Thus o'er deep waters passeth man away lis home is not in mansions of decay-

Not in the silent chambers of the grave But in Heaven, through Him who died to sa We mourn that thou hast left us, friend, so soon; But we trust thou art blooming beyond the tomb, Where chosen flowers, the fairest and the best, Are culted, and gathered to the Saviour's breast Then sleep on, departed, thy sleep "is death"... Tranquil be thy resting place—" tis the grave"— And hope shall tell us, that again we'll meet There, in that brighter world, at Jesus' feet. PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. March 5, 1862
