THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE, A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, &C.

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Nov. 28, 1860.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

AN EARNEST REQUEST.—We have published the Globe regularly for fifteen years, during which time thousands of dollars of arrearages for subscription and advertising, have accumulated upon our books. We have never pressed those of our friends in arrears, for a settlement. But now, as we have in contemplation some extensive improvements in the size and appearance of the Globe at an early day, we intend, before making those improvements, to have the wheat sifted from the chaff, and our books squared up. Therefore, all who are indebted to us are requested to call before the 1st of December and square their accounts. We hope there will be no delay on the part of all our patrons in arrears. We are politically defeated, but neither frightened nor dismayed.

A RARE MUSICAL TREAT.—The celebrated "Continentals" will give a grand concert, in the Court House, on Friday evening next. Lovers of good music should not fail to go and hear them.

CHANGE OF CAR TIME.—The passenger trains on the Pennsylvania Central and Broad Top Roads, commenced running on new Schedules on Monday last. See tables as corrected in another column.

SOMETHING NEW AND GOOD.—Just received at Lewis' Book Store, a new article of writing fluid. It costs but a trifle more and is much superior to any writing inks.

FIRES.—The Shirleysburg Herald of last week, says the mansion-house at Brewster's old factory, in Hill Valley, Shirley Township, was burned to ashes on the afternoon of the 6th inst., with all its contents. The house was occupied by two families at the time; James Palmer living in a portion, and Mrs. Cornelius, widow of the late Reuben Cornelius occupying the renainder.

The fire originated from a stove-pipe in Palmer's apartment. Mr. Palmer and wife and Mrs. Cornelius being absent, and none but small children at home, the fire gained such headway before assistance was obtained as to make it impossible to save the effects of the inmates, who were thus rendered destitute. A lad confined in Mrs. Cornelius' room with a broken leg, was with difficulty rescued. Mr. Palmer was attending the Election at this place at the time. The house was a commodious two-story frame building—the property of Mrs. Speer, wife of Gen. G. W. Speer, and daughter of the late Judge Brewster. The joint loss is considerable, but falls most heavily upon the unfortunate inmates, who, by the occurrence, lose their all, and are made to rely on the cold charities of the world. We are happy to state that, through the efforts of kind neighbors, relief is speedily being extended.

ANOTHER.—About 5 o'clock on Friday morning last an alarm of fire was sounded through our streets. On ascertaining its cause, the buildings of William Johnson, in this village, were discovered to be in flames. The fire originated in his store-room, a small frame building close to, but detached from, his mansion on the south. When discovered, the interior of the store was thoroughly enveloped in flames, which soon vented themselves through the gables and roof. On the north, and close to the store, stood a long log and frame superstructure, consisting of stabling, bark, and mill-house, and tan, or finishing-house, attached to his Tannery. The fire immediately communicated itself to the roof and cornice of the dwelling on the south, while at the same time, the stable on the north, which was log, (the mow stored with hay,) was also in flames; the fire venting its fury rapidly onward, as if to devour the entire builidng. Fortunately, through the exertion of the citizens, a large number being then present, the roof of the bark-house, connecting with the tan-house, was torn away sufficient to arrest the progress of the fire at this point, and save the finishing apartment. The dwelling-house is of brick, or its destuction would have been certain. The roof was burned through, and at several times it was almost surrendered to the flames. Its entire contents were removed, in view of its certain conflagration; and, in the extreme hurry of the moment, the furniture, &c., was much damaged in its removal. The entire contents of the store were consumed. A considerable quantity of bark in the shed suffered the same fate.

The loss is considerable; but we are happy to learn that the greater portion, if not all, is covered by insurance in the Perry County Mutual Insurance Company. The origin of the fire is enveloped in mystery. It was through the almost superhuman efforts of the citizens, and the convenience of water, that the ravages of the flames were so fortunately arrested. Neighboring buildings were in imminent danger. The morning was calm. Mr. Johnson and his sons were absent on that night, but were summoned home through the day.

DESSERTS.—The lady who has charge of the Housekeeper's Department of the Germantown Telegraph, says of desserts, that these are the agents which cause a vast amount of human suffering, inasmuch as they tempt the appetite and bribe nature to transgression, which never fails of being punished sooner or later. All eat as much as they want of the ordinary dinner before the dessert comes in, and, without the dessert, would feel a comfortable exhilaration for the remainder of day. But the tempter comes in; the satiated palate is tickled, is whipped up; the man stuffs on, and for the remainder of the day is more like a gorged anaconda than anything else—so full that he rises from the table with deliberation, strives against coughing lest he might jolt up his dinner, and then sits down to doze away a whole afternoon under the oppressive influence of an inglorious surfeit. A large addition would be made to the comfort and health of any family which should discard the whole catalogue of pies, pastries, and puddings as desserts, and take in their stead one or two oranges or apples, or a dish of fresh ripe berries in their natural state; or if out of season or unattainable, an agreeable, neat, and healthful substitute may be found in a "mint-stick," a bit of cream-candy, or a piece of pure maple-sugar.

GOOD ADVICE.—Girls, let us tell you a stubborn truth. No young woman ever looks so well, to a sensible man, as when dressed in a plain, neat, modest attire, without a single ornament about her person. She looks then as though she possessed worth in herself, and needed no artificial rigging to enhance her value. If a young woman would spend as much time in cultivating her mind, training her temper, and cherishing kindness, meekness, mercy, and other good qualities, as most of them do in extra dress and ornaments, to increase their personal charms, she would at a glance be known among a thousand—her character would be read in her countenance. That's so.

☞ German and English Almanacs for 1861, only 3 cents, for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

MANAGEMENT OF A HOUSEHOLD.—Young ladies, cut this out and pin it in your bonnets:—"No young woman ought to feel herself qualified to become a wife until she is sure she understands how to do the most that can be done with her husband's money. The management of a hosehold is not a thing to be properly and safely entrusted to hireling hands. A servant is a broken reed for the head of a family to lean upon. There are a thousand little ways in which money must be expanded, in which real shrewdness and enterprise are requisite in order to use it to the best advantage; and there are a thousand other ways of saving money known, only to those who have studied aright the art of economy. The Turkish proverb has it, that "a prudent woman is a mine of jewels," and, like many other Oriental sayings, this is beautiful for the truth it embodies. A wasteful housekeeper not only actually robs those for whom she undertakes to manage, of the comforts it is her duty to provide for them, but keeps her husband's head over ears in debt, and makes the domestic life of a poor man a continual series of experiments in shinning it from one day to the next; in keeping the stomach full, though the purse be empty."

THANKSGIVING.—Next Thursday will be thanksgiving, and we suppose all who can will make it a day of feasting and prayer. The good old yankee custom of devoting one day in the year to the Almighty in thanks for the many benefits which, as a people and individuals, we enjoy at His hands, is one that we hope will never become obsolete. Probably some of our readers do not know how the custom originated. It was in one of the early colonies of New England. One year they had not raised enough to live upon, and unless help should come from the mother country, England, they must perish. It was a sorrowful time, and they appointed a day of fastiug and prayer, that God might send them relief. The day before that so appointed, a ship laden with provision arrived, and the fast day was changed to a thanksgiving day, and it was thereafter commemorated yearly.

A TIP-TOP DINNER.—On Thursday evening last we received by Express a box containing a baker's dozen of very fine large fat partridges, which had been 'taken on the wing' the day previous, near old Derry Church in Dauphin county, by Major J. L. Poulton, C. M., of Harrisburg, and by him sent to us as a present. We can assure the Major that we had a good dinner the next day; that Christmas turkey wasn't thought of. Our thanks—hoping you may have good luck often.

GRAND HUMBUG.—Two weeks ago we heard an occasional loud whisper of a great turnout of wide-awakes that was to come off in this place on Tuesday night last. Well, it did come off—but what did it turn out to be—nothing more than a dull, flat, funeral-like procession. There was no enthusiasm whatever. The poor fellows walked along, side by side, shivering with cold, regretting that their mamma's knew they were out and that they were so far away from their homes and their friends.

DEATH OF CHRISTIAN COUTS.—Our old friend and fellow citizen, Christian Couts, is no more; he died on Thursday morning last after a few days illness. Mr. Couts was well known throughout the country, and by the travelling public generally, as he had been for a number of years and up to the day of his death, one of our most agreeable and accommodating landlords.

☞ Two young men were fined, recently, in Allentown, for defacing handbills. The boys of this town who are in the habit of mutilating and tearing down bills, almost as soon as they are posted, will do well to make a note of the fact that it is a finable offence. We shall enforce the law against all who deface bills printed at this office.

COLD FEET.—If you have cold feet, immerse them morning and evening in cold water, rub with a rough towel. In one month you will be entirely relieved. All the red pepper and mustard applications are like rum to the stomach, relieve you to-day, but leave you colder to-morrow.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK—A new volume commenced—Now is the time to subscribe.—We have already received January number of Godey's Book. It is a magnificent No.—Only $2 per annum to our subscribers. Call and see the Book, and make up you minds to subscribe early.

BILLS.—We this week send bills to some hundreds of our subscribers, and we shall look for early and favorable answers. The amounts can be sent by mail at our risk, if Registered by Post Masters.

☞ We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of R. Newell's Gallery of Art. The testimonials are of the first character. *

MONEY MATTERS.—Since the suspension of the Banks, money is reported much easier in the cities, and times promises to be more brisk.

THE GLOBE:
THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS.

I PUBLISH now my annual Prospectus of THE DAILY GLOBE, and THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX, to remind subscribers, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Congress will meet on the first Monday of next December, when I shall resume publishing the above named papers. They have been published so long, that most public men know their character, and therefore I deem it needless to give a minute account of the kind of matter they will contain.

THE DAILY GLOBE will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters, equal, at least, to any corps of short-hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will each, be able to report, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words spoken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Head of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is acknowledged to be the cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint or printed from manuscript copy, taking for data the average number of words it contains.

The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because the debates will, in a great measure, be upon the policy of the Presidnet elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates of Congress can be obtained.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX pass free through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:—

Joint Resolution providing for the distribution of the Laws of Congress and the Debates thereon.

With a view to the cheap circulation of the laws of Congress and the debates contributing to the true interpretation thereof, and to make free the communication between the representative and constituent bodies:—

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the present session of Congress, the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX, which contain the laws and the debates thereon, shall pass free through the mails so long as the same shall be published by order of Congress: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the circulation of the DAILY GLOBE free of postage.
Approved August 6, 1852.

TERMS:

For a copy of THE DAILY GLOBE, for four months, $3 00
For 1 copy of THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX, during the session, 3 00
For 2 copies ditto, when ordered at the same time, 5 00

No attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompany it.

Bank notes current in the section of the country where a subscriber resides, will be received at par. The whole or any part of a subscription may be remitted in postage stamps, which is preferable to any currency, except gold or silver.
