Huntingdon, April 9, 1862. Mr. Editor :-- Why will some people persist in a belief that the "rest of mankind" are fools? It is a harmless faith, say you, and why complain. do not complain, I only want to say am not an apostle of such a stupid faith. This is a blessed age in which we live, even in the madness down in Dixie incidents, give us, who live to-day, advantages over the dull thinkers of the past; and ought not a man with any brains, to be ashamed to act as if hi fellows were fools? Talking of Common Schools, did you take notice that they have that institution in Shirleys-burg? Doubtless, good schools, for battle:
