

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. A. TYRRELL, Associate Editor.

TERMS.—The Globe is published twice a week at $2.00 a year in advance for six months—50 cents for three months—in advance.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Thursday afternoon, Dec. 19, 1861.

Our Flag Forever.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination, to den personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing.

NEW TERMS.

All Original Court printing, including Administrators' and Executors' Notices, all Auditors' Notices, occasional advertisements, etc., must hereafter be paid for in advance.

ES. The news by this morning's mails is of a very meagre character. Everything is quiet along the Potomac.

SAD ACCIDENT AND DEATH.—It becomes our painful duty this afternoon to announce the untimely death of Mr. DAVID M. COOPER, Dispatcher for the Penna. Railroad Company at this place.

OUR THANKS.—To Mrs. Margaret Yeom, for a bushel of very large turnips. To Mrs. Jacob Weaver for several sets of prime sausage.

Our Army Correspondence.

CAMP CURTIN, Dec. 17, 1861. Editors of the Globe.—Sirs: In accordance with my promise, I send a few moments to address a few lines for the benefit of your readers.

In the first place, I would return, through your journal, to the citizens of Huntingdon, the thanks of the 84th Regiment, for the manner in which they were received and treated while sojourning in Camp Crozman.

As the companion of a true human heart—a heart that feels for the wants of man when he is separated from home—home comforts, home sympathies. The uniform courtesy shown by your citizens will not be forgotten, but will live in remembrance wherever we may be called to fight the battles of our country against its enemies.

Our country at present. Never before has our nation been called to pass through the ordeal that now threatens it. Engaged in civil war against traitors to her Government, and now threatened with war from a Foreign power—a power that stands forth as one of the strongest on the face of the globe.

It is reported that our troops are crossing the Green river and that Buckner is coming up the railroad to offer battle on the side of Bowling Green. In the Kentucky legislature several members made elaborate speeches in favor of the Union.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—Our army in Kentucky is within a short distance of Bowling Green. They have repaired the Green river bridge, and will move forward as soon as Gen. Buell can bring and otherwise dispose of the large number of prisoners now arriving from Indiana in this way.

Parson Brownlow's Whereabouts. Federal occupation of Portsmouth, N. C. Chicago, Dec. 10.—The Peoria (Ill.) Transcript has received into Southern country we will be called upon to defend the glorious Stars and Stripes, are questions such as cannot be answered at present. Various rumors are afloat, which, of course, cannot be relied on. Let us be called into the field, and I feel confident that the 84th Regiment will do her duty.

The Regiments formerly encamped at Camp Crozman still remain here. Doubtless, however, one or two Regiments will leave the present week.

Col. Maxwell's 57th Regiment left on Saturday last for Washington City. Gov. Curtin presented the State colors to the Regiment in the afternoon, in a brief and appropriate speech. The flag was received by the Colonel, who made a short reply.

We are enjoying beautiful weather at present—more like summer than winter. The health of the troops in general, is very good.
