By the President of the United States. Wheras, A joint committee of both Houses of Congress has whited on the President of the United States, and re-quested him to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer, and fasting, to be observed by the propile of the United States with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and weifare of these States, his blessing on their arms, and a speedy restoration to peace; and whereas, it is fit and becoming in all people, at all times, to acknowledge and rever the supreme government of God-to bow in humble submission to His chastisements-to confers and to pray with all ferency and contribution for the pardon of their past offences, and for a blessing upon their present and propective actions: and whereas, but heredon of the past offences, and for a blessing upon their present and propective actions: and whereas, the hour beloved conntry, once, by the blessing of God, united, prosperous, and happy, is now afficied with factions and evid war, it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this twistation, and is norrowful reuembrance of our own challs and ermes, as a nation and as individuals, to ium is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and is sorrowful renearbance of our own faults and erimes, as a nation and as individuals, to lum-ble ourselves before Him and to pray for Him intervestion that we may be spared further public lument though inost justly deserted; that our arms may be bissed and made effectual for re-establishment of law, order, and peace throughout our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and efficient liberty carned under Him guidance and blessing by the labors and sufficiency. Therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln. President of the United States, do ap-points the last Thurobay in September next as day of humiliation, prayer, and fasting for all the people of the nation, and 1 do carnes'ly recommend to the people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religiou. of all denominations, to all heads of families to observe and keep that day, according to their server a and an older of worship, in all humility, and with all religions solem-nity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may acceud to the Througe of farce and bring down pleption
