Semi-Meekly Globe

WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. A. TYHURST, Associate Editor.

TERMS.—"The Globe" is published twice a week at $1.50 a year—75 cents for six months—50 cents for three months—in advance.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Thursday afternoon, May 22, 1862.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the incli nation, to dun personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing. We shall, therefore, from day to day, without respect to persons, place into the hands of a Justice for collection, all accounts of over two years standing. All those who wish to save expense, will do well to give [From the Newbern Progress, May 16.]

A Suggestion.—We notice in our exchanges that meetings have been held in several county towns, and committees appointed to inquire after and consumptions. tees appointed to inquire after and see and burden which has been imposed to the wants of sick and wounded soldiers. As this county has hundreds of burned so brightly at Alamance and been relieved from guarding the lower mediately to look after the sick and with an increasing brilliancy upon the wounded, and if advisable, have them brought home at the expense of the brought. It is asking too much off the county. It is asking too much off the We trust that this may prove the harimmediate friends of the brave young binger of better days, and that bright men, to expect them to give their last prospects are ahead for our beloved dollar for the cause. Every citizen of Washington, and direct from Ral the county has an interest in the cause.

We suggest that a meeting be held at The arrest of Mayor Respess, the Court House on Saturday evening Washington, N. C., who was seized in RICHMOND TAKEN!

We have the glorious news by the Harrisburg Morning Telegraph of this reported,) backed by the Convention morning that Gen. McClellan has taken RICHMOND. We cannot expect to delivery of the person of Mayor Resget any particulars before to morrow pess, who was kept in close confine-or next day. We hope Davis, his Cabinet, and his Congress, have been taken prisoners, BOROUGH COUNCIL.—The following Standing Committees of the Council for the present year, have been appointed by Chief Burgess Benedict, viz : -Finance-Graffus Miller, H. K. Neff, Public Property-Wm. B. Zeigler Alex. Carmon, J. H. O. Corbin. Streets-Edmund Snare, Benjami Grafius, Graffus Miller. Vice and Immorality - Francis B Wallace, R. M. Speer, Robert King.

William Summers.

By REFERRING to the letter from "Linden" in our army correspondence it will be seen that six of the Huntingcavalry, at Linden Station, Va., while they were guarding some wagons that sage to and through the cotton States, and also for additional troops. Gov. Clark, backed by the Convention, inthem were from this place. Their capture has cast a deep gloom over Co. the aid from North Carolina that he O, 28th Regt., to which they belonged. | could expect, and that hereafter no We hope they may be speedily ex- more troops would be permitted to changed.

CAPT. J. D. CAMPBELL writes home an a letter dated 15th inst., that the In a letter dated 15th inst., that the ing homewards, and that they would 49th Regiment is at Williamsburg, run their own risk of being intercep-Va., waiting the arrival of General ted by a Union force at any part of McDowell's division, when they will the State. proceed to Richmond. As we said before his company, together with Capt Miles', were in the fight at Williams burg and fought bravely.

A BEAUTIFUL BOQUET.-We received this morning from Miss Kate Cunningham, a magnificent boquet of the choicest flowers. Nothing is so beautiful to our eye as a handsome boquet especially when presented to us by our little lady friends. Miss Kate will please accept our thanks.

To THE PUBLIC.—Thomas Tweed has TO THE PUBLIC.—Thomas Tweed has cessary, to impress all the arms now batteries situated on a bluff.

The fight will be renewed.

The fight will be renewed. ready for planting: Tomatoes, Early Cabbage, Beat, Peppers, and Dahlias of every shade and color. Also, young onions for the table. Orders left at the residence of Sheriff Watson, will every citizen to keep and bear arms, receive prompt attention.

A MAMMOTH MONITOR.-A Wash ington dispatch says that Capt. Ericsson has planned a large seagoing Monin weight.

that the "pension bill," recently passed and of selling to the State all the arms, by the House, will draw from the trea- be spared. sury not less than $40,000,000 annual-

PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS-new and im proved styles-just received and for sale at Luwis' Book Store

EIGHTY-FOURTH. - The Holli daysburg Register says: we are glad to learn that Gov. Curtin has received authority from the War Department, to recruit a sufficient number of men to fill the Eighty-fourth Penna. (Col. Murray's) Regiment.

THE recent rains have aided greatly and rapidly in their growth.

THE B. T. R. R. Co. have nearly stand for a great many years. Mr. Rhule is the builder.

SEVERAL cars filled with Indiana soldiers passed through here yesterday and this morning. It is said their time of enlistment having expired, they are returning home,

A Full Stock.—A full stock of 1862 styles of Wall Paper on hand at Lewis' Book Store.

Fine Cigars and Tobacco for sale at Lewis' Book Store. non An assortment of Card Photographs at Lewis' Book Store.

Glorious News from the Old North State.

the night time in the most summary manner and hurried off to Richmond in irons, is creating a most intense excitement in the State. The Governor of the State, (who is not in prison, as sent a peremptory demand to the Rich-mond authorities for the immediate ment. His trial was in progress when they received the demand, and the authorities at Richmond informed the committee sent by Governor Clark Richmond that the person of the may or must be delivered up forthwith, oth erwise North Carolina would send a zens are preparing to give him an ova-tion. This committee was also in-At first, the shot of the rebel guns structed to, and did, deliver an order to the Virginia chivalry that North citizens must be taken out of the State. In connection with this matter we also learn that J. Davis, a few days since ordered Gov. Clark to furnish don county boys were taken by rebel them all the means of transition and defence possible to aid them in the pas-formed him that he had received all leave the State, and has ordered all the North Carolina State troops home. Gov. Clark informed the rebels that they could use the railroads in retreata piece of the flying metal. We are happy to learn that he is not seriously

Governor Clark, of North Carolina, Opposes the Act of the Rebel Military Authorities.

The above information comes from a member of the Convention.

From the Raleigh, N. C., Standard, April 26.1 State of North Carolina, Executive Department, Raleigh, April 15, 1862. -By an advertisement in the public for Fortress Monroe. papers, signed W. S. Ashe, you are in-

Any attempt to seize the arms of our citizens is directly at variance lence the rebel forts, and if he can pass and protects the arms of the militia even from execution for debt.

But while I notify you that these agents have no lawful authority to seize your private arms, and you will ahead, no ball yet fired by the enem itor, with a single turret, plated with of self-defence, I must enjoin upon turret. iron 24 inches thick, and armed with you in this expergency, as an act of two guns, carrying a ball 1,000 pounds the highest patriotism and duty, that a trip up the James river yesterday, on you should discover to the proper State authorities all public arms, mus-kets or rifles, within your knowledge, and of selling to the State all the arms, the property of individuals which can be spared.

The colonels of the several regiments

The colonels of the several regiments THE PENSION BILL.—It is estimated kets or rifles, within your knowledge, ly. It will be reported from the com- will act as agents for the State, and the upon certain dignitaries hereabouts mittee to the Senate materially modi. will notify me whenever such arms are recovered or offered to them. Their ompt and earnest attention is called to the execution of this order.

HENRY T. CLARK. Governor ex officio April 18, 1862

WAR NEWS.

From General McClellan's Army. The Troops in Motion Toward Rich-

WHITE HOUSE, May 19 .- The army The recent rains have aided greatly commenced moving at an early hour in bringing up the plants, and in mathia morning in the direction of Richking the trees look fresh, green and mond and will encamp some miles in beautiful. The crops, both fruit and vegetable, are also advancing finely road bridge over the Chickahominy yesterday. It is a long trussel bridge, two spans only of which are burned. It can be rebuilt in a very short time. completed a bridge across the canal at The enemy's pickets are guarding this place. It is, so far, strongly and the whole line of the river in front of neatly built, and looks as if it would Richmond making it very difficult to and tribunals, and to suspend the writ obtain any information from that city. Gen. McClellan went on a reconnoisthe programme of operations in front of Richmond will soon be decided upon. From Gen. Banks' Command.

Disbandment of Rebel Cavalry .- For mation of Guerilla Bands.

STRASBURG, May 19 .- It is currently reported and credited in military circles that 2,900 rebel cavalry attached to the different commands have been disbanded and formed into Guerille bands, occupying the various moun tain ranges and fastnesses. Gen. Geary a few days since learned that one of these bands was in a cave five miles from Rectortown, and made arrangements to surround and capture On reaching the cave he ascer-The information which we give below is gratifying to the lover of his country. North Carolina at last begins to awake to the fact that T

Gen. Geary has been ordered to re watch every opportunity to shoot and capture our pickets and foraging parties. Their familiarity with the mountain defiles and passes enables them to elude pursuit.

Bombardment of Richmond.

The City Defended by Works Eight Mile

Long, Mounted with the Most Approved Ordinance. FORTRESS MONROE, May 19-P. M. The Stevens battery, known as the Naugatuck, has just arrived here from the scene of action in front of Richmond, and I have some interesting details of the important operations of Commodore Rodger's fleet in the upper waters of the James river. It seems that our iron-clad sloon-ofwar Galena proceeded up the river, leading the fleet, and silonced the many and that their necks may be stretched that there were a few more witnesses minor batteries that lined the shore, in the most public place in Richmond.—

to appear in the case, and that they desired to complete the trial. The below Richmond, where there is a bluff, committee informed the authorities at upon which a series of strong batter. ies have been constructed up to the rolled off the sides of the Galena, making only dents in her mail, but grad-Carolina was capable of managing her own affairs, and that no more of her found that the stell pointed balls used found that the steel-pointed balls used quence. by the rebels were piercing her. Thirty shots struck her and lodged, whilst two went entirely through her, tumbling out on the other side. A shell burst in the Galena during accident did not dishearten the brave on their way. Capt. Rodgers and his crew. They fought on until dark, and until their The Latest from McClellan's ammunition had nearly given out.

The Naugatuck wasably handled by Captain Constable, but after firing seve magnificent shots, her splendid bow gun burst, killing two men and wound-ding three others, including Capt. Con-stable, who was struck in the head by

A flaw was discovered in the metal, and this was, no doubt, the cause of the

Licut. Morris, in command of the gunboat Port Royal, and late of the Chickahominy, which at that point with a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or with a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or with a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a very warm reception I assure with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a warm iron, and may be put or which with a warm iron, and which wit Commodore Rodgers was wounded painfully, but not seriously, in the left

These are all the casualities heard To THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA: of up to the sailing of the Naugatuck

The slaughter among the rebels in med that he will appoint and send the batteries is said to have been teragents through every county in the rible, although they had the advan-State to borrow, purchase, and, if ne-The fight will be renewed shortly when Commodore Rodgers hopes to si-

> A mortar boat was greatly needed during the action, as with it the bat-teries could have been taken quiet

The Monitor was at last account the steamer Baltimore, as far as James ames river to renew the fight as soon

The reports from Gen. McClellan's All quiet here and at Norfolk.

Departure of Hon. Edward Stanley, Military Governor of North Caroline WASHINGTON, May 20 .- The Hon.

Edward Stanley is on the eve of de-parture for North Carolina. He today received his commission as Military Governor of that State. He is invested with the powers, duties and functions of that station, including the power to establish all necessary offices of habeas corpus during the pleasure of the President or until the loyal inance to the Chickahominy to-day and habitants shall organize a State government in accordance with the Constitution of the United States. His powers are exactly similar to those with which Gov. Johnson, of Tennossec, is invested. LATER.

THE DOINGS OF GEN. BUTLER.

A REBEL ACCOUNT. CAIRO, May 20 .- The Memphis Ap peal of the 15th, contains the follow ing dispatch, addressed to the rebel eretary of State, dated Camp Moore, May 11th: Gen. Butler yesterday took forcible ferred by the Citizens' Bank to Hosse's for the payment of the interest on the Confederate bonds.

Gen. Butler also took possession of the offices of the French and Spanish Consulates in the old Canal Bank, and placed a gnard there. He also seized the Canal Bank and Smith's Bank, and has issued an inflammatory proclamation, to cite the poor against the rich, promising to distribute among them a thousand barrels of the beef and sugar captured in New Orleans.

He is recruiting in New Orleans.-The poor will soon be starved.
"The enemy sent a force up to Bonne Carre, which are marched through the stamps and destroyed the railroad bridge.'

The despatch is not signed

From Gen. Halleck's Army.

THE CONFLICT APPROACHING.

The army is advancing slowly. The story about soveral rebel regishore. One soldier was wounded.

been issued expelling all newspaper deep ravines and high mountains. verized weed is made into little ball correspondents from the camp, a number of them determined to withdraw entirely from the vicinity, while a few concluded to remain.

| Definition of the summit of the sum also be put on bread and butter, or in honey, molasses, &c. The Rev. Henry Muhlenberg said that in Ger-

Army. Tunstall's Station, Va., May 21.-The enemy's pickets were driven across Bottom's bridge yesterday, by the The rebels numbered not less than four through which the late Doctor William troops advancing in that direction. The revels attempted to regain the post by the use of their artillery, but zens estimated them at six hundred, failed. Our batteries opened, sighting commanded by Liout, Col. Munsford. The advance under Gen. Stoneman the woods each side of the bridge. reached New Bridge yesterday, with-in eight miles of Richmond, but found The country in that locality is in a good state of cultivation, with fewer less we leave this. I understand to-swamps than are to be found in ordi-day, that Genl. Shields met this same then it is dried. To each pound of the control of the tillery were found posted on the opposite bank, but his purpose not being to bring on an engagement, he returned one mile from the bridge and encamped. During the time we were driving the enemy out, one man was killed and three wounded. The whole army moved this morning early with a view of making a with our Constitution, and in opposition to the declared policy of the Government, which makes it the duty of take the city. lan's headquarters to-night will be within a short distance of Richmond,

> If they intend to give the Union forces battle, which is almost univer-

> > LATEST.

GLORIOUS NEWS

or of Gen. McClellan's dispatches yesarmy to day place his advance within ten miles of Richmond, and he is movcorrectness of the above. We hope to be able, in our afternoon edition, to A Brave Woman Kills a Scoundrel give full particulars.—Ed. Telegraph.

Our Army Correspondence.

LINDEN STATION, MANASSAS GAP RAILROAD, Warren county, Va., May 17, 1862.

the welfare of the soldiers from Hunmittance, which was of course refused, tingdon county, who will be glad to hear from us, I will give you a little news.

| Mitthing was of county was of county to the principle of the period was of county to t I suppose you have heard before alarm, and he ran off. The landlord this time of the capture of ten of our of the hotel then gave Mrs. Kendrick alarm, and he ran off. The landlord of the capture of ten of our men by the febel cavalry at this station. We have been, for some three or four weeks back, laying at Piedmont Station, about ten miles cast of this, guarding the bridge and railroad. On Tuesday afternoon, (May 14), we received orders from Brig, Genl. Geary to proceed to Linden Station, take possession and guard the railroad, to prevent the destruction or impeding of the operations of the railroad; sending the company wagons with a guard by the road and that transportation would be furnished to the company by the railroad. On Wednesday morning we sent the wagons with a guard by railroad. On Wednesday morning we sent the wagons with a guard by the road on Wednesday morning we sent the wagons with a guard of fourteen men under command of Sergeant McCabe; there being no danger along the route being no danger along the route being no danger along the route of the wagons, but, unfortunate by the train that was to bring us up and the day of the wagons, but, unfortunate by the train that was to bring us up and a half before the company. In bout half an hour after their arrival they were suddenly surprised by seeing Rebel cavalry coming in on them from almost every direction, from off the mountains. Scrept McCabe and the control of the mountains. Scrept McCabe and the control of the mountains. Scrept McCabe and the control of the control of the mountains. Scrept McCabe and the control of the contr possession of the office of the Consul of the Netherlands, searched the person of the Consul, and took from him the key of a bank vault in which there was detained some two hours, they are season and which had been trans. Bank of Amsterdam, and was intended about half an hour after their arrival from almost every direction, from off the mountains. Sergt. McCabe and private Joseph Madison happened to the mountains. Scrgt. McCabe and private Joseph Madison happened to be a short distance from the depot, and not having time to rejoin their companions through a field up the mountain, with the cavairy after them as fast as their horses would carry them, but they had about two or three hundred yards the start of them and got into the bushes and cluded them. The cavalry hanted through the woods, but the men sat down and looked at them until they left and rejoined their command—Sorgeant McCabe and Madison then pushed on toward Markham where Sergeant McCabe and Madison then that any man should thus bring down on pushed on toward Markham, where himself such punishment, Mrs. Ken-The despatch is not signed.

The Vicksburg Citizen of the 12th says that the latest we can learn of the gunboats below is, that they are them and Bayou Tubletween Fort Adams and Bayou Tublet them into the mountain fastnesses with arrived. On her upward trip she was sings from our boys.

fired on by a party of rebels from the The rebels have the advantage of us dose is the same, yet it must be admin She brings no army news of consequence.

The repels have the advantage of us istored at three different times. In mountains so well, while we are perfect applying it to animals, it must be used uponce. An order of Gen. Halleck having in Virginia than in Pennsylvania, into poorer class of Virginia, and consequently not so many slaves. We learned from different sources concerning the surprise of our men, that the rebels came in in three diviby that means surrounded the men be-fore they knew anything about them.

This is said to be the same remedy fore they knew anything about them. hundred cavalry, armed with Minne' rifles and carbines. Some of the citi-It was 2 most cowardly affair on their ly made respecting the mode of put-part and was denounced even by their ting a gloss on linear collars and shirt own men. They would never have at- bosoms like that of new linen. This tempted it if our whole company had gloss, or cnamel as it is sometimes been here, as they would have met called, is produced mainly by friction you. They have not been seen in this linen by almost any person. The lin-official, but only rumor.

leysburg, mortally wounded; Sergeant face with a clean wet cloth. It is then Edwin McCabe, of Huntingdon, and ironed in the usual way with a flat Joseph Madison, of Altoona, escaped; iron, and is ready for the glossing op-Corporal Ephraim Baker, of Spring-field township, slightly wounded, Wm. iron, rounded at the bottom and pol-II. Glazier of Huntingdon, John N. ished as bright as a mirror, is used. It Salkeld of Fulton county, Thomas is pressed firmly upon the linen and White of Huntingdon, Gee. W. Bower-rubbed with much force, and this fricsox of Shirleysburg, Josiah M. Funk tional action puts on the gloss. Elwithin a short distance of Richmond, in front of which is supposed to be encamped the main body of the rebel miles of Tyrone, Samuel Rinard of Turnen up Alays.—Some time since, army. alry, were all taken prisoners.

It is with sorrow that we announce

> Hospital near Rectortown, Va., of ty-phoid fever. When we left he was a wards died and was buried. The body great deal better, but received a back set from want of care on his gwn part, and died in twenty-four hours.
>
> Creek, all the family being satisfied of and died in twenty-four hours. The loss of so many men out of the ranks casts a gloom over the company which is felt very much. The men of gun on board, and proceed up the obtain more particulars of the capture, in fighting the harder when we do but were unable to do so. From the ten- fight, if we ever can get a chance to have a pop at the rebels. The company is in good_health and pretty good Very respectfully, spirits.

LINDEN

rom the Davenport (Iowa) Gazette, May 13. Private letters received in this place give the particulars of an affair which recently happened at Cape Girardeau in which a lady of this city bore an active part. Mrs. Kendrick, wife of Capt. Frank Kendrick, of the Second MESSRS. EDITORS:-As you have not Iowa cavalry, had been staying at a heard from Co. O, 28th Regiment, P. hotel in that village for some time V., for some time, and for the sake of when she was aroused one night by a many friends that are interested in man at her room door, who desired ad-around the house by the commander of the federal forces at the Cape.

then ordered forward as fast as possi- of this kind, there would be far less ble to see if we could not eatch them libertines in the world. still at the station. As we ran into the station the rear guard, four or five in number, were seen leaving at a distance of five hundred yards. Our boys cannot be seen they seem they seem the bite of any kind of mad anishes and they seem the bite of any kind of mad anishes and they seem the bite of any kind of mad anishes and they seem them. Before Corinti, May 20.—There has been skirmishing along the whole line pered off. We were informed by a many faciling the colored man that came in vesterday, to-day, the result of our feeling the enemy's strengh and seeking more advantageous positions. Our losses were small.

The army is advancing slowly.

The story about several rebel registers. States. He only published it from moments attempting to mutiny, and the one company of infantry. We found tives of humanity. This remedy consending of United States forces to their as the station one of our men, corporal asists in the weed called Chick-weed.—

assistance is false.

It has been raining all day, and in the abdomen. He was shot while Germans and Swiss by the names of Market and Swiss and Swiss by the names of Market and Swiss and Swiss by the names of Market and Swiss and Swiss by the names of Market and Swiss and Swiss by the names of Market and Swiss and Swiss and Swiss by the names of Market and Swiss assistance is false.

It has been raining all day, and there is a prospect of a rainy night.

The Nashville Union chronicles the about the relationship of the relation of the relationship of the relationshi Convention. Mr. Respess was delivered over to the committee, and went to Raleigh rejoicing. He was set at liberty and is now on his way home to Washington, where the Union citizens are preparing to give him an ovation. This committee was also interested to another the Red Pimpernel; and its botanical name only restrained by one of the citizens after he had fallen, and the rebels were only restrained by one of the citizens after he had fallen, and the rebels were only restrained by one of the citizens after he had fallen, and the rebels were only restrained by one of the citizens of June, the house of June, he had a several times only restrained by one of the citizens of June, the house of June, the house of June, the house of June, the house of June, the following real extent to him, which ing Circuit Judgo election.

Cairo, May 20.—The steamer Platte Valley, from Pittsburg Janding, has of the west, and banel Price on the season of the man of the season of the man of June, the following real extends to him, which he did with the kindness of a father, of the west, and banel Price on the season of the man of June, the house of the base of June, the house of the base of June, and the rebels were only restrained by one of the citizons after he had fallen, and the rebels were only restrained by one of the citizons of June, the house of the citizons of June, the house of the house of June, the house of the house of the house of June, the house of the house o in beer or water. For children the A shell burst in the Galena during the engagement, which unfortunately concluded to remain.

A portion of the indignant ones have already arrived here, and others are wounded nineteen. But even this sad wounded nineteen. But even this sad wounded nineteen. But even this sad wounded nineteen and others are cleared off and furmed by the proper class of Virginia, and conserved as a day, the first day, then one dose a day for the whole week; while at the same time the wound is washed out with a decoction of the weed, and then the powder strewed in it. Mr. Kettering said that sions, directly off the mountains, and he in all instances administered but

> GLOSSING LINEN.—The ladies be interested in the following from the Scientific American: Inquiry is frequent neighborhood since, nor will not, un- en to be glazed receives as much strong party yesterday, and cut them up very starch a piece of sperm, paraffine or badly—I hope it may be so, it is not white wax, about the size of a walnut is usually added. When ready to be The names of the men are as follows: ironed the linen is laid upon the table Corporal George C. Sneath, of Shir- and moistened very slightly on the sur

Stov effected so many cures.

Stonerstown, and three Michigan Cav- Mr. David Yohe, of Pigeon Creek, Washington county, Pa., went to the battle-field of Fort Donelson and had sally acknowledged, the hour is drawing near when they will have the opof Huntingdon, in the Regimental of Huntingdon, in the Regimental
of Huntingdon, in the Regimental of Huntingdon, in the Regimental morning looking a little troubled after reading Com. Rodgers' private dispatches, which are said to reflect a little upon certain dignitaries hereabouts. Senator Lane, of Indiana, Hon. Jos. Segar and several other Congressmen and distinguished gentlemen from Washington, accompanied by a few Washington, accompanied washington, accompanied by a few Washington, accompanied washington, accompanied

HUNTINGDON MARKETS.

A UDITOR'S NOTICE.—
[Edute of John Beatty, decrated.]
The undersigned Additor appointed by the Court of Common Pleas, of Huntingdon county, to distribute the funds in the hands of M. F. Camphell, Egg., Administra

MICHAL WEYER, GEO. B. PORTER, Executor

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. [Estate of William Stewart, dec'd.]
Letters of Administration upon the estate of WILLIAM STEWART, late of West township, deceased, having May 13, 1862-6t.*

CHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of a iownibip having a cabin house, and about 10 acres care and a state of care and a state of the care and a state of the care and a state of the care. Dated Stumbungh on the panth, Michael J. Martin on the west, and Daniel Price on the cast. Selzad, taken in execution, and to be sold as the property of John Stumbungh and David Stumbungh.

JUHN C. WATSON, Sheriff,

SHERIFF'S OFFICE. } Huntingdon, May 13, 1862. } NEW CONFECTIONERY STORE. JOHN WILSON

Informs the citizens of Huntingdon and vicinity, that he has opened a CONFECTIONERY opposite A. B. Cunningham's store, Hill street, a there he will be pleased to sarve the people with Cakes. Candles, Nuts. Tobacco, Gigars, etc., etc. and everything else usually kept in a country confectionery establishment. ICE CREAM.

If also informs the people that he has fitted up a room a handsome manner, where he will keep constantly or ad ICE CREAM, which he will be pleased to serve out those who favor him with a cull. JOHN WILSON. Huntingdon, May 6, 1862-tf.

BIRD CAGES, FOR SALE AT LEWIS' BOOK AND STATIONERY STORE.

PHOTOGRAPH FRAMES. LARGE AND SMALL, A FINE ASSORTMENT. FOR SALE

AT LEWÍS BOOK AND STATIONERY STORE. PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS

SMALL PORTRAITS

FOR SALE AT LEWIS' BOOK AND STATIONERY STORE THE BEST

STOCK OF FINE STATIONERY. LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, VER RECEIVED IN HUNTINGDON,

CAN NOW BE HAD AT LEWIS' BOOK, STATIONERY AND MUSIC STORE. TASHINGTON NOT TAKEN!!

OUR FLAG STILL WAVES. NEW GOODS!! NEW GOODS!! At Coffee Run Station, and Newburg.

SIMON COHN has just received from the Eastern Citor, a large assortment of MON Cites.

a large assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries,
Queensware, Raviware,
Queensware, Raviware,
Colking, Bonnels, Shawle,
Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes,
Tatty, Caps, Boots, Shoes,
The Stores, Which Mats, cups, Doots, Moots, and all other articles kept in country stores, which he is offering at his Manumoth Stores, at Coffice Run Station and New burg, at unusually low prices. The ludies especially: are invited to call and examine his Fazor Goods.

Maving arrangements with large firms in Philadelphie and other eastern cities, he is able to buy his goods cheaper than other country merchants, and can consequently.