

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Tuesday afternoon, July 22, 1862.
LOCAL & PERSONAL.

A "DEMOCRATIC" PAPER.—For some months, we have heard of a strong desire on the part of a few leading politicians to advocate the notions of what is Democracy, loyalty to the Government, and political honesty. We have never had any objections to men of any party or faction starting a paper in this place or county. This is a free country, and we honor a bold man; but we despise a sneaking, unprincipled office-hunter. We are willing to give men notoriety if they wish it, especially when it affords us an opportunity to explain, which we shall do at another time. We merely mention now the fact that a committee of five politicians have addressed a circular to Democrats of the county inviting them to meet at the Exchange Hotel in this place on the 25th of the present month, for the purpose of making arrangements to establish a loyal Democratic press. The Committee not having furnished us with a copy of the Circular, we cannot have the pleasure this week of laying it before our Democratic readers, but we expect to have a copy sent to us in time for our next issue. We hope the meeting will be attended by all Democrats who feel that way inclined. We are ripe for fun and a war upon all who have forgotten that we have a country to save. The Circular we are informed, is signed by the following gentlemen, as a committee of invitation:

William Colon,
John S. Miller,
A. P. Wilson,
R. Milton Spear,
Joseph Reiger,
J. Simpson Africa,
David Caldwell,
George Meares,
G. Ashman Miller,
A. Lebkicher.

The horse speculators are pretty strongly represented on the Committee. Of course they will not denounce the Lincoln Administration for allowing the systematic plundering of the public treasury the State Convention complained of.

Front seats reserved for "Democrats" who have never been subscribers to the Globe, and for those who never intend to pay their subscription.

There will be preaching in the German Reformed Church of this place, on next Sabbath evening, at 7 o'clock.

THE LACK RIDGES AHEAD.—We have received advice from J. H. Hattis of Henderson township, measuring three feet ten inches.

HEADQUARTERS, SEVENTH DIVISION,
July 19, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER.

Officers commanding Brigades and district Corps are requested to cause a correct roll of all officers and men who are on the field this day, to be made. The Brigadier General commanding is anxious that the names should be preserved as records of men, who, not only in action, but by successive and fatiguing marches have shown what patriotism and endurance can effect in a righteous cause.

These officers and men Brig. General Smith regards as refined gold, and he requests that these rolls be sent to the Executives of their respective States.

By Order of Brig. General SATTIN.
(Signed) L. D. H. CURRIE, A. G. List of officers and men present in the field on July 21, 1862, of Company C, 49th Regiment P. V.

Captain—John B. Miles.
1st Lieutenant—G. D. Dickey.
2d Lieutenant—W. M. Irvin.
Sergeant—Samuel W. Irvin.

CORPORALS.
T. D. Rider, J. M. Chaney, J. C. Fishar, Ar. Robert Leach, Peter Miller.

Private.
William E. Anspach, Robert Ashton, William Bennett, G. H. Bolen, Jos. Bulger, J. B. Bailey, J. G. Corns, sen., S. K. Wilson, Samuel Wellers, S. Corp. Lawrence Crowe, Robert Davidson, J. S. Davis, B. T. Chaney, O. H. Gibbons, Augustus Heller, W. C. Miller, Henry Meyer, Achison McCall, Jan, Joseph McQuillen, John N. Patterson, Wilson S. Roach, Thomas Rider, John Snyder, Samuel Steffy, J. H. Lytle.

All other members of the company not present, were either sick in hospitals, or had broken down while engaged in the six days fighting and night marching.

The following is a list of the killed, wounded and missing of the company:

KILLED.
Edward Dale, shot through the heart, John McQuillen, shot through the neck, Reuben Fitzgerald, struck by a shell.

WOUNDED.
1st Lieutenant J. B. Eckelbarger—shot through the hand.
MISSING.
Corporal—Michael Wesley, Private—Samuel Longenecker.

Extract of a letter from a member of Company C, of the 49th P. V., dated "Camp No. 22, in the Field near Harrison's Landing, Va.," inclosing for publication a copy of the above General Order and lists.

Our men are somewhat rested after the extreme fatigue of our last work. We (referring to the Regt. in common with others in proximity to it), were in the hardest, and thickest of all the battles, as we formed a portion of the rear guard. Gen. Hancock says we have been in the hardest fights of the war, and only saved ourselves by our firmness—never having given an inch of ground except to change our line of battle. Col. Irvin has gone home sick. Lieut. Colonel Brisbane is also at home sick, and Major Hillings is in command. My box fell into the hands of the rebels, as our Saller was obliged to leave his wagon. It was on his way from the White House with a load of goods. I hope I shall capture the fellow who sports my coat.

Mr. Editor, in publishing the above order and list of patriots whose names are to be enrolled upon the records of our good old Commonwealth for their deeds of "patriotism and endurance in a righteous cause," ought you not to make another appeal to the love of country and pride of hundreds of young men in the town and county of Huntingdon who ought to fly to the relief of their suffering brethren in the army, borne down, as they have been, by conscript hordes of rebels, whose sole and avowed aim is to overturn the best system of human government which was ever devised by the wisdom of man? Can they listlessly hear the call of their country and of their suffering brethren who have nobly upheld the banner of the Union and of human liberty, and make no response? Will they allow an excuse for inaction? Will they allow the Government to depend upon the very ground that we (twenty millions of freemen), are incapable of crushing out less than eight millions of rebels against the best interests of mankind?

Young men—lawyers, doctors, divines, working men, all come up to the standard of your duty in this hour of your country's need. This rebellion could soon be crushed if you would do so—and peace be restored to the land. Wait not, one for another, nor for who shall be designated leaders, but rise up with another, for who shall be foremost in the march of duty. Soon we may have to fight the "world in arms" if you heed not the call of your country. Behold the unanimity and the energy with which the other sex are working for the cause of human liberty, and for the relief and comfort of those who have perilled their lives in sustaining it. Lose not their respect by your inaction and indifference.

The following is the roll of the officers and men of Company D, 49th P. V., furnished in obedience to the foregoing order.

Captain—J. D. Campbell.
2d Lieut.—F. Y. McDonald.

SERGEANTS.
A. C. Greenland, T. D. Hoffman, S. M. McMartin.

CORPORALS.
J. J. Cromer, David Megahan, T. H. McHand, J. D. Cunningham, Alfred H. Clark.

PRIVATE.
William Barnhill, Isaac F. Beamer, Amos Bunnagard, Hume Campbell, George W. Cornell, Robert A. Conner, Christian Cook, George Eckert, John Eby, John B. Hamden, John J. Hight, Geo. W. Hazzard, Geo. W. McCall, John S. Moore, John Morningstar, James M. Curry, Edmund Miller, Jacob E. Nale, Wm. Nale, C. A. Newingham, P. L. Price, Daniel Frough, James Ambrose, Calvin Patterson, W. K. Rahm, Arthur Rogers, Oliver S. Rumbarger, Wm. Sowders, Peter S. Stephens, J. L. Shugart, Alfred Swope, R. A. Westbrook, Robt. S. Westbrook, J. M. David, Wm. Miller, Geo. W. Wills.

A note dated from the effects of the fatigue and exposure. Besides these above named there are several upon detached duty, who are maintained at their posts.

The following is a list of the casualties in Company D, 49th Regiment P. V., during the recent battles near Richmond:

Killed—Travaman Gray.
WOUNDED.
Sergeant A. C. Greenland, slightly.
Corporal Alfred Clark, slightly.

PRIVATE.
Henry Gray, severely; Samuel S. Dixon, severely, not dangerously; R. S. Westbrook, slightly; Isaac P. Beamer, slightly; Jacob C. Beck, slightly.

MISSING.
Henry Gray (wounded), Anthony White (wounded by accident), Samuel Paulk (sick).

These parties had been sent to the rear, but could not be brought away for want of transportation.

J. D. C.
The brave boys of Company D, have seen much hard service. They were under fire almost every day for a week, and they behaved well. All honor to the brave boys of Huntingdon county.

CORPORALS.

Private.
William E. Anspach, Robert Ashton, William Bennett, G. H. Bolen, Jos. Bulger, J. B. Bailey, J. G. Corns, sen., S. K. Wilson, Samuel Wellers, S. Corp. Lawrence Crowe, Robert Davidson, J. S. Davis, B. T. Chaney, O. H. Gibbons, Augustus Heller, W. C. Miller, Henry Meyer, Achison McCall, Jan, Joseph McQuillen, John N. Patterson, Wilson S. Roach, Thomas Rider, John Snyder, Samuel Steffy, J. H. Lytle.

All other members of the company not present, were either sick in hospitals, or had broken down while engaged in the six days fighting and night marching.

The following is a list of the killed, wounded and missing of the company:

KILLED.
Edward Dale, shot through the heart, John McQuillen, shot through the neck, Reuben Fitzgerald, struck by a shell.

WOUNDED.
1st Lieutenant J. B. Eckelbarger—shot through the hand.
MISSING.
Corporal—Michael Wesley, Private—Samuel Longenecker.

Extract of a letter from a member of Company C, of the 49th P. V., dated "Camp No. 22, in the Field near Harrison's Landing, Va.," inclosing for publication a copy of the above General Order and lists.

Our men are somewhat rested after the extreme fatigue of our last work. We (referring to the Regt. in common with others in proximity to it), were in the hardest, and thickest of all the battles, as we formed a portion of the rear guard. Gen. Hancock says we have been in the hardest fights of the war, and only saved ourselves by our firmness—never having given an inch of ground except to change our line of battle. Col. Irvin has gone home sick. Lieut. Colonel Brisbane is also at home sick, and Major Hillings is in command. My box fell into the hands of the rebels, as our Saller was obliged to leave his wagon. It was on his way from the White House with a load of goods. I hope I shall capture the fellow who sports my coat.

Mr. Editor, in publishing the above order and list of patriots whose names are to be enrolled upon the records of our good old Commonwealth for their deeds of "patriotism and endurance in a righteous cause," ought you not to make another appeal to the love of country and pride of hundreds of young men in the town and county of Huntingdon who ought to fly to the relief of their suffering brethren in the army, borne down, as they have been, by conscript hordes of rebels, whose sole and avowed aim is to overturn the best system of human government which was ever devised by the wisdom of man? Can they listlessly hear the call of their country and of their suffering brethren who have nobly upheld the banner of the Union and of human liberty, and make no response? Will they allow an excuse for inaction? Will they allow the Government to depend upon the very ground that we (twenty millions of freemen), are incapable of crushing out less than eight millions of rebels against the best interests of mankind?

Young men—lawyers, doctors, divines, working men, all come up to the standard of your duty in this hour of your country's need. This rebellion could soon be crushed if you would do so—and peace be restored to the land. Wait not, one for another, nor for who shall be designated leaders, but rise up with another, for who shall be foremost in the march of duty. Soon we may have to fight the "world in arms" if you heed not the call of your country. Behold the unanimity and the energy with which the other sex are working for the cause of human liberty, and for the relief and comfort of those who have perilled their lives in sustaining it. Lose not their respect by your inaction and indifference.

The following is the roll of the officers and men of Company D, 49th P. V., furnished in obedience to the foregoing order.

Captain—J. D. Campbell.
2d Lieut.—F. Y. McDonald.

SERGEANTS.
A. C. Greenland, T. D. Hoffman, S. M. McMartin.

CORPORALS.
J. J. Cromer, David Megahan, T. H. McHand, J. D. Cunningham, Alfred H. Clark.

PRIVATE.
William Barnhill, Isaac F. Beamer, Amos Bunnagard, Hume Campbell, George W. Cornell, Robert A. Conner, Christian Cook, George Eckert, John Eby, John B. Hamden, John J. Hight, Geo. W. Hazzard, Geo. W. McCall, John S. Moore, John Morningstar, James M. Curry, Edmund Miller, Jacob E. Nale, Wm. Nale, C. A. Newingham, P. L. Price, Daniel Frough, James Ambrose, Calvin Patterson, W. K. Rahm, Arthur Rogers, Oliver S. Rumbarger, Wm. Sowders, Peter S. Stephens, J. L. Shugart, Alfred Swope, R. A. Westbrook, Robt. S. Westbrook, J. M. David, Wm. Miller, Geo. W. Wills.

A note dated from the effects of the fatigue and exposure. Besides these above named there are several upon detached duty, who are maintained at their posts.

The following is a list of the casualties in Company D, 49th Regiment P. V., during the recent battles near Richmond:

Killed—Travaman Gray.
WOUNDED.
Sergeant A. C. Greenland, slightly.
Corporal Alfred Clark, slightly.

PRIVATE.
Henry Gray, severely; Samuel S. Dixon, severely, not dangerously; R. S. Westbrook, slightly; Isaac P. Beamer, slightly; Jacob C. Beck, slightly.

MISSING.
Henry Gray (wounded), Anthony White (wounded by accident), Samuel Paulk (sick).

These parties had been sent to the rear, but could not be brought away for want of transportation.

J. D. C.
The brave boys of Company D, have seen much hard service. They were under fire almost every day for a week, and they behaved well. All honor to the brave boys of Huntingdon county.

CORPORALS.

Private.
William E. Anspach, Robert Ashton, William Bennett, G. H. Bolen, Jos. Bulger, J. B. Bailey, J. G. Corns, sen., S. K. Wilson, Samuel Wellers, S. Corp. Lawrence Crowe, Robert Davidson, J. S. Davis, B. T. Chaney, O. H. Gibbons, Augustus Heller, W. C. Miller, Henry Meyer, Achison McCall, Jan, Joseph McQuillen, John N. Patterson, Wilson S. Roach, Thomas Rider, John Snyder, Samuel Steffy, J. H. Lytle.

All other members of the company not present, were either sick in hospitals, or had broken down while engaged in the six days fighting and night marching.

The following is a list of the killed, wounded and missing of the company:

KILLED.
Edward Dale, shot through the heart, John McQuillen, shot through the neck, Reuben Fitzgerald, struck by a shell.

WOUNDED.
1st Lieutenant J. B. Eckelbarger—shot through the hand.
MISSING.
Corporal—Michael Wesley, Private—Samuel Longenecker.

Extract of a letter from a member of Company C, of the 49th P. V., dated "Camp No. 22, in the Field near Harrison's Landing, Va.," inclosing for publication a copy of the above General Order and lists.

Our men are somewhat rested after the extreme fatigue of our last work. We (referring to the Regt. in common with others in proximity to it), were in the hardest, and thickest of all the battles, as we formed a portion of the rear guard. Gen. Hancock says we have been in the hardest fights of the war, and only saved ourselves by our firmness—never having given an inch of ground except to change our line of battle. Col. Irvin has gone home sick. Lieut. Colonel Brisbane is also at home sick, and Major Hillings is in command. My box fell into the hands of the rebels, as our Saller was obliged to leave his wagon. It was on his way from the White House with a load of goods. I hope I shall capture the fellow who sports my coat.

Mr. Editor, in publishing the above order and list of patriots whose names are to be enrolled upon the records of our good old Commonwealth for their deeds of "patriotism and endurance in a righteous cause," ought you not to make another appeal to the love of country and pride of hundreds of young men in the town and county of Huntingdon who ought to fly to the relief of their suffering brethren in the army, borne down, as they have been, by conscript hordes of rebels, whose sole and avowed aim is to overturn the best system of human government which was ever devised by the wisdom of man? Can they listlessly hear the call of their country and of their suffering brethren who have nobly upheld the banner of the Union and of human liberty, and make no response? Will they allow an excuse for inaction? Will they allow the Government to depend upon the very ground that we (twenty millions of freemen), are incapable of crushing out less than eight millions of rebels against the best interests of mankind?

Young men—lawyers, doctors, divines, working men, all come up to the standard of your duty in this hour of your country's need. This rebellion could soon be crushed if you would do so—and peace be restored to the land. Wait not, one for another, nor for who shall be designated leaders, but rise up with another, for who shall be foremost in the march of duty. Soon we may have to fight the "world in arms" if you heed not the call of your country. Behold the unanimity and the energy with which the other sex are working for the cause of human liberty, and for the relief and comfort of those who have perilled their lives in sustaining it. Lose not their respect by your inaction and indifference.

The following is the roll of the officers and men of Company D, 49th P. V., furnished in obedience to the foregoing order.

Captain—J. D. Campbell.
2d Lieut.—F. Y. McDonald.

SERGEANTS.
A. C. Greenland, T. D. Hoffman, S. M. McMartin.

CORPORALS.
J. J. Cromer, David Megahan, T. H. McHand, J. D. Cunningham, Alfred H. Clark.

of all the battles, as we formed a portion of the rear guard. Gen. Hancock says we have been in the hardest fights of the war, and only saved ourselves by our firmness—never having given an inch of ground except to change our line of battle. Col. Irvin has gone home sick. Lieut. Colonel Brisbane is also at home sick, and Major Hillings is in command. My box fell into the hands of the rebels, as our Saller was obliged to leave his wagon. It was on his way from the White House with a load of goods. I hope I shall capture the fellow who sports my coat.

Mr. Editor, in publishing the above order and list of patriots whose names are to be enrolled upon the records of our good old Commonwealth for their deeds of "patriotism and endurance in a righteous cause," ought you not to make another appeal to the love of country and pride of hundreds of young men in the town and county of Huntingdon who ought to fly to the relief of their suffering brethren in the army, borne down, as they have been, by conscript hordes of rebels, whose sole and avowed aim is to overturn the best system of human government which was ever devised by the wisdom of man? Can they listlessly hear the call of their country and of their suffering brethren who have nobly upheld the banner of the Union and of human liberty, and make no response? Will they allow an excuse for inaction? Will they allow the Government to depend upon the very ground that we (twenty millions of freemen), are incapable of crushing out less than eight millions of rebels against the best interests of mankind?

Young men—lawyers, doctors, divines, working men, all come up to the standard of your duty in this hour of your country's need. This rebellion could soon be crushed if you would do so—and peace be restored to the land. Wait not, one for another, nor for who shall be designated leaders, but rise up with another, for who shall be foremost in the march of duty. Soon we may have to fight the "world in arms" if you heed not the call of your country. Behold the unanimity and the energy with which the other sex are working for the cause of human liberty, and for the relief and comfort of those who have perilled their lives in sustaining it. Lose not their respect by your inaction and indifference.

The following is the roll of the officers and men of Company D, 49th P. V., furnished in obedience to the foregoing order.

Captain—J. D. Campbell.
2d Lieut.—F. Y. McDonald.

SERGEANTS.
A. C. Greenland, T. D. Hoffman, S. M. McMartin.

CORPORALS.
J. J. Cromer, David Megahan, T. H. McHand, J. D. Cunningham, Alfred H. Clark.

PRIVATE.
William Barnhill, Isaac F. Beamer, Amos Bunnagard, Hume Campbell, George W. Cornell, Robert A. Conner, Christian Cook, George Eckert, John Eby, John B. Hamden, John J. Hight, Geo. W. Hazzard, Geo. W. McCall, John S. Moore, John Morningstar, James M. Curry, Edmund Miller, Jacob E. Nale, Wm. Nale, C. A. Newingham, P. L. Price, Daniel Frough, James Ambrose, Calvin Patterson, W. K. Rahm, Arthur Rogers, Oliver S. Rumbarger, Wm. Sowders, Peter S. Stephens, J. L. Shugart, Alfred Swope, R. A. Westbrook, Robt. S. Westbrook, J. M. David, Wm. Miller, Geo. W. Wills.

A note dated from the effects of the fatigue and exposure. Besides these above named there are several upon detached duty, who are maintained at their posts.

The following is a list of the casualties in Company D, 49th Regiment P. V., during the recent battles near Richmond:

Killed—Travaman Gray.
WOUNDED.
Sergeant A. C. Greenland, slightly.
Corporal Alfred Clark, slightly.

PRIVATE.
Henry Gray, severely; Samuel S. Dixon, severely, not dangerously; R. S. Westbrook, slightly; Isaac P. Beamer, slightly; Jacob C. Beck, slightly.

MISSING.
Henry Gray (wounded), Anthony White (wounded by accident), Samuel Paulk (sick).

These parties had been sent to the rear, but could not be brought away for want of transportation.

J. D. C.
The brave boys of Company D, have seen much hard service. They were under fire almost every day for a week, and they behaved well. All honor to the brave boys of Huntingdon county.

CORPORALS.

Private.
William E. Anspach, Robert Ashton, William Bennett, G. H. Bolen, Jos. Bulger, J. B. Bailey, J. G. Corns, sen., S. K. Wilson, Samuel Wellers, S. Corp. Lawrence Crowe, Robert Davidson, J. S. Davis, B. T. Chaney, O. H. Gibbons, Augustus Heller, W. C. Miller, Henry Meyer, Achison McCall, Jan, Joseph McQuillen, John N. Patterson, Wilson S. Roach, Thomas Rider, John Snyder, Samuel Steffy, J. H. Lytle.

All other members of the company not present, were either sick in hospitals, or had broken down while engaged in the six days fighting and night marching.

The following is a list of the killed, wounded and missing of the company:

KILLED.
Edward Dale, shot through the heart, John McQuillen, shot through the neck, Reuben Fitzgerald, struck by a shell.

WOUNDED.
1st Lieutenant J. B. Eckelbarger—shot through the hand.
MISSING.
Corporal—Michael Wesley, Private—Samuel Longenecker.

Extract of a letter from a member of Company C, of the 49th P. V., dated "Camp No. 22, in the Field near Harrison's Landing, Va.," inclosing for publication a copy of the above General Order and lists.

Our men are somewhat rested after the extreme fatigue of our last work. We (referring to the Regt. in common with others in proximity to it), were in the hardest, and thickest of all the battles, as we formed a portion of the rear guard. Gen. Hancock says we have been in the hardest fights of the war, and only saved ourselves by our firmness—never having given an inch of ground except to change our line of battle. Col. Irvin has gone home sick. Lieut. Colonel Brisbane is also at home sick, and Major Hillings is in command. My box fell into the hands of the rebels, as our Saller was obliged to leave his wagon. It was on his way from the White House with a load of goods. I hope I shall capture the fellow who sports my coat.

Mr. Editor, in publishing the above order and list of patriots whose names are to be enrolled upon the records of our good old Commonwealth for their deeds of "patriotism and endurance in a righteous cause," ought you not to make another appeal to the love of country and pride of hundreds of young men in the town and county of Huntingdon who ought to fly to the relief of their suffering brethren in the army, borne down, as they have been, by conscript hordes of rebels, whose sole and avowed aim is to overturn the best system of human government which was ever devised by the wisdom of man? Can they listlessly hear the call of their country and of their suffering brethren who have nobly upheld the banner of the Union and of human liberty, and make no response? Will they allow an excuse for inaction? Will they allow the Government to depend upon the very ground that we (twenty millions of freemen), are incapable of crushing out less than eight millions of rebels against the best interests of mankind?

Young men—lawyers, doctors, divines, working men, all come up to the standard of your duty in this hour of your country's need. This rebellion could soon be crushed if you would do so—and peace be restored to the land. Wait not, one for another, nor for who shall be designated leaders, but rise up with another, for who shall be foremost in the march of duty. Soon we may have to fight the "world in arms" if you heed not the call of your country. Behold the unanimity and the energy with which the other sex are working for the cause of human liberty, and for the relief and comfort of those who have perilled their lives in sustaining it. Lose not their respect by your inaction and indifference.

The following is the roll of the officers and men of Company D, 49th P. V., furnished in obedience to the foregoing order.

Captain—J. D. Campbell.
2d Lieut.—F. Y. McDonald.

SERGEANTS.
A. C. Greenland, T. D. Hoffman, S. M. McMartin.

CORPORALS.
J. J. Cromer, David Megahan, T. H. McHand, J. D. Cunningham, Alfred H. Clark.

PRIVATE.
William Barnhill, Isaac F. Beamer, Amos Bunnagard, Hume Campbell, George W. Cornell, Robert A. Conner, Christian Cook, George Eckert, John Eby, John B. Hamden, John J. Hight, Geo. W. Hazzard, Geo. W. McCall, John S. Moore, John Morningstar, James M. Curry, Edmund Miller, Jacob E. Nale, Wm. Nale, C. A. Newingham, P. L. Price, Daniel Frough, James Ambrose, Calvin Patterson, W. K. Rahm, Arthur Rogers, Oliver S. Rumbarger, Wm. Sowders, Peter S. Stephens, J. L. Shugart, Alfred Swope, R. A. Westbrook, Robt. S. Westbrook, J. M. David, Wm. Miller, Geo. W. Wills.

A note dated from the effects of the fatigue and exposure. Besides these above named there are several upon detached duty, who are maintained at their posts.

The following is a list of the casualties in Company D, 49th Regiment P. V., during the recent battles near Richmond:

of all the battles, as we formed a portion of the rear guard. Gen. Hancock says we have been in the hardest fights of the war, and only saved ourselves by our firmness—never having given an inch of ground except to change our line of battle. Col. Irvin has gone home sick. Lieut. Colonel Brisbane is also at home sick, and Major Hillings is in command. My box fell into the hands of the rebels, as our Saller was obliged to leave his wagon. It was on his way from the White House with a load of goods. I hope I shall capture the fellow who sports my coat.

Mr. Editor, in publishing the above order and list of patriots whose names are to be enrolled upon the records of our good old Commonwealth for their deeds of "patriotism and endurance in a righteous cause," ought you not to make another appeal to the love of country and pride of hundreds of young men in the town and county of Huntingdon who ought to fly to the relief of their suffering brethren in the army, borne down, as they have been, by conscript hordes of rebels, whose sole and avowed aim is to overturn the best system of human government which was ever devised by the wisdom of man? Can they listlessly hear the call of their country and of their suffering brethren who have nobly upheld the banner of the Union and of human liberty, and make no response? Will they allow an excuse for inaction? Will they allow the Government to depend upon the very ground that we (twenty millions of freemen), are incapable of crushing out less than eight millions of rebels against the best interests of mankind?

Young men—lawyers, doctors, divines, working men, all come up to the standard of your duty in this hour of your country's need. This rebellion could soon be crushed if you would do so—and peace be restored to the land. Wait not, one for another, nor for who shall be designated leaders, but rise up with another, for who shall be foremost in the march of duty. Soon we may have to fight the "world in arms" if you heed not the call of your country. Behold the unanimity and the energy with which the other sex are working for the cause of human liberty, and for the relief and comfort of those who have perilled their lives in sustaining it. Lose not their respect by your inaction and indifference.

The following is the roll of the officers and men of Company D, 49th P. V., furnished in obedience to the foregoing order.

Captain—J. D. Campbell.
2d Lieut.—F. Y. McDonald.

SERGEANTS.
A. C. Greenland, T. D. Hoffman, S. M. McMartin.

CORPORALS.
J. J. Cromer, David Megahan, T. H. McHand, J. D. Cunningham, Alfred H. Clark.

PRIVATE.
William Barnhill, Isaac F. Beamer, Amos Bunnagard, Hume Campbell, George W. Cornell, Robert A. Conner, Christian Cook, George Eckert, John Eby, John B. Hamden, John J. Hight, Geo. W. Hazzard, Geo. W. McCall, John S. Moore, John Morningstar, James M. Curry, Edmund Miller, Jacob E. Nale, Wm. Nale, C. A. Newingham, P. L. Price, Daniel Frough, James Ambrose, Calvin Patterson, W. K. Rahm, Arthur Rogers, Oliver S. Rumbarger, Wm. Sowders, Peter S. Stephens, J. L. Shugart, Alfred Swope, R. A. Westbrook, Robt. S. Westbrook, J. M. David, Wm. Miller, Geo. W. Wills.

A note dated from the effects of the fatigue and exposure. Besides these above named there are several upon detached duty, who are maintained at their posts.

The following is a list of the casualties in Company D, 49th Regiment P. V., during the recent battles near Richmond:

Killed—Travaman Gray.
WOUNDED.
Sergeant A. C. Greenland, slightly.
Corporal Alfred Clark, slightly.

PRIVATE.
Henry Gray, severely; Samuel S. Dixon, severely, not dangerously; R. S. Westbrook, slightly; Isaac P. Beamer, slightly; Jacob C. Beck, slightly.

MISSING.
Henry Gray (wounded), Anthony White (wounded by accident), Samuel Paulk (sick).

These parties had been sent to the rear, but could not be brought away for want of transportation.

J. D. C.
The brave boys of Company D, have seen much hard service. They were under fire almost every day for a week, and they behaved well. All honor to the brave boys of Huntingdon county.

CORPORALS.

Private.
William E. Anspach, Robert Ashton, William Bennett, G. H. Bolen, Jos. Bulger, J. B. Bailey, J. G. Corns, sen., S. K. Wilson, Samuel Wellers, S. Corp. Lawrence Crowe, Robert Davidson, J. S. Davis, B. T. Chaney, O. H. Gibbons, Augustus Heller, W. C. Miller, Henry Meyer, Achison McCall, Jan, Joseph McQuillen, John N. Patterson, Wilson S. Roach, Thomas Rider, John Snyder, Samuel Steffy, J. H. Lytle.

All other members of the company not present, were either sick in hospitals, or had broken down while engaged in the six days fighting and night marching.

The following is a list of the killed, wounded and missing of the company:

KILLED.
Edward Dale, shot through the heart, John McQuillen, shot through the neck, Reuben Fitzgerald, struck by a shell.

WOUNDED.
1st Lieutenant J. B. Eckelbarger—shot through the hand.
MISSING.
Corporal—Michael Wesley, Private—Samuel Longenecker.

Extract of a letter from a member of Company C, of the 49th P. V., dated "Camp No. 22, in the Field near Harrison's Landing, Va.," inclosing for publication a copy of the above General Order and lists.

Our men are somewhat rested after the extreme fatigue of our last work. We (referring to the Regt. in common with others in proximity to it), were in the hardest, and thickest