Semi-Weehln Globe.

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. TERMS.—"The Glove" is published twice a week at $1.50 a year—75 cents for six months—50 cents for three months—in advance.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Tuesday Afternoon, May 28, 1861.

Remarkably Significant The Harrisburg Telegraph contains the following: ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Harrisburg, May 24, 1861. To Andrew G. Curtin, Governor Pennsylvania: tinue any longer in connection with regard to his own reputation.

I therefore tender you my resigna-tion of the office of Attorney General of the State.

Since the President's proclamation. gigantic, odious, monstrous. From all that can be seen the system of robbery practiced has been insolent in its boldness. For those crimes Governor Curtin stands researchly to the control of the contro advances of disease from bad food .-every one knew. Did he share in the ting Davis" is in bad odor, on the other land size to their respective States. plunder? has been frequently asked .- | er side of the Atlantic. This we cannot know, but the resigna-

The Army Supply Swindles.

lieve that much of the complaint of will prove, our government is not so threw it into the river, tore the flag to soldiers about the clothing and pro-weak that it can not punish its devisions furnished them by the Gover- stroyers.

mitted, if he has not aided, a set of possessions. men worse than the Southern rebels, Another favorable symptom of their to swindle the State and to bring dis- returning sanity is, they have left grace upon it and our soldiers. We off raving, and begun complaining.of the rascalities of the men who have den reverence for Constitutions. The been fattening upon money so freely President's call for troops was not forappropriated for the comfort of the midable, but when they came, it was a soldiers of the good old State of Penn. most potent argument. The convincsylvania. The disgrace upon our ing power of 150,000 bayonets is mar-State must be wiped out, even should vellous. It is natural that they should talked of march into Virginia has be-

England's Position.

The following abstract from the telcomfort from England:

military service on either side, or join the ships of war or transports, or at | poison the life blood of the nation. tempt to get recruits or fit out vessels for war purposes or transports, or break or endeavor to break any blockade lawfully or actually established, material contraband of war, for either party, they will be liable to all the tain protection from the government."

Returning to Reason

The Missouri Democrat compliments e Southern papers, by saying that they are returning to reason. A mouth since they were all defiance and exultation. Southern arms and Southern steel were omnipotent, and the breasts of Southerners formed an impenetrable shleld to hearts which nothing ould subdue. Nothing less than a omplete and speedy subversion would satisfy them. Jeff. Davis and his ministers were to hold court in Washington in May. Mrs. Jeff. Davis would attend divine service in her own pew in the capitol. Wigfall, the drunken

SAMUEL A. PURVIANCE.

This is very curt, and strangely sugtions. The design was better than those volunteers, from colonel down to severe the united by the President, you will perceive that all regimental officers of shall House, bearing on his shoulders a rebel flag that he had pulled down, a rebel flag that he had pulled down. gestive. The "self-respect" of Attor- the execution. As it turns out it can to second lieutenants, inclusive, are apney General Purviance cannot allow embrace neither Delaware, Maryland, States.

The "schriespeed" of the execution. As it turns out it can pointed by the Governors of the tor of the hotel, and expired instantly. States. him to remain longer an officer of Gov. Kentucky, nor Missouri. The better Having thus confided to you the Curtin! Why? the people of the Commonwealth will ask! There can, at the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware from a place which ought to be Kentucky, nor Missouri. The better half of Virginia, even, is still in the Union, and the other half in awe of the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware from a place which ought to be the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the South will furnish the present time, be but one cause assigned for the resignation of an honest ware for the country and the sound to you use appointment of all these officers for the regiments furnished by your State, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, you will, I trust, excuse the Departs of ethers having been killed, yo man from a place which ought to be honorable, if the cause assigned is a twice that number for the Union, to do f the highest importance by the large and prominently before the just now beginning to dawn upon the they are submitted to you:

ness. For those crimes Governor nificent investment, the confederacy curtin stands responsible to the State, loan, has gone begging at home for Academy, or known to possess militaas the friend and patron of those who takers, while abroad it has met with ry knowledge and experience, who robbed the soldiers of the Common-derision. The staunch Southern rights has passed the respective ages of thirwealth, and sent to Washington regi- men are unwilling or unable to fill the ty-five, forty, and forty-five years. ments of ragged soldiers, who have depleted coffers at Montgomery. The

The deep laid conspiracy, in spite of tion of Attorney General Purviance, its formidable inception, dragged with so pointed in its tone, justifies the sus- it its own punishment. Like all great picion. There will be rich developments outrages upon public faith and public morals, it is doomed from its birth .-History will record another to the long list of failures of rebellious ambi-Until the resignation of Mr. Purvi- tion. The liberal nature of our govance, Governor Curtin's Attorney ernment has contributed to render re- Soon after an excited crowd proceeded General, we tried to make ourself be bellion safer than of old. But as time to the office, cut the pole down, and nor was not well founded. But every It is gratifying to notice the change moved the stars and stripes. Some day has brought us now light upon which is taking place, in the tone of threats were made against the post before the crowd was admitted. the subject, until there can no longer the influential journals in the South.—

The New Orleans papers, after circu.—

The crowd then proceeded to the gressing, and soon the cortege will may be from the proceeded to the gressing and soon the processing and s a week, and in many cases not over a sions are made as to the numbers of day: The companies now uniformed the North; but then they add with by the State, are already in rags- incomparable sang froid, "the hordes their condition being such as to bring of Northern hirelings will be honored, ligence from various sources shows down upon them the ridicule of the by being slaughtered wholesale by that a number of Unionists have been well clad military of the other States. Southern gentlemen." Reduced to the Pennsylvania is disgraced—and who last extremity, they invent the most eastern Kansas. Some of them show is to blame? Not the patriotic people wicked and incredible stories of the evidences of severe treatment. of the Keystone. Gov. Curtin has had Northern troops. Lincoln, it is said. abundant means placed in his hands will free the slaves, and his army to clothe and feed our brave Pennsyl. | plunder and violate their homes. By vanians as comfortably and as respec- such devices, they drive a few to arms, running between St. Joseph and Westably as any soldiers in the army.— who, though they will not fight for ton, Mo., seven miles from here, plac-But he has not done it. He has per their principles, will yet fight for their ing this city within one day's travel shall wait anxiously for a full exposure They have been smitten with a sud-

"No rogue e'er felt the halter draw, With good opinion of the law."

egraphic summary of the Queen's border States cannot long be kept at Proclamation gives us every assurance the high proclamation gives us every assurance that the high proclamation gives the high proclamation giv Proclamation gives us every assurance the high pressure point. With them mark. The Michigan troops and some from each company of the fire departthat the rebels cannot expect aid and it is now or never. The first defeat of others went to Georgetown, and crossed Southern arms is decisive, while the government would only be renowed all the heights in the vicinity. venomous monster which sought to Infantry and the rumble of Artillery large and impressive tions to our Government at the pres allowed to send any information on material contraband of war, for either party, they will be liable to all the penalty and consequences, and will do so at their peril, and in nowise obtain protection from the government. six, twelve and twenty-four pounders, ganized into regiments. As fast as ment. This princely gift could not organized, the regiments from Penn- have cost the donors less than $200, or the Ringgold Artherists, with the troops in Virginia. sylvania have been ordered to West | 000. Other Americans, living in Man-Chester, York, Chambersburg, and chester, have forwarded a battery of Washington, and at this time the Whitworth guns-twelve proundersnumber of troops encamped at Camp | each of which bears the following in-Wayne, West Chester, is 2,000, at scription: "From loyal Americans in

WAR NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH]

Important Letrer from the Secretary of Gen. Scott's Recommendation Regarding

WAR DEPARTMENT,

.WASHINGTON, May 22.-The Secrethe different States a circular, of which the following is a copy:

Washington, May 22, 1861. For reasons which appeal to my indomitable, was to dictate the terms | Dear Sir:—By reference to generate boats approached, but no one was inself-respect I cannot consent to con- of a peace at Philadelphia, and the all orders, No. 15, of the War Depart jured. Having landed, they proceeded say nothing of ships and money. It is General-in-Chief, under whose advice public ever since the 1st of March. He

This Department feels assured that been fed on rotten victuals, and exposed embassadors of the new power, after Excellency to add this general counto the elements and to the insiduous hanging about the back doors of Eu- sel, that the higher the moral characropean courts, are returning with "no ter and general intelligence of the of-That Gov. Curtin was responsible for recognition, no money" plainly inscrib- ficers so appointed, the greater the efthe neglect and villainies of his agents, ed on their anxious faces. "Repudia- ficiency of the troops and the resulting

I am, sir, respectfully, SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

Another Disturbance in Missouri. The Stars and Stripes Insulted at St

Joseph. St. Joseph, Mo., May 22.-This af ternoon the stars and stripes were hoisted over the post office of this city. by the leader of the crowd that re-

Military Movements in Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, Mo., May 22.—Inteldriven from the border counties of Missouri, and taken refuge in South-

Three regiments of United States volunteers, from Kansas, are being formed in this city and at Lawrence, as fast as possible. The cars are now of the Mississippi river,

LATE IMPORTANT NEWS.

The Star Spangled Banner in the Old Dominion-Ten Thousand Soldiers in Virginia—Alexandria Occupied—Arligton Heights Invested-Assassination f Colonel Ellsworth-The Assassin begin to prate about usnrpation, tyrantin with it.

begin to prate about usnrpation, tyranny and despotism, when resistance is prised. The plans of the Government were kept seeret in a most remarkable manner. The excitement in the Southern and the first movement of the military be-and wagons. And yet nine-tenths of Loyal Americans resident in England are making important donations of course the telegraph lines were not that anything unusual was occurring. Of course the telegraph lines were not the president in the president of the president in the preside Jersey regiments.

The troops, before marching, were ridges. Sherman's battery and that of the Ringgold Artillerists, are along

The Virginia troops retreated from Alexandria. There is a prospect of capturing them. The proceedings attending the movedria, the Stars and Stripes are prominently flying from various quarters.

Another Account

Washington, May 24.-Yesterday the Appointment of Officers—Young Lieutenants, and Old Colonels—Grad-mined make an advance from Washuates of the Military Academy Preferred—Moral Character and PatiotAccordingly orders were issued to such of the troops as were to move.— The New York Regiment of Fire Zoutary of War has sent to the Governors barked in boats, and arrived first at morning. They were received with a volley of musketry from the wharf, as their boats approached, but no one was inof a peace at Philadelphia, and the confederacy of independent States was to include the old Union (except New of organization of the volunteer forces) and pulling down the Stars and Stripes, and pulling down the Secession flags.

England!"

al orders, No. 15, of the War Depart to take complete possession of the with forward to you, giving the plan of organization of the volunteer forces called into the service of the United About 4 o'clock, as Col. Ellsworth > some privates of the Zouaves. was small in stature and apparently

Jackson was immediately killed by take a terrible revenge prevails among the Zouaves. Some of them and of the other troops are earnestly desirous the Zouaves. Some of them and of the desirous the other troops are earnestly desirous to the desirous the content of the presence of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the preciated by the military of the Universe of the Univers Academy, or known to possess militato lay Alexandria in ashes before nightfall. Owing to the large force of Federal troops in and near Alexandria, it is not probable that the rebels will make any attempt to advance on the city.

Washington, May 25 .- The remains where they are lying in state, in the cession passing constantly through the room. Many of the visitors were af-

The coffin was draped with the American flag, and adorned with choice flowers. The face was exposed to pubic view.

dressed in his uniform. Bells are toll-through the head with a revolver, maing in the city, and the demonstations king him a corpse a second or two after the fell of the relief the relief of grief, begun yesterday, still continue. The President and his family visited the remains and took a farewell look at the face of their much-beloved friend, between Alexandria and Long Bridge. The Seventh Regiment is a hundred Messengers just arrived from the river flags in the city are displayed at halfat the Arsenal. The extent of the engagement is not known. Three guns have been fired, which is the signal for all the troops here to get under arms. Great excitement prevails throughout the city. Soldiers and private citizens, in crowds, are hurrying in every

An artillery company has just gone to the river on a full run, and embarked The information, has just been com municated to Headquarters, and field officers are riding about in great haste, giving commands. The First Regiment of Connecticut volunteers is already marching off. Boston, May 25 .- The armed steam er South Carolina, Commander Alden, sailed last night for Fort Pickens .-

She has 137 men, and takes 100 seaman for the fleet; also ten inch mortars, rifled cannon and other war mu-NEW YORK, May 26 .- The remains Last evening about eight o'clock, of Col. Ellsworth arrived early this members ment. The remains were es-

"The proclamation issued by the government declares its intention of maintaining the "strictest and most impartial neutrality between the government of the United States and certain States stuling themselves the Confed
Southern arms is decisive, while the government would only be renerved for the struggle in either case of victory or defeat. The result is not doubtful. The nest of treason is surface that the proclamation of the United States and certain States stuling themselves the Confed
Southern arms is decisive, while the government would only be renerved for the struggle in either case of victory or defeat. The result is not doubtful. The nest of treason is surface that the proclamation issued by the proclamation issued by the proclamation issued by the struggle in either case of victory or defeat. The result is not doubtful. The nest of treason is surface that the heights in the vicinity.

Other regiments began to move to wards the Long Bridge. The companies of Infantry and Artillery, that had been stationed there, advanced first. Then followed regiment after the proclamation issued by the struggle in either case of victory or defeat. The result is not doubtful. The nest of treason is surface that the heights in the vicinity.

Other regiments began to move to wards the Long Bridge. The companies of Infantry and Artillery, that had been stationed there, advanced first. Then followed regiment after the proclamation is surfaced to the private function of the vicinity.

The remains were then escorted to the steamer Francis Skidley on which they dow, looking out across the Potomac, tain States styling themselves the Confederate States of America." It warms British subjects that if they enter the Bridge resounded with the march of Bridge resounded with the Bridge resound Washington, May 26.
Accounts from Alexandaia received from reliable sources represent all said he, "but I cannot talk." We sup-

There are at Camp Curtin now with all equipments complete, of which all supplied with one day's cooked ra- setts Regiments have moved into Vir- moved at such an unusual spectacle, in 21 full companies, but they are not or- they beg the acceptance of Govern- tions and an ample amount of cart- ginia. All orders for moving troops such a man, in such a place. are not only cheerfully but anxiously After composing himself somewhat, obeyed. The military veterans are the President took his seat and desired lavish in their praises of them. THE LATEST NEWS. ALEXANDRIA, May 26.—Col. Wilcox. ments of troops were conducted with the commandant here, has issued a room, Captain Fox left me, after giv-

Wayne, West Chester, is 2,000, at States Govern-York 5,000, at Chambersburg 3,000, at Harrisburg 2,000, at Pittsburg 2,000, at Pittsburg 2,000 or 5,000 in Washington, Perryyille, and along the line of the Northern Central Railroad, guarding the bridges, and forty-two pounders.

Harrisburg 2,000, at Pittsburg 2,000, at Pittsb reported. last night fired upon and the troops such a way as this, not by the fortunes the splendidly equipped regiments of called to arms in consequence, but no- of war, but by the hand of an assas- Massachusetts, New York and Rhode, body was hurt.

The New York Regiment of Fire Zouaves, under Col. Elisworth, was embarked in boats, and arrived first at Alexandria, at about 2 o'clock this morning.

ALEXANDRIA, May 27.—Several men have come into this city, who have have have spent solution to my heart, and quite a resolution to my heart, and quite a relief after this melancholy affair. I learn from several persons, that when money liberally, and paid enough to the position of the Federal troops.

This morning a capture was made, four miles beyond this city, on the line of Railroad, of a car loaded with provisions, and eighteen Secession soldiers in citizens' dress were brought to Alexandria.

The Assassination of Col. Ellsworth. Interesting Particulars.

Washington, May 24.-News has tailed to guard the prisoners of war.

Captain Fox has just made an official report of the circumstances attending the killing of Col. Ellsworth to the President.

It appears that Ellsworth was marching up the street with a squad The New York Seventh Regiment of men to take possession of the teleare on the Virginia side of the Poto-mac on Arlington Heights. the top of a building. He immediately of Col. Ellsworth have been conveyed to the East Room, of the White House, and, entering the building, made his centre of the apartment. Thousands of people have visited them, a sad prospective of the apartment of the apartment. Thousands and, wrapping it around his body, descended. While on the second floor a duced, and held a conversation with regue's march, or a tune something military men as can be sparred from body, killing him instantly. His comduty. The body of the deceased is panion instantly shot the murderer pressions of admiration of regret and the more pressions of admiration > ter the fall of the noble Ellsworth .-The remains of the deceased were the subject, until there can no longer the influential journals in the south.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the recention.

The New Orleans papers, after circulating the most absurd statements of the circulating the most absurd at sum of the circulating the circulating the most absurd at sum iment is also in town. The Twelfth New York Regiment is about half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the flowers much the heavest and is a bout half-way when the heavest and heavest wreath of flowers upon the breast.— The building is draped in flags and crape, a detachment of the Seventyyards from the Bridge. crape, a detachment of the Seventy-Washington, May 25-2 P. M.- first detailed to guard it. All the flag himself, he politely, but vainly, Skiddy. All the flags in town are at requested his murderer to remove the odious emblem. The sympathy expressed for his parents is universal. The Col-A number of Secession officers were onel was their only living son. About The despatch arrived here last evening, will be held as prisoners. vill be held as prisoners.

onstrations of violence.

uttering a word.

It appears that Col. Ellsworth en-Chicago. tered the building in which he was shot with a squad of men, and not with one, as first reported. The name of the Secessionist that murdered Col. Ellsworth was James Jackson, keeper of the Marshall House. The name of the Zouave who shot Jackson is Brownell. He first blew his brains out with his rifle, and then bayonetted him. The body of Col. Ellsworth was brought over in charge of six Zouaves.

The wildest grief is exhibited by the members of the regiment. Before wrapping the Secession flag around his body Ellsworth had trampled it under foot.

He did not move till we approached very closely, when he turned round quiet there during last night. The posed that his voice had probably given troops are comfortably quartered and way from some cause or other, and we gone in the direction of Alexandria. the room for some moments, and we The 8th New York and 8th Massachu-stepped aside in silence, not a little > us to approach. "I will make no apology, gentlemen," said the President, "for my weakness; but I knew poor Ellsworth well, and held him in great regard. Just as you entered the forces are attacked. The citizens are fellow," repeated the President, as he in Washington. These men, who left prohibited from entering or leaving closed his relation, "it was undoubtthe city without a written pass. All cdly an act of rashness, but it only business, to fight their country's batoutrages or excesses by the Federal shows the heroic spirit that animates tles and protect it in its hour of dansoldiers will be promptly punished, if our soldiers, from high to low, in this ger, have been rewarded by equipment righteous cause of ours. Yet who can in such trashy clothes that they are The pickets of the U. S. forces were restrain their grief to see them fall in ashamed to show themselves, while impressed into the rebel service. They say there are over 20,000 men within twenty-five miles of this city. say there are over 20,000 men within as their twenty-five miles of this city.

1 o'clock, P. M.—At noon to-day all of the Stripes, the position of the Federal troops.

I stripes, the position of the Federal troops.

> as many friends as foes." was announced, and he related to the at Harrisburg.
>
> Descident some interesting details of We regret to say it, but we are President some interesting details of the capture of the rebel dragoons, forced to the conclusion that our State which was effected so quickly that is in bad hands. Corruption is the they had not time to mount their order of the day at the State Capitol. horses. It appears that the valliant Senator accompanied "his boys," as he called the Michigan regiment, down swindle shall be ferretted out and to Alexandria, and came back quite punished. No man who has a relative satisfied with the whole performance. or friend amongst the soldiers who accordance with previous instructions, dent as one of his suite from Spring Inquirer. the Zouaves last night proceeded down field, before Mr. Lincoln's inaugura-Ellsworth landed his regiment from a which he made a tour of the United Gowan, at Camp Scott, York, Pa., was > ted States. Navy Yard this afternoon, requested into effect in presence of the entire the guard of honor having in charge into effect in presence of the entire the remains of Col. Ellsworth to allow camp. A correspondent thus describes them to be brought to the White House | the ceremony: and have the funeral ceremonies there. This request was granted, and the who had been kept under guard since and, entering the building, made his way up to the roof with one of his men, hauled down the rebel emblom, and, wrapping it around his body, deand, wrapping it around his body, definitely and the guard of honor, and was introin the guard of honor, and was introin the guard of honor, and was introspecific more a true something Secessionist came out of a door with a cocked double barrelled shot gun. He cocked double barrelled shot gun. took aim at Ellsworth, when the latter that promotion will be the reward of Devil.and Shake Yourself." He was flags in the city are displayed at half-mast, in honor of the gallant deceased. | Mechanicsville, N. Y., May 24, | Washita, and the natives became somewhat alarmed on the 2d inst. state that firing is going on at Alexandria, which can be distinctly heard

The fact of his death was kept for two worth has caused in this, his native hours from his men, to prevent dem- town, the utmost sorrow and indignation. The father of Col. Ellsworth It is stated that when he received happened to be in the telegraph office their arms. The next day about 125 the fittal shot be dropped his sword, and seizing hold of his clothing over his breast, tore it entirely off, and looking down upon the wound, closed his eyes and fell down dead without his eyes and fell down dead without little and the first intimation he had of it was seeing the operator weeping. Mr. Ellsworth's grief was indescribable on learning the sad news. He left, in company with his wife, for intentions, retreated to Fort Arbuckle. Before hauling down the Secession New York this evening on the Francis and also got the force from Fort Cobb, captured in the Marshall House, and a year since, his younger brother, a

From Missouri.

Gen. Harney's Address to the People-The State Troops to be Disbanded.

Sr. Louis, May 22.-In connection with the negotiation concluded vesterday between Gen. Harney and Gen. Price, a synopsis of which was teledress to the people of Missouri:

I take great pleasure in submitting to you the following paper, signed by General Price, commanding the forces of the State, and myself, on the part of the Government of the United States. It will be seen that the united forces of both Governments are pledged to maintain the peace of the State, and the defence of the rights and property of all persons, without dis-tinction of party. This pledge, which both parties are fully authorized and empowered to give by the Governments which they represent, will be by both most religiously and sacredly kept, and, if necessary to put down evil-disposed persons, the military pow-er of both Governments will be called out to enforce the terms of the honorable and amicable agreement which has been made. I, therefore, call upon all persons of this State to observe good order, and respect the rights of their fellow-citizens, and give them ation of the order, for the reason that the assurance of protection and security in the must ample manner. WM. S. HARNEY, Brigadier General Commanding. It is understood that Gen. Price will disband all the State forces immediately, and take prompt and effective who expressed the greatest impatience and a desire to be sent over to Virginia.

From a spy glass view of Alexanbe respected, unless the United States drip the Stars and Stripes are attacked. The stars and Stripes are attacked. The stars and Stripes are attacked. The stars are attacked. The stars are attacked. The stars are attacked. ody was hurt. | sin?" Towards the close of his re- Island are paraded, reviewed and admarks, he added, "There is one fact mired. If, from a mistaken economy, not Secessionist; and it is my earnest on by a soldier, the back dropped out! hope that as we advance we shall find So far, what we have contributed has as many friends as foes."

At this moment Senator Chandler but of the sharks who have influence just reached the city, of the assassination of the gallant Col. Ellsworth, of the New York Firemen Zouaves. In The Colonel accompanied the President and his family.

The Colonel accompanied the President to Colonel accompanied the President to Colonel accompanied the President to Colonel accompanied to Colonel accompani

DRUMMED OUT OF CAMP.—A soldier named Frank Grant, charged with committing a violent assault upon the person of a fellow soldier named Mac Court Martialed on Saturday 18th inst. him as a soldier, and be drummed out The President, on his visit to the of service. The sentence was carried

"Shortly after eight o'clock Grant, body will be removed to the Execu- the occurrence, was taken charge of tive mansion in the morning.

Mrs. Lincoln visited the Navy Yard this afternoon to view the remains, with his hands tied behind his back; attempted to strike the gun out of the way with his fist, as he struck it one of the barrels was discharged, lodging a whole load of buckshot in Ellsworth's by his regiment, but on every hand a whole load of buckshot in Ellsworth's by his regiment, but on every hand the men of lilinois and the men of will remain at the disposal of the civil pressions of admiration, of regret and of vengeance.

Col. Ellsworth was twenty-four along with his head down, and hat years of age, was unmarried, and has drawn over his brow. He begged to parents living in the vicinity of Troy.

His funeral will take place at the disgrace of being drummed out of sor-Navy Yard, to-morrow, in season for vice, and when an officer visited him brought over to the Navy Yard this morning. The doleful peals of all the bells in the city are announcing the An autopsy of Col. Ellsworth's body that he would exercise his friendship

Effect of the News in Col. Ellsworth's in a blaze of excitement just at this time. Lincoln had reinforced Fort Washita, and the natives became Runners from Sherman were sent to this and adjoining counties for men to Washita and capture them and take making their numbers about 800. Our and to-day about 100 men have left here, and I understand about 200 from Lamar, and 200 from Red river counties, and about 200 from Dallas. You may soon expect to hear of another victory for Texas.

What They Believe Down in Dixle.

The Memphis Avalanche of the 17th has the following choice bit of news: "The fact of Lincoln's constant intoxication is confirmed by a gentleman graphed last night, Gen. Harney publishes this morning the following adhis nervous system so much that he could not sleep, His physician ad-ministered to him large quantities of opium and brandy, each evening, till stupidity would ensue, and then he would fall into profound slumber. In the morning his prostration would be come so great that liquor would be resorted to; and thus, by a frequent repetition of this treatment, he pecome so demoralized by the use of liquors as to be perfectly imbecile and thoroughly indifferent as to what is passing around him.'

Stoppage of the Southern Mails.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Postmaster General Blair prepared an order to-day discontinuing the transmission of the United States mails in Virginia, and other secoded States, and annulling all contracts for the same. Tennessee is excepted from the ope-that State has not formally seceded. This course of the Postmaster General is under the act in relation to the subject passed at the last session of immediately notified of this decision. The mails for the South, from Washington, were stopped at the crossing place by the Federal troops, and were returned to the Post Office here.

Another regiment of Massachusetts troops reached Fortress Monroe on Tuesday last; there are now 6,000 soldiers in that garrison.