

Semi-Weekly Globe.

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. A. TYHURST, Associate Editor.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11, 1862.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination to dun personally a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing. We shall, therefore, from day to day, without respect to persons, place into the hands of a Justice for collection, all accounts of over two years standing. All those who wish to save expense, will do well to give us a call immediately.

DEATH OF JOHN P. ANDERSON, Esq.

It is with no ordinary feelings of regret that we announce to-day the death of our friend and fellow-citizen, JOHN P. ANDERSON. After a painful illness for three years, at about three o'clock yesterday afternoon he calmly went to sleep in death. The poor, and the soldier in the field, have lost a warm and true friend—our town a good citizen.

THE NEWS.

Our gallant navy has added another to its already brilliant list of victories. Fort Henry, situated on the eastern branch of the Tennessee river, just on the State line of Kentucky and Tennessee, has been reduced by our gallant Western navy, and the rebel flag which lately flaunted from its entrenchments has been replaced by the glorious stars and stripes. The official report we give in another column.

bight previous. They either feared an attack from our forces, or contemplated making one in another direction.

On Friday, while a member of Congress was urging the appointment of one of his friends, Secretary Stanton very kindly replied: "I can make no more appointments from political influence or personal appeals. The appointments in the army must come from the ranks. I have the cases of a number of widows, who have lost their husbands in the army, to attend to, and as they are most needy, and their wants pressing, they will receive my earliest attention. As for the few civil posts in my gift, I shall distribute them among the poor and meritorious soldiers who have been crippled in defence of their country's rights."

The summary manner in which the new Secretary despatches business is not very pleasing to greedy contractors, but it meets the hearty approbation of every honest and practical business man. Several members of Congress complain that the Secretary treats them very cavalierly. They will get used to his mode of doing business in time.

Another expedition for the South left Fort Roper on the 26th. It included all the light-draught steamers and several gunboats, with several thousand troops.

Thos. A. Scott, Assistant Secretary of War, was at Indianapolis on Thursday last, on an official visit, and left for Kentucky on Friday. Special attention is being given to the army in the West.

The Richmond Dispatch says: The Burnside Expedition will have the effect of making us look well to our defenses in that quarter. Roanoke Island ought to be made impregnable. All our batteries there and elsewhere should be provided with bomb proof coverings, and the channels should be obstructed so no means left unexplored to foil the purposes of the enemy.

Commodore Dupont has prohibited, and in future will prohibit, all communication between Fort Royal and the North, as the correspondents of the press have materially aided in filling many of his plans, and no steamer or sailing vessel will be allowed to leave until all his plans are perfected.

From Richmond papers we learn that a serious disturbance broke out in Richmond, on Tuesday night last, which for a time threatened disastrous consequences to life and property.

Houses stores, &c., were looted open and ransacked, and it seemed impossible to check the violent proceedings until late the following morning, when many engaged in the mob retired of their own accord.

The Van Wyck Investigating Committee. In the U. S. House of Representatives, on Friday last, Mr. Van Wyck (N. Y.) moved that the House proceed to the consideration of the report of the Committee on Government Contracts.

The importance of the victory of the gunboat fleet on the Tennessee river is scarcely appreciated, at this distance from the scene of operations. But it is really, as General Tilden is reported to have said, the most damaging blow the rebels have received.

By rebel sources, we have received late intelligence from the Choctaw nation. A rebel colonel has gone there for the purpose of enlisting a regiment of Indians for the rebel service. One company has been enrolled already, and several others are in course of formation.

On Friday last, in the House, Mr. Hopkins moved that two additional members be added to the special committee appointed to inquire into alleged corrupt influences used to procure the passage of the bill in reference to the commutation of the tonnage tax, which was agreed to, and the Speaker appointed Messrs. Kaime, Democrat of Lebanon, and Hofer, Republican of Lebanon, the said additional members.

The Senate amendments to the House bill to provide for the payment of the direct tax, were considered and concurred in.

On the motion of Mr. Cassa, the House resumed the consideration of the House bill, entitled, "An act to restore a separate representation to the counties of Bedford, Cumberland, Perry and Somerset," and it passed—yeas 54, nays 23.

An Honorable Congressman—Brother Trumbull of the Hollidaysburg Standard, says he would much rather endorse the Democracy of the Selingsgrove Times editor than he would our political patriotism or honesty. That's honest, Bro. Trumbull. We know exactly where to "count you in" in the future.

The Soldiers Aid Society of Huntingdon, having, last week, sent a box through the medium of the Ladies Aid Society of Philadelphia, to the Hospital of the 49th Regiment, P. V., Col. Irwin, at the Potomac camp, containing bed clothing, mittens, dried fruit, tomatoes, concatenated chicken, &c., are now preparing two boxes with similar articles, for the sick at Cumberland, Maryland, and Solida, Missouri. As it is desirable to forward them as soon as possible, chickens for the concentrated soup will be wanted, for which Mrs. James Saxton or Mrs. Willoughby will pay the market price, or receive them as a kind gift, to enable us to fill half a dozen new gifts, a donation from Mr. Benjamin Graffius. The members thank him, and also those persons sending dried fruit, &c., until a more extended notice is given, with their names.

Lieut. J. Addison Moore, of Co. O, 28th Regiment, P. V., called in to see us yesterday. The Lieut. looks as hearty and robust as any man could well do. He has been detailed on the recruiting service, and has opened an office in Coalbrook, where he will be happy to enlist all who are anxious to serve their country.

SOMEONE NEW UNDER THE SKY.—F. Frazer and Mrs. Thomas will lecture and perform some wonderful feats in Bricker's Hall this evening. He pledges himself to do everything set forth in his programme. This performance is entirely new and no humbug, and our citizens should not fail to go and see it.

THE TREASURY NOTE BILL.—Wegive in another column the Treasury Note Bill as it passed the House last week. It will be considered in the Senate this week, and it is generally believed in Washington that it will pass that body without material amendment. The notes are to be a legal tender for all purposes and will take the place of much of the trash now in circulation.

Our Army Correspondence. CAMP FIDELITY, Feb. 10. MESSRS. EDITORS.—Will you allow me a small space in your paper, in behalf of the boys of Alexandria and vicinity, now in Capt. Zentmyer's company, as a means to express our sincere thanks for a box of reliable substitutes in the shape of sausage, dried beef, &c., from our homes on the Juniata. We are especially indebted to our former friends, and for what they contributed they shall ever be gratefully remembered by us. Should opportunity offer, we assure them it will be our endeavor, in a way more palatable than mere words, that they shall not regret their kindness through any act of ours.

the 110th had to lay back and look at the rebels running, so your correspondent thought best to lay low, like a bound boy at a corn-husking. When the rebels were marching on Cumberland, a distance of some forty miles; while on our way we had to sleep one night on the ground; so nothing but one blanket lay under us, I can tell you it was the hardest night's sleeping that I ever spent. Your writer was led to think back to the time when he was happy around a home-fireside in old Pennsylvania. We all landed safely in Cumberland, some with knapsacks, while others left them on the road. We staid in Cumberland some three weeks; had a very pleasant time, and was visited by the long-looked-for man, namely, Paymaster, whose visit was gladly received. We hope he will call again soon. We are glad to say that the boys were all quite liberal in sending their money home, the best thing they can do with it. Some of them have sent us orders, which said demand notes shall be taken up as rapidly as practicable, and the notes herein provided for assistance for them. As provided further, that the amount of the two kinds of notes together shall at no time exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, and that such notes have in authorized shall be receivable in payment of all taxes, duties, imposts, excises, debts, and demands of every kind due to the United States, and for the use of the United States, by order of the Secretary of the Treasury, or by order of any holder of said United States notes.

Bank Note Bill. The following substitute for the Bank Note Bill, offered by Mr. Stevens, of Penna., was adopted on the 6th inst. It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That to meet the necessities of the Treasury of the United States, and to provide a currency receivable for the public dues, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue, on the credit of the United States, one hundred and fifty millions of dollars of United States notes, not bearing interest payable to bearer, at the Treasury of the United States, or at Washington or New York, and of such denominations as he may deem expedient, not less than five dollars each. Provided, however, That fifty millions of said notes shall be in lieu of the demand treasury notes authorized to be issued by the act of July seventeen, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, which said demand notes shall be taken up as rapidly as practicable, and the notes herein provided for assistance for them.

ASTOUNDING INTELLIGENCE. SUPPOSED TREASON IN A HIGH PLACE. ARREST OF BRIGADIER GENERAL STONE.

From the Philadelphia Bulletin, Feb. 10. The following paragraph appears in the National Intelligencer of this morning, received just before we put our second edition to press: "Brigadier General Stone was arrested at the residence of his family in this city on Saturday night at midnight, and put under guard until yesterday afternoon, when he was sent off by the cars to Fort Lafayette in custody of an officer."

Whether the arrest is for treason or merely for a military offense, we have no means of knowing. But the arrest of the prisoner to Fort Lafayette makes it presumable that he is suspected of treason.
