LOCAL & PERSONAL. Boys Out at Night .- The practice of allowing boys to spend their evenings on the streets is one of the most ruinous, dangerous and mischievous things possible. Nothing so speedily and surely makes their course downward. They acquire under the cover of the night, an unhealthy state of mind, vulgar and profane language, obscene practices, criminal sentiments and a lawless and riotous bearing. Indeed, it is in the streets after night fall, that the boys generally acquire the education of the bad and the capacity for becoming rowdy, dissolute, criminal men. Parents do you believe it? Will you keep your children at home at nights, and see that their home is made pleasant and profitable? -- Genesee Re-

It is seldom that more truth is compressed into so small a space. The thousands of boys belonging to worthy, respectable families, who are permitted night after night to select their own company and places of resort, are on a certain road to ruin. Confiding parents, who believe that THEIR sons are safe—that they will not associate with the vicious-will one of these days have their hearts crushed, as thousands have before, by learning that sons whom they regarded a proof against any evil, have been from very early years, on the

Our neighbors of the Journal & American gave us an honorable position on the Salt River boat, but our business here requiring our attention, we declined making the trip. If defeated at the next election we shall still persist on remaining in the 'ancient borough," and try to make an honest living by labor until those good times promised by the Opposition come, when we shall expect that everybody will be able to loaf around and live on the fat of the land. Having lately purchased a new fast job and card press we are prepared to do work for all the counties within a hundred miles around us. Give us a call—defeat or victory, we will always be ready to accommodate our friends and enemies with any kind of printing from a large handbill down to the smallest card.

CASSVILLE SEMINARY.—The winter session of this well known institution, now under the control of Prof. James W. Hughes, a young man of sterling ability and classical refinement, opens on Monday next, for a term of twenty-two weeks. We recommend this institution for both males and females, to parents who wish to send their children abroad to school. Situated as it is, away from the vices of the world, with nothing but the romantic scenery to attract the eye or divert the mind, to a boy or girl who has a desire or inclination to study, it is one of the best places in the State. We speak from the book, when we say that Prof. Harbes possesses every qualification requsite for controlling such a school. The terms too, are the cheapest to be found anywhere—only $45 per session of twenty-two weeks.

BARRELS FOR FRUIT .- Everything in contact with fruit should be clean and sweet, and the vessel in which it is placed should be dry and tight. Old flour barrels should not be used unless well washed and dried, as the particles of flour left in the barrel will mould and impart to the fruit an unpleasant odor and flavor. Old lime barrels it is said, are excellent for this purpose; the lime absorbing the waper and gasses. If this is so, a little fresh slaked lime scattered on the bottom, sides and top of the barrel, would be benefi-

DEATH OF SAMUEL REED.-Mr. Reed, an old and much respected citizen of Juniata township, came to town as usual with marketing, on Thursday last, and at about one o'clock, had an attack of apoplexy on the street, which, after having been taken to the residence of David Snare, Esq., was followed by paralysis. He lingered in an insensible state until Sunday night at 12 o'clock, when life departed. Mr. Reed had been all his life a very industrious and honest man, and very active for a man of his age. He was - years of age.

Good. -There appears to be no fixed standard for good. To the trading community any man who can pay his debts is "good;" but then a very immoral person is often esteemed a "good fellow." With commercial people goodness consists in money with "the fancy," in muscle. In short, everywhere and with all sorts of folks, "good" expresses simply what is much needed or desired. A traveler on the coast of Africa writes that a native said to him, eying his abundant apparel (of which the negro had next to none)-"You are a very good man-you got plenty shirt!"

ARRESTED AND BOUND OVER .- Conductor Roloff, of the train that killed two men and injured another, at the time of the Encampment in this place, was arrested in Harrisburg on Thursday last and brought to this place by Constable John Westbrook. He was taken before Esquire Snare and bound over in the sum of $1500 for his appearance at Court. The engineer has not yet been arrested, but the police officers of Harrisburg are on the lookout for him. Neither of the men are now in the employ of the Pa. R. R.

SICK HEADACHE.—It is stated that two spoonfuls of finely powdered charcoal, drank, in half a tumbler of water, will in less than fifteen minutes give relief to the sick headache, when caused, as in most cases it is by superabundance of acid on the stomach.

REMEDY FOR BRONCHITIS.—We see it stated that common saltpetre, dissolved in the mouth, is a remedy for bronchitis, and that a penny's worth is sufficient to relieve any one. The cure is a simple and cheap one.

SPREADING HIMSELF.—We notice that Mr. C. Long has had his entrance door to his grocery considerably enlarged to accommodate the rush of customers at times. He has just laid in a fresh supply of groceries.

EASY TO TAKE.—Mrs. Eclaris Thomas presented us with a large pitcher of sweet cider on Friday last. The same article can be had at the Confectionery next door below us.

AND SEMINARY.

Martinsburg, Blair county Penn'a.

E. J. OSBORN, A. B.,
J. W. DICKERSON,

This institution will commence its first session with an able and experienced corps of instructors, MONDAY, the 5th of November, 1860. No expense has been spared to make it thorough and complete in every department.—
The building is one of the largest in the State: being constructed and furnished on the most improved modern plans. It contains a hall capable of seating 600 persons, with office, music room, library and class rooms, sufficient for a school of 300 students.

The school is located in a region of country unexcelled for its beauty and healthfulness, and surrounded by a moral, and industrious community. The distance to Cove Station, Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, 6 miles 7 to Hollidaysburg Station, Penn'a. Railroad, 12 miles, with daily stage from both places, thus making the school easy of access from all parts of the State.

The objects of the school are:

1st. The Professional Training of Teachers. 2d. The thorough education of young ladies and gentlemen in the English, and ornamental branches.

3d. The preparation of students for college.

The Teaching class will meet duily for lectures, on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, for recitation from some standard work on the subject, or for discussion of the Method of Teaching by the class.

The Indies will have a separate boarding house, and will be under the immediate supervision of an experienced Preceptress.

The whole expense (exclusive of the ornamental The whole expense (exclusive of the ornaments, branches) for boarding, tuition, room rent, fuel, &c., need not exceed $118. per annum. For circulars, with full particulars apply to
