THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Dec. 12, 1860

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

PATENT MEDICINE ADVERTISEMENTS .- We are almost daily importuned by patent medicine traveling agents to publish their column and half column advertisements which we notice appears in all the country papers in the State, with but very few honorable exceptions. We give them our prices which are the same we charge all advertisers, local and city, and we are invariably answered that they pay no such prices to any publisher for inserting their advertisements. One agent informed us last week that he generally found country printers anxious to "fill up" with patent medicine advertisements at any price, and we have good reason to believe he told as the truth, for we are seldom offered more than half the usual advertising rates, which we of course refuse, and consequently our columns are not "filled up" with humbug edvertisements, equally as injurious to a community as the publication of Lottery Schemes would be. True, some patent medicines are good, but take them all together and a greater swindle could not be practiced upon a reading people. And why should printers give such 'institutions' a preference over local advertisers? No honest fair dealing printer will do it, and he who does should not be encouraged by local advertisers who are always willing to pay fair prices. If the country publishers would adhere to regular paying prices, all humbug patent medicines institutions would be forced out of existence, and the health of the people benefited, and thousands of dollars saved annually to the poor.

TROUBLES .- Was there ever a family with out its troubles? Adam and Eve had their troubles in Eden; and all families have had their troubles. Every family has a skeleton behind the door; every person a thorn in his side. It is said that misery loves company, so take courage hapless man, wearied woman. You are in the majority. "Man is born to trouble as the sparks fly upwards." A useless family would yours be if it knew no trouble. Trouble is our great teacher. -It nerves us with strength; it gives us courage; it tempers our mettle; it develops our seif-control; it quickens our inventive powers. Troubles are to us what the winds are to the oak, what labor is to musele, what study is to the mind. Life is a school, and trouble is one of its great lessons. Troubles are not to be courted, but when they come we must get over them the best way we' can, or bear them with the best fortitude we can arouse Take courage, therefore, troubled one. Not in vain are your trials. They make you Leave, strong; and it is to be hoped, better. He not cast down, cheer up; cast aside your yeads and woes. Look the world in the face: do your duty; take every trouble by the norms, overcome it with the courage of a true soldier in life's great battles, and stoutly contend for the victory of will and wisdom.

THE NEW COUNTY OFFICERS .- Mr. Daniel Womelsdorf, the new Register and Recorder, has taken hold of the business of his office, and we have no doubt he will make an excellent officer. Mr. Glazier retires with every body his friend. He was an accommodating and good officer.

Mr. Wm. C. Wagoner, the new Prothonotary, has also commenced the discharge of his duties. He is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office well and with dispatch.

We have no doubt he will make a good flicer. Mr. David Caldwell having served the people well for three years, circumstances made it necessary for him to decline serving in the same capacity any longer. He made most excellent officer, a fact everybody ween, or he would not have run so well against the heavy tide of party organization. Mr. John Cummins, the new County Commissioner, is said to be an excellent man for the place. And Mr. Samuel Peightal, Dilischarge the duties of his office.

FINDING FAULT WITH CHILDREN .-- It is at times necessary to censure and punish, but very much more may be done by encouraging children when they do well. Be, therefore, more careful to express your approbation of good conduct than your disapprobation of bad. Nothing can more discourage a child than a spirit of incessant fault-finding on the part of its parent; and hardly anything can exert a more injurious influence upon the disposition both of the parent and child. There are two great motives influeneing human actions-hope and fear. Both of these are at times necessary. But who would not prefer to have her child influenced to good conduct by a desire of pleasing rather than by the fear of offending? If a mother never expresses her gratification when her children do well, and is always censuring them when she sees anything amiss, they are discouraged and unhappy; their dispositions become hardened and soured by this ceaseless fretting; and, at last, finding that whether they do well or ill, they are equally found fault with, they relinquish all efforts to please and become heedless of reproaches.

To KEEP ICE FROM WINDOWS .- We find the following directions to keep ice from "show windows," going the rounds: Take an ordinary paint brush or sponge, and run over the glass once or twice a day a little alcohol, and it will keep the glass as free from ice as in the middle of summer, and it will also give as good a polish as can be got in any other way.

weather is just the time to catch colds and fevers. Don't let the warmth of the sun seduce you into throwing off your coat, or leaving your windows open, or letting the fire go out. Ugly colds are thereby contracted .--Now is the just time, also, for the scarlet fever to sieze, with its terrible grasp, the forms of the little ones. Don't let the children become exposed to the weather without being as warmly dressed as on the coldest days, for these snuffles and colds, are generally the precursors of the scarlet fever. Be particular therefore, that your children go out into the streets with warm clothes, thick boots, and careful preparation for moist weather. An ounce of preventive, &c.

Rev. Haskins, from Nebraska Territory, preached an excellent sermon in the Methodist Church in this place, on Thursday evening last. After the sermon he spoke of the sufferings in that country for want of bread and clothing, the crops the past season having been a total failure. A small collection was made to help his suffering neighbors. He had lately received a letter from home, stating that sixty children had attended Sunday School in his town, through snow eight inches deep, without shoes or stockings.

We are pleased to learn that a musical association is forming in the "ancient borough." We have the talent-equal to any in the State,-and we hope our musical friends will keep their instruments in good order and wake us up occasionally at the dead hour of the night. The serenade we received on Wednesday night of last week made us forget for the moment the troubles forced upon our people by the fanatical party lead-

THE MESSAGE EXTRA.—The President's Message was submitted to both branches of Congress on Tuesday at noon of last week. week. On Wednesday at noon we issued it in an Extra Globe to all our town subscribers, and to our county subscribers by the first mail. Of couse the extra cost us some dollars,-our subscribers received it for nothing-we hope they will appreciate our exertions to give them the worth of their money.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED .- Mr. John Simpson, of McConnellstown, brakesman on the passenger train on the Broad Top Railroad, was instantly killed at Saxton on Tuesday of last week. After he had coupled a number of cars while in motion, he fell off in front of them, the wheels of the fourth and last car taking off the upper part of his head. No person witnessed the accident. Mr. S. leaves a wife and several children.

PETERSON'S LADIES' MAGAZINE.-We have received the January number-the first volume. It is the best number for the ladies Peterson has issued. There is no cheaper Magazine published. Advance paying subscribers to the Globe will be furnished the Magazine for one year for $1.25. All who want to subscribe should call immediately so as to secure the first number of the new vol-

Another Man Lost.—An insane man named John Loder, strayed away from his home in Somerset county, on the 19th ult .-He is six feet high, full face, and had on neither coat nor vest. Any information in regard to him, communicated to Samuel Loder, Shanksville, Somerset County, Pa., will be a great favor on his afflicted family.

A TASTER. - On Thursday last we received some fine sausage from Mr. G. F. McCabe, made from the best porker of the season--The hog was raised by James Patterson, of Canoe Valley, and was brought to town and butchered by Mr. McCabe. The 'hanimal' weighed when dressed, 696 pounds.

FINE CELERY. - We received yesterday from Mr. Thomas Tweed, of this place, several bunches of the finest Celery we ever knew to be raised in the town. Mr. Tweed sector of the Poor, is also well qualified to has a fine stock on hand for sale-persons wanting the article will give him a call.

> PLANT TREES .- It will be well for those who buy fruit trees from itinerant Yankees, to remember that Messrs. Taylor & Cremer will make a public auction, early next Spring, of a large portion of the trees now growing in their Nurseries of this place.

> Some scamp last week removed from the hall of Dr. Dorsey's residence, his new overcoat and a partly worn frock coat. Loss felt considerably just now-cold weather and hard times. Keep your doors closed.

Two weeks ago we sent out bills amounting to upwards of a thousand dollars -and in answer to them we have received just $16.50, God save the Union-and the "Cheap John" has come to town .-He holds forth in Bricker's Store Room. For a good laugh go and hear "John"—he is one of those you occasionally read about. See his advertisement.

New Goods.-Fisher & Son have just opened another fine stock of New Goods. The ladies of course will not fail to call and pass their opinions on Rash's taste to please.

NEIGHBORLY .- A mess of sausage and pudding has been received from Mrs. Claris Thomas. Our thanks. There's music in the porker's squeal-let them squeal.

The superb engraving, which every subscriber will receive, entitled, "Fulstaff Mustering his Recruits," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30x38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated seene of Sir John Falstaff receiving in Justice Shallow's office the preprints which have been pathered for his "ragoffice, the recruits which have been gathered for his "rag ged regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustra-ted magnzine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America. The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the evening of the 31st of January, 1861, at which time the books will close and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those COMMENDATIONS: From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio. My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) picture is more life-like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon, E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy, The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your por-traits, conjoined with their durability of color and faith-fulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to that tention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. James Page. Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by ham, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommends him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art.
