Red, White, and Blue. Oh Columbia, the gen of the ocean.
The bome of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to thee.
Thy mandates make heroer assemble,
When liberty's form stands in view,
Thy banners make tyranny tremble.
When borne by the red, white, and bine.
When borne by the red, white, and bine,
then borne by the red, white, and bine,
then borne by the red, white, and bine.
Thy bunners make tyranny tremble.

thy banners make tyranny tremble, I hen borne by the red, white, and blue When war waged its wile desolation,
And threaten'd our land to deform,
The ark then of freedom's foundation.
Columbia rede safe through the storm.
With her gurland of victory o'er her.
When so proudly she bore her bold crew,
With her flag proudly floating before her,
The boast of the red; white, and blue.
The boast of, &c.

The wine cup, the wine cup bring littler,
And fill you it up to the brim,
May the weath they have won never wither,
Nor the star of their glory grow dim,
May the service united neer sever,
And hold to their olors so true,
The same and havy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white, and blue.

Three cheers for &c.

WAR NEWS.

The Army at Chambersburg. CHAMBERSBURG, June 7.—The south ward march of the army collected at this point commenced this morning at eight o'clock, in splendid order and brilliant appearance. As the head of the column left the camp, the scene was animated and imposing—the citizens cheering, and the soldiers responding, while the feeling of both troops and commanders was full of hope, ani mation and courage.

The column extended along a line of six miles. The troops spread along this column consisted of a portion of the Second Regiment of United State Cavalry; the First City Troop of Philadelphia; Capt. Doubleday's command from Fort Sumpter; Capt. McMullin's Rangers of Philadelphia, and the Sixth, Twenty-first and Twenty-third Regiments of Pennsylvania volunteers commanded respectively by Col. Na gle, Col. Ballier and Col. Dare. The line moved precisely at eight o'clock this morning. It is expected that the troops will encamp at Greencastle to-night, a dis tance of eleven miles from Chambers burg, and within a few miles of the Maryland line. The march to-morrow will be to Hagerstown. The movement of the remaining force here is not known positively, but it is understood all will be ordered hence to the south in a few days. Later from Phillippi. CINCINNATI, June 7 .- A special disnatch from Grafton to the Commercial
