Let the People Know!!

That there remained in the National Convention at Baltimore, after every disorganizing Rebel had seceded, 436 regularly appointed delegates, entitled, under the rule, to east 218 votes-16 MORE than TWO THIRDS of a Full Convention. Let them know that, on the second ballot, Stephen A. Douglas, received 1812 votes of the 218, over FORTY more than TWO-THIRDS of the whole vote present. And then, to clinch all, let them know, that the resolution declaring STEPHEN A. Douglas to be the unanimous choice of the Convention, passed without a single dissenting voice; so that Stephen A. Douglas actually received 218 votes-SIX-TEEN votes more than two-thirds of a full Convention!

Let the People know, too, that the Seceders' Convention which nominated Breckinridge and Lane had no authority from any constituency to sit at Baltimore outside of the regular Convention-that it did not contain more than eighty or ninety delegates who had even a shadow of authority from the people to act -that it cast in all but 105 votes-not one of them properly authorized, or binding on any body-let them know this, and let them decide which was the Regular and which was the Disorganizers' Convention, and which of the nominees, Douglas or Breckinridge, is entitled to the undivided support of the National ELECTION, TUESDAY OCTOBER 9TH.

For Governor we have HENRY D. FOSTER, a true and tried friend of Pennsylvania interests. He is just such a man the people de. light to honor—an open, social, liberal, kind hearted, learned, common man-a Democrat in the proper sense of the word. And he will be elected by from ten to twenty thousand majority. Stick a pin there and after the election you can tell us how far wrong we are in

For Congress we have ARCHIBALD McAL-LISTER, of Blair county, a good Democrat, and an active business man. Mr. McAllister is engaged in the iron business at Springfield Furnace, and of course can be set down as crats on the previous night, it was a complete all right on the Tariff question. He will fizzle. The first croaker called upon for a give Steel Blair, the Abolition Republican, a stiff race, if not defeat him. For the State Senate we have John Scott of this place. Mr. Scott is well and favorably known to a majority of the voters of the district, and if they are not blind to their own interests, to their duty as good citizens, they will give him such a majority as will forever lay upon the shelf the mere truckling office seeker. The nomination was forced upon Mr. Scott, not by his own party only, but by many of the best men of the Opposition, and under existing circumstances he little Jim is to be the President of the road. cannot and will not decline. It is therefore Who doubts that his masterly eloquenee is the duty, the interest, of every good citizen amply sufficient to carry the measure. Much in the district, to declare openly and boldly in his favor and give him a support he is worthy of-receiving.

J. SIMPSON AFRICA is our candidate for the Assembly. He too is well and favorably known-has been tried and has not been found wanting. With Scott in the Senate and Africa in the House, the people of the county might with truth claim to be more ably and honorably represented than any other county has been for many years. Mr. Africa was not asking for a renomination, but the Convention, by an honorable compromise, and a unanimous vote, forced it upon him. He is, therefore, the nominee of the party, and being an honest man of irreproachable character, the party, individually and collectively, is in honor bound to give him an earnest support. If he is supported in good faith by the Democratic voters, there can be no doubt of his election, as hundreds of the Opposition will not vote for their nomince, forced upon them by bargain and sale,

We attended a large and enthusiastic meeting of Democrats at Bedford, on Monday night of last week. Able speeches were dential question the party is nineteen to one for Douglas. The nomination of Scott was warmly received by the meeting.

While at Bedford last week, we stopped at the Bedford Hotel, John Hafer, proprietor. He is a gentleman and keeps a good house, and our friends visiting Bedford will not forget to give him a call.

We were informed by our friend Geissinger, that Broad Top City was visited by a very heavy frost on Sunday night last. This was their first touch.

Douglas will make his great speech of the canvass at a grand barbecue to be given

[From the Bedford Gazette.]

HON. JOHN SCOTT. - The nomination of the above named gentleman for the office of State Senator for the district composed of the counties of Bedford, Somerset and Huntingdrn, was one eminently fit to be made. Mr. Scott stands at the head of the Huntingdon bar, is a man of excellent moral character, a fine speaker, a true Democrat and a gentleman in every sense of the word. Should he be elected, and it is not at all improbable that he will be, his constituents will find him a true and faithful representative. [From the Brownsville Times.]

Hon. J. Simpson Africa.—The Democrats of Huntingdon county have nominated this gentleman for Assembly. Year before last the opposition elected their candidate for the The concurrent testimony of all the ne-Legislature by 700 majority. Last year Mr. Africa defeated the same man by some 200 votes. This proves him to be a man of great popularity at home. He was regarded by last Legislature. If Huntingdon county does her duty she will re-elect this able young and attentive representative.

Wharton in Somerset.

[From the Somerset Democrat.] As previously announced, the Republicans held a meeting in the Court House on Tuesday evening of Court week. Compared with the enthusiastic demonstration of the Demospeech, was S. S. Wharton, who demonstrated by his disjointed remarks, bad grammar and worse rhetoric, that he is a fitter candidate for a country school and preparatory training, than for State Senator. After a few ridicu-lous attempts at wit, he tried his hand at humbugging our honest and credulous country people. But the ruse was as shallow as his brain. He expressed an attachment to our local interests. O yes! he is a Railroad man. If elected, he is going to make us a Railroad right where we desire it. He is going to introduce a bill in the Senate to incorporate a body of Japanese to make an airline-railroad from the summit of the Allegheny to the highest peak of Laurel Hill, and as we all are in favor of a railroad, we deem at soft-soaping for an obscure and powerless individual like Wharton to tell us of the great things he will do.

P. S.—The jail was entered last night and one of the white men, known as Lem Paine, but whose real name is Mahan, was taken out and hung to a shade tree standing near the tan yard, in full view of the jail. The coroner held an inquest this morning, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death by hanging, at the hands of some party or parties unknown. We learn that about 3 o'clock in the mornng a company waked the jailor up, representng that they had a negro to commit. Thejailor struck a light and got the keys, the parties having a negro (or some one representing a negro) tied. As soon as the keys were produced the light was blown out, the jailor compelled to submit, and the prisoner demanded. He was taken out by the parties. The jailor immediately gave the alarm, but it was too late to effect anything; they had hurried off, and no one could tell in what direction they had gone. The jailor and sheriff did their duty as fully as in their power. It is rumored on the streets that the evidence true, pure, and faithful to the cause they have adduced against the deceased, though not leit the sheerest nonsense and the baldest effort gal, was thought to be sufficient to satisfy those who heard it, that he was guilty. We have not space to say more. We hope that prudent councils will prevail, and that those who are officiating will keep the excitement within proper bounds.

RAINSBURG, BEDFORD CO., Sept. 6th 1860.

Mr. Lewis:—Thinking the doings of the Democrats of this part of old Bedford would not prove uninteresting to you, I have thought it nothing more than proper to give a short history of such. On Monday the 3d inst., quite a number of the followers of Jefferson left this place for Bedford to attend the great mass meeting. Everywhere along our route we were greeted with shouts of applause, and Hurrahs for Douglas. We arrived in time for our suppers at Col. Hafers, which, by the way, was a very good one. After which we repaired to the Court House, and listened with attention and delight to the able efforts put forth in favor of pure Democracy. Of the speakers and speeches I need not speak, as you were there in person, and I hope ers ere this period; suffice it to say that every one of the Rainsburg delegation returned home highly delighted with the proceedings. The next day the Republicans of this place turned out to a man, numbering, probably twenty, and went to Bedford. This party is rather weak throughout the county, nor do I wonder at it, for the doctrine and principles they profess to sustain are not of the people. A majority of them can assign no reason why "old Abe" should be President, or is competent to fill that office, other ndega, seperate into small parties, repair to than that in his youth he did what many honest and many dishonest men have done, "split a few rails." Now providing their docmurder the whites as they ran out. The time agreed upon for the assault was some Saturday night about the middle of Septem- is it not enough to disgust and horrify any reasonable person? But when I com-menced writing I had intended more espeplace. The Democrats of this vicinity thought it expedient to show to the world the glorious cause they sustained, and accordingly, on Tuesday the 4th inst., they placed before the Red Lion Hotel the emblem of true Democracy. About four o'clock in the evening the Democratic ladies were requested to aid in manufacturing a flag:—in less than fifteen minutes at least twenty assembled at the house appointed, and ere long, had made a flag and streamer. On the flag is to be seen thirty three stars, showing that in Democracy is union. On the flag that floated at the head of the Republican delegation were sixteen stars, indicating they were for disunion.

About 9 o'clock in the evening everything being ready one long and loud real which made the very earth tremble, went up for Henry D. Foster, and in less than fifteen minutes the pole was on end. Prof. W. P. Totten was-then called on, who, mounting the stage, responded in an able and eloquent address, setting forth in the most forcible manner the absurd doctrine of Republicanism. He was frequently interrupted by cheers and cries of go on. He closed his able address by introducing J. A. Livingston to the audience, who, after a few appropriate remarks read the following resolution, prepared by a committee appointed for that purpose:

For Bell, 25,000
He says that nothing can exceed the enthusiasm of the people for Douglas in those parts of the State which he has visited. He was every time disappointed in the size of his audiences, never calculating half large enough. Hon. K. B. Payne has also been on a "stumping" tour, and has been equally surprised by the magnitude and enthusiasm of the crowds.
