The True Peace Party.

[From the Baltimore Clipper.] Everybody, we take it for granted, is for peace. Even Jeff. Davis whether he still lives or not, is for peace. All he wants is to be let alone. probability is he will continue to want it. We have no doubt that in South Caroling by 41. Carolina, by this time, they are in favor of peace, upon their terms, as they will be, before long, upon any terms. They have had quite enough of the war inaugurated for disunion, it seems, in the good old State of North Carolina. Pitch, tar and turpentine, are very good things to have to sell, if you can only get them out to sell; but it is what Sam Welter calls "aggrawatin," to have these highly useful things on the best style, every uniter of Job Printing, such as HAND BILLS, hand, or in store, and be obliged to keep them on hand, when it is actually worth four prices in places where you

The same profound remark may be made concerning cotton, which is "King." His Majesty is worth, at the LABELS, &C., &C. can't get it. date of these presents, about twenty-three or four cents a pound in New AT LEWIS BOOK, STATIONERY & MUSIC STORE York. It would therefore be highly desirable for the Commissioners of Finance or the Secretary of the Treasury of the Jeff. Davis Government, to negotiate there a few thousand bales of their "National Loan" at these remunerative figures, and get a little coffee, and a little tea, and not a little whiskey, trowsers, shoes and hats in return. But those infernal United return. But those infernal United States war-ships keep laying off and on-and they have no more "peace"

In sooth 'tis sad, they say, to know the straits, to which, in these respects, this scarcity of "peace" has reduced many excellent persons in the Confed-NEW GROCERY erate States.

When one's trowsers wear out-here for example, we have but little difficulty to stop the flaw, or get another pair. But where, from want of "peace" or pieces, as in the Confederate States at present, reconstruction is impossible, and compromise impossible, the consequences may be imagined. Indeed it is said, that the members of the Confederate Congress, which has sat so long, now never stir from their seats, never even when the chaplain opens the sessions; and that when any honorable THE HORSE AND HIS DISEASES, member has to make "a motion" the THE HORSE AND HIS DISEASES rules require such a position on his part as reveals to the world seated in the rear a spectacle rarely seen out of EVERYBODY'S LAWYER, that (otherwise) decorous and respect- EVERYBODY'S LAWYER, able body of men. Peace would mend EVERYBODY'S LAWYER, all this. We also are in favor of peace, but of peace on the basis of Union. We want no peace with disunion; for we know them to be incompatible, inconsistent, impossible. Our peace means restoration, government, renewal of commerce manufactures and labor. Above all it means Union and the Government of the United States. Their peace means a piece of the Union—afragment—the Union in pieces. And there is no more impudent hypocrisy ever practised, even in the palmies days of the "Democratic" party, than is now attempted by this trick of calling themselves the "Peace" party. They are the war party and they know it. They are in favor of the war begun at Suinter and now waged against Washington, by the States which have for of the war which is carried on by

The only peace they are for is the peace of submission of that war-which would degrade and dishonor the United States and render it contemptible in the eyes of all nations. They are in favor of the peace which would finally dissever the Union, and are PEACE MEN on the basis of disunion; and so disunionists, in fact; and secessionists. It is useless for them to attempt to hide their cat under any such meal. To call such a war party by the name of peace is an insult to common sense. And bewho will allow themselves to be deluded by such a ery, none can be gulled hy it except they are as much "fool" as they who invented it may be considered as "knave."...
