The News. -The news from Washington is anything but encouraging to our Union loving people. Our ablest statesmen appear at their wits end in devising a satisfactory plan by which the peace and quiet of our country can be restored. All is confusion. And who is to blame? The fanatical Abolition leaders of the Republican party North, and the Disunionists of the South who seceded from the Democratic National Convention. It will not do for the Disunionists of the South to offer in justification of their conduct, the election of Lincoln by a Northern vote. The South is responsible for his election. With a united Democratic vote on the Democratic The Disunionists South and the Disunionists North defeated the Democratic Union candidate. If it were possible that the guilty should be the only sufferers, they would receive nothing more than they richly deserve. But unfortunately the innocent must suffer with the guilty.

- South Carolina has left the Union-she is houseless and homeless-yet there is great rejoicing by the Disunionists North and South over her misfortune.

- Over six thousand mechanics were discharged from employment in Cincinnati during the past week. The same good times are experienced by thousands of mechanics and laboring men in every city in the Union.

- It is announced by authority, that Hon. Edward Bates, of Missouri, has been offered a will accept.

- "Occasional" writes from Washington ground on the act of secession. on the 22d :---

"Some weeks ago I intimated that it was the purpose of the Disunionists to seize the Federal Capitol. This suggestion was derided by some, but we are now on the eve of the fulfilment of the prophecy. Passage of the Secession Ordinance.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 20.-The Convention assembled this morning, and after prayer the The Chair announced the appointment of a committee to draft the summary of the causes of secession of South Carolina, and also four standing committees. Mr. Rhett's resolution, to appoint a committee of thirteen to provide for the assem-

and to form a Constitution, was adopted. Mr. Inglis made the report of the committee to prepare and draft an ordinance proper to be adopted by the Convention, as follows:

"An ordinance to dissolve the Union betitled the Constitution of the United States of America.

"We, the people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention, do declare and ordain, for the purpose of singing the Ordinance of and it is hereby declared and ordained, that the ordinance adopted by us in Convention on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1788, whereby the Constitution of the United States was ratified; Michael's Episcopal Church pealed forth and also, all acts and parts of acts of the Gen- "Auld Lang Syne," and other tunes. and also, all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly of this State, ratifying the amendments of the said Constitution, are hereby repealed; and that the Union now subsisting between South Carolina and the other States, under the name of the United States of America, is hereby dissolved.

The ordinance was taken up and passed by a unanimous vote of 169 votes, at a quarter past one o'clock.

Mr. Desaussure offered a resolution that the ordinance be engrossed on parchment, nominee, Lincoln would have been defeated. | under the direction of the Attorney General, and signed by the president and members this to increase the number of States under the evening at Institute Hall, and that it be placed among the archives of the State, the members efits to humanity, here and all over the proceeding there in procession at half-past world, while a diminution of them was to proceeding there in procession at half-past six o'elock.

Mr. McGrath sald : I think a special matter in relation to the ordinance should be immediately considered. To my understanding, there is no collector of the port nor postmaster now within the limits of South Carolina. What you have done to-day has extinguished the authority of every man in South Carolina deriving his authority from the General Govment. WASHINGTON, Dec. 19, 1860. The cloud that has been hanging over the Capitol and the country has lifted The Union has found a gallant defender in the American Congress, in the person of the living Andrew Jackson of the South-namely, An-He concluded his two day's speech at halfpast four o'clock this afternoon. His manner and his language carried consternation to the hearts of the fire eaters. They listen-ed to his strong sentences with amazement. He recognized the existing Union as the greatest blessing conferred by God upon man, after the Christian religion. He argued that present Constitution was to enlarge the ben-cause disaster and death. In the course of his remarks he re-produced the history of the purchase of Louisiana, Florida, and the annexation of Texas. In alluding to Florida he turned to Mr. Yulee, the Senator from that State, and reminded him that the time was when he had come to Congress imploring for the admission of his State into the American Union. He asked him, in the event of the secession of Florida, could that State set up a claim to sovereignty when the very soil of the State belonged to and was paid for by the Union whose sove-If so, she could destroy the parent who gave her birth and vitality.

Mr. Johnson introduced with overwhelming effect the Ostend Manifesto, which originated in the South, and was based upon the idea that when an adjoining State became troublesome to its neighbor and dangerous to our safety, the doctrines of natural selfpreservation demanded the subjugation of that State, even by force of arms.

If South Carolina, a small member of the Confederacy, went out of the Union for the purpose of destroying it, plunging millims. of human beings into distress, and annihilating the hopes of the friends of freedom throughout the world, she must and could be subjected, according to the terms of Ostend

A STRANGE RUMOR-THE DEAD RETURNED TO LIFE.—In the month of August last Mr. Caleb C. Woodbury, postmaster at White Pigeon, Michigan, was arrested upon the charge of robbing the United States mail .--He was taken to Detroit, where a preliminary examination was had before a United States commissioner, who required him to give bail in the sum of $4.000 to appear on trial, or in default to be imprisoned. On the 18th of August he was taken to his home by Deputy United States Marshal Moore, to give him an opportunity of obtaining the requisite surety. While in his own house he was permitted by the officer to retire for the purpose of changing his clothes and taking a short nap, the officer mounting guard at the door. Not making his appearance in due time, the door was burst open, and Woodcury was found dead in his bed. The fact that he had bought strychnine, and the presence of of some of it in the room, led naturally to the belief that he had committed suicide by its use. The deputy marshal returned home, and reported the facts as narrated above.-But the strangest part of the story is to come. The Detroit Advertiser learns that within a few weeks Woodbury has been seen and spo-ken to by an old acquaintance in or near Chicago. The story reaching White Pigeon, the supposed grave of Woodbury was opened, and found to contain only a coffin, enclosing a large stick of wood. The Advertiser further states that the United States authorities at Detroit will preceed to investigate the

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simpli-city, believing that business men care little about spen-ding time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facili-tates time and insures correctness. totes time and insures correctness

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Ope-rations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Fractical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippin-cott & Co., Philadelphia.

cott d Co., Philadelphia. This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published. Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a pluin manner, so that when a parallel case ari-ses, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any or-dinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required. The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simpli-
