HUNTINGDON, PA. Thursday afternoon, April 17, 1862.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination, to den personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing.

GEORGE PELDODY, the American Banker in London, has donated $150,000 to the poor of that city.

The attendance at Court this week has been pretty strong, though we hear of little or no business of importance of a criminal character coming before it.

How to BANISH RATS.—A correspondent of Gardner's Monthly says:—"I tried the effect of introducing into the entrance of their holes, runs or hiding places, a small piece of calico or muslin, or blacking powder, wrapped in calico, and stuffed into the entrance holes, and thrown loose by the spout into the drain from the house."

The Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen died at his residence at New Brunswick, New Jersey, on Saturday last.

We neglected to mention in our Tuesday's issue that a thanksgiving sermon was preached from the Methodist, Presbyterian, and German Reformed pulpits on Sunday last.

It is rumored that the Emperor of France—Napoleon III.—has resolved not to recognize the bastard government of Jeff Davis & Co., even as belligerents, but hereafter will treat them as they deserve, namely—as pirates.

Hon. SIMON CAMERON was arrested in Philadelphia on Tuesday, upon a warrant issued on oath of Pierce Butler, Esq., charging him with the illegal detention of Mr. Butler in Fort Lafayette last summer.

JOHN DOUGHERTY, Esq., of Mount Union, delivered an address before the Agricultural Society in the Court House, on Thursday the 3d inst., which was spoken very highly of by those who heard it.

IMPORTANT.—If the ladies, supposed to be teachers, who purchased three books and a card at Lewis' Book Store, on Thursday the 3d inst., will call again, or write to us informing us of their locality, they may hear of something to their advantage.

ADMITTED.—On Wednesday, on motion of A. W. Benedict, Esq., Rudolph McMurtrie, Esq., was admitted to practice law in the several courts of Huntingdon county.

At the same time, on motion of Wm. P. Orison, Esq., A. L. Grim, Esq., was admitted to practice law in the several courts of Huntingdon county.

Our Army.—We fear there is something wrong at the head of our army, and with some of the Generals in command.

THE ARMY BEFORE YORKTOWN.—Those who have been expecting a rapid advance and an easy victory for the army of General McClellan, on the peninsula between York and James rivers, are not very well informed as to the circumstances in which the army has been placed by the derangement of the General's plans.

General McDowell, placed in command of the Army of the Rappahannock, sent his troops along the railroad, employing some of the best regiments in rebuilding bridges, and repairing telegraph lines.

The Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen died at his residence at New Brunswick, New Jersey, on Saturday last. He held several important and prominent offices under the National Government.

We neglected to mention in our Tuesday's issue that a thanksgiving sermon was preached from the Methodist, Presbyterian, and German Reformed pulpits on Sunday last, in accordance with the expressed wish of President Lincoln, that religious bodies of all denominations, should join in praise and thanksgiving to the God of battles, who has vanquished us so many victories recently.

river, and within a day's forced march of Corinth, without a solitary picket or vidette, to tell them whether Beauregard might not be upon them, and that they were, in fact, surprised in the night, and a large part of them captured, with a number of cannon, and their disorder communicated itself to several Ohio regiments, who discarded themselves by refusing to stand to their arms.

In those circumstances, we regard it as a most extraordinary triumph of American courage, that Gen. Grant's army were not entirely given up to panic, and did not imitate the stampede of Bull Run.

St. Simons is a fine, rich island about ten miles long. On the North is a village called Frederica. It is said to be nearly a place.

A thousand blacks could be usefully employed here, and made self-supporting. Such a colony, properly managed, would do much good.

On the 22d ult., the Bibb made her appearance, and Captain Bartlett at once commenced placing the buoys for the bar and channel. The vessel, under the command of Commodore Dupont, continued to come to us. I sent a number by the Potomack to Fernandina and also several by the Connecticut.

counterparty are faced with solid masonry. A draw-bridge affords access to the interior of the redan, whence the gate of the fort is approached.

The work was originally intended to mount one hundred and twenty-eight guns all of large calibre, and it is probable that the rebels had that many guns mounted at the time of its investment by the Federal troops.

Abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia.

The Bill Signed by the President.—Special Message on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The following message was read by the House of Representatives to-day from the President:

FELLOW CITIZENS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES: The act entitled "An Act for the release of certain persons held to service or labor in the District of Columbia," has this day been approved and signed.

I have never doubted the constitutional authority of Congress to abolish slavery in this District, and I have ever desired to see the National Capital freed from the institution in some satisfactory way; hence there has never been in my mind any question upon the subject except the one of expediency arising in view of all the circumstances.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN. April 16, 1862.

The Heroes of Ball's Bluff.—The Bodies of the Slain to be Properly Cared For.

HANTSBURG, April 15.—It having been represented to Gov. Curtin that the bodies of the Pennsylvanians who fell at Ball's Bluff were not properly buried, and are now exposed, he has directed Surgeon General Smith to have them properly cared for, with as little delay as possible, and buried on the field, or at Washington, or brought into the State, at his discretion.

FROM General McClellan's Army. The Rebels Vigorously Erecting New Batteries.—A Battery at Gloucester Shelled by Our Gunboats.

BREWER YORKTOWN, April 15.—Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock, a section of artillery was posted within half a mile of the rebel works, near the river, supported by sufficient infantry to prevent their being captured.

At Yorktown, the old works used during the siege of 1780 were still visible, and the rebels were busy erecting new batteries on their walls, and the rebel flag was flying from the battlements.
