Red, White, and Blue. b Columbia, the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thes. Thy mandates make herces assemble, When liberty's form stands in view. Thy bannets make tyranuly tremble, hy bannets make tyrandu in view, When borne by the red, white, and blue. When borne by the red, white, and blue, When borne by the red, white, and blue, Thy-beamers make ty ranny tremble, When borne by the sud, white, and blue.

When war waged its wide desolation, And threaten'd our hand to deform, The ark then of freedom's foundation. The ark then of spreedom s forholation. Columbia rode safe through the storm. With her garland of victory o'er her, With a so proudly she hore her held crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the red, willis, and blue. The boast of the red, willis, and blue. The wine cup, the wine cup bring hither, Afd fill you it up to the brin, May the wreath they have won never wither, Nor the star of itheir gloty grow dim, May the service united never gever, And hold to their colors so true, The army and may forever, Three cheers for the red, white, and hue.
