

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Sept. 12, 1860.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

HONEY.—Mr. Samuel Stouffer, of Walker township, has our thanks for a plate of fine honey in the comb.

There will be a Camp meeting held near Marklesburg, commencing on Friday, the 14th instant.

Correspondents should mail their letters so that we will receive them on Monday morning at the very latest.

The Committee of Arrangements for the fair are busy at work fixing up the grounds.

SCHEDULE CHANGED.—A new schedule went into operation on the Broad Top Road, on the 3d inst. See advertisement in another column.

The Democracy of the neighborhood of Shade Gap, will raise a Douglas pole at that place on Saturday next, at one o'clock.

The Presbyterians of this place intend having a slate roof put on their Church, in place of the tin one, which has been in rather a leaky condition for a long time past.

EXCURSION TICKETS.—For the accommodation of those wishing to attend the Encampment, the Pennsylvania Railroad have consented to issue Excursion Tickets at all stations between Hollidaysburg and Newport. Tickets will also be issued at all stations on the Broad Top Road.

TO OUR READERS IN NEIGHBORING TOWNS.—All of you who feel an interest in your place of residence should furnish us with the facts relative to affairs of general interest which occur in your respective localities. We will publish such correspondence from reliable persons with pleasure, and while it adds to the interest of our paper it also calls the attention of the public to your locality and thus advances its interests. Give us the items.

MATTRESSES FILLED WITH WOOD.—One of the "Down East" inventions of the past year is a machine for making curled hair for mattress filling out of wood. A solid block of maple, basswood, quaking asp, or any sweet-scented, inexpensive wood, is rapidly converted into a fibrous mass, much resembling white horse hair, and is much cheaper than hair, wool or cotton, and better than husks, moss, sea grass, &c. The machine is not expensive, and can be set up any place where wood is plenty, and where there is water or steam-power. It can be worked by any ordinary mechanic.

SPURIOUS TICKETS.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have given public notice that no ticket dated previous to the first of September will be received upon any of the passenger trains. The holders of such tickets are requested to present them to the Division Superintendents of the road, who, upon due proof being given that they were regularly purchased from the agents of the company, will refund the money. Notice is also given, that hereafter no ticket will be good unless purchased directly from the authorized agents of the company. These regulations are intended to prevent frauds which have hitherto been practiced by outside parties buying up second-hand tickets of the company.

SEASONABLE ADVICE.—With the change of seasons from Summer to Autumn, comes a shortening of days and a change of weather. Now the nights are long and comfortable, and delicate persons close their windows, and there is much sound sleeping, and there are many remarks as to the change. But delightful as the season is upon which we have just entered, it is none the less an excellent time to be careful. Fall colds are proverbial, and it is just at this changing season, when stepping from warm nights to cool ones, that persons should be more careful in matters of clothing, and observe with unusual attention the mysteries of diet. Now it behooves all who can to take exercise, and restore that strength which may have been drawn from the system by the enervating heats of summer. And now, be it observed, is the time to keep out of the night air, or too near rivers, or marshy grounds, or other miasmatic localities.

From the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph, Sept. 7.

DEATH OF YOUNG DENNING.—It is our melancholy duty to chronicle the death of Mr. Robert G. Denning, the victim of a railroad accident yesterday morning. After lingering in great agony until about twelve o'clock last night, death relieved him from his sufferings. The deceased had for some time been betrothed to an estimable young lady of this city, Miss Gray, and both looked forward to a speedy and happy union. When it was ascertained that Mr. Denning could not possibly survive, at the mutual request of him and his betrothed, and with the consent of the parents of both, they were married, Rev. Mr. Carson performing by the bedside of the dying man. The bridegroom passed from the altar to the tomb, and the devoted bride of an hour changed her wedding garments for the habiliments of mourning. The bride of yesterday is the widow of to-day! In the midst of her grief, however, there is sweet consolation in the thought of a re-union with the loved one hereafter in a world "where partings are no more."

BRIDGE TO BUILD!—The County Commissioners will receive proposals up to two o'clock, on the 26th day of September, inst., for the erection of a bridge across the Juniata River, at the mouth of Montgomery's Hollow, above Mill Creek. Length of the bridge 385 feet. To be divided into three spans of equal length. Plan and specifications to be seen in the Commissioners' Office. By order of Commissioners, HENRY W. MILLER, Clerk.

CAUTION.—I caution all persons against purchasing a note drawn in favor of J. Heller, for $40.00, dated September 1st, 1860, as I am determined not to pay the same, as I did not sign it. SAMUEL ARMY, Jr.

 JOHN FAREIRA, No. 718 Arch St., between 7th & 8th Sts. PHILADELPHIA, (Late of Market St.) Importer. Manufacturer and Dealer in all kinds of FANCY FURS.
 Having removed to my new Store, 718 Arch St., and being now engaged in the business of importing and selling at one price all kinds of FANCY FURS, which, in accordance with the latest and most improved methods of the art, I have marked at the lowest possible prices consistent with a reasonable profit. I would solicit a visit from those in want of Furs for either ladies' or children's wear, and an inspection of my selection of these goods, satisfied, as I am, of my ability to please in every desired essential.

Persons at a distance who may find it inconvenient to call personally, need only name the article they wish, together with the price, and instructions for sending, and forward the order to my address—money accompanying—to insure a satisfactory compliance with their wishes.
