NOTICE.

We have not the time nor the inclination to dun personally a large number of persons who have unsettled accounts upon our books of several years standing. We shall, therefore, from day to day, without respect to persons, place to the hands of a Justice for collection, all accounts of over two years standing. All those who wish to save expense, will do well to give us a call.

Orders to Absentees and Paroled Prisoners.

HEADQUARTERS PENNA. MILITIA, Harrisburg, July 28, 1862.
The attention of soldiers and officers now absent from their regiments is especially directed to the following paragraphs of General Orders Nos. 28 and 29, respectively:
War Department, Adj. Gen's Office, Washington, June 8, 1862.

II. A large number of volunteers are absent from their regiments, who are now fit for duty. To enable them to return, the Governors of States are authorized to give them certificates or passes which will entitle them to transportation to the station of the nearest United States mustering officer or quartermaster, who will pay the cost of transportation on such certificate or pass, and provide transportation for the soldier to his regiment or station.
War Department, Adj. Gen's Office, Washington, June 28, 1862.

III. No more furloughs will be granted to paroled prisoners. All furloughs heretofore given to them are hereby revoked; and all prisoners now at large on their parole, or who may hereafter be paroled by their proper authorities, will immediately repair—if belonging to the New England and Middle States, to the Camp of Instruction, established near Annapolis, Md.; if belonging to regiments raised in the States of Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, to Camp Chase, near Columbus, Ohio; if belonging to regiments raised in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri, to the camp near Jefferson Barracks, Mo.—and report for such duty, compatible with their parole, as may be assigned to them by the officers of said camps. And all, whether officers or soldiers, who fail to comply with this order, within the time necessary for them to do so, will be accounted deserters and dealt with accordingly.

IV. The transportation necessary to a compliance with this order, cost, an application, be procured from the Governors of the several States, or from the United States mustering or commanding officers in the various cities within them.
That the Governor of Pennsylvania may, under the provisions of the paragraphs above quoted, materially assist in bringing about a compliance, the following circular is published:

By order of Gov. A. G. CURTIN, D. W. Seay, Chief of Transportation and Telegraph Department of Pennsylvania.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, July 28, 1862.
His Excellency, A. G. CURTIN, Governor of Pennsylvania:

Mrs. John HEWITT.—Yours of the 14th inst., stating you had forwarded hospital supplies has been received. I am pleased to learn you had the two boxes and two kegs have been received at this place, for which in behalf of the sick and wounded, I return you, and those who patriotically unite with you in this noble work my sincere thanks.
We have several hundred sick and wounded soldiers, Pennsylvanians, recently from McClellan's army in the city of New York, and in want of such articles as you have sent, we have concluded to forward at least part of your donation to them. Very resp.
R. C. HALE, Q. M. G.

Speech of Daniel Dougherty.
Delivered at the Great War Meeting, convened in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on Saturday, July 26.
We are assembled, Americans, to decide whether our country shall live or die; whether we shall be free men or slaves; whether peace shall reign again permanently, or whether it shall become a land of dead men's skulls; whether the fires of freedom shall blaze in beauty until all the earth shall enjoy the perfect day of constitutional liberty, or the eternal night of despotism shall in our time descend upon the world! These are considerations that tower in sublime proportions above all means or thoughts, and will tell the historian whether we are a heroic or degenerate race; whether this is the golden age of our country, or the day that sold and sacrificed when they were saved, the unborn millions of the future.

FROM KENTUCKY.
Reported Occupation of Russellville by the Rebels.—Proclamation by Governor Magoffin Concerning the Legislature.
Louisville, July 29.—It is reported that a party of rebels, under Colonel Gana, of Morgan territory, took Russellville this morning, killing one or two of our Kentuckians and badly wounding several. The rebels, who are reported to be on their way to Paducah, are reported by Henry Loss.

REPORTED OCCUPATION OF RUSSELLVILLE BY THE REBELS.—PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR MAGOFFIN CONCERNING THE LEGISLATURE.
The telegraph line is working south to Nashville, but we can get nothing from Russellville, which is on a branch line, to-night. The theory is that the rebels took away the operators before the arrival of our forces.

opportunity of ascertaining what was going on. These troops came from James Island and eastern Georgia. Among other facts ascertained by the Doctor was that eleven thousand troops were at Chancellorsville waiting transportation to Richmond; that thirty thousand conscripts had been raised in each of the States of Tennessee and Georgia since the 9th of July, and a proportionate number in the extreme Southern States. He heard the adjutant of Col. Goodwin, who commands the post at Salisbury, and who had just come from Richmond, state that the adjutant of General Hill told him that the rebels had one hundred and seventy-three thousand troops engaged in the battle of seven days. Dr. Williams was accompanied by Dr. Stone who was taken prisoner at Bull Run, and who corroborates the statement so far as relates to the movement of troops on their way to Richmond. They passed long trains of empty cars on their way South.

It seems probable that the rebels are every reason to believe that they are, it shows that the rebels are staking their all in this State, by concentrating their forces on the one wheeling force. General McClellan spent the entire day, yesterday, in visiting the different hospitals, and in seeing the wounded and agonizing to the sick and wounded, and seeing that their wants are properly administered to.

has been agreed that they shall furnish supplies for the army at stipulated prices. Some days ago an officer purchased at this Bureau for his use a piece of cloth at two dollars and sixty cents a yard. This Government price, was largely remunerative to the manufacturer; it paid him a considerable profit, and he was satisfied to oblige the Government without grasping for the utmost gains of avarice and extortion. The price of the same style of cloth, manufactured at our doors in Richmond, was inquired at stores on Main street; the reply was, sixteen and eighteen dollars a yard.

The Yankees and the Negroes.
It appears from statements in the northern newspapers that McClellan proposes to employ negroes to perform the hard labor on his fortifications, with a view to the emancipation of the Government and make an important contribution to the war by assisting in the apprehension of deserters and stragglers from the army, by giving information to the authorities of the places of refuge of these creatures, by setting their faces against them, and by driving back to their posts of duty those who have skulked from them and are roaming the country in the dirty and disgraceful uniforms of soldiers. There should be no resting place for the feet of these creatures. Every man and woman in the country is able to do something in pursuing, shaming and driving back to the ranks those who deserted their color and their comrades and turned their backs upon their country's service. Let all ages and sexes in the country assist the Government in reclaiming deserters and stragglers, and in maintaining the integrity of its military ranks. Deserters are retarding our army, defiling its standards, corrupting its spirit and morals, and seriously endangering the fortunes of our cause.

Desertions from the army are already numerous and the country must do what it can to repair the evil. The fact is, however, that we should have heard but little of this military crime and public disgrace to our arms if the Government had had the nerve and the conscience to execute the death penalty in its armies. The men who are responsible for this shameful and alarming frequency of desertions in our armies are Jefferson Davis, George W. Randolph and Robert E. Lee. The crime of desertion is punishable by death, it is so by the Articles of War, the practice of civilized nations, and the dictates of common humanity. It is no time for a markish tenderness to trifle with the destinies of a whole nation. The sentimental suspension of the penalty of death in our army is not only a mistaken leniency, it encourages crime, sacrifices to childish emotion the efficiency of our troops, the safety of our country, the success of our cause, and is a terrible cruelty for which our Government stands responsible in the eyes of God and man.

An instance lately occurred where, in the face of the enemy, and in daily expectation of a great battle at the Richmond lines, a deserter who had been apprehended in the very act of entering the enemy's lines, and sentenced to death by a court-martial, was respited three different times.—The consequence of this weak indulgence was a new crop of deserters; the hesitation of the authorities to execute the law was the signal for new violations of it, and to-day the country is filled with deserters, stragglers, and absentees from the army, who laugh at the terrors of court-martial, and the penalties of having their pay stopped and being advertised in the newspapers for crimes which, by law, custom and necessity, deserve death. The Government has toyed with sentiment enough in this matter. The country is engaged in a death struggle. If we are subjugated there is no parallel to the horrors of our fate, since the ruthless atrocities of Attila and his barbarians in the days of the Crusades, and the heinous crimes of the French Revolution, are striving to wrest from us three-fourths of the Republic, our most sacred localities, the battle-fields of the Revolution, the graves of the immortal dead, the cities built by Northern hands, and sanctified by Northern taste and wealth—aye, the capital, with its unnumbered millions of property, the status of our benefactors, the priceless memorials of the past, the trophies of glorious wars, the heirlooms and archives of the nation. All are exposed to the pollution of the traitor's hand, and with fidelity they are striving to wrest from us three-fourths of the Republic, our most sacred localities, the battle-fields of the Revolution, the graves of the immortal dead, the cities built by Northern hands, and sanctified by Northern taste and wealth—aye, the capital, with its unnumbered millions of property, the status of our benefactors, the priceless memorials of the past, the trophies of glorious wars, the heirlooms and archives of the nation.
