alent whatever, thereby violating the plighted faith of the State and increasng the burthens of the people, at a time when the country pre-eminently required the most rigid economy and

And whereas, The said act was approved by the Governor as shown by his message to the House of Representatives of the 5th day of February last under a stipulation in writing for the benefit of the people, which was not made known to them, and has since been surrendered without their knowledge or consent on the demand of the said company without any previous registry in the proper office, and without even the preservation of a copy thereof: And whereas, It is affirmed and be lieved that the terms of the said act of Assembly were dictated by the said company, and that the passage thereof was procured by improper and unlawful means, other than those which have been already recited on the part of the said company and its agents; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the said recited act of Assembly of the 7th of March, A. D., 1861, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the said tonnage tax or duties imposed by the net incorporating the said Pennsylva-nia railroad company is hereby re-stored, re-imposed and made payable to the Commonwealth in the same manner, and upon the same terms and conditions as though the said repealing distress irreplieviable or otherwise of the passage of the said recited act us a call immediately. which is hereby repealed, together with such additional tax or duties as would have accraed upon the tonnage of the said company until the date of the present act. And for the proper ascertainment of the amount of the of the said company to file, forthwith, in the office of the Auditor General a statement, duly authenticated by the oaths of the President and Treasurer pealed act, and allowed in the collec- liness to do justice. tion of the said arrears.

During the discussion on a motion the Speaker adjourned the House till to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Old Kentucky Homes.

for miles with fallen timber. In many unfit for man or beast, owing to the fact that these desolators had killed nent.

rauders. Many incidents occurred and convincing arguments with fear to get "just a glimpse of the dear creaduring the march of eighteen miles of and treading. an affecting nature. As the column passed the Woodland House, where the Nor A Deserter.—James Huston, of and to determine whether, in view of the public safety and the existing rebellion, they should be discharged, or remain in military custody, or be resulted by the content of the court to do better in future, by supplying such information as will be supplying such information as well as wel the Hon. Edwards Pierrepont, of New York, be, and they are hereby, appointed com-missioners for the purposes above mentioned, and they are neuthor ized to examine, bear, and determine the cases aforesaid ex parts, and in a summary manner, at such times and places as in their discretion they may appoint, and make full report to the

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. the strictest husbandry of their resour- A. TYHURST, Associate Editor.

> TERMS. "The Group" is published twice a week at $1.50 a year-75 cents for six months-50 cents for HUNTINGDON, PA.

Tuesday afternoon, March 4, 1862.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination, to dun personally, a large numto "serce the people" when well paid the prisoners of war.
for it, but who would prefer assisting ber of persons who have unsettled ac- their enemies, to taking up arms in counts upon our books of several years from the Colonel down, are gentlemen standing. We shall, therefore, from of the genuine stamp, and I must give net had never been passed.

SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to proceed forth day to day, without respect to persons, who will assert the falsehood to which place into the hands of a Justice for I refer. If he will ayow himself, give with to sue for, recover and collect by collection, all accounts of over two him my name, and when a suitable opthe arrears of the said Tonnage tax years standing. All those who wish tions down his throat. which were due and owing at the time to save expense, will do well to give

THE Journal & American of last week said additional tax, it shall be the duty concur in the House amendment to the a speedy restoration to the more geniresolution for the expulsion of Bright, al and quiet life of home. and it came back to the House, Mr. Scott voted against receding from the time, such other and additional state- tion at all. A report of a committee ments, and such access to their books in a contested election case, presented indication of continuing so for a month as he may judge necessary, for the a few days afterwards, shows that or two to come. purpose of said suit or other proceedings hereby authorized: Provided however, That the moneys paid by the said sont in Philadelphia, attending to his anxious to extend the "red right company on account of the said pre-tended commutation over and beyond in hearing the evidence in the case.— In time to assist in paying the taxes. the smoual instalment or instalments | Now the Jour. of Am. either was wilthe purchase money of the public ling to make the charge without exthis rebellion will have exceed before the purchase money of the public amining, or if they did examine the the expiration of six months. of the said tax which were due and Record, to falsify it. We will see if owing at the passage of the said re- the editors of that paper have the man- continue her allegiance to the Southern

Cincinnati Gazette, from a point south of Green river:

Some of the most beautiful farms.

Some of the most beautiful farms.

Some of the most beautiful farms.

Some of the most beautiful farms. Some of the most beautiful farms, Some of the most beautiful farms, and lovely residences, which only a few months ago adorned these fertile valleys, are now the abodes of owls and bats. In order to impede our the glorious results for victory must be glorious results fo and bats. In order to impede our the glorious results, for victory must totters about, emaciated and forsaken, places the road had been plowed up. the old stars and stripes wave triumph- ments more in "sorrow than in anger." All the ponds, some fifteen in number, antly over every rampart and fortifion the line of march, were rendered cation within the limits of this conti- timent is not diminishing in Hunting-horses, eattle, sheep, and hogs, ripped them open, and thrown them into the water. In a few instances drains had been dug, and the water let off. I of Hon. John Scott, member of the that my friend, the counsellor, (Lytle) counted, in the distance of eighteen country, on the miles, eleven sites, where once stood commutation of the Tonnage Tax.—

Commutation of the Tonnage Tax.—

denied the privilege of "looking out" residences, now nothing left but a few We ask every reader of the Globe to for ourselves, will expect you to inter-As we passed Cave City, I rode over peruse it earefully. This winter we code in our behalf, and reserve a numto take a view of the ruins of the once have a member in the House whose ber of better halves for us until our to take a view of the ruins of the once have a member in the House whose fine Cave City Hotel. Here it was that the visitor came afar to visit that clear-toned and eloquent voice is heard the camp sometimes is favored by wowonder of wonders, the Mammoth Cave. Nothing new remains but the indubitable evidence of the fiendish- Capitel of Pennsylvania, and grave crowds of anxious eyes may be seen ness of Hindman and his guilty ma- members sit and listen to his sound vieing with each other in the endeavor remains of Zollicoffer were received. McConnellstown, has been published ciety should continue for the term of the stars and stripes once again greeted as a desorter in the Journal & American, our enlistment (three years,) we would our vision, waved by a couple of young las a deserter in the Journal & American, our enlistment (three years,) we would ladies. Several of the officers dis by Captain Hewitt. By the certificate actually be totally unfit to go into civmounted and cutered the hotel. The of J. P. Wilson, Medical Director at ilized community. young ladies proposed to sing the Star- Camp Curtin, now before us, it appears tinues remarkably excellent. The Spangled Banner, we joining in the that said Huston was regularly disdeath of Mr. White, of your county, chorus. I have often heard it sung; but never before did its notes fall so sweetly as then. As the jayous party came in on the last verse, the enthusi- he again volunteered, and is a member that said Huston was regularly discharged on the 4th of January last; in camp, was profoundly lamented by in camp, was profoundly lamented by its friends and acquaintances here.

INTRIVED

INTRIVE

WARD DEPARTMENT,
Washington, Feb. 27, 1861.
It is ordered, first, that a special commission of two persons, one of military rank and the other in eivil life, be tarpointed to examine the cases of the State priseners remaining in the military custody of the United States, and to determine whether, in view of and to determine whether, in view of the state priseners and to determine whether, in view of the state priseners remaining will foreive make a very mandeone present for all the field. It is believed here that our army has by the first desolated homes and those remaining are overjoyed at our present for all to their desolated homes and those remaining are overjoyed at our present for make a very handeome present for all to their desolated homes and those remaining are overjoyed at our present form with the current reports ages. The jewelry is of a better quality than can be secured in any other way for the same money. The buyer of an envelope or in any other way for the same money. The buyer of an envelope are for sale at Lowis' Book Store. They make a very handeome present for all to their desolated homes and those remaining are overjoyed at our presence on earlied. Nothing reliable has been heard from winding are overjoyed at our presence on earlied. Nothing reliable has been considerably reinforced. A small body of the enemy are supposed to lie south of Loudon Heights, four five miles back from the river, but the current reports any other way for the envelope or in any other way for the same money. The buyer of an envelope or in any other way for the same money. The buyer of an envelope are for sale at Lowis' Book Store. They will not be caused to their desolated homes and those remaining are overjoyed at our present form with the current reports any it has been considerably reinforced. A small body of the enemy are supposed to lie south of Loudon Heights, but they are not of sufficient strength to cause of the same money. The buyer of an envelope or in any other way for the same money are the cause of th summary manner, at such times and places as in their discretion they may appoint, and make full report to the War Department.

By order of the President,

By order of the President,

Edwin M. Standon, Sec'y of War.

Countemper Detectors, for sale

Counte

When the order comes to "strike tents," two of the mess take each half the canvass, and the third man carries th poles and pins. I presume when the friends of the boys read the above they will think we are overloaded, but they may dismiss all such fears, for the whole thing weighs less than three lbs
The health of the Regiment is re markably good; indeed, Dr. Huber, our kind and efficient Assistant Sur-DEATH OF CAPTAIN DOLFERT. geon informs me that "there is not a single man belonging to the Regiment who is unable to walk about." If we make a "move" of any kind. will endeavor to inform you immediately.

Before closing I must refer to a refect that our officers were not temperate men; I can easily understand why our friends express so much uneasiness on our account, after the report reaches them; but I can not understand at Mudtown, by enting poisoned food

Yours ever CAMP PLEAFONT, VA., Feb. 24, 1802.

DEAR EDITORS :- The glorious achieve ments of our forces further Sonth, have the effect of inspiring our army of the states that when the Senate refused to Potomac with bright anticipations of We have but little expectation of an portunity offers I will force his asser

engagement with the enemy, unless he oaths of the President and Treasurer Scott voted against receding from the persists in the occupation of Centre-of said company, of the amount of their amendment. Upon looking at the ville and Manassas. However, even if business so made taxable for the inter- | Legislative Record, we find Mr. Scott | any demonstration is intended to be vening period, and also to furnish to the Attorney General, from time to it cannot be an early one, as the roads. now absolutely impassable, have every

I am of opinion now, that unless this rebellion will have ceased before Virginia, I imagine, will not long cause, as the doses of Unionism which she is compelled to swallow, cannot THE Secretary of War has forbidden but have the effect, nolens volens, of to make the subject a special order for the publication of war news, unless a future day, the hour of one arriving. with his or the consent of the comwested the Susquehanna with greater and Ohio Railroad should be torn up manding Generals of the army. Up charms than the Potomac, as the dit to the hour of going to press, we have viding line between the contending art to the evacuation of Columbus, and received no later news in regard to the mics, doubtless curses himself for his demolition of the fortifications.

> necessarily perchapon our banners and one is compelled to watch her move. Clarksville despatch of the 26th, says: will have an opportunity of meeting the don county, as is demonstrated by the strong, and our troops were received Official Despatches.—A Military Provis-

You cannot possibly imagine what barbarians we are becoming. If our

The health of our company still con-

WAR NEWS

THE WAR IN ARKANSAS. CAPTURE OF FAVETTEVILLE. THE U. S. TROOPS POISONED.

Sr. Louis, Feb. 27.-The following despatch was sent from headquarters to-day, to Major General McClellan, Washington!

Gen. Curtis has taken possession of Before closing I must refer to a report which has been circulated in Huntingdon, by some person who has visited the Potomac, to the effect that our officers were not temper-on our account, after the report reaches them; but I can not understand how any man could come here, and after the replaced much how any man could come here, and after enjoying the hospitality of our officers, go among the people whose sons and brothers compose the Regiment, and circulate so vile and malicious a slander. There is but one man in II. capable of it. One who was willing to "serve the neonle" when well paid to "serve the neonle" when the rebels left behind them.—

The Union sentiment is strong, and those who do not express themselves openly loyal, are only provented by their fears of the military tyranny and coercion which is practiced better he can bear it; and the timid being of to-day is the hero of to-mor to "serve the neonle who who was willing to "serve the neonle of the provented by their fears of the military tyranny and coercion which is practiced by maranding bands of guerilla companies of eavalry.

Learning that a large quantity of wheat and flour was stored in Clifton, Tennessee, intended of course to be shipped to the South, the more with most men than custom; the more with most men than custom; the more with most men than custom. H. W. HALLECK,

Major General. Cross Hollows, Ark., Feb. 24.—Our army is waiting for supplies, and will not be likely to move for ten or twelve days. Price and McCulloch are be-yond the Boston Mountains. Our being seized by the rebels, or dispersed in at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The ruins of the town were smoking when the troops entered. The rebels are badly demoralized.

SANDY HOOK, Feb. 27.—Six soldiers were drowned in the Potomac yesterday by the upsetting of a boat. They all belonged to Company P, of Colonel Geary's regiment. Their names were as follows: Abram Spicer, Alexander Helverson, John Wood, - Artlep and John Torode. The unfortunate men would not have met with the disaster had they not become alarmed at the hand" at the carliest possible period, COLUMBUS TO BE EVACUATED BY THE REBELS.

VERY IMPORTANT FROM THE WEST

ISLAND NO. 10 TO BE DEFENDED. THE OCCUPATION OF NASH-VILLE CONFIRMED.

The Evacuation of Columbus, Ky. Sr. Louis, Feb. 28.-The Memphi papers of the 19th, say that Gen. Polk issued orders on the day previous directing that the track of the Memphis

A correspondent, with Gen. Mitchcell's command, writes as follows to the columns. There is evidently someClieding to Grant Columns and the columns and the columns are considered as the columns and the columns are columns. There is evidently someliveration of the columns that will be found in our credulity, as he gazes upon the slow, to Island No. 10, on the Mississippi, to Island No. 10, on the Mississippi and the columns are constant to the columns. about forty-five miles below Columbus. fused. This, it is said, completely commands

> Sr. Louis, Feb. 28.—The Democrat's duty in guarding posts, and placed where they Gen. Nelson is in command at Nashville, Gen. Buell being still on the north The Union sentiment was very with great cordiality. Great indignation was expressed by the citizens of Nashville against Gov.

Harris.

He was fairly driven away by the Union men—the latter having become bold at the proximity of the Union troops, and dared to assert their rights.

Washington, March 2.—Official information to the War Department, from Nashville, to represent that the military work in that State is about completed, and that it only remains to effect a civil reorganization of the State Government. joined Gen, Johnston, at Murfreesboro. The railroad bridge at Murfreesbord was destroyed by order of Floyd.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC

Movement of General Banks' Column .-Harper's Ferry and Charlestown Occu-pied.—The Inhabitants Overloyed at the Presence of the Union Forces.— The Rebels at Winchester.

Bolivan, Feb. 28.—General Banks' army occupied Harper's Ferry unopposed on Wednesday, with all the necessaries for a permanent occupation. The advance took possession of Bolivar heights yesterday, and pushed its reconnoissance to Charlestown, captu-

THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION.

Also, a splendid article of window papers of numerous styles.

Another supply of the Old Tranklin Almanaes just acceived at lower Book Store.

Island, February 23d, says:

The reconnectering party sent up to Chowah's river has returned; it did not go up beyond Winton—there the enemy, in considerable force, opened a heavy fire upon the ressel in advance.

A reasoning man at first feels alarminate the convergence of the convergen and with the guns of the yessels that ears a dozen times, begins to think lie could be brought to bear. The enemy is not destined to be hurt. soon took flight, and the houses he ocinjured.

AN EXPEDITION TO EASTPORT. MISSISSIPPI.

Strong Union Feeling in South Tennessee and North Alabama.—Tyranny of the Rebels .-- Seizure of Wheat and Flour by our Forces.

Washington, March 1 .- Dispatches were intended of course to be shipped to the South, a large portion of it having been bought for a firm in Memphis, on his way down he landed there and took on board a thousand sacks and they learn to despise what has often there are distinct the causing them one hundred barrels of flour, and some 6,000 harm. If wounded, they learn woulds bushels of wheat. bushels of wheat.

He also considered it his duty to take pos-troops took possession of Fayetteville the rebel country.

The glorious successes of our armies at poinc of the town were smoking when most beneficial to the Union cause throughout south and west Tennessee and Alabama. The rebels are badly demoralized. A Louisiana and a Texas regiment are with McCulloch.

From the Upper Potomac.—Six Soldiers Drowned.

Sandy Hook, Feb. 27.—Six soldiers

Generally along the backs of the river. He brought down, under arrest, a man mamed Wm. P. Poole, who has been active in opposing the Union men in his community. He has warned the inhabitants of the different towns along the banks of the river. ferent towns along the banks of the river, that he would make Secessionists and their

and had enlisted seventeen men and brought down a portion of the refugees. DEATH OF GEN. LANDERproperty respons ble for any outrages committed on the Unionists in their communities,

The Mexican Question .-- No Passes Granted to go South .-- The Troops in Every Department in Good Condition. --- They are Anxious to Meet the Enc-

Washington, March 2 .- Gen. Lander died washington, Janes 2.—Gen. Lander due this afternoon at Pawpaw, Western Virginia, from the debilitating effects of his wound, re-coived at Edwards' Ferry. His body is on the way to this city, where his widow resides. It is said to be clearly understood between the allied powers, that a monarchy in Mexic will result from the invasion of that country notwithstanding the assurances given to the United States that they should not seek any political object there.

It is believed they disposed of those assur ances by saying that the monarchy will be established by the free choice of the Mexican people, just as the Empire was established in France by the free choice of the French nation.

The War department refuses to trans any letters to the Southern States. Numerous passes have been given to women, children and persons in ill health to return to Reports from every military depot received being in a good condition, and that there prevails among them a vigorous and patriotic spirit for action in the field. Numerous applications by regiments and officers have been made to be released from enemy in battle.

THE WAR IN TENNESSEE.

Official Despatches.—A Military Provisional Government to be Established.—Andrew Johnson to be a Brigadic General.

Washington, March 2.—Official information to the War Department, from Nashville, represents that the military work in that State is about completed, and that it only remains to effect a civil reorganization of the State Government.

It is believed that the United States forces will occupy Columbus to-day.

The robel forces, under Albert S. Johnson, are heing steadily pressed by Gen. Buell.
Cutton to the value of $700,000 has fallen into our hands at Nashville, and the Treasury Department has taken measures to liava it brought to New York.

The President has designated the Hon. Andrew Johnson to be a brigadicr general, and he proceeds to Tennessee to-morrow to open military Provisional Government of Tennes. he proceeds to Tennessee to morrow to open a military Provisional Government of Tennessee, until the civil Government shall be re-A UDITOR'S NOTICE. Gen. Buell will be nominated to morrow as Evacuation of Columbus Confirmed. despatch was received to day from Commodore Foote, dated Cairo, March 1: came in on the last verse, the eathers as the jayous party came in tenses.

The old lady, with tears in her eyes, the eathers of Company F, 2d P. V. Cavalry Reg.

The old lady, with tears in her eyes, the eathers of Company F, 2d P. V. Cavalry Reg.

The old lady, with tears in her eyes, the eathers of Company F, 2d P. V. Cavalry Reg.

Sale of Personal Property—Elias wintered by the hurricane, despite all exertions to kent the move some good buttermilk, we took our departure, satisfied that there are still many loyal hearts in this part of Kentucky.

Executive Order No. 2—In Relation to State Prisoners.

Load Giffen, Va., Feb. 11, 61.

Massins Editores Some time since of the 4th of January last; in camp, was profoundly lamented by in camp, was profoundly lamented by in friends and acquaintances here.

INFANTRY.

P. S.—Since writing the above, we were evertimed by the hurricane, despite all exertions to keep the proper end uppermost. The danger to day from Common heights and wares all one of the toff the form the illness, that there also occupied in order to prevent tense also occupied in order to prevent them before so the station and earned and reports that Columbus as the grown was received to day from Common dorse force, that there also occupied to but having claims winder to grow the releast the propose that the movement by the enemy.

P. S.—Since writing the above, we were visited by a terrible wind storm. The first the propose interest and the propose and will be contained and reports that Columbus and the propo or secure. Most of those who were at Donelson must have had this experience, as the field was such that few could go to any part of it without in-curring more or less risk. Hardly any one could see the enemy or their guns,

It is believed here that our army has by this time occupied Columbus.

He still feels rather uneasy, perhaps; cupied as quarters were burned. Not but the danger becomes fascinating, man on our side of either arm was and, though he don't wish to be hit, he likes to have narrow escapes, and so voluntarily places himself in a position where he can incar more risk.

After a little while he begins to reason the matter; reflects upon the doctrine of probabilities, and how much powder and lead is necessarily wasted before a man is killed or wounded. before a man is killed or wounded.

Why should he be, he thinks, so much more unlucky than many other people; and he soon can hear the whizing of bullets with a tolerable degree of equanimity, though he involuntarily dodges, or tries to dodge, the cannon of the sound of the sou are less painful to bear than they had supposed, and then the doctrine of probabilities teaches them once more they are less liable to be wounded again. So the mental process goes on until the Nerves become by the subjects of Will; and he only fears who has not the will to be brave.

MARRIED.

By the Rev. G. Van Artsdalen, on Thursday, February 27th, Jonathan K. GREEN, Esq., near Scottsville, to Miss MARY ELLEN, only daughter of the late Wm. P. Laughlin, of Shade

On the 27th ult., in Marklesburg, by the Rev. J. K. Bricker, Mr. Isaac K LATSHAW, of Blair county, to Miss KATE SIMONTON, of Marklesburg.

DIED. On the 17th ult., of diptheria, Tox-

MY R., youngest son of Benjamin and Penina M. Hartman, of West township, aged 3 years, 1 month, and 25 days. Another little form asleep, And a little spirit gone; Another little voice is hushed Another angel born. Two little feet are on the way To the Home beyond the skies. And our hearts are like the void that come When a strain of music dies." M. E.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. March 4, 1862 Pancy and Extra Family Flour. ...$1,37,&1,46 ...$1,33@1,34 $1.121/m;4.25 $1,871/m;2,00

HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY. Extra Family Flour 73 bld... Extra do 7 cut... White Wheat... Red Wheat

CHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of wit of fee. Fi. Fa. to me directed, I will expose to pub-ic cate or outry, at the Court House, in the borough of untlugdon, on SATGRIDAY, the 22d day of March, 1862, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following described real vagate; to

JOHN C. WATSON, Sheriff. SHERIFF'S OFFICE.)
Huntlagdon, Mar. 4, 1862.

Gen. Buell will be nominated to morrow as a major general of volunteers.

Notice is hereby fiven to all persons interested, that the undersigned Auditor appointed by the Orphans' Court of Huntingdon country, to distribute the Safance Court of Huntingdon country, to distribute the Safan

The Insurance Company of North America, at Philadelphia. INCORPÒRATED 1794. Capital and assets, $1,254,719 81. ARTHUR G. COFFIN, President. CHARLES PLATT, Secretary.

OFFICE, NO. 232 WALNUT STREET

THE undersigned, Agent for the above well known and reliable company, will make in atrances against loss or damage by the for periods from one mouth to perpetual, on property in town or guantry. J. SIMPSON AFRICA. Huntingdon, Feb. 24, 1862-6m. LOLLOCK'S DANDELION COF-

And sold by an Druggists and Grocers. Keb. 21, 1862-Iy.

YOU will find the Largest and Best

Feb. 20, 1862.-3t.

HERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of a writ of vend. Expones to me directed, I will expose to public sale or outery, at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on BATUIDAY, the 8th day or March, 1862, at 10 o'clock, 'A. Mi, the following described

UNION VARIETY CASES.

COLEMAN & CO.'S Variety Envelopes Are superceded by their unit sild beautiful Trillor VARIETY OASES, much superior and much at psymthetred. They are certainly cheap and very desirable. We wish our friends to call at Lewis' Book and Stationery Store, and see them—to see is to buy. COLEMAN & CO. Philadelphia, Feb. 11, 1862.

T) ECRUITS WANTED for pennsylvania regiments

NOW IN THE FIELD. The indersified, it accordance with General Orders
No. 105, Head-duarters of the Army, and under the direction of Capitaln R. I. Dodigd, General Superlutendent of the cruiting Service for this State of Ferinsylvanic, have opened a Recruiting Office at the Peet Office, in Control in the State of Terms ylvanic, have opened a Recruiting Office at the Peet Office, in Control in the State of Terms ylvanic, have been used to the state of the State of Terms ylvanic, and the state of the State of Stat 28th Regiment, P. V. On Recruiting Service, By command of Major General McClellan Coalmont, Feb. 11, 1862.

RECRUITS WANTED FOR PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENTS

NOW IN THE FIELD. The undersigned, in accordance with General Orders No. 105, Head Quarters of the Army, and under the direction of Captain R. I. Dodge, General Superintendisht of Recruiting Service for the State of Fennsylvania, have opened a Recruiting Office in the building formerly decupied as Head-Quarters of Camp Crosman, opposite the Exchange Rotel, Italicoad street, Huntinglon, Pa.

They are authorized to enlist men for any Formaylvania Regiment now in the field that is not aiready full. Subsistence and pay to commence from date of enlistment.

Lieut. A. G. DICKLY, B. M. GREENE,

WANTED. PECRUITS FOR PENNIA REGI-MENTS NOW IN THE UNITED STATES SER-VICES—The undersigned in accordance with Uneral Or-ders No. 105. Head-dusters of the Army, and under the direction of Captain Rt. I. Dodge, General Superintendent of Recrifiting Exercise for the State of Pennsylvania, have established a Recrulting Station at Marklesburg, Hun-tingdon county, Pa. d pay to commence from date of enlist

NEW MARBLE YARD

TAMES M. GREEN respectfully informs the public that he is fully prepared to furnish in the best style of workmanship, all kinds of TOME STDNES, at prices cheaper than they can be had in the county. He hopes, by strict sittention to business, to merit and receive a share of public patheogram. Itunitagion, Jan. 23, 1802.

SCOTT & BROWN, ATTORNEŸS AT LAW, HUNTINGDON, PA. the "Journal" Printing Office

J. H. O. CORBIN, ATTORNEY AT LAW. HUNTINGDON, PA. Office on Hill Street.

Huntingdon, Jan. 14, 1862.

Huntingdon, Jan. 14, 1862-11.

The New Spring Styles For 1862.

Already Received At Lewis' Book Store. We deal direct with the manufacturer, and will have on hand at all times, the latest styles, and sell at fair prices.

					2 W
$\mathbf{P}_{\mathbf{I}}$	ENN		VANIA RAI
WESTWARD.			· HASTWA			1
MAIL,	FAST LINE,	THROUGH KXPRBSS.	STATIONS.	EXPRESS,	PAST LINE,
P. M.	P. M.	A.M.		A.M.	ķ.M.	ı
12 51	7 01		Newton Hamilton,	11 60	44	l
1 00	7 08	0 25	Mt. Union,	12.00		ĺ
i 34	7 35	6 51	Huntingdon,	11 23	9 16	i
1 51	7 18	7 05	Peterburgianin	11 08	9 02	l
2 00	8 03	- Ju.	Sprice Creek	70 KS		ŀ
2 25	8 03	7.20	Birmingham,		4,,,,,
2 34	8 25	7 43	Tyrone,	10-30	8 26	ľ
3 48	- -		Tenfor	10 10	·J	1

UNTINGDON & BROAD TO?

RAILROAD.—CHANGE OF SCHEDULE (1)
On and after Monday, Dec. 2d, 1801; Paragraph Trains will-arrive and depart as follows:

UP TRAINS, UP TRAINS, Lears Huntingdon at 7.39 A. M. & 4.10 P. M. Saxton " 230 A. M. & 6.10 P. M. Arrive at Hopewell " 10.15 A. Bl. ...

DOWN TRAINS, DOWN TRAINS,

Leave Hopewell at 10.25 Å, M.

Satton "11.10 A, M. & 630 P. M.

Arrive at Huntingdon 1.10 P. M. & 830 P. M.

Dcc. 3, 1861.

Bug.

LEXANDRIA FOUNDRY. ROESI C. McGILL, manufacturer of all kinds of castings, forge and rolling mill, grist and saw mill, throughing machine, sled and sleigh soles, wagon becomes to yet of various kinds, kettles, plough shears, to, sait ell-kinds, of bloughs; also, car wheels and railroad work; and the new and improved plough that reduces satisfaction to bit farmers that have used them, I, will keep all kinds, given blough shears and ploughs at Messers. Rehore & MacMartrice, Huntingdon, and at Mr., Georga Phys, Mill. Crock, and will full all orders promptly—The farmers will save money by getting shears and boughs of McGill, at the foundry head-quarters, the place to they chean. Alkinds of produce, of heat-off and timber, taken in exchange—Brigg the pig mak axes ten per cent. R. C. McGILL Alexandria, March 7, 1860.

BOOTS & SHOES.—Old and young can be fitted at BENJ. JACOBS' store in Market (oct.23)