ELECTION CAKE.—The lady who has charge of the housekeeper's department of the Germantown Telegraph, gives the following receipt for making "Election Cake," and recommends it to all her sister housekeepers. It is especially appropriate at this time when the whole country is turned upside down with the approaching elections:-"Four pounds of flour, two pounds of butter and two of sugar. Stir the butter and sugar together thoroughly; then mix half of it with the flour, together with a tumbler full of good home-made yeast, and one quart of warm milk. Beat it and pat it with both hands, until the ingredients are thoroughly mixed. Then let it stand in a warm place until it is light, say five or six hours. Then add the remainder of the butter and sugar, two pound of raisins, and a small quantity of pulverized mace.-This may stand over night, and put in pans for baking early in the morning. It should rise in the pans, and then bake an hour in a slow oven. This cake requires no eggs, and is used by economical housekeepers in winter, when eggs are scarce. The loaves, nicely frosted, will be preserved moist for a long

FRESH TOMATOES AND BEANS IN WINTER .-The following mode for preserving fresh tomatoes and lima beans, is highly recommended by those who tried it last year. It is simply to prepare a strong brine—pure salt and water—in a proper vessel, into which the tomatoes or beans, having been picked unbroken, are dropped, and kept beneath the pickle by a board and weight, until wanted.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

[For the Globe.] Mr. Editor: -We had the pleasure of attending at Shirleysburg, on Tuesday, the 2d inst., a public examination, held by our Co. Superintendent. The exercises opened at an early hour in the day, and after a few timely remarks upon the responsibility and due reverence that characterize the teachers prosession, Mr. McDivitt proceeded to examine a class of thirty teachers, in the various branches taught in common schools. The examination was exceedingly interesting and continued until a late hour. A goodly number of ladies and gentlemen came in during the day, to enjoy the literary festival. At the close of the exercises, the teachers called Dr. M. J. McKinnon to their chair, appointed A. R. Miller, Secretary, and adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Shirleysburg and vicinity, do hereby tender our hearty thanks to Robert McDivitt, Esq., Co-Supt. of Huntingdon county, for the impartial and gentlemanly examination he has given us this day.

Resolved, That the Secretary send the minutes of this examination to each of our county papers for publication.

It is but just to add, that Mr. McDivitt, by his untiring zeal and unflinching integrity in discharge of his official duties, has already won the confidence and esteem of both directors and teachers, and we bespeak for himtheir hearty co-operation and warmest af-

Distressing Case of Utdrophobia.—A man named Patrick O'Donnel died in Detroit last Friday, from the effects of a bite of a dog, received four months ago. The Advertiser of that city says:

On Thursday morning the unmistakeable symptoms of the most terrible of diseases vere apparent, and from that time till Friday evening, when death was brought to his relief, his sufferings were frequently, and during the latter part of the last day continually, of the most intense kind. No pen can describe the horror with which the sight of them afflicted the spectators.

It should be understood that in this disease the sensitiveness of the nerves is exquisite, almost beyond belief. The raising of a hand by one several feet away occasioned a terrible shudder, "For God's sake, don't do that ; you take my breath away," he gasped out; and such is but one of the many incidents that were constantly occurring when the spasm was not on. There was a constant twitching of every limb, eyes starting as if to leap from their sockets, or clashing or clutching of the hands, and the like. When in the spasms he could scarcely be held. He would jump up and bite at everything near. The sight of fluid occasioned a most fearful exhibition of perfect dread, and at no moment was the unhappy man at rest. When not in spasms he was rational and conversed. Early in the day, yesterday, he spoke of death as certain, and would call his mother to him, embrace her, and talk with her, as if the next moment would be his last, telling her that no one could tell what might be the consequences of the next spasm.

His death, we understand, to have been hastened by his physicians, in mercy to him, after all imaginable means had been taken to arrest the disease. He often, when his sufferings were severest, begged of those around him to shoot him, or kill him in any way to relieve him from miserv.
