hat and feather a little, so as not to loose sight of that modesty without which a woman, young or old, is-leather and prunella.

A Mysterious Box .- The treasurer of Amherst College, says the Springfield Republican. has lately received from Mr. Daniel Sears, of Boston, a heretofore liberal benefactor of the college, a small and carefully scaled box, with the instruction that it is not to be opened for one hundred years, on pain of a furfeiture of the which it contains. Speculation is at fault as to the contents, and the reasons for the accompanying condition. The shrewdest guess is that the box holds deeds of real estate in Boston, now under lease for one hundred years but then to be transferred to the college.— But let us be patient till 1960, and then we shall all know.

In order that fighting characters may know fully the severe penalty which the law imposes upon brutality, we append a section from the new Penal Code, passed by the Legislature last winter;

"If any person shall unlawfully and maliciously inflict upon another person, either with or without any weapon or instrument any grievous bodily harm, or unlawfully cut, stab or wound any other person, every such person shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to an imprisonment either at labor by separate or solitary confinement, or to simple imprisonment, not exceeding three years."

OIL.-The discoveries of oil on the Mahoning, in the neighborhood of East Brook, are creating considerable excitement. A number of persons from Newcastle, and elsewhere, are procuring sites. The editors of the Law-rence Journal, heard of one company in town taking a lease yesterday, and we are informed that the surface indications are fully equal to any in Venango county. The oil procured here is very fine, and those who have looked into the matter have no doubt that it exists in as great quantities in this county as anywhere.—Pittsburg Post.

OCTRAGEOUS ADULTERATION OF FOOD. - A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, who signs himself an "Honest Baker," says that the bakers of that city use, as a cheap substitute for cream-of-tarter, a substance, of which the deadly oil of vitrol is the principal component. The statement is almost too shocking to humanity to be credible. A baker who would use such an article, knowing its character, onght to have his throat rammed full of the infernal mixture, and be burned at the stake with a fire made out of his own flour barrels.

Gen. Sam Houston, in a published letter to J. C. Smith, Esq., dated Austin, Texas, July 31st, defines his position by say ing that he has not witdrawn from the field, as has been reported in some of the newspapers-that his name was presented by his fellow-citizens without any agency of his own -that he "does not weigh success against principle, nor abandon a cause from motives of policy"-and that if it is the wish of the people to vote for him, they have a right to do so, and if they do not it must be recollected that he has not asked their suffrages.

Two Full Moons.—A strange astronomical occurrence takes place during the present month—that of two full moons. On the first day of the month, at 11 o'clock and 33 minutes, the moon's phase changed from the first quarter to a full moon; on the 31st of this month there will be another change at 2 o'clock 57 minutes, from a first quarter to a full moon. This occurrence, which rarely happens, will be anxiously watched for.

TESTIMONIALS OF THE CLERGY. "I have given some attention to the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and feel bound to say that it seems to me to contain a vast amount of information on Biblical subjects. conveyed in a clear manner, illustrated by many valuable cuts, and printed on good paper. It constitutes a valuable addition to the apparatus of the Teacher, Parent, and private Christian."

Right Rev. ALONZO POTTER, D. D., LL. D. Bishop of Pennsylvania.

"I have examined the 'Biblical Reason Why,' and find it to be a repartory of facts on Biblical subjects, set forth in a plain and intelligible way. Indeed, I am surprised at the amount of matter that is compressed into this volume. For use in families and schools, I consider it the best book of the kind I have seen."

Rev. JOHN McCLINTOCK, D. D., LL. D.,

President of the Troy University, and Pastor of St. Paul's Church (Methodist Episcopal,) New York.

"The attention I have given your book satisfies me that it cannot fail to give important aid to all students of the Bible, and especially that large class who have neither time nor means to bestow on larger or more critical works. The plan of your work is excellent, and the matter well chosen. It should have a large circulation. It will certainly be of great use in the study of the Holy Scriptures."
