This Institution is pleasantly located in the village of Shade Gap, Huntingdon county, on the mail route from Mt. Union to Chambersharp, distant IT miles from Mt. Union on the Pennsylvania Railroad, with which it is connected by a daily line of stages. It is situated in a section of country proverbal for its heathfulness and for its beautiful and varied mountain scenery. Baring all the advantages of refference and quiet so desirable in an institution of the kind, with few or no allurements to urgage the mind of the student. The Institution has, herefore, well southered its character as being one of the most thorough nul practical in the land. To those desiring it, thorough instruction will be given in Bouble & Single Entry Book-Keeping, Mercantille Calculations, Penmanship, &c. Students can pursue this branch of study, either in connection with other studies, or devote their whole time to it alone. No Form books are used, but manuscripts alone are made use of, thus familiarizing the student with every day transactions and preparing him, at once, to enter the counting-room. Diplomas will be awarded to those satisfactorily completing a full course. M GUTMAN & CO., Dealers in Ready and Clothing, Huntingdon, Pa. 23 conts per duren: $1 per 100; 3,000 for $10. This is a Weekly Religious Paper, published at the very low price of ON E. DOLLARIA A.Y. E.A.R. It is designed for Parents, Teachers, and all who are engaged or interested in the religious training of the young. It is also an excellent Family Paper.

A portion of the Sanday-School Times is occupied with Navardives and other matter paythedarly interesting to young persons. Teachers will find in timeth that they will like to read to their chartes—interesting matter prepared to their chartes—interesting matter prepared to their hands, and such as they cannot find chowhere. For the same reasons, members of Intibeclasses, and the older scholers generally, will be greatly benefited by the perusal of this paper.

The Sanday-School Times line every week a report of the choicest matter, selected from the Noon Prace Needings, which are so interesting to all themses of Christians. Besides a large amount of general religions intelligence, the Sanday-School Times contains all the most recent Sunday-school news. It reports all the important Conventions which most interest and perplex teachers and patents, respecting the various methods of Religions Yaining the two tons of children and especially of securing their controls of children and especially of securing their controls of children and especially of securing the conversion and bringing them to Christ.
