

tion will soon be forced to construe the inaugural. Forts Moultrie and Johnson and Castle Pinckney are in possession of the Confederate States;

It had arrived at the conclusion that the possession of the Confederate States;

Mr. Douglas. I beg pardon. As the speech was reported in the Norfolk paper, I said no such thing. The almost arrived at the conclusion that the inaugural meant war, he would not terration was made for partisan purpoper.

The find arrived at the Constitution.

Mr. Douglas. I beg pardon. As the speech was reported in the Norfolk paper, I said no such thing. The almost arrived at the conclusions that the speech was reported in the Norfolk paper, I said no such thing. The almost arrived at the conclusion that the possession of the Confederate States;

and the appropriate for the control of the control tution, no arrangement you may enter into will satisfy the South, unless you recognize slaves as property, and pro-tect it as any other species of property. These States withdrew from the Union because their property was not protected. The Kepublicans have preserved

VOL. XVI.

WILLIAM LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor.

-PERSEVERE.-

TERMS, $1,50 a year in advance.

HUNTINGDON, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1861

tion will soon be forced to construct the inaugurial. Ports Monthly and fairly, and had expressed the inaugurial. Ports Monthly and fairly, and had expressed the inaugurial plants and Castle Finchespe are in possession of the Considerate States; the Considerate States will not contempt and the Considerate States will not contempt and the Considerate States will not contempt and the possession of the Considerate States will not contempt and the contempt and the principle, and as he did not believe the sound, genuine, simon-pure, Constitution-notering, and Constitution-understanding people sympathize with anyset is a proclamation of war—standing people sympathize with anyset is a proclamation of war—such sentiment, and as "masterly inactivity" will not do, he trusted the Senator would give them a new revelation. The revelation on Mount Sinai, lating the muttering of thunder and sentiment of the people. I am one of those who ledieve in the intelligence and virtue of the people. I believe when they lation. The revelation on Mount Sinai, law admitted it—recognized the lation. The revelation on Mount Sinai, separate existence of the seconding will do it. [Crica of "Ther's it"]—I trust to do. [A voice thought myself some little curiosity to look abroad upon foreign lands. I am a native born man from the Western to save it, and it is now in the hands woods; but so help me God, if any one should offer to bear my expenses now, believe in the intelligence and virtue of the people. I believe when they lation. The revelation on Mount Sinai, separate existence of the seconding will do it. [Crica of "Ther's it"]—I would not go to any civilized nation of the condition of my country. I would not go to any civilized nation of the condition of my country. I would not go to any civilized nation of the condition of my country. I would not go to any civilized nation of the condition of my country. I would not go to any civilized nation of the condition of my country. Total the the inaugural. The speech of the Senator from Illinois was calculated to produce the impression that Lincoln will do nothing. But the masterly insertivity policy cannot prevail. "Action! action! action! action! action! action! action! action! action! settle its defined to make the produce the impression that Lincoln will do nothing action! action action! actio

FROM WASHINGTON
SPECIAL SENSINO OF THE U. SENSIN

Do this, or make up your minds for strengthen the backbone of the Adwar, in the sternest aspect and with all its horrors.

Mr. Douglas. As to withdrawing
Mr. Douglas repeated what he said yesterday, that he had carefully read

Mr. Mason's speech as referred to yesterday, that he had carefully read

Mr. Douglas As to withdrawing the treatment and restore our factor in the winds and with platform as his law.

Union. Let them take it in hand; let for this kind visit, and my farewell."

Mr. Douglas. As to withdrawing the rapid raw of the troops is seen in the only strife on either side seems the rapid raw of the troops is seen in the winds in the troops is seen in the winds the rapid rise of all kinds of Border to be which could show the greater

THEFIRSTREPUBLICANLEVEE AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 10, 1861 The scene at the White House, on Friday evening, on the occasion of the Friday evening, on the occasion of the first public reception of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, exceeded any previous demonstration of the cort since the days of "Old Hickory." Although the Washington "season" may be said to be over since the House of Representatives has adjourned and the ides of March are past, yet the crowd which besieged every door and window of the Presidential mansion on the night alluded to, gave conclusive evidence that the 'City of Magnificent Distances" was Slave. 407,185 def.,461 resident's private secretary, made 63,809 the tour of the oval room, pausing 436,478 every moment to recognize and speak 469,607 with the many friends around her.— 363,245 312,186 Of the incidents of this part of the 2,287,754 2,165,721 evening, perhaps the gratifying interview between Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs.