Semi-Wickly Globe.

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. A. TYHURST, Associate Editor.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Tuesday afternoon, May 6, 1862.

THE NEWS .- We give in our columns army. Read the news.

Ex-Secretary Cameron Censured by the House.

The House of Representatives on Wednesday last, adopted the following | dies of the "Soldiers Aid:" resolution offered by Mr. Hollman, of Indiana, by a vote of year seventy-five, navs forty-five: -

Resolved. That Simon Cameron, late Sccretary of War, by investing Alexander Cummings with the control of ness ishereby most gratefully acknowllarge sums of the public money, and authority to purchase military supplies diers among whom they were distributed its among whom the were distributed its among whom they were distributed its amo the services of competent public officers were available; and by involving the Government in a vast number of contracts with persons not legitimate by engaged in the business pertaining will ever be remembered, and in the business pertaining will ever be remembered, and in the business pertaining will ever be remembered, and in the business pertaining will ever be remembered, and in the business pertaining will ever be remembered, and in the business pertaining will ever be remembered, and in the business pertaining the formula of the first part o ospecially in the purchase of arms for future delivery, has adopted a policy the just merits of their crimes.—We shen, as though by mutual consent, highly injurious to the public service, feel that, in some measure, we have

Of the members voting for the resoland think we may proudly boast that steamboat came down the river, and lution, 28 are Republicans and 47 in no instance has the 84th so behaved attempted to land at Yorktown, but voting against the resolution, 42 are Republicans and 3 Democrats. Blair, of this District, voted with the nays. We are pleased to record the fact that a majority of the members could not be influenced to enclore Mr. Chmeron's conduct.

ARMY LETTERS .- On our return home we found on our table two letters from Soldiers Aid Society of Huntingdon, we found on our table two letters from Soldiers Aid Society of Huntingdon, Pittsburg Landing—one from S. W. for their generous donation of sanital egraph, from Baltimore, the following Haslett, son of Col. R. F. Haslett, and ry stores for our regiment. Arriving report from its special correspondent at a time when our stores were exceedingly limited and many stores for our regiment. Arriving report from its special correspondent of the bombardment of Fort Macon: than we had, previously published, we materially to the comfort of our distribution of the comfort of our distribution of the comfort of the business and school stationery can't be tion to our former stock, several new both temporal and spiritual. styles of wall paper.

NEW SCHEDULE. - Important changes have been made in the schedule of the Penna. Railroad. See card in another column. The Hollidaysburg Accomand leaves at 1:20. P. M.

came to us last week in an entire new distance we are apart, are strong evi-

MAJOR OSTERLOH, of the 93d Regt., is in town, looking as if camp life in Dixie had been rather severe upon his thesith. We hope he may soon be himself again.

OUR CORRESPONDENCE.

the readers of the Globe.

CASSVILLE SEMINARY.) MESSRS. EDITORS: — By perusing your sheet, from time to time, I ob-

The second spring quarter com-menced on the first of April, but I did not enter the school until Monday, 21st inst., when I found a goodly number of students in attendance, and the on the statil, increasing. It is quite an interesting school and is carried on by Prof. J. W. Hughes,—one of the finest men that the county can produce, and a gentleman in all respects, and the finest men that the county can produce, and a gentleman in all respects, and is a gentleman in all respects, and is a many of Tennessea, and Major General Thomass Division from the earny of Ohio to the army of Tennessea, and Major General Thomass Division from the earny of Ohio to the army of Tennessea, and Major General Thomass and Major Gen number is still increasing. It is quite an interesting school and is carried on boy he is.

As I have written the above in hasto, I shall close for the present, promising, with your permission, to write again.

Yours, &c. N. D.

HUNTINGDON, May 5, 1862. MR. EDITOR :- It is said that a Thes pian Club once played Hamlet, with the part of Hamlet left out. Perhaps, had I thought of this, I should not have noticed the "Address." The citizens asked for a copy of the address for publication, and without further reflection I was misled, and thought that a copy of the Address was furpublic that what was furnished, was not the Address, only some quotations mean any harm by it. Mr. Norris, the Herald's correspondent, was deceived the same way. He evidently still thinks that the address was published. Will somebody tell him that the address was left out.

I object to G. W. S's ethics. It is not right to steal from a thief. If Titcomb did rob Robinson, that does not authorize any one to plunder Titcomb. I was not an old Whig Editor to-day very important news from the for fifteen years. I am not back-door Editor to the Globe. I am PETER PINDAR.

> Messrs Editors :- If you can find Messrs Editors:—If you can find to bear upon the only gun which has given us any trouble, our shots falling over and around it with every prosletters, you will greatly oblige the la-

MARTINSBURG, VA., April 26, '62. Mrs. J. Geo. MILES, Sec. Sold's Aid

DEAR MADAM :- Your box of sanitary goods was duly received, and, I trust, fully appreciated, and your kindedged on the part of the suffering solmated them in common with the women of our State, in furnishing suphour of conflict, will nerve brave hearts and describing the censure of this House. the honor of a roble State to sustain, she is proud to represent, or upon the cause in which we are engaged. * * *

Yours, Very respectfully, G. F. Hoor, Surgeon 84th Regt. Penna. Vols.

HEADQUARTERS COURT HOUSE HOSPITAL, WINCHESTER, VA., April 26, 1862. MADAM :-- In behalf of the sick and THE CAPTURE OF FORT MACON. wounded of the 110th Reg. Penn. Vol., I tender thanks to the ladies of the son of Mr. Henry Davis. As neither them difficult, they were rendered doubly valuable, and enabled us to add when the difficult them difficult, they were rendered doubly valuable, and enabled us to add when the difficult them difficult. The preparations for the bombard-ment of Fort Macon were complete on Wednesday night, but the order to fire who had been connected with the organizations. interesting to our readers. We will be pleased to hear from the brave but a slight expression of the gratified awakened in the hearts of the everything of news to gratify our readers.

We invite our friends, and the public generally, to call and examine our sick and wounded of Penna. Regts.

The order was given to evacuate the sinch mortar batteries followed, and the firing on our side at lowed, and continued until its picces were silenced by salvos of three or four at a time, until four o'clock in the afternoon, when a white flag was lial been constructed.

He states that the rebels evacuated once became regular and uninterrupted. "The fort replied with the first gun at six o'clock, and continued until its picces were silenced by salvos of three or four at a time, until four o'clock in the afternoon, when a white flag was losted."

The order was given to evacuate dowing to the near approach of our men. That they feared the six o'clock, and continued until its picces were silenced by salvos of three or four at a time, until four o'clock in the afternoon, when a white flag was losted.

The order was given to evacuate the owing the immense large works of our men. That they feared the six o'clock, and continued until its picces were silenced by salvos of three or four at a time, until four o'clock in the success of the Union gunboats in the six o'clock, and continued until its picces were silenced by salvos of three or four at a time, until four o'clock in the success o sick and wounded of Penna Routs. new stock of goods. We are deter- were taken to Phila by Surgeon Gen.

Very Respectfully Yours,

Surgeon 110th Reg. P. V., and in charge Court House Hospital.

CHICAGO SANITARY COMMISSION ROOMS, 1 New Dress.—The Brownsville Times | assortment of Hospital stores. Such signed. | signed. | "The garrison surrendered as priso-We send you a report of our Committee | commander of the fort. est you.

Yours respectfully, E. W. BLATCHFORD, Secy. Chicago San. Com. Сикласо, April 29, 1862.

LADIES :- On the 9th of April I left nere with some 60 others, sent by the Chicago Sanitary Commission, to Pitts-burg Landing, Tenn., to assist the wounded. Part of us returned on the steamer, John J. Roc, with 582 woundserve that you have no correspondent from this place. As I am now attend of the stores, I could not but notice the name of your Society on some a brief account of its acco a brief account of its operations at this woolen stockings, and with pleasure I time might be of interest to some of can assure you, that your labors were duly appreciated, and with tears in their eyes, our wounded soldiers thanked the ladies of the North for their kind remembrance.

Yours truly, S. H. SMITH.
To the ladies of the Soldiers' Aid Society of Huntingdon, Pa.

watch over that gun. In fact it is a "

tured gun.' Рнотовкари Albums-new and improved styles-just received and for General Sherman's Command-

sale at Lewis' Book Store

WAR NEWS

Brilliant Affair in Alabama.

BRIDGEPORT, Ala., April 29.—Genl litchell attacked the force of General E. Kirby Smith at this point this afernoon, and after half an hour's shel by of the Address was fur-reply. G. W. S. informs the killed and a large number wounded. Three hundred prisoners and two not the Address, only some quotations pieces of artillery were taken. The from Titcomb, which were made the rebels fled across the bridge, burning a foundation of the remarks—only the span beyond the Island, abandoning text. Surely, this explains the whole arms and supplies, and cutting off matter. If I was misled, I did not their advance, which had been flanked.

FROM YORKTOWN

The Ball Opening.—A Heavy Artillery Fight.—Bursting of One of the Rebels Big Guns.—Crisis Approaching

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY ог тие Ротомас, Мау 2-2 o'clock P. M. The rebels opened this morning with their rifled columbiads, 68-pounders, placed on the heights of Yorktown.
Our No. 1 battery of 100 and 200ounder Parrott guns was then brought ect of its being dismounted. charge the enemy's gun burst into a thousand pieces, tearing up the parapet and making havoc with the crowd which was collected around it at the

No less than ten persons were standing on the parapet, within six feet of it, besides those who were hid from it, besides those who were hid from horse artillery in pursuit, supported by infantry. I move Gen. Franklin's

About 100 shots were fired by our to daring deeds, and to deal to traitors guns up to 2 o'clock this afternoon.

About 12 o'clock to-day a rebel

Union men and Democrats. Of those as to bring a reproach upon the State was pievented by a few shots from our hundred-pounder Parrott gun. The rebels kept up a continuous fire all last night on our men in the trenches. The weather is again pleasant. If it work laid out is approaching completion!

should continue, you can look out for startling news from this quarter, as the

NEW YORK, May 3 .- The New York

"General Burnside arrived on Thursmined to please everybody with good and useful articles. Our stock of fancy, necessary comforts and conveniences, our batteries dismounted thirteen guns beat. We have also received, in additendency to promote their welfare, in the most effective manner. "Of 1100 shot and shell thrown at the fort, 560 struck the work. "The guns of the fort were worked with skill and courage, but the sand-hills afforded a complete protection to our men. The hoisting of the white flag was followed by a conference with column. The Hollidaysburg AccomApril 26, 1862.

Madam :—We greatly thank your between Hollidaysburg and this place, on Monday. The train arrives at 12:50 our poor sick and wounded soldiers, in surrender of the fort was communicative. the shape of a box containing a good | ted to Gen. Barnside, and in the mornassortment of Hospital stores. Such ing, the articles of agreement were came to us last week in an entire new dress, which makes a decided improvement in the looks of the paper. Rob. must be making it pay these hard times. We wish him all the success placed in judicious hands, so that the juriposes of the donors shall be attained. Imaginable.

"concerning supplies sent to Pittsburg Landing," which, we think, will interder, and shot and shell in proportion, and 400 stand of arms, etc., were taken.
"General Burnside, in a General Order, congratulating General Parke en his victory, announces that the name of 'Fort Macon' be inscribed on the colors of the Fourth and Fifth Rhode Island, and the Eighth Connecticut regiments.

"The command of the Fort was offered to Captain Morris, of the First Artillery, after the surrender, but declined, and Colonel Rodman, of the Fourth Rhode Island, was placed in chargo.'

eneral Prentiss' Command .-- Killed. not disembark.

Total killed, wounded and missing......13,763 About three hundred of the wor Our burial parties report that benot intend visiting us to-day. tween twenty five hundred and three THE LATEST. thousand rebels have been found dead

YORKTOWN EVACUATED!

The United States Troops Now in Possession.

d have since died.

on the field.

Large Number of Cannon and Great Quantities of Camp Equipage Taken. FORTRESS MONROE, May 4 .- Yorkwn was evacuated by the rebels last night, and our troops now occupy the enemy's works. A large amount of camp oquipage and guns, which they could not destroy for fear of being seen, were left behind.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE Potomac, May 4-9 o'clock, A. M. Very soon, on its twenty-third dis- To Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary > guns, ammunition, camp equipage, etc., and hold the entire line of his works, which the engineers report as being very strong.

>
> I have thrown all my cavalry and division and as much more as I can by water up to West Point to-day. No time shall be lost. Our gunboats have gone up York river. I omitted to state that Gloucester is also in our possession. I shall pursue the enemy to the wall.

Major General HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE Ротомас, Мау 4, 1862. This morning, at five o'clock, your correspondent entered the enemy's works, which the rear of their army leserted four hours before. Everything was found to be in utter confusion, as though they had left in great haste. Between forty and fifty pieces of heavy artillery have been left n their works after being spiked together with a large amount of ammunition, medical stores, camp equipage, tents, and the private property of their

G. B. McClellan,

A negro, who was left in the town. states that the rebels threw a large amount of ordinance stores into the river to prevent their falling into our hands. Several deserters have succeeded in who had been connected with the or-

Gen. Magruder is said to have most strenuously opposed the measure, sta-ting that if they could not whip the Federals here there was no other place n Virginia where they could, and that he swore in the presence of his men, who vociferously cheered him. losing complete control of himself. Gen. Robert E. Lee, the Commanderin-Chief, arrived in Yorktown on Wednesday, and minutely examined the works of McClellan, when he is supposed to have recommended the abandonment of the works, deeming them untenable. The descriers all agree in stating that their troops were very much de-moralized and dissatisfied when the order was made public, as they all anticipated having an engagement at this point. They also agree in the up with the enemy's rear guard in statement that the rebels had 100,000 their entrenchments about two miles how such warfare has been conducted ingshot at him, which they did, wound-of field artillery. they have fallen back to Chickahominy the ground, and I presume carried his crown the honor to report that they creek, beyond Williamsburg, where it work through. I have not yet heard. examined a number of witnesses, whose expected they will make a stand. Immediately on the facts becoming sisting of cayalry, artillery and infant-

Pittshung Landing, May 2.—A general order was issued yesterday, transferring Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Ohio to the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Ohio to the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Ohio to the army of Tennessee, and Major General Thomas's Division from the army of Ohio to the army of Ohio

Inside the fortifications, and along the Williamsburg road, they have buried torpedoes and percussion shells, which are occasionally exploding and mans from a Louistana Regiment Debuilding, and left, without sustenance or covering, to sleep on the bare floor. It was only when faint, and without Ricketts. He himself, while in prison, subsisted mainly upon what he purnent officers, all agreed as to the evac- ters.

nation except Gen. Magruder

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE) Potomac, May 4—evening. \\
It is certain that the rebels received \| Escape of Jeff. Davis' Coachman. \| of Corporal Prescott, of our regiment, and said that the man must die if it inforcements by steamer, from Richmond, on Thursday last, but they did

FORTRESS MONROE, May 4.-The derriniaç made her appearance beyond Sewall's Point at one o'clock to-day .-She stopped off the Point, and up to 4 o'clock has not changed her location She is not attended by any other gunboats as usual, and it is supposed does Baltimore, May 5.—10 A. M.—The Fortress Monroe boat has just arrived, bringing the following interesting in-

One Mile beyond Yorktown, Sunday Morning, 10 o'clock, A. M.—All day yesterday the rebels kept up a hot fire Porter's division but hurt no one.-

of War:

We have the enemy's ramparts, their carry all remaining spiked and dismounted. By the side of the river down on Richmond.

Davis remarked that he thought it was so, but to all his appeals, they continued to

A rear guard was left, who waited for our appearance, and then left in the greatest haste.

Lest before Yorktown, so that if it was nkey to be unsuccessful, he would have time to extricate his army from the peninsula, and get them into Richmond and out of Virginia, he would all be cought.

Wounded to drink. As there was obliged to crawl on his hands and knees to avoid stepping on their wounded limbs; and, he adds, n the Fort and in the rear.

Reports concur in saying that they have a mob of about one hundred thousand men, ill fed, dirty, and disheart-Johnson, Lee, and Magrader were all in Yorktown on Saturday holding council of war.

We push on with the advance. We hope to catch them to-night, or at least to demoralize their rear with our The roads from our encampment t calculated to explode as cavalry and artillery pass over them. The order was given to evacuate by General Johnston, on Thursday, to o'clock this morning.

The large guns of the rebels were the following morning. It is reported that the last man Norfolk Navy Yard. Some of them had been quite recently mounted, the

THE VERY LATEST. The Rear Guard of the Rebels the War:

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The follow-

Overtaken.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE Ротомас, May 4-7 P. M. War:

Our cavalry and horse artillery came in their military service, against the men on the Peninsula, with 400 pieces this side of Williamsburg. A brush by said savages. of field artillery.

From the best information received Smith's division of infantry arrived on tained in this resolution, your commit-The enemy's rear is strong, but I have force enough up there to answer

Mr. Nathaniel F. Parker, who was Yorktown, and are now shelling the shore on their way up. Following them is a large steamer and vessels up the rebels. The rebels have been Tibbitts, of the New York Twenty-From Gen. Halleck's Army.

CAIRO, May 2.—The news from Pittsburg I anding is of the highest importance, but its transmission over the wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires is prohibited.

Pittsburg O And May 2.—A gen
Wires of the Mew York Twenty
By Carredo And Wires on Magruder swore he was not within the abandoued works, near springs, near flag staffs, on the New York Twenty Wires of the Megiment, shot as he was become the wells, near springs, near flag staffs, on the Story of the Meyer and bary wells, near springs, near flag staffs, on the New York Twenty Wires of the Meyer And Beauregard, and bary wells, near springs, near flag staffs, on the New York Twenty Wires of the Meyer And Story of the Meyer An Advance of General Halleck. Daily Skirmishing—Four Hundred Ger-

FROM THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

His Report of Conversation Between Davis and Other Principal Rebels .- Interesting Particulars.—Mrs. Davis cessionist came through the room and Admits the Southern Confederacy said, "They are operating upon one of Admits the Southern Confederacy said, "They are operating upon one of "About Played Out."—President Dativis' Duds Packed Ready to Leave.—

up and found that they had cut off A General Smash Up Expected.

Washington, May 5 .- The following statement has reached Washington. It is contained in a letter dated yesterday on the Rappahannock.
A colored man came in to-day from the other side of the river and reported himself as Jeff Davis' coachman.

From an examination of him this appears to be the truth. He reports scraps of conversation which he overheard whilst driving Mr. and Mrs. Davis in the carriage, and between Mrs. Davis and those who came to see her. Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retretter from Mrs. Program Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retretter from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retretter from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retretter from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retretter from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Gen. J. E. Johnston had some heated discussions about the latter's retreated from Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Da Our Parrott gun at Farnholt Court House occasionally answered them all last evening, and up to twelve o'clock a lively firing was kept up.

About 3, A. M., a building in York-town was fired and Prof. Lowe and Gen. Heintzleman went up and found it was their storehouse, at Yorktown wharf.

Some heated discussions about the latter's return from Mannssas, Davis disapproving of treat from Mannssas, Davis disapproving of the measure. He had ordered a stand to be made at Gordonville which Johnston declined to do and offered to resign. He was even indisposed to go to Yorktown. Mrs. Davis and disposed to go to Yorktown. Mrs. Davis be unwilling to go and help Gen. Magruder.

The coachman overheard the conversation between Gen. Johnston and Davis' wife, the did not survive." Corporal Prescott was a young man of high position; and had received a very liberal education wharf.

At daylight they reported the forts empty. At 7 o'clock, A. M., we occupied Yorktown without again being fired upon. We rode through the works and found the enemy's guns nearly all remaining spiked and dismounted. By the side of the river battery were large piles of ammunition and powder, balls and shells never having been used.

All of our gunboats came up at nine o'clock and landed some marines at Gloucester, who raised the United States flag amid cheering that could be heard across the river.

A rear guard was left, who waited for our appearance and then left in come as they are half starved.

The Bank and Government property are all packed up to be moved to Danville, near the North Carolina line. Gen. Johnson did not think the rebels would succeed at Yorktown. The coachman overheard an officer any, ccived none of the attention from the "that if they failed at Yorktown and surgeons on the other side, "which," Orleans they would leave Virginia."

Report of the Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War. Yorktown are laid with torpedoes, calculated to explode as cavalry and artillery pass over them.

The Rebels Worse than Savages...The Atrocities They Committed upon Our Dead and Wounded at Manassas...

They Torture the Wounded, Burn the Dead, and use their Skulls for Drink-The Joint Committee on the Conderrick's ropes, &c., remaining with duct of the Present War made the following report to-day, in the Senate:--- of the United States adopted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Conduct of Previous to leaving for Richmond, and Resolved, That the Select Committee on the Conduct of the War be di-rected to collect the evidence with rerected to collect the evidence with regard to the barbarous treatment by gard to the barbarous treatment by women, gloating over the horrid sight. ing has been received at the War De gard to the barbarous treatment by of officers and soldiers of the United of officers and soldiers of the United the States killed in battle there; and that the New York regiments, is montioned the said select committee also inquire by Dr. Swalm. When getting into States killed in pattie there; and the said select committee also inquire his ambulance to look after his own Fo Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of into the fact whether the Indian savages have been employed by the rebels,

Immediately on the facts becoming known the troops were ordered under arms, and are new in motion from the right and left wing of the army. A guns, large amounts of tents, ammunification, etc:

| A continuous facts becoming the troops were ordered under all purposes. | Captured at Falling Waters, Virginia, testifies that he was kept in close confinement, denied exercise, and, with a number of others, huddled up in a continuous factor. | Mr. Nathaniel F. Parker, who was captured at Falling Waters, Virginia,
This was on Sunday, the day of the All along the lines their works prove room; that their food, generally scant, was General James B. Ricketts, well ry, are on the advance and will probably come up with the rear of the enemy before night, if they remain near Williamsburg.

The gunboats have passed above Torktown, and are now shelling the greatest importance.

Williamsburg to have been most formidable, and I was always bad, and sometimes nause-ous; that the wounded had neither medical attention nor humane treatment, and that many of these latter died from sheer neglect; that five of the greatest importance.

Williamsburg treatment works prove room; that their food, generally scant, was defined a salways bad, and sometimes nause-ous; that the wounded had neither medical attention nor humane treatment, and that many of these latter died from sheer neglect; that five of the greatest importance.

Williamsburg treatment works prove the work of the country, lately promoted for his medical attention nor humane treatment. After having been wounded in the died from sheer neglect; that five of the prisoners were shot by the sentire.

Williamsburg treatment works prove the country, lately promoted for his daring and self-sacrificing courage.—

After having been wounded in the died from sheer neglect; that five of the prisoners were shot by the sentire. the greatest importance.

There shall be no delay in following outside, and that he saw one man, party of rebels passing him, cried out, when the rebels passing him, which are occasionally exploding and injuring persons.

Gen. Johnston's baggage has just been captured.

An official report just made to head quarters, shows that the enemy left seventy-one guns in the works at Gloucester' Point. The ordinance stores ware also left.

Another deserter has just come in and reports that Jeff Davis came with Gen. Lee on Wednesday last, and after a consultation with the most prominent officers, all agreed as to the evacuations are consultation with the most prominent officers, all agreed as to the evacuation of the most prominent officers, all agreed as to the evacuation of the most prominent officers, all agreed as to the evacuation of the most prominent officers, all agreed as to the evacuation of the most prominent of the most p some of them were absolutely fright. In one instance two were shot; one ful." "When," he adds, "I asked Dr. was killed, and the other wounded by Darby to allow me to amoutate the leg ere not done, he told me that I should be allowed to do it." While Doctor Homiston was waiting he says a So-Prescott's leg. The assistants were pulling on the flesh at each side, trying to get flap enough to cover the bone. They had sawed off the bone without leaving any of the flesh to form the flaps to cover it; and with all the force they could use they could not get flap enough to cover the bone .-They were then obliged to saw off about an inch more of the bone, and was a young man of high position; and had received a very liberal education.

for our appearance, and then left in the greatest haste.

We conversed with two desorters who left their regiment in Williams-burg at daylight. They say that they whole rebel army is in a panic.

Professor Lowe's balloon was run in front, and found their rear gand at 9 o'clock, A. M., four miles out.

The boats all then left, and at this moment are running up the York rivers, shelling both sides of the river. A number of mines have been prepared for our troops, by placing percussion shells under ground in the roadways and entrances to the fort.

No white folks are to be found, a few megro women and babics only being seen.

Thour in abundance was left and a large quantity of meat, salt and fresh. All their tents have been left but no lorses or wagons were seen.

It is aw a number of the shells fired from our Parrott guns lying all around in the Fort and in the rear.

Remorts concur in saying that they is the great and a large quantity of meat salts and fresh from our Parrott guns lying all around in the Fort and in the rear.

Remorts concur appearance, and then they would all be caught. The coachman represents that Mrs. Davis guid the night. They say that they wold all be caught. The coachman represents that Mrs. Davis was about played out. That if New Orleans was about played out. That if New Orleans was really taken she all of confederate was apeauly taken she all of confederate was peauly taken she all of the neath of the neather, and that they and the other, and that they and the other non-cotton growing States. She also said to Mrs. D. R. Jones, daughter in the matter, and that they and the other no erate note for a purchase. Many of the off and interred decently. In answer Richmond people wish the Union troops to to a question whether the Confederates > ceived none of the attention from the have shown to them had our position been reversed." The testimony of William F. Swalm, assistant surgeon of the Fourteenth New York regiment, who was taken prisoner at Sudley's Church, confirms the statement of Dr Homiston in resticks, Finger-Rings, &c.--Horrible Detail of the Brutish Cruelties Practised > poral Prescott. He also states that after he himself had been removed to Riehmond, when seated one day with Richmond, when seated one day with his feet on the window-sill, the sentry outside called to him to take them in. and on looking out he saw the sentry with his musket cocked and pointed at him, and withdrew in time to save his On the first day of April the Senate life. He gives evidence of the careless, heartless, and cruel manner in which ten or twelve days after the battle, he The case of Dr. Ferguson, of one of wounded he was fired upon by the rebels. When he told them who he was, they said they would take a parting him in the leg. He had his boots on, and his spurs on his boots, and as they drove along, his spurs would catch in the tail-board of the ambulance, causing him to shrick with agony." An officer rode up, and, placing his pistol to his head, threatened to

>

One of the most important witnesses helpless and painful condition, and stripped of every article of his clothsuffering for water, he was brutally re-fused. They offered him neither water nor anything in the shape of food. He and his companions stood in the streets of Manassas, surrounded by a threatening and boisterous crowd and threatening and threatening and boisterous crowd and threatening and threatening and threatening and threatening and threa mans from a Louisiana Regiment De- were afterwards thrust into an old ing manner. The statement of other