WM. LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor. A. TYHURST, Associate Editor, TERMS.—"The Glone" is published twice a week $1,50 a year—75 cents for six months—50 cents for three months—in advance.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Thursday afternoon, May 29, 1862.

Our Flag Forever.

NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the incliplace into the hands of a Justice for dollars.

Democratic County Committee.

May 29, 1862.

COMMITTEE: Charles C. Ash, Barree. George Eby, Brady. Michael Star. Cromwell Louis Stever, Cass. Joseph S. Reed, Carbon. James Henderson, Cassville. John Carl, Dublin. John Zentmyer, Franklin. D. P. Gwin, J. B. Luden, Graffus Miller, Huntingdon. John Porter, David Wilson, Alexan-

Livingston Robb, Porter Robert Gill, Penn. Joseph Johnston, Petersburg. John B. Weaver, Hopewell. David Hamilton, Tod. Mathew Miller, Jackson. Thos. P. McNite, Shirley J. P. Dunn, Orbisonia. Wm. A. Copely, Birmingham N. K. Covert, Springfield. P. H. Bence, Clay. Alexander McGee, Tell. Robert Wilson, Oneida. Joseph C. Sechler, Mt. Union Jacob H. Miller, Union. John Nail. Walker. William Wray, Warriorsmark. David Barrick, West. Henry Hultzaple, Lower West. R. F. Haslett, Morris. M. J. McKinnon, Shirleysburg.

HEADQUARTERS PENNA. MILITIA, Harrisburg, May 27, 1862. GENERAL ORDER)

Secretary of War, by telegraphic despatch, received this afternoon, that the President will no longer "require any An officer, who could stand as many other troops from Pennsylvania to be attacks from politicians as he has done.

atively to demand their immediate service, no longer exists, and would also for the war. commend the patriotic zeal and alacriand dearling at defigue with the most delicus and the "Yaukee" soldiers. Officers and men are treated alike. They have such a holy horror for the old stars and stripes that they were the soldiers. Officers and men are treated alike. They have such a holy horror for the old stars and stripes that they were the soldiers are soldiers because they are so far above your dear, faithful loge lords, that you know you are never be anything else, in their can never he anything else, in their chable bound and the blue Ridge. We passed that the Blue Ridge. We passed the state could be provisions of this can not not can their death of the day; for which the day; for which the ladies dosver great praise. The table being spread with the most delicus and costly dainties that could be provision which to impart increased vigor and efficiency to the Sabbath Schools, reach the destitutions, and increase the genthedestitutions, and increase the genth destitutions, and increase the genth destitutions and increased vigor and the study made to rations at an on the control of the sab Bright destitutions and increased vigor and the sab Bright destitutions are an on the control of the sab Bright destitutions are an on the sab Bright destitutions.

Camp Near Pamonky River, Va., May 21, 1862. eral interest.

lace; Baptist, R. McDivitt.

House on Wednesday, a Message, in to join on the right instead of the left, which he takes the responsibility of They were then coming up out of a Alex. Cummings and others having hollow and by the time they had got We have not the time nor the inclipation, to dun personally, a large number of persons who have unsettled acnot shoulder the horse and other conshown in Harper's Weekly, and then tracts. Secretary Cameron distributed day to day, without respect to persons, amount of hundreds of thousands of vance on them, firing at the rebs and to save expense, will do well to give and a report published, but we have at the enemy advancing, and then fall

The Democratic County Committee of Huntingdon county, are requested to meet at the Jackson House in the borough of Huntingdon, on Wednesday, June 4th at 10 clock P M. to take the standard, and we must say that June 4th at 10 clock P M. to take the standard, and we were very agreeably diseppointed. June 4th, at 1 o'clock P. M., to take such action as the Committee may determine.

JOHN R. HUNTER,

May 29, 1862.

Chairman.

May 29, 1862.

May 29, 1862. ugly as he was represented. That's not all, either, we found him to be a mighty elever fellow, and we feel under many obligations for the handsome manner in which he entertained us.—

Come to see us and we reill return the smoke blew away that they could see the rebs, those of the 5th N. C. Regiment had nearly all fallen, only a few remained, and after advancing a few yards further they broke and ran in utter confusion without our regiment that the result of the rebel works are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick for hours in the mud, and are subsequently brought out by the vigorous few yards further they broke and ran in utter confusion without our regiment that the result of the rebel works are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick for hours in the mud, and are subsequently brought out by the vigorous of the men. Woods and swertions of the men. Woods and continued the result of the rebel works are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick for hours in the mud, and are subsequently brought out by the vigorous of the men. Woods and swerting are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick for hours in the mud, and are subsequently brought out by the vigorous of the men. Woods and save woodlands intervening prevent dense woodlands in two miles of the rebel works are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick and in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick and in some places.—
The wagons are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick and in some places.—
The wagons are dreadful in some places.—
The wagons and artillery often stick and in some places.—
The w Come to see us and we will return the ment charging as stated in the papers.

was quite high in Alexandria on the reception of Gov. Curtin's Order for three months' men. Some thirty of the business man were walking prepared to shoulder in the first regular field the business men were making prepafight they have been in, and although rations to leave immediately for Washon the right and under a more direct for them, which, however, is never the day changed their programme. Their will shows they are all right.

THE PAPERS say that General McClellan, though struck by a piece The Governor being notified by the of shell at Williamsburg, escaped unin-amend the particle zoal and alacrimanifested in every section of the commonwealth, to meet it be particle zoal and alacrimanifested in every section of the commonwealth, to meet it be particle zoal and alacrimanifested in every section of the commonwealth, to meet it be particle zoal and alacrimanifested in every section of the causious to long to the state and the subject of dollors and the subject of dollors and trimples upon the construction which has sworn to defend, as not the stagning from Front Royal, where the fight was had on Friday last, between the ise Maryland Right, and the sword and alacrimanifest and the subject of the seaping from Front Royal, where the fight was had on Friday last, between the ise Maryland Right, and the sword in the party, to meet a form a private lettow witten by a monute of the companies took in the battle the repolar shape of the particle and this place. The extraction of the town of the particle and the battle the repolar shape of the particle and the particle and the particle and the particle and the party to meet a form a private letter written by a monute of the private letter written by a monute of the private letter written by a monute of the particle and the private letter written by a monute of the private letter written by a monute of the particle and the particle and the party to meet a form of the particle and the particle and the party to meet a form of the particle and the part

STATE SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION. I have noticed that the papers all dressed us with a very appropriate and little number of cavalry routed them have it that the 43d N. Y. of our Bri- instructive speech. The addresses and Co. A poured volley after volley The object of the Convention is to obtain an accurate view and survey of the started on Sabbath they had not close for the present. Yours, &c.

The object of the Convention is to obtain an accurate view and survey of they started on Sabbath they had not close for the present. Yours, &c. the State in its Sabbath School aspects, and to devise ways and means by the position of our Co. the day of the The representatives from this bo- fight. When our Regiment is formed rough are: Presbyterian, John Scott in its proper manner our Co. is the extreme left, occupying the place of Co. B, the Captains of A and B having read, and E. M. Greene; German Recont the extreme right. A short time before the extreme right. formed, David Dunn and W. W. Wal- fore the fight Cos. C, D and E were out I will not attempt to give any descripskirmishing, but before we came to the first fort, that is, in sight of it, they The President sent in to the were called, and our Company ordered Government was plundered to the near. (They had gone, or rather kept then falling back towards the Brigade.

WE LEARN that the military fever What I wanted to mention especially A MASTERLY RETREAT.—Gen. Banks by the name of Gilberts of Co. G.

paratory to putting up the work.

A REGIMENT of soldiers from Cincin- graves in it. On some of the tombon their way to Washington.

OUR CORRESPONDENCE.

II. All commanding omcers, who may have issued their orders for the mustering into the service of the United States of their respective commands, under the said orders of the 26th inst., are hereby ordered to counter, mand the same.

We saw a letter this morning from schoolmates are all fine and agreeable of our boys, Robert Westbrook, dated in camp nine miles from Rich from the War Department, that the emergency which seemed to the War Department, that the emergency which seemed to the War Department, that the emergency which seemed to the Green all seems of the United to depart for Europe.

We saw a letter this morning from schoolmates are all fine and agreeable of the Church, so that I cannot tell anything about the church of the instinct on the inside. General Banks' Body Guard.

We saw a letter this morning from the instance of the United the same and all sales, transfers or convoyances shall not the instance of the United the within two years after the death of the surviving parent, and in accordance with the laws of the United to the use of the United to the use of the United to the use of the United to depart for Europe.

We saw a letter this morning from the inside and agreeable of the United to the use of the United the use of the United to the use of the United the use of the United the use of the United to the use of the United the use of As THE FRIENDS of Captains Campbell fore comply with the latter, and appear tomed to worship. Such a thing, as they lay on the field, and performing other inhuman deeds, equally barbarous with those perpetrated on the bodies of our troops buried at Bull Run.

The secesh ladies have become real shedwis, and delight in heaping insult unon injury upon the "Yankee"

Again they acted nobly and fought despering of the arriving at the grove purpose. When arriving at the grove purpose. The rear was harrassed until late in ally changed his or her residence, or abandoned the said land, or shall have of the drink, which was benonated of the darks which was procured for that the grove purpose. The rear was harrassed until late in ally changed his or her residence, or abandoned the said land, or shall have of the drink, which was benonated.

The rear was harrassed until late in ally changed his or her residence, or abandoned the said land, or shall have of the drink, which was benonated.

The rear was harrassed until late in ally changed his or her residence, or abandoned the said land, or shall have of the drink, which was benonated.

The rear was harrassed until late in ally changed his or her residence, or abandoned the said land, or shall have of the darks, which was procured to the drink, which was procured to the lates of the lates

N. D. & Bursey.

May 21, 1862. Mr. Editor:-Not having written for the Globe for a long time, and thinking something from the 58d on its onward march to Richmond, might, perhaps, be of some interest to the many readers of your sheet, I concluded to write a few lines for the paper. tion of our march and counter-march to Manassas Junction, and from thence to Warrenton Junction. Neither shall I attempt to describe our trip from Alexandria down the Potomac to Ship Point and the part the 53d played or the grand theatro in front of Yorktown, as all these movements have long been known to all. After making a forced march on the counts upon our books of several years tracts Secretary Cameron distributed through the country, by which the standing. We shall, therefore, from day of the battle of Williamsburg to describe, we returned next day and encamped at Yorktown until the 12th. vance on them,) firing at the rebs, and at which time we were ordered on board the boats for West Point. But | their letters to Washington City, D. C. collection, all accounts of over two An investigation was had of the years standing. All those who wish management of our "horse market," distance, and then about face and look the proceeded up the Pamonky river a distance of about not been able to procure a copy. We back again and so on until they came eight miles. Here we discmbarked at back to the fort. As the rebs drew near a place called Brick Landing, where want a copy for publication—will some friend accommodate us.

Beneauty Baing shoot last works

back to the fort. As the rebs drew near they thought our men were retreating and some of them cried out, at the top of their voices, "Another Bull Run" the order to march. We marched to the place where we are now encamped. Personal.—Being absent last week, we, the junior, neglected to mention when they were about 6 or 800 yards the order to march. We marched to the place where we are now encamped, a distance of some seventeen miles, a company to the place where we are now encamped, a distance of some seventeen miles, a company to the place where we are now encamped, a distance of some seventeen miles, a company to the order to march. swamps are all that meet the eye, with had surrendered and our fleet was on ment charging as stated in the papers.

They advanced after firing, but not on Most of these houses are deserted, and the way to Memphis.

> ington, when the Order we publish to- fire than any of the other Cos. in the case. We are now encamped on quite Regiment, none of them were killed a pleasant situation. Our camp is in or wounded, only one wounded in the a large field owned by a man by the 49th worth noticing, and that is a man by the name of Gilberts of Co. G.
>
> The standard of the worth noticing, and that is a man by the name of Gilberts of Co. G.
>
> The standard of the worth noticing, and that is a man rame of Lee, said to be a Major in the rebel army. It is the most pleasant A MASTERLY RETREAT.—Gen. Banks | Gen. Hancock has immortalized himcertainly deserves great credit for deself by that fight. He was as cool as | since we are on the peninsula. The > > burial ground with some half a dozen tatives of the various Sabbath Schools in the State, commenced its session in the State, commenced its session have the 49th in the fight at all. That which time Go. B of the same, after and you may rest assured good use was a best we could, and you may rest assured good use was a best we could. yesterday morning at ten o'clock, in samistake. The 49th P. V., 6th Maine made of the time. After the amuse-extreme pleasure of giving them one street, and other localities, to prevent is a mistake. Wisconsin wors the only monts of the day we returned home. Volley. I am unable to say how many turbulent gatherings. the "First Independent Church," and the 5th Wisconsin were the only Broad street below Chestnut, Phila.— Regiments from our Brigade that were feeling somewhat fatigued. As it is were killed on the rebel side. Co. A was shot. None were killed on our side, and only two of our cavalry wounded. The robels were waiting to and came some nine miles to Warrenton Junction, remained there until Wednesday 21st and then came on to last night all in good spirits. McCall's | President: and also McDowell's divisions are at AN ACT to Secure Homesteads to Acber of our home associates this morning, some of whom are in the 12th Regt. P. R. C., and some in the 8th, 5th and 2d regiments. We were quite glad to meet them. Friend Lewis from where we sit to write we can view the towns of Fredwill go from here. Yours truly,

P. S. Friends of the 110th address

WAR NEWS. Latest News.

From Gen. Halleck's Army. BEFORE CORINTH, May 27.—General

Last night, five rebels, including on sergeant, came over to our lines. All along the line our forces are within two miles of the rebel works in what few houses the inhabitants Press at Gen. Halleck's headquarters, still remain, you can invariably see a white flag flying. They no doubt have been misled to such a degree, by the leaders of the rebellion, that they leaders of the rebellion, that they after of the rebellion, that they are they put up a flag of terly without foundation No engagement of the least conse quence had occurred at Corinth or the vicinity up to 111 o'clock last evening.

Affairs at Martinsburg, Va.

BALTIMORE, May 28 .- A telegraphic certainly deserves great credit for defeating the expectations of the Rebels.

By mismanagement somewhere, his it should have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to command was reduced for the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to allow his army to our Commander Gen. McClelland or "little Mack," as we usually call under the circumstances, could have been to enable him to allow his army to our Commander Gen. McClelland or "little Mack," as we usually call think him the next best General in this army to our Commander Gen. McClelland or "little Mack," as we usually call think him the next best General in this diffication of the Baltimore & Ohio Rail-to Replace of the Balt despatch received yesterday by the

From General McClellan's Army.

All Quiet at Baltimore.

The Latest from Banks.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—By des- nothing contained in this act shall by

On Monday 19th we left Warrenton | THE HOMESTEAD BILL A LAW. The following is a correct copy of 14 days in the army or navy of the the Homestead bill, as passed by both | United States, either regular or volunthe above named place. We landed Houses of Congress and signed by the teer, under the laws thereof, during tual Settlers on the Public Domain, having attained the age of 21 years. and to Provide a Bounty for Soldiers in lieu of Grants of the Public Lands. That the fifth section of the act enti-Be it enacted by the Senate and tled "An act in addition to an act House of Representatives of the United more effectually to provide for the States of America in Congress Assempunishment of certain crimes against bled: That any person who is the the United States, and for other purwrite we can view the towns of Fredericksburg and Falmouth, and have at the age of twenty-one years, and is in the year 1857, shall extend to all also quite a nice view of the country. at the age of twenty-one years, and oaths, affirmations and affidavits, reshall have filed his declaration of intention to become such, as required by SEC. 8. And be it further enactions tention to become such, as required by SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, the naturalization laws of the United That nothing in this act shall be so States, and who has never borne arms construed as to prevent any person against the United States Government, who has availed him or herself of the given aid and comfort to its enemies, benefit of the first section of this act shall, from and after the 1st of January, from paying the maximum price, or 1863, be entitled to enter one quarter the price to which the same may have section, or a less quantity, of unappro-printed public lands, upon which said so entered at any time before the experson may have filed a preemption piration of the five years, and obtainclaim, or which may, at the time the ing a patent therefor from the Governapplication is made, be subject to prement, as in other cases provided by emption at $1 25, or less, per acre; or law, on making proof of settlement and eighty acres or less of such unappro- cultivation as provided by existing;

ing and residing on land may, under the provisions of this act, enter other land lying adjoining to his or her said land, which shall not, with the land so already owned and occupied, exceed ginia. Every Democrat, ten Union in the aggregate 160 agges.

Members, and eight Republicans, yoted in the aggregate 160 acres. Section 2. And be it further enacted,

That the person applying for the ben-efit of this act shall, upon application to the Register of the Land Office in which he or she is about to make such entry, make affidavit before the said Register or Receiver that he or she is the head of a family, or is twenty-one years or more of age, or shall have performed service in the army of the United States, and that he has never borne arms against the Government of the United States, or given aid and comfort to its enemies, and that such application is made for his or her exclusive use and benefit, and that said entry is made for the purpose of actual settlement and cultivation, and not either directly or indirectly for the use or benefit of any person or persons whomsoever; and upon filing the under the circumstances, could have done better.

A reform was in circulation that Jno.

McCahan, son of J. Kinney McCahan of this place, was killed last week in a guerilla fight. We are happy to inform the public that Mr. McCahan received a telegraphic dispatch years and the timbers, predict of Montgomery street. Workment are day that his son was all right.

Min. In which all will have discovered with the date of such entry; and if, at the confederates thates. The Confederates thates. Confederates the expiration of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the confederate states. Thirdly. Any person acting as Governor of a State, member of convention of this place, was killed last week in a guerilla fight. We are happy to inform the public that Mr. McCahan received a telegraphic dispatch years and the distance of the confederates.

New Bridge.—The Pennsylvania and not very large. Surrounding it are trees, which give it a beautiful appearance. On the corner-stone is written: "This church was commended in 1710 and was finished in 1710 and was finished in a control with the date of such entry; and if, at the capitation of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the expiration of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the confederates thates.

Thirdly. Any person acting as Governor of a State, member of convention of the social eight dragoons of the Confederates.

Thirdly Any person of a State, member of convention of the spiration of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the expiration of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the expiration of the confederates.

Thirdly Any person deferates thates.

The confederate States.

The confederate st

or cultivated the same for the term of five years immediately succeeding the Confederate States, or under any of the time of filing the affidavit aforesaid, several States of said Confederacy, or and shall make affidavit that no part of laws thereof, whether such office or A Regiment of soldiers from Cincingraves in it. On some of the tombnatti, Ohio, passed through this place over the Penna. Railroad yesterday, on their way to Washington.

A Regiment of soldiers from Cincingraves in it. On some of the tombnatti, Ohio, passed through this place some writings of a very over the Penna. Railroad yesterday, on their way to Washington.

Washington, May 27.—The War Department received advices this even has borne true allegiance to the Government of the Control of the Con following: "Here tyeth the body of Milliam Ann Clopton, the wife of William Clopton, of the county of New Kent. Clopton, of the county of New Kent. She departed this life the 4th day of the conemy considerable in killed, wounded and prisoners. One of the county of the wounded and prisoners. One of the county that moving the considerable in killed, wounded and prisoners. One of the county that moving the considerable in killed, wounded and prisoners. One of the county that moving the county that moving the county that moving the county that moving the county of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist General Banks' Body Guard.

WILLIAMSPORT, May 27.—After three with the laws of the State in which the laws of the State in w every two weeks; your correspondents being no public speakers, they there be, one hundred years ago, was accusshall note all such applications on the tract books and plats of his office, and receive when the same quality of land s entered with money, one half to be to enlarge the maximum of compensa-tion now prescribed by law for any register or receiver: Provided, That patches received at the War Depart- so construed as to impair or interferen ment, we learn that affairs are quiet at in any manner whatever with existing capture our baggage wagons as they would pass, but to their surprise they found some of Gen. Shields' men to Guess they got tired of The indications are that the rebels

A later despatch from Gen. Banks they got their applications for a preemption of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage of the passage of the passage of this act shall be entitled to all privileges of the passage o person who has served or may hereafer serve, for a period of not less than the existence of an actual war, domes-tic or foreign, shall be deprived of the benefits of this act on account of not

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted.

The following is the bill as it passed the House on the 26th inst. by a vote of 82 yeas to 68 nays. Every vote for the bill was Republican, with the exception of Brown (Union,) from Viragainst it. We cannot understand this vote. It seems to us that Robel property should be confiscated to help pay the expenses of the war. Are we afraid to punish the Rebels for their treason? The vote looks as if we were. The following is the bill:

The bill provides that all the estate. property and moneys, stocks, credits and effects of the person or persons hereinafter named, are declared forfeitod to the Government of the United States, and declared lawful subjected seizure and of prize and century whereseizure, and of prize and capture ever found, for the indepenty of the United States, against the expenses for suppressing the resent rebellion-that is to say:

First Of any person hereafter acting as an officer in the army or navy of the rebels, now or hereafter in arms against the Government of the United vice, but those who volunteer for three years or during the var." General Orders Nos. 23, 24 and 25 of these headquarters, dated on the 26th instant, calling for three months volunteer militia, are hereby countermanded and revoked.

II. All commanding officers, who may have issued their orders for the mustering into the service of the United States are all fine and agreeable in the service of the United States or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist wounded and prisoners. One of the year of her age. She left three sons, she captured.

II. All commanding officers, who mustering into the service of the United States and prisoners. One of the united of columbia, shall hereafter assist wounded and prisoners. One of the year of her age. She left three sons, being the var." General Orders Nos. 23, 24 and 25 of these headquarters, dated on the 26th instant, calling for three months volunteer militia, are hereby countermanded and revoked.

III. All commanding officers, who may be confiscated and agreeable of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist wounded and prisoners. One of the year of her age. She left three sons, being scannon was captured.

III. All commanding officers who may be confiscated and agreeable of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist three sons, being scannon was captured.

III. All commanding officers who may be confiscated and constitute of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist three sons, being scannon was captured.

III. All commanding officers who may be confiscated and constitute of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist three sons, being scannon was captured.

III. All commanding officers, who may be confiscated and prisoners. One of the united of the United States of the seemly scannon was captured.

III. All commanding officers, who may be confiscated and constitute of the United States of the death of the United States of the age.

III. A

proclamation by the President, ceaso to aid, countenance, and abet such rebellion, and return to their allegiance,