

Semi-Weekly Globe.

W.M. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor.
A. TYHURST, Associate Editor.

TERMS.—"The Globe" is published twice a week at $1.00 per year, or $1.00 for six months—60 cents for three months—in advance.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Thursday afternoon, Jan. 16, 1862.

Our Flag Forever.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination, to dun personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing. We shall, therefore, from day to day, without respect to persons, place into the hands of a Justice for collection, all accounts of over two years standing. All those who wish to save expense, will do well to give us a call immediately.

NEW TERMS.

All Orphans' Trusts, including Accruals, and Executor's Notices, all Auditors' Notices, occasional advertisements, &c., must be paid for in advance. Expenses and Administrators owing us at present, will please come forward and settle.

We thank God that we have been permitted to live in these days of secession and rebellion, and invoke the Great Ruler to spare our lives until we have seen every vestige of it consigned to a base, ignoble grave. For the ingratitude practiced by the leaders of this unholy, unjust and hell-born rebellion, we would write for their epitaphs the strong and emphatic words of G. Carroll Johnson:

"A man does not thing himself Extracted from the essence of blackness! Exert of meanness; concentrated poison! Spawn of the sullen; death of hell! Thy breath is death; thy touch is poison! Drowning ingratitude!"

After this has been done, then—and not till then—would we be willing to lay ourselves down to die. We could then behold for the last time, the setting sun, and greet the darkness which would close in upon us, with joy and gladness. After making sure of our safe arrival into the portals of eternal bliss, our next greatest object would be accomplished—the preservation of this Union, unbroken and unimpaired. We could then leave the world without a single regret. It would be glorious on one's death-bed to know that his government had conquered internal foes, and set the rest of the world at defiance.

THE LEGISLATURE.—Both Houses adjourned over from Thursday last to Monday. The Standing Committees have been appointed, and we may expect that active work in both Houses will immediately commence. An important resolution, among others, has been read in the Senate, as follows:

"Resolved, That frauds upon the general government, or upon the treasury, or conspiracy on the part of those in authority to permit peculation on the treasury, should be made during this rebellion punishable by death."

We don't believe the resolution will receive the unanimous vote of Senators. Somebody might get hurt.

A resolution has been offered in the House instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill for the repeal of the Act of last session repealing the tonnage tax.

Congress is likely to place upon the shelf many of the leading politicians of the country. The committee appointed to smelt out frauds and corruptions of every kind, have already compelled several honest men to leave for Europe. We hope the committee will not cease its investigations until every thieving scoundrel is pointed out, that he may be dealt with as he deserves.

We have been informed that the loss to the Government in the horse speculations on the Junta alone, amounts to over fifty thousand dollars. Almost every man in the country knows how it was done. Senators and ex-Senators, sub-contractors and inspectors, all got a share of the plunder.

HARRISBURG AMUSEMENTS.—Just now Harrisburg is full of public places of amusement for citizens and visitors. The most orderly and pleasant place is Poulton's Billiard and Bowling Rooms, established in 1845, and lately re-furnished in the handsomest style. His tables are new improved, with marble tops, and everything else always in complete order. The rooms are immediately in the rear of Brant's Hall, where gentlemen fond of the game can amuse themselves without being disturbed by crowds that usually visit drinking saloons. There is no better regulated Room in the United States.

The supper in the Court House on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings proved a success. The ladies took in a considerable quantity of the "filthy luxur." Citizens and strangers bestowed their patronage very liberally.

WAR NEWS.

FIGHT ON THE ARKANSAS.

Texan Rangers Whipped—Creeks, Seminoles, Kickapoos, and Cherokees in the Field.

LAWRENCE, Jan. 1.—Two Cherokee arrived here last night from the camp of the loyal old Creek Chief, Opothleyohlo, near the Big Bend of the Arkansas.

They wish to be put into communication with the proper officers of the Government, so as to obtain from them such direction and assistance as the exigencies of their condition require.

Opothleyohlo had been obliged to leave his home to avoid the annoyances of the royal half-breeds, who had organized a force in the interest of the Confederacy.

His camp, which was within the Cherokee Territory, was attacked by a force of 3,500 Texas Rangers, and the rebel half-breeds of both the Creeks and Cherokees, who had formed a junction with the Texan rebels.

The rebels were driven back, and two thousand five hundred Cherokees, Seminoles and Kickapoos, and were joined by two hundred and fifty loyal Cherokees.

A great number of the rebels were killed in the fight, among whom the Texan General Cooper, and Lewis McIntosh, an officer of the rebel forces.

The loyal Indians lost four men, one of whom was a Cherokee, and two others were Choctaws.

Finance—Messrs. Benson, Connell, Crawford, McClellan, and Imrie.

Judiciary—Messrs. Penney, Ketcham, and Smith of Philadelphia.) Clymer and Bound.

Accounts—Messrs. Scoville, Hamilton, Coddell, Smith, of Montgomery,) and Steves.

Estates and Escheats—Messrs. Irish, Boughter, Lamberton, Imrie, and Johnson.

Pensions and Gratuities—Imrie, Husted, Landon, Donovan and Glazier.

Corporations—Messrs. Smith of Philadelphia, Robinson, Nichols, Clymer and Lovett.

Cannals and Inland Navigation—Messrs. Landon, Benson, Johnson, Husted and Kinsey.

Elections—Messrs. McClure, Lawrence, Ketcham, Nichols and Reilly.

Bankers—Messrs. Connel, Mordith, Boughter, Glazier and Dowd.

Retirement and Reform—Messrs. Robinson, Wharton, Lowry, Meredith and Smith (Montgomery).

Education—Messrs. Lawrence, Land, Bond, Irwin, Stetson, and Smith.

Agricultural and Domestic Manufactures—Messrs. Hamilton, Scoville, Lawrence, Kinsey and Reilly.

Militia—Messrs. Wharton, Irish, McClure, Lowry and Donovan.

Roads and Bridges—Messrs. Merritt, Scoville, Hamilton, Mordith and Dowd.

Warehouses—Messrs. Kinsey, Imrie, Peter, Smith, (Montgomery,) and Nichols.

Vice and Immorality—Messrs. Johnson, Landon, Fuller, Stein and Glazier.

Private Claims and Damages—Messrs. Lowry, Penney, Ketcham, Lamberton and Crawford.

Public Printing—Messrs. Husted, Riddle, Smith, (Philadelphia,) Mordith, Connel and Connell.

Library—Messrs. Bound, Penny, and Lamberton.

Public Buildings—Messrs. Boughter, Robinson and Crawford.

New Counties and County Seats—Messrs. Nichols, Mordith, Clymer, Lawrence and Boughter.

STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE.

Ways and Means—Messrs. Armstrong, Smith, (Chester,) Bigham, Abbott, Ladd, (Tipton,) Atwater, Pease, Perkins, Chastain, Craig, Windle, Zeigler, Gamble, Beaver, Brown, (Merion,) and Hooper.

J. A. GARFIELD, Conning Brigadier.

HEADQUARTERS, HUNTINGDON, PA.

Capt. J. B. FAY, A. A. G.

I left Dauphin on Thursday noon with 1,100 men, and drove in the enemy's pickets two miles below Prestonburg. The men slept on their arms, and at 4 o'clock yesterday morning we moved towards the main body of the enemy at the forks of Middle creek, under command of Marshall. Skirmishes were frequent, and at 10 o'clock 1,000 men and 1 o'clock P. M. we engaged his force of 2,500 men and three cannon posted on the hill. We fought him until dark, having been reinforced by 700 men from Paintville, and drove the enemy from all their positions. He carried off the majority of his horses, and was fleeing in utter confusion. He had abandoned and burned a large amount of his stores. We have taken fifteen prisoners. Our loss was two killed and one wounded. I start in pursuit to-morrow morning.

J. A. GARFIELD, Conning Brigadier.

HEADQUARTERS, HUNTINGDON, PA.

Capt. J. B. FAY, A. A. G.

I left Dauphin on Thursday noon with 1,100 men, and drove in the enemy's pickets two miles below Prestonburg. The men slept on their arms, and at 4 o'clock yesterday morning we moved towards the main body of the enemy at the forks of Middle creek, under command of Marshall. Skirmishes were frequent, and at 10 o'clock 1,000 men and 1 o'clock P. M. we engaged his force of 2,500 men and three cannon posted on the hill. We fought him until dark, having been reinforced by 700 men from Paintville, and drove the enemy from all their positions. He carried off the majority of his horses, and was fleeing in utter confusion. He had abandoned and burned a large amount of his stores. We have taken fifteen prisoners. Our loss was two killed and one wounded. I start in pursuit to-morrow morning.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY BY THE REBELS.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 14.—The rebels of Hammon's command came up the river on Sunday night and burned the depot and blacksmith's shop, and took all the wagons and teams, and drove away.

Our loss is two killed and twenty-five wounded.

J. A. GARFIELD, Colonel Commanding Brigade.

</div