THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Monday, Sept. 24, 1860.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Notice.—We go to press on Monday, two days earlier than usual, that our hands may have a few days leisure to see the sights.

PARKER'S SEWING MACHINE.—This popular machine is now on exhibition and for sale at Bricker's Store room. Call and see it.

Sunday School and family Libraries and all other books published by the American Sunday School Union, furnished to order on application at Lewis' Book Store, where catalogues of Books can be seen.

A fine assortment of Musical Instruments just received at Lewis' Book, Stationery and Music Store, such as Flutinas, Accor-Fifes; also Bows, Strings, Keys, Bridges, Rosin, &c., &c.

The Committee on decorating the town, with the assistance of the ladies, have been actively at work for several days, and we think they will receive the universal praise of our citizens and all visitors. They certainly well deserve it.

dies generally should call on Mrs. Hamer, one door west of the residence of Dr. Dorsey, and examine her stock of goods. Mrs. Hamer will use her best efforts to please all .-Give her a call.

GRAND CONCERT. -The Hudson Brothers will give a Grand Vocal Concert at the Court a call. House, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 25th .-Wherever they have given Concerts they have had full houses, which is the best evidence that they give full satisfaction. Go and hear

A VERY LARGE PRESENT.—On Friday last we received from Mrs. Daniel Protzman, of McConnelistown, the largest cluster of large tomatoes we ever saw. It weighed four pounds and eleven ounces. In the same basket we received a large variety of other very fine tomatoes. Mrs. P. will please per bushel.

Seeds—Cloverseed $5.75 per 64 fbs. Timothy $2,75 per accept our thanks.

Clothing should call on Robt. King, who has just received a fine assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, which he will make up to order in the most fashionable style. Call and examine his goods. Encourage home industry, especially when you can be accommodated at home with as good an article as you can get abroad.

AWEUL ACCIDENT.-A man named Robt. Morgan, formerly of this place, whilst driving a load of shingles into Tipton, on Wednesday the 12th inst., fell from his horse, and the wheels of the wagon passed over him, breaking his leg in several places, and crushing his head in a most shocking manner. Death ensued immediately. We are informed that he was a man of intemperate habits, and Have just received an unusually large and handsome stock that at the time of the accident he was very much intoxicated. He leaves a family. The Tyrone Star says, a singular coincidence occurs by this accident. Last fall the same wagon that ran over Morgan was instrumental in the death of Wm. Pruner, which occurred near Bald Eagle Furnace. Both were horrible affairs.

ALL COMING.—The lovers of fun, the careless lookers-on, the soldiers, the exhibitors at the fair, the little and big politicians with their friends and relatives, and every body else, will be in town this week. We expect the candidates for office will be busy looking up votes. The "handsome member" we have no doubt will make more fuir promises than all the rest of the candidates put together, but as the people ought to know him by this time we have no fears of him doing Scott any serious injury. Scott is at home here and is known. He needs no puffing to give him position as a perfectly upright and reliable man-just the kind of man all who aspire to a seat in the Senate or House of Representatives should be. Africa too, for the House, is just what all Representatives should be, honest and capable.

THE END OF SUMMER. -The reign of Summer has ended, and we have fairly entered upon the season of the "sere and yellow leaf," our deligiful and unrivalled American Autumn. The harvest is past- the Summer is ended-the morning songs of the wild feathered warblers have ceasedthe leaves of variegated hue are already making their appearance on the forest trees -and soon the voice of the katy-did and the light of the glow-worm will usher in the autunnal evenings. How short thime seems since spring was with us; how swiftly do the seasons pass! The years of human life have very aprly been compared to the degrees of longitude, which shorten as we approach the poles. The ardent youth thinks the years of fearful length until he attains maturitythen they seem to shorten, and decrease with every subsequent period of life's journey, until he exclaims with Job, "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle." Autumn is the most delightful season, teeming with the fruitition of the year—the harvests are gathered, the fruits are ripe, and plenty abounds. It infuses a soothing and tranquilsing influence over the mind, and disposes to contemplation and gratitude.

WIDE AWARES .- Every town of any importance has its political wide awakes, but we notice that the merchants are wider awake in our town than the politicians. For several days past our pavements have been jammed with boxes filled with new goods for the thousands of customers expected this week. Of course great inducements will be offered to all who call, to purchase handsome bills. We have looked around a little and find that all our regular advertisers are ready for the crowd. Our neighbor Westbrook has a large and splendid stock of Boots and Shoes for all ages. And across the way, Fisher & Son, have a magnificent stock of new goods. Brown, to our right, has everything in the hardware line, and some things a little out of it to accommodate his customers. A few doors below us we find D. P. Gwin, with an immense stock of new goods-and just below him is Benj. Jacobs with an assortment of dry goods, clothing &c. We cross the street and find deons, Guitars, Violins, Flageolets, Flutes, that H. Roman has been wide awake, for he Bost bulk. has just opened a large stock of new clothing | 2d best, best cow, for fall and winter. On the corner you will find Gatman & Co., also well prepared with a large stock of new clothing for fall and winter. Under Gutman's room you will find C. Best bull, Long with a fine stock of groceries and confectioneries-and in the old temperance hall building you will find G. Ashman Miller who has just laid in a fine assortment of goods NEW MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT.-The la- | generally, dry-goods, groceries, confectioneries, etc. Immediately opposite, you will find Wallace & Clement; they too have a fine stock of dry-goods, groceries, etc. We don't believe the town was ever so well supplied | 2d best, 3d best, with goods of all kinds as it is at this time. and we know the gentlemen named are all anxious to sell at very fair profits. Give them

E. J. OSB'IRN, A. B.,
J. W. DICKERSON,
This institution will commence its first session with an able and experienced corps of instructors, MONDAY, the 5th of November, 1860. No expense has been spared to make it thorough and complete in every department.—
The building is one of the largest in the state: being constructed and furnished on the most improved modern plans. It contains a hall capable of scating 600 persons, with office, music room, library and class rooms, sufficient for a school of 300 students.

The school is located in a region of country unexcelled for its beauty and healthfulness, and surrounded by a moral, and industrious community. The distance to Gove Station, Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, 6 miles; to Hollidaysburg Station, Penn'a. Railroad, 12 miles, with daily stage from both places, thus making the school casy of access from all parts of the State.

The objects of the school are:

1st. The Professional Training of Teachers.
2d. The thorough education of young ladies and gentlemen in the English, and ornamental branches.

2d. The thorough education of young ladies and gentlemen in the English, and ornamental branches.

3d. The preparation of students for college.

The Teaching class will meet daily for lectures, on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, for recitation from some standard work on the subject, or for discussion of the Method of Teaching by the class.

The ladies will have a separate boarding house, and will be under the immediate supervision of an experience.

will be under the immediate cap
