to lead the Democracy of Huntingdon county, must not deceive themselves of the man who is eternally contending for party organization on a secesh platform, such as that made at Harrisburg by the traitors of '60, must be blind indeed. We are aware that many Democrats are honest in the support they give men who denounce eyery man as an abolitionist who cannot support what he believes to be direct sympathy for the rebel cause. Such Democrats are to be pitied. They worship the name-a party, once an honor to the country, but now, shame upon the traitors who have sunk it so low. We deny that the State organization with the rebels Hughes, Plumer & Co. at its head, speaks for Democracy .--They are the leaders now as they were in '60, of the faction that sold the democracy to the Southern conspirators .-They in no manner represent the sentiments of the true Democracy, and we pity the young man who can be led into eternal disgrace by their hypocritical professions of loyalty to the Government.
