

board. He had previously allowed five rebel steamers to pass on towards New Madrid, and they are now between his batteries, unable to escape.

Over a dozen vessels, together with the floating battery and battering ram, are now above Gen. Pope's batteries, and will be either sunk or captured. Mr. Beale, one of the oldest citizens of Memphis, arrived last night. He reports that but three rebel regiments are now between New Madrid and Memphis, and these are stationed at Fort Pillow.

The rebel Government are manufacturing pikes at Memphis for the new recruits, but less than 100 men have responded to the last call of the Governor.

The railroads terminating at Memphis are being connected, so that all the rolling stock can be sent down the New Orleans road, when necessary. Chicago, March 21.—A special despatch from Cairo to the Journal says that a moderate fire was kept up by the fleet at Island No. 10 during the day, Wednesday and yesterday. The gunboat Minnesota dismounted a 128-pound gun, placed on the enemy's upper battery.

Some of the rebel gunboats tried to force their way up yesterday morning, but had to retire.

General Pope has twenty-two guns mounted at Mount Pleasant, and has erected a new battery four miles below. As yet not one man has been killed by the enemy.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Beaufort, N. C., evacuated by the Rebels. Fort Monroe, N. C., closed. The Private Steamer Nashville Burned.

Fortress Monroe, March 22.—The steamer Chancellor Livingston, arrived from Hatteras last night.

Immediately after the occupation of Newbern, North Carolina, Gen. Burnside started an expedition to Beaufort, but the place was evacuated before our troops approached. Fort Moun was blown up by the rebels and the steamer Nashville burned.

On the day that General Burnside occupied Newbern, sixteen thousand rebel troops were on the road between Goldsboro and Newbern. The steamer Savannah sailed for Hatteras yesterday with mails and passengers.

The steamer Illinois returned to New York this morning. The steamer Vanderbilt arrived to-day. The new gunboat Chocoma arrived from Boston last night.

LATER.

Confirmation of the Destruction of Fort Macon and the Private Steamer. The representative elect from the Acco-nae District of Virginia, arrived in this city this morning. He confirms the intelligence from Fortress Monroe of the destruction of the privateer Nashville and Fort Macon by the rebels.

The D'Epinois Zouaves, about 400 in number, were paid off to-day. The greater portion of them will return home.

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM WINCHESTER.

A Battle on Sunday.—The Rebels Totally Routed.—One Hundred Rebels Killed.—Heavy Union Loss.—Five Cannon Taken.—The Flying Rebels Pursued.

Washington, Mar. 23.—Telegraphic despatches, received from Winchester, dated last night, at half past 10 o'clock, say: A slight skirmish occurred this afternoon, about a mile and a half from Winchester, on the Strasburg road, between a portion of Gen. Shields's troops, and the rebel cavalry, with four pieces of artillery.

The enemy retreated with a loss, as soon as our guns opened fire. One man was killed on our side, and Gen. Shields's suffered a slight injury on the left arm, from a fragment of a shell which burst near him. A prisoner brought in to-night, says the enemy were under the impression that our troops had left Winchester, and that Jackson's rebel forces were on the road from Strasburg under the same impression.

LATER FROM WINCHESTER.

Winchester, March 23.—8 o'clock, P. M.—I have just come in from the very front of the battle, three miles out. A complete victory has been achieved over Jackson. We have taken two guns and caissons, and killed at least one hundred, and wounded twice as many. Our loss is heavy, but not more than one hundred and fifty killed and wounded. Our men did bravely, and have taken a great many muskets. The rebels are in full retreat.

STILL LATER.

Winchester, March 23.—10 o'clock, P. M.—We have this day achieved a glorious victory over the combined forces of the rebel Generals Jackson, Smith and Longstreet. The battle was fought within four miles of this place. It raged from half past 10 o'clock this morning until dark. The enemy's strength was about 10,000, and the strength of our division was not over 8,000. Our loss in killed and wounded is not definitely ascertained, but it is heavy. The enemy's loss is double that of ours.

We have captured a large number of prisoners, some of their guns, and the ground is strewn with the arms they have thrown away in their flight. The cavalry are still in pursuit of the retreating enemy. The particulars cannot be ascertained until daylight.
