Semi-Wieehly Globe.

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. A. TYHURST, Associate Editor.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Tuesday afternoon, March 18, 1862.

NOTICE

We have not the time nor the inclination, to dun personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing. We shall, therefore, from day to day, without respect to persons, to save expense, will do well to give phis. Suddenly the latter city was follows: us a call immediately.

THE NEWS.

to have been the hardest fought, and the war. It has resulted in the death of 1,000 rebels, the wounding of nearly With all the drumming, all the vigi.

Name, Daoar, Denman, Dientenwanner, McCollan, McCoy, McCulloch, Myers, Neimax, Peters, Potteiger, Ramsey, With all the drumming, all the vigi. 3,000 more, and the capture of 1,600 lance and activity of the sergeant-at-Ross, (Mifflin.) Rowland, Russel, Ryon, crossed the Rappahannock, and are determined to make a stand at Fredericksburg in conjunction with the army at Gordonsville. They have burned Warrenton station, 14 miles from Manassas, on the Manassas and Richmond railroad, together with the hotel and the five or six dwellings located there. Also Bristow's station, five miles from Manassas, together with the store houses containing a large amount of flour.

-At Thoroughfare station, 12 miles

been recovered and arrived at Harris. arrayed in line before him, but not burg on Sunday night. The remains without a terrific contest. The leaders are to be elected. of the lamented Colonel were recov- of the Rebellion seem to have been inered by Major A. V. Elliott and Mr. spired, throughout, by the belief that OUR CORRESPONDENCE John Keene, of the War Department, the decisive contest of the whole strugand the Orderly Sergeant of the late | gle was to take place between the cap-Col. Cameron, who started from Wash- | ital of our country and their own choington for Manassas immediately after sen rendezvous. They have preferred lowing is the result of the great shootits evacuation by the rebels. When to encounter many terrible disasters in ing match at Huntingdon last week they reached the old battle ground, other quarters (which they might at between Richardson and Stunkard, of they were led to the spot by a colored least partially have avoided), rather Fulton county, and Massey and Bell, man in the neighborhood. The body than to weaken their main army, which was to shoot three shots at his board, had been buried with five others with- once arrogantly threatened Washing- and the shortest string take the round out a coffin. It was easily recognized ton, but which is now making a last distance sixty yards. by certain marks, as the clothing was desperate struggle to defend Richmond. It has rarely happened in the hisisfied, for I understand there is anothhad almost entirely decayed from the bones. A truss of a peculiar construction, which the Colonel wore, was also found in its proper place on his remains. The corpse was forwarded to Lowisburg, Union country, accompanied in the substrainty of the substrainty for the last and almost entirely decayed from the bones. A truss of a peculiar construction, which the Colonel wore, was also found in its proper place on his remains. The corpse was forwarded to Lowisburg, Union country, accompanied in the substrainty of the substra Lowisburg, Union county, accompanied by its military escort, and a number of the relatives and friends of the deceased. —An important reconnoissance along exaltation of a despotic oligarchy.

the line of the Virginia and Alexandria Railroad, a distance of twentydescribed, and presented a sad picture litems of general interest. of desolation. Information was ob- Total shipment of coal in 1861....... tained establishing the fact that the evacuation of Manassas had begun on RECEIPTS: the 7th inst., the rebels having learned that Gen. McClellan intended to interecpt the way to Richmond.

-On Saturday morning a naval expedition started down the Mississippi, under Flag Officer Foote, from Cairo. An attack is to be made upon Island No. 10. The impression prevails that which have been the best paying por-Island No. 10 will not offer much re- tion of our freights, and the low rates sistance. There are said to be 2,000 have made the net earnings less satisrebel troops at the town of Union, factory than the Board would have

ers will remember that during the past we have received them, and more life Road like pictures could not be desired, or

If any arrangement can be arrived years ago, was regarded as one of the procured at any other establishment in the United States. We therefore recommend all persons visiting the city. the United States. We therefore recommend all persons visiting the city, who may wish to secure a perfect likeness of themselves or their friends, to call at Mr. Crane's rooms.

COUNTERFEIT DETECTORS, for sale regularly, at Lewis' Book Store.

Missing Legislature.

The St. Louis Republican asks what has become of the Tennessee Legislature? Is it strayed or stolen—lost or mislaid? Has it gone "on a bonder," Houses to encourage the development and not recovered from its headache? Have most of the members prorogued | ties of Huntingdon and Bedford. themselves, and sought the retiracy with its garrison-when Clarksville ending June 1st, 1862. gunboats, to Nashville-there was via Shirleysburg, to Orbisonia.

was the matter, and while the pious legalizing their action in this respect among them were wending their rever- hereafter. ent way to the House of God, Gov. Harpet bags and took a special train. On Huntingdon counties, asking for a House and resolved to adjourn. The Creek. members very soon thereafter left. largely reinforced with inhabitants. The hotels were crowded, the boarding bouses filled, and the streets swarmten members, and of the Representa-tion members, and of the Representa-NAYS—Messrs. Abbot, Armstrong. tives in the other branch fifty were Bates, Caldwell, Chatham, Cochran, Chiladel begun this paragraph?

THE RETREAT of the enemy from Manassas and Winchester, although it has postponed the anticipated engagement | ebrated Optician from New York, will | between the two large armies that have be in town for a few days from Thursday from Manassas, on the road to Win- so long faced each other on the banks day next. All diseases of the eve chester, there were, on Friday, found of the Potomac, by no means proves treated in a scientific manner. He will ing between a portion of our troops, 52 freight cars, loaded with commissation that they will not soon engage in deadly also be prepared to furnish the best under Col. Roberts, and the enemy 52 freight cars, loaded with commissa, that they will not soon engage in deadly also be prepared to furnish the best ry stores, valued at $20,000. The fire conflict along an immense line. The quality of glasses and cases. skindled by the rebels failed to consume order of General McClellan indicates that he expects a great battle. He was almost perfect, although the flesh tory of the world that a more intensed or match to come off between Massey had almost entirely decayed from the ly interesting theatre for a deadly con- and Richardson, for two hundred dolthe spot where arch-conspirators do slate land of Fulton county, will procongregate to form desperate plans for duce the best marksman. the rain of free government and the

HUNTINGDON & BROAD TOP R. R.four miles, in a direct line from Manas- We have received from Mr. J. J. Lawsas, has been made. The whole coun- rence, the Ninth Annual Report of the try along the route was found to be Directors, from which we copy a few

81,772 Coal freight, merchandise and local freights, rent of minos, rent of houses, passengers, mail and express, & miscellaneous items .. $156,931 62 $111,756 7-

Motive power, maintenance of cars, etc., etc. Net earnings,.....$70,016 95 $50,234 15

Extract from the President's Report: The falling off in the home shipments the place there are also said to be twelve heavy guns in their batteries

Our reconnoitring forces on the country for moving coal and cars

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from their duty, the Texans will be drived the town in one of the transportation ingloriously from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the transportation ingloriously from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the town in one of the transportation wagons.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from their duty, the Texans will be drived that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the town in one of the transportation wagons.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the country.

The toming arms now being nearly that it was necessary to earry him from the transportation in gloriously from the country. Lower Potomac have found vast quan- on the mountain grades, and the deliv- ted States has become almost a common tities of commissary stores in the aban- ery of coal at Saxton, and by pro-rating drunkard within the past three months year, we published an advertisement for Chas. G. Crane, Photographist, No 532 Arch st., Phila.,—payable in Photographs of some of our friends in the city, and we have received them and more life.

business of the Road the Company can hereafter pay interest upon their entire liabilities, including Common and Preferred Stock.

men. An assortment of Card Photographs at Lewis' Book Store.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

The following items are of interest o our readers in the county: An Act has been passed by both of coal and mineral lands in the coun-When the general appropriation bill and seclusion of private life! What was under consideration, Mr. Scott had and seclusion of private life! What was under consideration, and the second of the Tennessee Legisla- an amendment inserted which gives to ture? When Donelson tumbled and Cass and Union townships their portion of infantry, 1,000 strong, in line of the school fund of last year, surrendered-when Sidney Johnston Mr. Scott has also read in place An

Mr. Banks, some days ago, presented the morning of that Sabbath day, the State road from Spruce Creek to con-General Assembly met at the State nect with the turnpike near Canoe

The tonnage tax question was dis-

YEAS-Messrs. Alexander, Banks Barron, Beaver, Beebe, Bigham, Bliss, Blanchard, Roileau, Brown, (Mercer,) Brown, (Northumberland,) Busby, more, together with thirteen pieces of arms, up to the 1st instant no quorum cannon.

| Could be obtained in either House. | Could be obtained in either House. | Wakefield, Weidner, Williams, Wim-> absent, including the honorable Speak- Cowan, Dennis, Donnelly, (Philadeler, at our latest dates. In view of these facts are we not justified in propounding the inquiry with which we have lev Scott Smith (Chester) Smith ley, Scott, Smith, (Chester,) Smith (Philadelphia,) Thompson, Vincent Warner and Wildey—25.

Dr. Ludwig Hechinger, the cel-

Don't forget the election on Friday

The Shooting Match. EDITORS OF THE GLOBE :- The folof Huntingdon county. Each man

Although the shooting was reasona-

They also shot one round of ten shots each, which was won by Rich-the action, and behaved well. ardson at 111 inches. Huntingdon, March 17. G.

John C. Breckinridge.

7th, to the Cincinnati Times, says:

with the other carrying Companies I am informed, and is now rarely sober from that point, a successful year's enough to be of any service to the training that point, a successful year's LIFE-LIKE PHOTOGRAPHS.—Our read-business may reasonably be expected. torous cause he espoused. So much has Twelve miles of the Bedford Rail-he transcended even the broad limits torous cause he espoused. So much has > PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS—new and improved styles-just received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Another supply of the Old Franklin Almanaes just received at Lewis' Book Store.

WAR NEWS.

THE WAR IN NEW MEXICO.

Details of the Fort Craig Battle. van has advices from Albuquerque, New Mexico, February 23, which body. state that the Texas rebel troops have While thus engaged, Gen. Sigel was made various significant movements three times surrounded, but he cut his battle in front of the fort, and also moved a column of cavalry, 800 strong, to the west of our defences. They adtold the trembling Harris that Com- Act to incorporate a company to con- vanced within a mile and a half of the lantry. modore Foote was on his way, with the struct a turnpike from Mount Union works, and halting, with the rebel flag The most exposed position was ocgunboats, to Nashville—there was him Shirleysburg, to Orbisonia.

hurrying to and fro in Tennessee's capitol, and much whispering with white lips among the senators and representations and representations and representations and representations are proposed as a bill giving the County Commissioners of this county, authority to act as a Board of the greater part of his forces of the Thirty-fifth Illinois, tives. Before the citizens knew what of Revision, while holding appeals, and in the rear of the fort. When the en- Col. Phelp's regiment, and the Twenemy commenced retreating, and the ty-fourth Missouri. infantry was separated from the cavalry, Col. Canby ordered Major Duncan to charge the cavalry of the enemy with a squadron of dynastic and the second brigade, under Colonel Van Dorn, of the Ninth Iowa Regiment, consisted of his own variable. ris and the Legislature seized their car- a petition from citizens of Blair and my with a squadron of dragoons and the Dubuque battery, and Col. Carr's mounted men, which they did in gal-lant style, the enomy retreating before

A letter from Colonel Carr says the them until they arrived at a deep ra-where the skirmish took place.

On the 19th and 20th the Texans crossed to the east bank of the Rio Asboth, in the arm, Col. Carr, in the Grande, in order, it is supposed, to take possession of the heights opposite Fort Craig. Colonel Camby crossed and Iowa. Besides being wounded, Lieut. ed with a greatly augmented population. The time came for the Legislature to assemble. The State had been the Legislature to assemble. The State had been the Legislature to assemble to the Legislature to the Legi deeming it imprudent to waste his am- the wagon to make his escape, when force, and all the other outlets are unteers, killed or dangerously wound fight desperately for water, or surren-

When the express closed, on the morning of the 21st ult., the booming of cannon could be heard in the direction of Valverde, announcing that the battle had begun.

An express has just arrived from Fort Craig, with news of a serious conflict between our forces and the Texans. which lasted from 9 o'clock A. M. on the 21st until sundown of the same

The fight commenced in the mornacross the Rio Grande, with varied success, until 1 or 2 o'clock, when Col. Canby crossed the river in force, with a battery of six pieces, under Captain men about 600 strong. They were knowledge a loss of 1,000 killed and armed with earlines and revolvers and from 2,500 to 3,000 wounded. We took long seven-pound bowie knives. After 1,600 prisoners and 13 pieces of cannon, discharging their carbines at close distance, they drew their revolvers and reached the battery in a storm of grape Pateixri's brigade. his artillerymen cut down, his support in one direction, and the other unde separated, killed, wounded, and flying | Gen. Van Dorn taking another. from the field, Captain McCray sat down calmly and quietly on one of his guns, and, with revolver in hand, refusing to fly or desert his post, he fought fackson notoriety, was killed in the

to the last, and gloriously died like a battle. a hero, the last man by his gun. charge. Many of our officers distinguished themselves on this day. Maj. 21216 Donaldson, who was the chief aid of Massey and Richardson shot five Col. Canby, acted bravely, and was Kit Carson, in command of a regiment

We have, however, to name the loss of Lieut. Michler and Stone, who, like Capt. McCray, nobly and bravely maintained the honor of our flag to the last, and gloriously died the death A letter dated Columbus, Ky., Mar. of patriots. Many other officers are wounded. Our loss is about 200 killed was one of the evacuators of Columbus one of the evacuators of the

FROM ARKANSAS.

THE BATTLE OF PEA RIDGE.

to be drawn up on the north side; but, unexpectedly, the attack was commened on the north, being the rear of our army, by from fifteen hundred to two thousand rebel cavalry.

Gen. Sigel, with eight hundred men, otected the train for several hours, Sr. Louis, March 13.—The Republi- holding the rebels in check, while the teams pushed backward to the main > way through each time. The principal fighting on Thursday was done by Gen. Sigel in this way. On Friday the engagement became general, and continued so throughout. Our officers behaved with much gal-floating in the breeze, remained some cupied by Col. Carr's division, and the ment, consisted of his own regiment, losses in the 4th and 9th Iowa, 35th Illinois and 25th Missouri are from one The Texan Infantry, in the mean- hundred and fifty to two hundred in time, advanced to the relief of the cave each regiment killed and wounded .-They retreat, vamoosed, toddled, cut cussed until near 12 o'clock on Thursstick, crowded sail, ran off, skidaddled.

The popular understanding confirmed amendment was defeated by a vote of continued to fall back. He reported the souri were present, but they lost twenting, was recalled, and the Texans amendment was defeated by a vote of continued to fall back. He reported wounded. The 12th and 17th Missentence is a souri were present, but they lost twenting, was recalled, and the Texans amendment was defeated by a vote of continued to fall back. He reported wounded. The 12th and 17th Missentence is a souri were present, but they lost wenting the souri were present, but they lost the total souri were present, but they lost wenting the souri were present, but they souri were present were present. place into the hands of a Justice for by an official proclamation by the Gov- 65 nays to 31 yeas. Mr. Williams' sub- that the Texans had eight pieces of souri, 3d Iowa cavalry and 8th Indiana collection, all accounts of over two ernor, was that the functionary wisdom stitute, passed its several readings and artillery in a battery, masked in the regiments lost about forty each. The years standing. All those who wish of the State would bring up in Mem- on its final passage the vote was as ravine, but a short distance below 1st and 2d Iowa batteries lost about twenty each.

Among the wounded are General

On the morning of the 21st, two hundred Texan mules were captured, with their wagon-master. The Texans killed; Brig. Gen. Slack, dangerously on the Highlands are destitute of water. Col. Canby has the pass to the water guarded by a battery and a strong Col. Herbert, of the 3d Louisiana vol-The main body of the rebels have The Tennessee Senate mustered but ley, Windle, Wolf, Worley, Zeigler and guarded. The Texans must either ed, and Major General Sterling Price, slightly wounded.

Thirteen pieces of artillery were captured by our men, including one of the pieces lost by Gen. Sigel at Wil son's Creek.

Our loss is estimated at 800 or 1,000 killed and wounded. The rebel loss is not known, but is supposed to be from 2,000 to 3,000. A large amount of rebel prisoners, probably 1,500 were taken, and more are constantly being brought in.

2,000 Indians were engaged in the battle, and eighteen of our killed were General Price, with about 10,000 nen, retreated northward, and then took an easterly direction. General Jeff. C. Davis is after him.

LATER. Rolla, Mo., March 16.—The remains small battery of two howitzers. The battle of Pea Ridge, Arkansas, arrived here yesterday accompanied by his terial, admirable in discipline and inor eight pieces. The battle commenced brother and two or three other gentle-struction, excellently equipped and by the artillery, and skirmishing soon men. They left the battle ground on armed. Your commanders are all that Lon ican volunteers. The Texans charged desperately and furiously with picked dress the wounds of their fallen acdefend the right.

1 will bring you lace to lace with the commanding at Fort Moultrie, Charleston and only pray that God may defend the right.

NEW MADRID IS OURS.

rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Rounds. Inches Rounds. Inches Rounds. Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows:

Inches Rounds of seven shots each, which resulted as follows: Washington, March 14.-President

> Lincoln has just received a message from Brigadier General Strong, saying: "NEW MADRID IS OURS!"

CHICAGO, March 14.—A special dispatch to the Times, dated Cairo, 13th, Heavy cannonading was heard to day in the direction of New Madrid. The steamer Lake Erie, No. 2, says it

7,000 at Humboldt, and 15,000 in the vicinity of Island No. 10. At the latter place there are also said to be far place there are also said to be count upon an active home market for the red to red to the red to red to the red to Some fighting took place yesterday batteries, in which we lost twenty killed and wounded. A shot from one of our 24 pounders, killing four or five.

In anticipation of an attack on the ton, supplied by a resident of Nash-south, Gen. Curtis ordered the trains vill on his own account.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] St. Louis, March 14.—The following s a copy of the official dispatch sent to the Secretary of War. After several days skirmishing, and a number of attempts of the enemy's gunboats to dislodge Gen. Pope's battery at Point Pleasant, the enemy has vacuated his fort and entrenchments at New Madrid, leaving all his artillery, field batteries, tents, wagons, mules, &c., and an immense quantity of military stores. Brigadier General Hamilton has occupied the place. This was the last stronghold of the enemy in this State, and no rebel flag is now flying in Mis-

LATER. Their Batteries Shelled by the Union Gunboats.

The Rebels Vacate Several Times But Return.

CAIRO, March 16 .- The rebel's Island, No. 10, is a very strong position. Forty- to the command of corps, shall be cmsix guns have been mounted. guns have been mounted.

Eight mortars shelled the battery spective corps.

The island to-day. The robels Third—The forces left for the deabove the island to-day. The rebels left it several times but returned. They only fired with two guns. There is no difficulty whatever in our shells reaching the island. Gen. Pone sent a dispatch to Commo-the steamers or gunboats of the enemy not to delay the commencement of the could pass.

to force a passage. The transports near Island No. 10 hemmed in an encampment, supposed to be large enough for 15,000 to 25,-

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

CAIRO, March 16, afternoon.-Foote is shelling the rebels at Island No. 10. Gen. Pope's batteries prevent their escape down the river. The rebels are said to be from 15,000 to 20,000 strong. The rebel gunboats are understood to be engaging Gen. Pope's of the army of the Potomae.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Address of General McClellan to his Soldiers.

The Time for Action Has Arrived.

Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, Fairfax Court House, Va., March 14, 1862. Soldiers of the Army of the Potomac: For a long time I have kept you inactive, but not without a purpose. You were to be disciplined, armed, and instructed. The formidable artillery you now have had to be created. Other armies were to move and accomplish certain results. I held you back that you might give the death-blow to the ebellion that has distracted our once happy country. The patience you have shown, and your confidence in your general, are worth a dozen vic-

These preliminary results are now accomplished. I feel that the patient however strange my actions may appear to you, ever bear in mind that upon Mr. Floyd, Secretary of War, opths of his heart.

It shall be my care, as it has ever Mr. Buchanan, explaining the contact. been, to gain success with the least rassment of the Secretary of War, repossible loss; but I know that if it is marked that the act of Maj. Anderson from the field, Captain McCray sat down calmly and quietly on one of his guns, and, with revolver in hand, refusing to fly or desert hispost, he fought to the last, and gloriously died like a hero, the last man by his gun.

The Texans suffered terribly in this charge. Many of our officers distinfoes to encounter—foemen well worthy of the steel that you will use so well. of the steel that you will use so well. I shall demand of you, great, heroic exertions; rapid and long marches; desperate combats; privations, perhaps. We will share all these together; and, ident, ought certainly to be regarded.

George B. McClellan, Maj. Gen. Commanding.

 $\mathbf{Arm}_{\mathbf{Y}}$. Washington. March 12.—The following Orders by the President were published by authority, in the Intellipublished by authority, in the Intelli-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27, 1862,

Executive Mansion. President's General War Order, No. 1: Ordered, that the twenty-second day of February, 1862, be the day for a resignation." FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Brigadier Generals McCulloch and Slack Killed,—Cols. McIntosh, Rives and Herbert Killed and Wounded.—Gen. Sterling Price Wounded.—Our Loss is 800 to 1000 Killed and Wounded.—Hand No. 10 is reported evacuated. Bank bills of loyal States and apecie dians.—Col. Jeff. C. Davis After Price.

Springfield, Mo., March 10.—(Spe.—Springfield, Mo., March 10.—(Spe.—Southers bank bills, especially those our specially those our five. Capt. Carr of the 20th Illinois was general movement of the land and nakilled on Wednesday night, while plating forces of the United States and apecie army at and about Fortress Monded and wounded.—The prosent the army at and about Fortress Monded army of the Potomac, the army of the Potomac, the army of Western Virginia, the army and flotille at Cairo, and a naval force in the Gulf of Mexico be ready that all other forces, both land and mounded.—Kentucky, the army and flotille at Cairo, and a naval force in the Gulf of Mexico be ready that all other forces, both land and mounded.—Washington, March 15.—The Prosente army of Western Virginia, the army and flotille at Cairo, and a naval force in the Gulf of Mexico be ready that all other forces, both land and mounded.—Kentucky, the army and flotille at Cairo, and a naval force in the Gulf of Mexico be ready that all other forces, both land and mounded.—Washington, March 15.—The Prosente army of Western Virginia, the army and flotille at Cairo, and a naval force in the Gulf of Mexico be ready that all other forces, both land and mounded.—Washington, March 15.—The Prosente army of Western Virginia, the army of Mexicon Development of the Lond and native in presignation."

New Article of War.

Washington, Washington, March 15.—The Prosente army of Western Virginia, the army of March 16 force in the Gulf of Mexico be ready that the proposed two interpretations.

"All officers or persons in the military or naval service of the United States are problement of the Lord and naval, with their respective commands for the proposed and pro

The engagement took place on Little Sugar Creek, five miles this side of the same name, where a skirmish occurred on the march down.

Lucss.

Anxious inquiries are made for cotations and especially the Section of the Navy, with ton, turpentine, rosin, and, although all their subordinates, and the General in-Chief, with all other commanders and especially the Section of the Navy, with ton, turpentine, rosin, and, although all their subordinates, and especially the Section of the Navy, with ton, turpentine, rosin, and, although all their subordinates, and especially the Section of the Navy, with ton, turpentine, rosin, and, although although all their subordinates, and especially the Section of the Navy, with ton, turpentine, rosin, and, although alth strict and full responsibilities for the sale at Lewis' Book Store.

ompt execution of this order ABRAHAM LINCOLN EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON,

President's General War Order, No. 2: Ordered, First-That the Major General commanding the army of the Potomac proceed forthwith to organze that part of the said army destined o enter upon active operations, including the reserve, but excluding the troops to be left in the fortifications about Washington, into four army corps, to be commanded according to eniority of rank, as follows: First Corps, to consist of four divisions, to be commanded by Major General Irvin McDowell. Second Corps, to consist of three divisions, and to be commanded by Brigadier General E. V. Sumner.

Third Corps, to consist of three divisions, and to be commanded by Brigadier General S. P. Heintzelman. Fourth Corps, to consist of three divisions, and to be commanded by Brigadier General E. D. Keyes. Second-That the divisions now commanded by the officers above assigned braced in and form part of their re-fence of Washington will be placed in command of Brigadier General James J. Wadsworth, who shall also be Mili tary Governor of the District of Co dore Foote, saying that his heavy guns commanded the river, so that neither with such promptness and despatch as Firing was heard in the direction of dertaken by the army of the Potomac. New Madrid all day. It is supposed | Fifth-A fifth army corps, to be comthat the rebel gunboats were trying manded by Major-General N. P. Banks, will be formed from his own and Gen-Shield's, (late Gen. Lander's) divisions. ABRAHAM LINCOLN. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON,

> President's War Orders, No. 3: Major General McClellan having personally taken the field at the head of the army of the Potomac, until otherwise ordered, he is relieved from the command of the other Military De partments, he retaining the command

Ordered further, that the two departments now under the respective commands of Generals Halleck and Iunter, together with so much of that under General Buell as lies west of a north and south line indefinitely drawn hrough Kuoxville, Tennessee, be considered and designated the Department of the Mississippi, and that until otherwise ordered, Major General Halleck have command of said Department. Ordered, also, that the country west of the department of the Potomac, and east of the department of the Mississippi, be a military department, to be called "The Mountain Department," and that the same be commanded by Major General Fremont.

der by them, respectively report severally and directly to the Secretary of War, and that prompt, full and frequen reports will be expected of all and each

ABRAHAM LINCOLN. Signed)

The Treason of Floyd. by the artillery, and skirmishing soon became general. Towards evening, most of the enemy's guns were silenced. They, however, made a desperate charge on the howitzer battery, but were repulsed with great loss.

Captain McCray's battery was decapted including 2,200 Indians under Albert Pike. As near as could be ascertained, and I know that I can trust in you to save our country. As I ride through your ranks I see in your faces the sure presage of victory. I feel that you will do whatever I ask of you.

The moment for action has arrived, and I know that I can trust in you to save our country. As I ride through your ranks I see in your faces the sure presage of victory. I feel that you will do whatever I ask of you.

The period of inaction has passed.

"In Pebruary, 1861, Maj. Anderson "In Pebruary, 1861, Maj. Anderson" Europe, writes a letter published in the I will bring you face to face with the commanding at Fort Moultrie, Charleslefend the right.

In whatever direction you may move, and brilliant movement, over to the my fate is linked with yours, and that all I do is to bring you where I know dent to say that Major Anderson had field. It is my business to place you riously compromised him (Floyd,) and

"The Cabinet was assembled directly.

when this sad war is over, we will return to our homes, and feel that we can ask no higher honor than the Cabinet has fraudulent acceptances for proud consciousness that we belonged millions of dollars affoat, and while to the Army of the Potomae. the confidential clerk of anotherself in Carolina, teaching rebellionhas just stolen nine hundred thousand dollars from the Indian Trust Fund, Official Order for the Advance of the the experiment of ordering Major An derson back to Fort Moultrie would be

State, Mr. Black: "'And mine, also,' said the Postmaster General, Mr. Holk. "'And mine, too,' followed the Secctary of the Treasury, Gen. Dix. "This, of course, opened the bleared eyes of the President, and the meeting resulted in the acceptance of Floyd's dians.—Col. Jeff. C. Davis After Price.

Springfield, Mo., March 10.—(Special to the St. Louis Republican.)—A messenger arrived at ten o'clock last night, bringing additional news of the page of the

THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC for 1862, for