GOOD MORNING. Poverty Not so Great a Curse.

Colorado---Nevada---Dakota.

If there is anything in the world that a young man should be more thankful for another, it is poverty which necessitates his starting in life under very great disadvantages. Poverty is one of the best tests of human equality in existence. A triumph over it is like graduating with honor from West Point. It demonstrates stuff and stamina. It is a certificate of worthy labor, creditably performed. A young

Distress in New York.

The New York Daily News gives this sad picture of the distress and suffering at this time in the great city of New York. It makes one's blood run cold:---"There is nothing easier than to be mentally blind when one does not want to see. Nor will one's mortal eye discover sights if their gaze is not turned in that direction. Walking up and down Broadway forever, would not only enlighten a man as to things that exist in other portions of the city, but would almost induce him to believe that there could not be anything really miserable where there is so much pomp. There is more wretchedness in New York to-day than can
