cipline, and that deep determination, | or in public speeches, persist in repeat- | States was driven back, excellent as The Country's Response Semi-Eleekly Globe. The country's Response. The people of the free and loyal The Latest News. Speech of Hon. Joseph Holt To the Kentucky Troops, at Camp "Joe Holt." Ind. Speech of Hon. Joseph Holt States have lately sunk into an extra-Proclamation from Gov. Curtin ordinary apathy, not seeming to ap-

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor TERMS .--- "The GLOBE" is published twice a week at $1.50 a year-- 70 cents for six months--50 cents for three months--in advance. nd that the capital was in imminent mation : anger. It became necessary for the Pennsylvania ss., A. G. Curtin, Governor:

HUNTINGDON, PA. Thursday afternoon, Aug. 22, 1861.

Red, White, and Blue Oh Columbia, the gen of the ocean. The home of the brave and the free, The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thee. y mandates make heroes assemble. When liberty's form stands in view A ben hostly a folia wakes in Yew, y hanners unake tyranny trenble, Men borne by the red, white, and blue. When borne by the red, white, and blue When borne s make tyranny trenble, When borne by the red, white, and blue

When war waged its wide desolation. When war wagen its Wike desolution, And threaten'd our land to defor un, The ark then of freedom's foundation. Columbia rode arde through the storm. With her garland of victory o'er her, When so proudly she bore her bold crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the red, white, and blue. The boast of the rod, white, and blue.

The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither, And fill you it up to the brin. May the wreath they have non never wither, Nor the star of their glory grow dim, May the service united meer sover, And hold to their colors so true, the neuron de new forms, And hold to tuen control of the army and navy forever, Three army and navy forever, Three cheers for the red, white, and blue. Three cheers for, &c

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATE ELECTION

AND COUNTY CONVENTION.

11

aging to find so ready and liberal a The Democratic voters of the several response to the demand of the Govboroughs and townships of Hunting- ernment, we must not let ourselves don county, are requested to meet at again sink into indifference, and fancy their usual places of holding delegate all is secure because so much has been elections, on SATURDAY THE 24TH AU- done. We have a powerful and vindiccusr, 1861, and to elect two dele- tive enemy, who has been emboldened gates from each district, to represent by success to undertake work that he the party in a County Convention, to | did not dare to think of a month ago. be held in the Court House in the bor- We need far more men than we now ough of Huntingdon, on MONDAY THE | have in the field. There should be not | 26TH AUGUST, at 2 o'clock, P. M. The less than one hundred thousand men object of the Convention will be to ap- on the Virginia side of the Potomic, point a Committee of fifteen Demo- as many more on this side, about Washcrats "who are favorable to a vigorous | ington, and at least fifty thousand to | prosecution of the war, and the course guard the line of the river from Georgepursued by the general government in the war, and the course guard the line of the river from George-tes efforts to suppress the present re-its efforts to suppress the present re-such a force subset under the antinal force of the river from George-town to Williamsport. When we have under command of Col. Dougherty, is harrowing to the soul to be dragged measure required to save the republic its efforts to suppress the present re- | such a force, placed under the entire like number appointed by the People's to contend against the rebels in Vir-

HARRISBURG, Aug. 20 .- Gov. Curtin reciate that we were really at war, has to-day issued the following procla-

Government to do something to arouse of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hem, and hence the call for more troops, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the to be sent immediatly to Washington, said Commonwealth. without even the usual delay of or- A Proclamation to the Freemen of the ganizing into full regiments, or waiting for arms and equipments.

It is cheering to see with what alac-rity the people respond to this appeal. In every one of the Northern States In danger. The President has made an earnest appeal for all the men that without delay. If Pennsylvania now without delay. If Pennsylvania now there has been a fresh rising, and a puts forth her strength, the hordes of determination to move with such en-ergy and force as are demanded by the she falters, the seat of tumult, disorder emergencies of the country. It has and rapine may be transferred to her been ascertained that Philadelphia can send six or eight thousand men within a few days, and the rest of the State may seud as many more. New York city and State can despatch fully fif. companies to report immediately to the Headquarters of the Common-teen thousand men before the week is wealth, at Harrisburg, that means may over. New Jersey and Delaware have be provided for their immediate transeach already sent on a regiment. New portation, with the men under their Hampshire has three registents ready, commands. The three months volunteers, whose Massachusetts five, and Michigan five. From other States we have, at this moment, but little information, but it is quite certain that within a week there may be sent to Washington fifty and aid the other men of Pennsylvania thousand more troops, if the means of Given under my hand and the great thousand more troops, if the means of transportation are sufficient. These will be chiefly from New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsyl-vania. The troops from the Western vania. The troops from the Western the eighty-sixth. States are needed in Missouri, Western ELI SLIFER. (Signed) Virginia and elsewhere. Secretary of the Commonwealth. While it is gratifying and encour-INTERESTING FROM CAIRO. Midnight Engagement at Charleston, Missouri.

Hon. Joseph Holt recently visited Commonwealth of Pennsylvania : -Washington is again believed to be in danger. The President has made of that citizenship, which is at once the most intense and the most truthhungry rebels may be swept down to ful expression of your political life. No poor words of mine could adequately convey to you the grateful emotions inspired by the kindness and warmth of this welcome. I should have been rejoiced to meet you any-

Midnight Engagement at Charleston, Missouri. Sr. Louis, Aug. 20.—The town of convictions to confirm. Your resolu-self. The Government has been like midst of friends, and have doubtless I must offer y bellion instituted by the Disunionists of the South," to meet a Committee of then we will be in a proper condition then we will be in a proper condition then we will be in a proper condition the south at best it, not only the south at best it, not only son, of the 11th Illinois Regiment...

The rebels were commanded by Col. balancing chances and court careau Hunter, of Jeff. Thompson's army. The Federal force was victorious, ist in treating this agonized struggle for national existence as a petty ques-the disposal of any Government as that continuously, and that by constant ap-peals and constant reiteration of the great fact, that we are engaged in a great fact, that we are engaged in a war, and that the country is in dan-ger.—Phila. Bulletin, Aug. 20th inst. SFOTTING TREASON.—The Union feel-bing of the State hege webcal are to the illustrious apostles of its principles have come from the broad field of agriculseventeen were taken prisoners. HARMISBURG, Aug. 21.—Pennsylva-nia true to her ancient glory still leads There seems to be something in the scenes of nature, in her wild and beauthe van in the defence of the old Flag. its attendant perils and horrors, that tiful landscapes, in her cascades, and If they are not, both parties will soon at home, in the Keystone State, would find out that before we can success- be permitted to continue their unholy for the immediate transmission of the masses those who, with all their rating airs of her hills and mountains, cataracts, and woodlands, and exhilaoval citizens. fully and effectually rid our country work of poisoning the minds of the troops to Washington, was received on love cf life, still love their country that unbraces the fetters which man more. While your present position is would rivet upon the spirit of his felof three thousand men have left this a most vivid and impressive illustra- low man. It was at the handles of the eity and Philadelphia en route for the sent of war. ty to save the country from the rule of military tyrants. We have been known in the country as a Democrat isnce we have had control of the Globe, fifteen years last March, but we'deny being a party Democrat at this time we have had control of the North, no matter by whom ut being a party Democrat at this time bend little understood or appreciated the problems their blood was poured out to solve. 1.2 The programation of tovernor cure tin will be hobly responded to. Of the twelve new regiments con-templated by the State authorities, one commanded by Colonel Black, ex-Gov-ornor of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the beaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska, left for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the breaking away from the common of Nebraska here for Washington immediated by the br commanded by Colorer Black, ex-Gov-ernor of Nebraska, left for Washington last evening. Two others fully equip-ped will be ready to march in a few entanglements of kindred and friends of the shepherd's bell, that were nur-public with the shepherd's bell, the shepherd erations yet to come are looking up to fully entitles her to occupy. days, and the remainder will be made and State policy, enables you to follow tured those rare virtues which clusteranimpaired transmission to them, of up and despatched at the rate of about two a week. ed, star-like, in the character of Wash- that priceless heritage which has been committed to our keeping...; I say its unimpaired transmission-in all the ington, and lifted him, in moral stature. All these regiments will be officered by experienced men, selected with great caution by Gov. Curtin, most of whom have seen active service in the field, and about two-thirds of the rank and file are recruited from the three months voluncers. Gov. Curtin and his staff are active-ly engaged, and their untiring labors are promptly seconded by the people. In every part of the State the highest All these regiments will be officered non's mouth. It must, ever, be added, In every part of the State the highest way temptations; you should resist aim will not be to subjugate that bethem as you would resist the advanc-trayed and distracted country, but to obstacles and through many chilling that the more sensible, intelligent and patriotic masses of men of all parties burg in the evening and arrived at have the preservation of their country Washington the next evening. All ny of the patriotic devotion of the Old cess, you will say to yourselves, "Our Union men, who are your brethren, about to be fought in defence of our too much at heart to take any interest along the ronte we were greeted with Keystone to the cause of Constitution country sees us," and so act as to stand throng in those States and will listen common country, its institutions and to much at heart to take any interest in the petty quarrels of aspiring politi-cians. And we know that the right spirit exists with a large majority of the people of the county in reference to the people of the county in reference to the people of the county in reference to the data of the route we were greeted with al liberty. Advices from the fifteen regiments of the soldiers, not only without fair, but also, without reproach; each mo-ment, not absorbed by the toils and duties of your military life, should, as the people of the county in reference to the entire field the coverage to the entire field the entire field the coverage to the entire field the coverage to the entire field the e in having such an army ready, is justly montal and moral training, without silenced and are now unseen, but be nothing shaken by the recent sad rewhich the noblest of volunteers must assured that by the light of the stars verse of arms whose shadow is still * many gentlemen from different parts occasionally cheered, though the peo- eight perfect batteries, fully manned cenarics. you carry upon your banner you will resting upon our spirits. The country find them all. It has been constantly has indeed lost a battle, but it has not of the county—gentlemen who have heretofore adhered tonaciously to par-ty organizations and nominations, but through Washington, by hand. will remember that you have in your ment of the United States, waged for fortunes of war are ever subject, and Paymaster General Maxwell has just returned from Washington and Baltimore. He reports the State Rewho, in the fury of their passions, spare has given them a momentary advanserve Corps as being nearly all paid off up to the time the regiments comprisneither age nor sex nor property. Even one of the Confederate Generals has so far steeped himself in infamy as to Bulow, and thus Waterloo was won publish in choice billingsgate, this base calumny, through an official proclamaseemed stooping over the head of Na-In view of what Congress has re- poleon. So Patterson did not pursue cently so solemnly resolved," and in Johnson, and the overwhelming conview of the continuous and consistent centration of rebel troops that in conaccoutrements of war, including new West, and with me you will admire action of the Administration upon, the sequence ensued, was probably the furnished by the War Department. action of the Administration upon the sequence ensued, was probably the

Hill and the men from the "dark and bloody ground," unestranged from each list and the highest duty of the Amerthe camp of the Kentucky troops, and other by the low arts of politicians, ican army, as it advances South, by its and they prove neither the want of made the following spirit stirring speech to the soldiers: to the soldiers: FELLOW-CITIZENS AND SOLDIERS:--I say citizens, since you are still such. and it is only because you have re-solved that no earthly power shall rob Not mean and the moral but the moral but the material sup-solved that no earthly power shall rob solved that no earthly power shan roo you of this prond title, or in any man-port of Kentucky. Not many weeks associated with it, that you have be-monwealth will make an exultant it, that you have beassociated with it, that you have be-come soldiers. Your soldiership is but the stately armor you have donned for the purpose of doing battle in defence of that eitizenship, which is at once Union. In the sectes of the moment-tous events now occurring, her weight should be and will be felt. Already she is impatient, and will not much she is impatient, and will not much longer, under the pressure of any pol-icy, submit to shrink away into the lain. nere dust of the balances.

recover from this discomfiture, which, But when you meet in battle array, after all, will serve only to nerve to Have no fears as to the vigorous and those atrocious conspirators, who, at yet more extraordinary exertions the where. How full, therefore, the meas-ure of my happiness must be to meet you here in such a presence and amid where in such a presence and amid the thrilling associations inseparable from the scene, you can well under stand. I should have felt proud to have my name connected with the humblest tranning of your encamp. have my name connected with the humblest trapping of your encamp-ment, but to have linked it with the encampment itself, and thus inseribed as it were upon one of the mile stores that were upon one of the mile stores has it were upon one or the line stories initial stories in the discussion of the properties in the discussion of the particular in the discussion of your confidence and good will for which has been resolved upon. When the life of the patient is confess-which Learnet be too werfoundly thanks.

nets, and the martial music, and in- cents the worth of our institutions. monwealth, from whence you came, those fiends in human shape, who deed, all that meets the eye or the car This terrible emergency, with all its and whose name you bear, but wise drunken with the orgies of an infernal deed, all that meets the eye of the ear This terrible emergency, with all us and whose name you bear, but wise drunken with the orgies of an internat the argument is exhausted, and that you have no by those who subsequently administive during from their conditions are filling to its brim the cup the founders of our Government, and by those who subsequently administive during from their conditions are filling to its brim the cup the founders of our Government, and by those who subsequently administive during from their conditions are filling to its brim the cup the founders of our Government, and by those who subsequently administive during from their conditions are filling to its brim the cup the founders of our Government and the subsequent of a nation's sorrows. Wo, wo, I say, to the subsequent of the cup the cup the founder of the cup the cup the founder of the cup the founder of the cup the founder of the cup the cup the founder of the cup the cup the founder of the cup the cup the cup the cup the cup the founder of the cup th _é.;

Autor of the second stateIndeger doubts to serve or besittatingIndeger doubts to serve or besittatingSr. Louis, Aug. 20.—The town of Commerce, Mo, forty miles allow of the battery planted by the Secession at serve or besittanies to order of Gen. Fremont.Indeger doubts to serve or besittanies to very our country, and, unawed by aris of neutrality, you are determined to order of Gen. Fremont.Indeger doubts to serve or besittanies to the particle state strend size in the serve or fill in the serve ty; across which their hands and their apon your march and amid the heavy hearts have ever been clasped in friend- currents of battle. Loyal men everyministration, promptly and fearlessly. ship and in faith. ship and in faith. In those stirring conflicts for principation of an and "all hail to your courage of the past ; and yet, from the midst of all this gloom, these words still gleam out upon us like lightning from a summer's cloud. For more than two thous and years the earth has been convulsed and shaken to its moral foundations. nations and generations have risen and perished by slow decay or amid the shock of battle; and the wail of our stricken race has gone up over the sepulchres alike of men and of empires. et above all those words have floated down to us, and still float abroad upon the airs of the world like some kindling strain of music, ever caught, up hearts. Such is the power of patriot ism, and such the spell its truthful expression exerts over the great spirit of humanity. To woman, ever timid in the sunshine, but ever brave in the storm, we offer our thanks for this, presence, before we can cease to be willing to live and to die in defence of

was my fortune to pass my childhood scas, upon the mountains and the plains and youth on my father's farm upon the banks of yonder river, and in the light of the morning and of the evening sun, my eyes rested upon the free homes and forests of Indiana. I played upon her hills and fished in her streams, and mingled with her people, when I was too young to know, what I trust I never shall be old enough to learn, that this great country of ours has either North or South, East or West, in the affections and faith of true and Soldiers-when Napoleon was about to spur on his legions to combat, on and ever repeated with flashing eyes the sands of an African desert, pointing and heard with wildly pulsating them to the Egyptian pyramids that loomed up against the far-off horizon, he exclaimed, " From yonder pyramids twenty centuries behold your actions." The thought was sublime and electric; but you have more than this. When you shall confront these infuriated hosts, whose battle cry is, "Down with to the voices of her love, and vel our the Government of the United States," | souls from the illuminations of her let your answering shout be-"The Government as our fathers made it;"

Save the Country First.

great fact, that we are engaged in a Too many papers we pick up appear to be particularly interested at this time in the success of either the Democratic or Republican party. We have SPOTTING TREASON.-The Union feelscen and heard this until we are sick ing of the State has waked up to the Forty of the rebels were killed and frowning erags. It is easy, however, and tired of it; and with a Rebellion necessity of pointing out all who symstaring us in the face, we think it is pathize with the Rebels of the South. time old party lines were obliterated. We had feared at one time that traitors of traitors and end this unholy war on unsuspecting, without an effort on the the Union, they will have to drop par- part of the people or the Government ty to save the country from the rule to put a check to their proceedings, seat of war. being a party Democrat at this time. In the North, no matter by whom ut-We claim to be an unconditional Union tered, should meet with an indignant fice of individual interests and personman, and in favor of prosecuting this public opinion, and those who utter war with the Rebels until every one, them should receive the punishment both North and South, shall be so ef- they deserve. fectually "wiped " from this Heaven-TREASONABLE PAPERS SUPPRESSED .-favored land, that a Secessionist will The type and fixtures of the Easton bo as great a curiosity as was the Sentinel, and West Chester Jeffersonian, last evening. Two others fully equip-Egyptian mummy when first discov- both secession papers, were destroyed on Monday night last. A few of the aspiring, ambitious third class politicians of both parties Our Army Correspondence. in the county, who would sell themselves for a sixpence, and their chance CAMP CAMPBELL, Aug. 19.

of Heaven for a county office, still DEAR GLOBE :- When I wrote my have seen active service in the field, cling tenaciously to what they call last letter from Henderson township, and about two-thirds of the rank and country looks not to your officers, chiparty organizations, and harp about I had no notion of enlisting; but the this and about that which every sen. | war fever got so strong that I could sible man and patriot cares nothing not resist it, and here I am. I joined about, much less of holding a petty the army at Camp Curtin, and was are promptly seconded by the people. county office, We are pleased to know | there about two weeks; I was glad to | to the nomination of a Union County crossed the Maryland line. As we Ticket. We have conversed with marched through Baltimore we were ty organizations and nominations, but | through Washington, by hand. who are now willing and anxious to We had about eight hundred men bury the partisan in the patriot. An and only thirty-two guns, all of them just returned from Washington and unexceptional Union Ticket, to be six pounders except two, which were Baltimore. He reports the State Renominated on Tuesday next, will be twelve pounders. endorsed at the polls by the Union Since we came here three companies honor to the county not soon to be marched to Georgetown heights, anothforgotten. We want to save our country first. After that we will have time enough more now, but I will write again.

to talk politics and fight political bat-RANGER, Co. G, 1st Art. Reg. P. V. tles.

Monday morning, and already upwards al ambition. The proclamation of Governor Cur-wo a week.

the subject of general commendation.

sent to the field.

men by a majority which will be an honor to the county not soon to be marched to Georgetown heights, anoth-honor to the county not soon to be er company get horses to-day, I think agent now in Washington, also state ence of the foes would cover it with we will get ours to-morrow. Nothing that all these regiments are well provided with the necessary clothing and soon mingle in the ranks with the galaccoutrements of -war, including-new lant volunteers from the North and furnished by the War Department.

A PROCLAMATION,

By the President of the United States. Whereas. A joint committee of both Honses of Congress has waited on the President of the United States, and re-that we may be set that the interval of the set the set the set the set of t cep that day, according to their several creeds and mode f worship, in all humility, and with all religions solen ity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation ma cend to the Throne of Grace and bris on our country ABRAHAM LINCOLN

By the President. WILLIAM II. SEWARD, Secretary of State. ENVELOPES

Wholesale and Retail.

50.000,BEST QUALITY

BUFF, ORANGE, STATUS YELLOW, AND FANCY

ENVELOPES. Just received as I for sale at LEWIS' BOOK STORE.