$195,60178. The claimants have already received a large proportion of the sums awarded to them out of the fund provided, and it is confidently expected that the remainder will reclong be entirely paid. Meer the awards shall have been satisfied, there will remain a surplus of more than $200,000 at the disposition of Congress. As this will in equity belong to the Chinese government, would not justice require its appropriation to some benevolent object in which the Chinese may be specially interested? Our minister to China, in obedience to his instructions, has remained perfectly neutral in the

I also congratulate you upon the public sentiment which now exists against the crime of setting on food mititary expeditions within the limits of the United States, to presend from thence and make war upon the people of unoffending States, with whom we are at prace. In this respect a happy change has been effected since the commencement of my Administration. It surely ought to be the prayer of every Christian and patriot, that such expeditions may never again receive countenance in our country or depart from our shores. It would be a useless repetition to do more than refer, with carnest commendation, to my former recommendations in layor of the Pacific railroad—of the grant of power to the President to employ the mass if one in the vicinity, for the protection of the lives and property of our fellow-citizens passing in transit over the different Central American routes, against sudden and lawless outbreaks and dept edations; and also to protect American wrolled and unlawful science and confiscation, spains violent and unlawful science and confiscation, spains violent and unlawful science and confiscation, spains violent and unlawful science and confiscation in the ports of Mexico and the South American republic whose my be in a disturbed and revolutionary condition. It is my settled conviction, that without such a power we do not a flord that protection to those sugaged in the commence of the country which they have a right to decomment thorp: and exhibits the associations between the Spencer family and Washington:

Boston, 22d November, 1850.

My Dear Sir: Since our last conversation the Earl Spencer has kindly sent to me precise copies of the two "Memorial Stones" of the English family of George Washington, which I have already described to you as harmonizing exactly with the pedigree which has the sanction of your authority. These are of the same stone and of the same size with the originals—and have the original inscriptions, being in all respects far vimiles. They will, therefore, give you an exact idea of these most interesting memorials in the parish church of Brington, near Althorp, in Northamptonshire.

cited the admiration of Evelyn, and at a later day of Mrs. Jameson, who gives to it some beautiful pages in her Visits and Sketches at lightly respectable professor. As to his pupils. Home and Abroad. It is the record of the time when different plantations of trees were begun. While recommending this practice in his Sylva, Evelyn remarks: "the only instance I know of the like in our country is in the park at Althorp." There are six of these commemorative stones. The first records a wood planted by Sir John Spencer, in 1567 and 1668; the second, a wood planted by Sir John Spencer, which is a name given to the sort of burglars by whom you have been robbed: the like in our country is in the park at Althorp. There are six of these commemorative stones. The first records a wood planted by Sir John Spencer, when the former, in 1589; the third, a wood planted by Sir William Spencer, Knight of the Bath, afterwards Lord

Spencer, Knight of the Bath, afterwards Lord

The fireally and perceital policy personally the Government of the United States terminal that the personal states per united states the personal states and the states and the states and the states and the states are stated that the personal states are stated to the states and the states are stated to the state are stated to the st