HUNTINGDON, PA.

Union Conference.

<sup>2</sup> The Democratic and Republican Committees of Conference appointed by County Delegate Conventions of the parties, met in the Court House on Tuesday afternoon August 27th, and put in nomination the following Union ticket: ASSEMBLY.

JOHN SCOTT, of Huntingdon. ASSOCIATE JUDGE, BENJ.F. PATTON, of Warriorsmark JOHN S. ISETT. of Franklin. COUNTY TREASURER, JOHN A. NASH; of Huntingdon.

JAMES HENDERSON, of Cassville. MILTON SANGREE, of Walker. The following resolutions were read

Resolved, That it behooves every true pat- ate to her own use. The fourth

Resolved, That we should use every effort to foster and keep alive the fire of patriotism now filling the breasts of all true and loyal

Resolved, That this Convention, representing both the political parties of the county, have the fullest confidence in the integrity and capacity of Hon. George Taylor, and complete success of the naval expedi- chanan's Cabinet, and now a Major tion, will cheer the hearts of all loyal General in the army of the United citizens. Jeff Davis will soon discover | States. that he has more on hands than he bargained for. A succession of victories may now be looked for by our brave army.

A Brilliant Victory!

Good results may also be expected volunteer, is no more. On Saturday, last, in company with some twentyfive or thirty hands employed under Mr. David Black making repairs on off finely. switch-back, the car next to the one on which he was standing, jumped off the track, and in turning sideways to the track to the one of his company, some the track, and in turning sideways to the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company, some the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company to the track to the one of his company of the car on which he stood, breaking of the car on which he stood, breaking companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the company of the United States, and the representation of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the of the United States, and the companies are being raised in the companies are being raised are being raised are being raised are being raised are b his left leg in two places above the knee and badly injuring him in the lower Gov. Yates has issued a proclamating the forces at Hatterns Inlet, hereuntil 10 of the same evening when for the next twenty days. death relieved him of his pains. Until will soon have 50,000 men in the field, within a half hour of his death Mr. T. and the only regret is that we did not was perfectly sensible and conversed have them sooner freely with his family, who arrived at his hedside two or three hours before his death. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn the sad accident and the loss of a husband and a father.

Mr. Thompson was a member of the Standing Stone Guards, and served as 'a faithful soldier for three months.— His corpse was brought home on Sunday, and on yesterday afternoon it was ers an earlier notice of this Seminary. followed to the grave by those of the before I left for this place, but since and by his family and a large number ous studies.

The Blair county Normal School is seven companies in the field:— The Huntingdon Infantry, Capt. Harrison—the Scott Infantry, Capt. Zentmyer—the Lawrence Rifles. Capt. McCabe Rainsburg Seminary. They are men Dickerson and E. J. Osborne. The Lawrence Rifles. Capt. McCabe Rainsburg Seminary. They are men Dickerson and E. J. Osborne. The Barron, Lieut. Snarp, and Dr. Wyatt M. Brown, all late of the U. S. Navy. Another order provides that the commissioned officers of all volunteer and militia organizations, no matter whether established under the author-Guards No. 2, Capt. Campbell. We ledge to all who intend pursuing an Capt. Seth. Benner.

PROMOTED. W. P. Anderson, son of John P. Anderson, Esq., of this place, priceless gem of Education. the 71st New York Regiment, in the preparing to put in their seed, and some port News and Fortress Monroe, 900 battle of Rull Run has been properly as the seed of the transfer of the transfe to a Lieutenancy in the regular army, unpreceded by their neighbors. duty. The officers in command of the other impediments to its growth. of the bravest of the braves. Lieut.

Anderson is a "chip of the old block," —and if we are not very much mistaker his brave conduct on the his brave conduct on the his brave conduct on the histaker his brave conduct on the histaker. taken his brave conduct on the battle years or during the war. field will soon demand a higher promo-

CAMP HUNTINGDON. - Col. R. P. Hamilton is now in camp at this place, authorized by the War Department to raise a Regiment of Cavalry. Already companies are filling up, and in less The Gross' is published twice a week at than a month we expect to hear of his unconditional Surrender of Rebels. regiment being full. No better man could have been selected to raise a regiment of cavalry. Young: men 25 Cannon and 1,000 Stand of Arms should report themselves immediately as volunteers, and not wait to be Standing-Stone Guards No. 2 Capt. J. D. Campbell, of this place, left about 60 men. One of more of the it is believed, will give the possession commissioned officers will return this to authorities of the United States: week to recruit the necessary number week to recruit the necessary number of men to fill the company. Capt. U.S. Flag Ship Minnesota, Aug. 30. Campbell may be proud of his compa- To the Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of ny, for those that have already joined his ranks are of the finest young men n the county.

gold ear bob. The finder will please leave it at this office.

Peace Measures. It would be well for the neace men copy from the Mobile Mercury: "We must dictate the terms of peace the first article which should be an acknowledgment of the right of secession. This is a fundamental principle. The next article should be that she (the ton Roads. North) pay, to the utmost farthing. the expenses of this war.

The third is that she pay for the deand unanimously adopted by the Construction of all property, both public forence: riot in this important crisis in our Country, to lay aside party trammels and sustain the National and State Governments in supporting the Constitution and preserving the Union of the States.

Support the Government

"I am for supporting the government. I do not ask who administers it It is the government of my country, and as such I shall give it, in this extremity, all the support in my powthey commend him to the support of the peu-ple for President Judge of this Judicial Dis-trict, believing him to be a pure and upright citizen and a learned and able Jurist. John 4 Dir. John A. Dix.

These are the sentiments of the Hon The news we publish to-day of the John A. Dix, a member of Mr. Bu-

The Spirit of Illinois.

For the Press 1 If the following extract from a letter received from one of the foremost patriots of Illinois will be of interest from the determined stand taken by to your readers, it is at your service.

Gen Fremont in Missouri.

The town only sent two companies of three-months volunteers, who returned Joseph H. Thompson, the brave on August 12:

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Aug. 20, 1861. I suppose — has given you the news about the dinner to our returned crushed Mr. T. between it and the box of the car on which he stood, breaking another company of infantry. Other company of infantry.

part of his body. The accident hap- tion, saying that he will receive all ting the forces at Hatteras Inlet, herepened about 4 P. M.-Mr. T. lingered companies or regiments that may offer

OUR CORRESPONDENCE

NORMAL SCHOOL, Blair co. Aug. 27, 1861 DEAR GLOBE:—Having a few spare moments, I concluded to give you a brief account of the "Blair co. Normal

I had anticipated giving your readwolunteers of his company still in town have been here, my spare moments were scarce, being taken up by numerlocated at Martinsburg, Blair county, —the Lawrence Rifles, Capt. McCabe

—the Jackson Guards, Capt. Miles—the Negley Independent Rangers, Capt.

McApelly—Ist Cornly company Capt.

McApelly—Ist McAnally—1st Cavalry company, Capt. instruction for the professional train-Hamilton—and the Standing Stone ing of Teachers, and a practical know-hear of other companies forming in Active business life.

There are now over fifty students in unity of any consequence whatever.—

In the decire business life.

There are now over fifty students in unity of any consequence whatever.—

I loss of an arm. We met with no case and respected in from that date. different parts of the county, by Gen. attendance, and more daily coming in. different parts of the county, by Gen. attendance, and more daily coming in.

F. H. Lane, Capt. Samuel L. Huyett,

The healthful and delightful section all pariculars, 1 beg to refer to the retered into the service of the United Capt. Dade, Capt. Brice X. Blair and of country and the means of access so ports of flag-officer Silas H. Stringham States as volunteers without the conconvenient from the Central and Broad Top Rail Roads, present unparalleled
Although the steamers Adelaide and inducements by any other institu-tion to those who would seek the priceless grow of Education

battle of Bull Run, has been promoted have commenced, though merely to be men, with arms, provisions, and muniand has reported himself ready for consideration the dry weather and the boats filled and became unmanage-71st, reported young Anderson as one | Fruit will be very scarce throughout

Having nothing more to communi-

GLORIOUS VICTORY!

NAVAL EXPEDITION TO HATTERAS CAPTURE OF TWO FORTS.

SEVEN HUNDRED AND FIFTELN PRISONERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1. The following official despatches for Harrisburg on Saturday last, with details of the victory achieved, which, of the whole coast of North Carolina

I have the honor to inform you that we have been eminently successful in our expedition. All that could be Lost, in this place on Saturday last, wished by the most hopeful has been accomplished. This morning we are of the North to consider well the constant of the North to consider well the constant of the North to consider well the constant of the Richard of the Richa ditions of peace the Rebols would offer ately on my arrival at New York. ette, Ray and other such counties in us to agree to a compromise. We whither I have concluded to land them, this part of the State, as they are now as requested in your communication

the Navy:

ls. Respectfully, Your obedient servant, S. II. STRINGHAM, Flag Officer Atlantic Blockading . Squadron.

OFF HATTERAS INLET, U. S. FLAG SHIP MINNESOTA, Aug. 30, 1861.

the surrender of the forts at the inlet of Hatteras, North Carolina. If the Dastardly Attempt to Blow up a Rail-Department have any orders I should be pleased to receive them at New Respectfully, Your obedient servant,
S. H. Stringham,

Flag Officer Atlantic Blockading

OFF HATTERAS INLET, U. S. FLAG SHIP MINNESOTA, August 29, A. D. 1861.

ARTICLES OF CAPITULATION. Between Flag Officer Stringham, com manding the Atlantic Blockading Squadron, and Benjamin F. Butler, of the U.S. Army, commanding, on behalf of the United States Government, and Samuel Barren, commanding the naval forces for the It is stipulated and agreed between eral lives lost.

unto interchangeably set our hands.

this twenty-ninth day of August, A D. 1861, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-fifth year. S. II. STRINGHAM, Flag Officer attached to the Blockading Squadron.
BENJ. F. BUTLER,

Maj. General U. S. A., commanding. S. BARRON, Flag Gflicer U. C. Navy, commanding naval forces of Virginia and North Carolina.

WM. F. MARTIN, Col. 7th Regiment Infantry, N. C Volunteers. W. L. G. Andrews, Major, commanding Forts Hatteras and Clark.

U.S. CHARTERED STEAMER ADELAIDE, ) August 31, 1861. dition to Cape Hatteras Inlet has resulted in a signal victory over the rebbe, and the same are absolutely pro-Huntingdon County and the Army. in one of the most populous, wealthy, —This county is pretty strongly repand best agricultural districts in the capture of two forts, 25 canhibited, and from and after the date of resented in the army for three years interior of the State. It is conducted non, 1,000 stand of arms, and 715 pris- this order, persons violating the same or during the war. We have already by the very able Principals, J. W. oners, amongst whom are Capt. Sam'l will be proceeded against under the Barron, Lieut. Sharp, and Dr. Wyatt fifty-seventh article of war.

important operations, I consented to tions of war, and landed part of them. Corn looks very good, to take into about 300, amidst a heavy surf, until The men-of-war hauled in and comated in the ceremonies after which he prisoners were brought to this vessel, and next day, the 30th inst., placed them on board the Minnesota. which vessel sailed at 2.30 P.M. for lew York, and we left for Annapolis river, and carry it to Gen. Price's army with Major Gen. Butler, U. S. Army, and the wounded prisoners. I hope my endeavors in the case may meet your full approbation, and beg to recommend to your consideration the conduct of Lieut. Commanding R. B. Lowry, associated with me in this work, and placed in charge of from commander Stringham and other officers participating in the naval expedition to Hatteras Inlet, gives the for the expedition. I have also received valuable assistance from my corps of pilots, and from Dr. T. C Stellwagen and James Forsyth, who acted in the place of junior officers. am, respectfully, your ob't servant, H. S. Stellwagen, Com.

To Hon, GIDEON WELLES, Secretary of the Navy. FROM MISSOURL

Depredations by the Rebels.

LUXINGTON, Aug. 29. The rebels, encouraged by the exagtaking on board the Minnesota officers gerated reports of the battle near Spring and men numbering six hundred and field, are congregating in large num fifteen of the rebel force, which surren- bers in this and the surrounding coundered yesterday, after a bombardment ties, committing all kinds of outrages articles of capitulation agreed upon at are ready to shoulder their muskets, road Train. Rolla, Mo., Aug. 29.—The correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat furnishes the following intelligence. An attempt was made, vesterday, t blow up the train due here at 4.50 this

As the train reached a point eight miles east of here un explosion took place beneath the locomotive, literally covering it with dirt and gravel, and slightly wounding the engineer.
On backing the train to the side track it was discovered that a keg of powder had been baried between the rails, which was exploded in some unrecount-clared to extend from Leavenworth, The companies, under the command

The explosion occurred on an enhankmanding the naval forces for the defences of North Carolina and Virginia, and Col. Martin, commanding the forces, and Major Andrew, commanding the same forces at Fort Hatteras.

All persons who she arms in their hands vectors, instead of latterally, as was the case, the train would doubtless have been thrown from the track, and sevilar will be shot. The property, real the contracting parties that the forces under the command of the said Barnon, Martin, and Andrews, and all near Jamestown, and fired on three sus-I suppose — has given you the news about the dinner to our returned news about the dinner to our returned volunteers, on Wednesday.

All went off finely.

I suppose — has given you the news, and all news about the dinner to our returned news, and all near Jamestown, and fired on three suspicious characters on the track close by but with what result is not known. Mr. David Black making repairs on the Broad Top Road on the mountain, the Broad Top Road On the Br

Washington, Aug. 29, 1861. The War Department has just issued the following order:

By the 57th article of the act of Congress, entitled an act for establishing rules and articles for the government of the armies of the United States, approved April 10th, 1806, holding correspondence with, or giving intelligence to the enemy, either directly or indirectly, is made punishable by death, or such other punishment as shall be ordered by the sentence of a court-

Public safety requires the strict en forcement of this article. It is therefore ordered that all correspondence and communications, verbally or by writing, printing or tele-graphing, respecting the operations of he army, or military movements on land or water, or respecting the troops, camps, arsenals, entrenchments, military affairs within the several military districts, by which intelligence shall be directly or indirectly given to Sin: I have to report that the expe- the enemy, without the authority and sanction of the general in command,

Many others were carried away. into the service of the United States, Lieut. Murdough, late of the U.S. and will take their respective grades Navy, is among the number, with the loss of an arm. We met with no cas-> sent of their parents or guardians. Baltimore, Aug. 29.—Daniel Deekert, editor of the Hagerstown Mail, a Secession paper, has been arrested by order of the Government. Gen. Mc-

Caig, State Senator from Alleghany

And the same of the use of the wours of and sick in the army.

Steamed into the inlet, and laid behind the fort ready to throw the remaining about to stump the State of Keutucky the army.

Steamed into the inlet, and laid behind the fort ready to throw the remaining dissouri Railroad, for transportation to troops a shore, either in ease of a complete the fine of the use of the wours of and sick in the army.

Steamed into the inlet, and laid behind the fort ready to throw the remaining dissouri Railroad, for transportation to troops a shore, either in ease of a complete the fine of the use of the wours of the wours of the wours of the army.

Steamed into the inlet, and laid behind the fort ready to throw the remaining dissouri Railroad, for transportation to gress, we shall soon have universal the money was seized by a party of in an in aid of the cause of Constitutional liberty, the same. At the surrender we officitely the surrender we offi

Whether it will be recovered or not s undetermined, some saying that Poindexter has been induced to return it to the bank, while others assert that he will attempt to cross the Missouri Near Hunter's Charel, Va., Aug.

in the southeast. The Late Battle in Western Virginia.

CLARKSBURG, Va., Friday, Aug. 30, divisions, numbering 400, arrived at Charleston yesterday.

In the skirmish below Elkwater, on the Hunterville road, yesterday, five rebels and one federal soldier was killed. The rebels retreated. Gen. Robert Schenck is ordered to service in the Department of the Ohio. IMPORTANT FROM MISSOURI.

MARTIAL LAW PROGLATMED.

Sr. Louis, Aug. 31.—The following proclamation was issued this morning: HEADQUARTERS OF WESTERN DEP'T.)

in reference to prisoners coming into Union men to subsist their army for a sufficient urgency to render it necestanding them I shall return to Hampcountry. Prominent Union men are daily threatened with death, and Gov. dily threatened with death, and Gov. Hunter's Chapel. of the Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy:

King, of Ray county has been frequently warned, but his devotion to the ly warned, but his devotion to the Union is unshaken, and he and his sons demand the severest measures to repress the daily increasing crimes and dated Arlington Heights, August 28th, outrages which are driving off the in- in relation to the skirmish near Ball's habitants and ruining the State.

In this condition the public safety, ticulars: and the success of our arms require drance to the prompt administration of affairs. orders, to maintain as far as is now place about one mile in advance of the practicable, the public peace, and to Cross Roads, just this side of the railgive security and protection to the persona and property of loyal citizens, I do hereby extend and declare established Marshal Law throughout the York, who had not been relieved. The lower forget that seement and never forget that seement and nev State of Missouri. attack was made by about 500 rebels.

The lines of the Army of Occupation For a few moments the fire was rapid penalty of the law.

All persons engaged in treasonable correspondence, in giving or procuring documents are in their interest warned that they are exposing themselves.

authorities, the power to give instanably exercised.

J. C. FREMONT, Major General Commanding.

Currency in the South.

A correspondent of the Richmond quirer says : Are these institutions really the county, was also arrested in Wash- friends of Lincoln? Just so soon as it with the boastful announcement that ington county, where, it is stated, he appears that the banks are to be all the ravages of war and carnage should has been ever since his course in the lowed to prey upon the people at this Legislature rendered him obnoxious time, when they are loyally and patrifields of the South to the wheat fields The enemy's reinforcements endeavored to land, and 1,000 or 1,500 men FAYETTE, Mo., Aug. 29.—Apprehengreat cause. Whatever circulates as map of the world. field will soon demand a higher promotion. Success to our brave Huntingdon county "boys."

Miss Dix acknowledges the re Seint of a box of clothing, jellies and Having nothing more to community were driven back, and at 11.30 they displayed a flag of truce, and were forced to surrender at discretion. On the appearance of the white flag I statemed into the inlet, and flad behind to the Andrew Grant of the appearance of the white flag I statemed into the inlet, and flad behind to the Andrew Grant of the since being felt that the branch of the since being felt that the branch of the since being felt that the branch of the since being felt that this place would be forced to surrender at discretion. On the appearance of the white flag I statemed into the inlet, and flad behind to the Angel Power of the state of facts there was being felt that the branch of the since would be forced to surrender at discretion. On the Angel Power of the wife of this state of facts there was being felt that the branch of the since would be forced to surrender at discretion. On the Angel Power of the surrender at discretion in volving partisan policy; it was a question involving partisan policy; it was a question of government to the fact that the branch of the since will be forced to surrender at discretion. On the Angel Power of the state of facts there was being felt that the branch of the since would be forced to surrender at discretion. On the Angel Power of the state of facts there was being felt that the branch of the since would be forced to surrender at discretion. On the Angel Power of the state of facts there was being felt that the branch of the since would be forced to surrender at discretion. On the Angel Power of the surrender at the felt and the since was a fact of the surrender at the felt and the since was a fact of the surrender at the felt and the since was a fact of the surrender at the felt and Affairs over the River.

A correspondent of the Washington 30.—I write to give you some particulars as to the position of the Confederate force in this vicinity. From a hill ing sight. As it was, their marching, ree was at work yesterday.

familiar with the high, bold, open appearance of the hill, crowned with a istration of Jackson, in the days of few straggling trees. A tall pole has nullification, presents a noble and, been erected on the highest point, and on that pole a secession flag is flying. At the very moment when that fearful at least forty feet above the tops of crisis was precipitated upon the counthe highest trees. The three stripes try, partisan strife between Whigs and are plainly seen. A smaller flag is visible to the left. No doubt these flags can be seen from the dome of the Capitol, in Washington, with a good glass, as Munson's hill is distinctly risible with the naked eye from that point. this part of the State, as they are now doing, they will steal enough from the Union men to subsist their army for a month. In view of this condition of things, assistance has been asked of General Fremont.

The Home Guards still occupy the fortifications here, and are well supplied with arms and provisions. They can probably hold the place, but reincan probably hold the place, but reinforcements are needed to operate against parties who are ravaging the security of the and the devastation of property by bands of murderers who infest nearly every county in the State to avail themselves of the public mispounder. One of the balls fell very

> THE SKIRMISH ACROSS THE RIVER. Arlington, Va., Aug. 29.-A statement from your special correspondent, Cross Roads, is incorrect in some par-

The detachment was sent out for unity of purpose, without let or hin- picket duty, consisting of five companies-three from the 14th W. S. M. Regiment, and two from the 23d New In order therefore to suppress dis- York volunteers. The skirmish took by way of the posts of Jefferson City, Rolla and Irenton, to Cape Girardeau, of the 23d New York Regiment, con-Rolla and Irenton, to Cape Gharacter on the Mississippi river.

All persons who shall be taken with arms in their hands within lines shall be tried by Court Martial, and if found them; and, after the robels had retreated, fell back to the Cross Roads in good order; after which the pickets guilty will be shot.

The property, real and personal, of all persons in the State of Missouri, who shall take up arms against the who shall take up arms against the position, and there remained. Too

Senator Douglas' Last Letter.

A friend of Senator Douglas has who were present in great numbers. aid to the enemies of the United States, in fomenting tunults, in disturbing the public tranquility by creating and circulating false reports or incendiary country—the last he over wrote.

against them.

The object of the declaration is to place in the hands of the military tween arguments used in favor of an equitable compromise, with the hope of avert- were anxious to turn these checks into taneous effect to the existing laws and ing the horrors of war, and those urged currency, I told them that any of the such deficiencies as the conditions of in support of the Government and the banks in Harrisburg would cash them war demand; but it is not intended to flag of our country, when war is being and give them what gold they could suspend the ordinary tribunals of the country where the law will be administered by the civil officers in the usual disruption of the United States, with the spare. My brother officer, Major Bruce avowed purpose of producing a permanent Cameron, redeemed rbout nine thon-stered by the civil officers in the usual disruption of the Union and a total desand dollars of these checks in specie, cotton States was abandanal when of which are hostile to General Came The commanding General will labor they assumed the position that the 100, that institution paid out some vigilantly for the public welfare, and in his efforts for their safety, hopes to obtain not only the acquiescence, but the active support of the people of the tingency-NOT EVEN-IF WE WOULD FUR- be beyond all doubt, and the notes of NISH THEM WITH A BLANK SHEET OF which were gladly received by the sol-PAPER AND PERMIT THEM TO INSCRIBE diers.

THEIR OWN TERMS. horder States, and that whatever terms | rant of any intention on the part of the Gold and silver are now selling in the would prove satisfactory to these loyal officers of the Mechanic's Savings Bank Southern States at from ten to fifteen | States would create a Union party in | to pay out these notes; that in issuing per cent. for current bank bills. A the cotton States which would be pow- the checks upon the Treasury, I did so and and uniform currency is as es- erful enough at the ballot-box to de- at the carnest solicitation of the officers sential to the health and vigor of the stroy the revolutionary government, and men themselves, and that they Confederacy and the government as and bring those States back into the were as grateful to me for doing so as healthy red blood is to the power and Union by the voice of their own people. I was glad to accommodate them. endurance of the body. This thing of This hope was cherished by the Union a depreciated currency is just now more to be feared than all of Lincoln's Legions. It is what ought not to be, and cannot at Charleston, and the authoritative be submitted to by the Southern peo- announcement made by the revoluple. It is intolerable that the banks tionary government at Montgomery should be exempt by law from the ob that the secession flag should be plantligation to redeem their currency in specie, and at the same time, sell the Washington, and a proclamation isvery gold and silver with which it ought | sued inviting the pirates of the world to ountry, its government and flagins the mly means of checking the progress of revolution and of preserving the Union of States.

These startling facts, in connection

I am unable to answer your question in respect to the policy of Mr. Lincoln and Cabinet. I am not in their confidence, as you and the whole country near S. B. Corbett's barn, not far from ought to be aware. I am neither the here, a good view of Munson's hill can supporter of the partisan policy nor be obtained. Yesterday, to observers the apologist of the errors of the Ad-Cheksburg, Va., Friday, Aug. 30, 1861.—The battle of Cross Lines was a mere skirmish. Col. Tyler was posted northwest of Summersville, with his regiment in two divisions. The rebels got between them, flanking Col. Tyler, who retired with a loss of only fifteen men...

Major Casement, with the other subdivisions, numbering 400 arrived at the street of the Administration. My previous relations was noticeable there, a large force of the apologist of the errors of the Administration. My previous relations was noticeable there, a large force of the time will never come when I shall not be willing to make any needful sacrifice, of personal feeling and party policy for the honor and integrity of the country. Taknow of no mode in which a loyal demonstrate his citizen may so well demonstrate his counter-marching, &c., could be distinctly seen. They are throwing up entrenchments on the slope of the hill Union, under all circumstances, and apparently all around it—and a large under every administration, regardless orce was at work yesterday.

Of party politics, against all assailants

Most of your readers are no doubt at home and abroad. The course of Democrats was quite as bitter and relentless as now between Democrats and Republicans. The gulf which separated party leaders in those days was quite as broad and deep as that which now separates leaders of the opposition, sinking partisan in the patriot, rushed to t support of the Government, and came its ablest and bravest defende against all assailants until the conspir acy was crushed and abandoned, when they resumed their former positions as party leaders upon political issues.

These facts of patriotic devotion have never been deemed evidence of infidelity or political treachery, on the part of Clay and Webster, to the principles and organization of the old Whig party. Nor have I any apprehension that the firm and unanimous support which the Democratic leaders and masses are now giving to the Consti-tution and the Union will ever be deemed evidence of infidelity to Demand perpetuate the ascendency of our party, we should never forget that & man cannot be a true Democrat unless he is a

With the sincere hope that these, my conscientious convictions, may co incide with those of my friends, I am very truly, yours, STUPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

To Vigil Hickox, Esq., Chairman State Democratic Committee.

thousand dollars had been sent to me by the Paymaster General. The troops country—the last he ever wrote:
CHICAGO, May 10, 1861.
MY DEAR SIR:—Being deprived of to get home was such that, after conthat they are exposing themselves.

All persons who have been led away from their allegiance are required to return to their homes forthwith. Any such absence, without sufficient cause, manner and with their customary attraction of its Government.

All hope of compromise with the Mochanics' Savings Bank, the officers

Since my arrival in this city I have Still the hope was cherished that learned, with much pain, that some of reasonable and satisfactory terms of the enemies of Gon. Cameron have adjustment could be agreed upon with Tennessee, North Carolina and the only to say that I was entirely igno-ANDREW M. SALLADE, · Paymaster, U. S. A.

WOSTENHOLMS' Celebrated IX L